GENERAL

§ 483.101 General statement.

Commodity Credit Corporation (referred to in this subpart as "CCC") pursuant to this subpart will conduct a Wheat Export Program (referred to in this subpart as the "program") under which a person or firm who has exported wheat produced in the United States may apply for payment in the form of a certificate that is redeemable in wheat held in the inventory of CCC. The program is designed to encourage the exportation through normal trade channels of wheat held in private inventories and in CCC stocks in order (a) to maintain and expand the market in friendly countries for United States produced wheat, (b) to obtain the benefits and fulfill the obligations of the United States under the International Wheat Agreement, (c) to aid the price support program by strengthening the domestic market price to producers, (d) to reduce the quantity of wheat which would otherwise be taken into CCC's stocks under its price support program, and (e) to promote the orderly liquidation of CCC stocks. This program will be administered by Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture and information pertaining to the program may be obtained from any CSS Commodity Office listed in § 483.180.

ELIGIBILITY FOR PAYMENT BY CCC

§ 483.105 General conditions of eligibility.

(a) Payment under this program will be made to an exporter, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this subpart, in connection with (1) the net quantity of wheat exported from the United States and (2) the net quantity of wheat shipped to Canada via the Great Lakes if the wheat so shipped to Canada is exported from a Canadian port on the St. Lawrence River. Such exportation must be to a designated country as defined in § 483.187 pursuant to a sale to a foreign buyer for which the exporter received a Notice of Registration from a Contracting Officer of CCC, in accordance with § 483.126. Payment also will be made to an exporter for wheat which was exported prior to sale and for which the exporter has received a Notice of Registration from a Contracting Officer of CCC, subject to the terms and conditions of this subpart, particularly §483.109.

(b) Sales to foreign buyers in countries and territories designated as IWA (see § 483.187) as well as sales to other designated countries may be made under this program. The CCC will determine which sales registered under the program in accordance with § 483.126, are considered eligible for recording under the Wheat Agreement, and will report such sales to the Wheat Council. Final determination of recordability rests with the Wheat Council. An exporter's subsidy rights under this subpart will not be impaired if any transaction is not ultimately recorded by the Wheat Council.

(c) A sale which involves wheat produced outside the United States, or a mixture of wheat which is partly derived from wheat produced outside the United States is not eligible for registration under the program. However, in the event the Director determines that such a mixture is exported unintentionally, payment may be made but only on that portion which it is established to his satisfaction was produced in the United States.

(d) To be eligible for payment under this program, the exporter shall furnish documentary evidence of export, as required in § 483.147, which has not been used, or will not subsequently be used as evidence of export in connection with (1) any other application for wheat export payment under this program, (2) any other export program under which CCC has made or has agreed to make an export allowance, (3) any (other) export program which involves the sale of wheat for export at prices which reflect any export allowance or (4) a CCC barter transaction. Nothing herein shall be construed as precluding exportations of wheat under this program from fulfilling sales under Purchase Authorizations pursuant to Public Law 480 (83d Congress) or Procurement Authorizations pursuant to section 402 of the Mutual Security Act of 1954 (sales involving ICA funds). Documentary evidence of export submitted under § 483.162 in connection with purchases of wheat from CCC may also be submitted to CCC as evidence of export in connection with Applications for Wheat Export Payments.

(e) Sales may be made pursuant to this program to a foreign buyer for shipment to any designated country specified in § 483.187 whether or not such buyer is located in the country of destination. A sale to be eligible for payment must be a bona fide sales transaction with the foreign buyer named in the Declaration of Sale. Brokers or agents of either the seller or the foreign buyer shall not be named as the buyer in the Declaration of Sale.

(f) The foreign buyer may be an affiliate of the U.S. exporter, in which case the sale registered for export payment must be a bona fide sales transaction in which the affiliate is acting in its own behalf as an independent buyer and not on behalf of the exporter. The foreign sale shall not be a "wash sale" or any other type of intercompany transaction which does not result in an actual exportation of wheat against the specific sale on which the export payment rate was based.

(g) Where a sale is made by an exporter to a foreign buyer who simultaneously resells to another foreign buyer, the latter may be the buyer named in the Notice of Sale and Declaration of Sale.

(h) Exportation of wheat by or to a United States Government agency as defined in § 483.195 to or in a designated country shall not qualify as an exportation for the purposes of this program.

§ 483.106 Countries and buyers to which wheat may be exported.

(a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, exports under this program shall be made only to the designated country and buyer named in the Declaration of Sale and the exporter shall not ship, tranship or cause the wheat to be transhipped to any other country.

(b) Shipment shall be made only to the country named in the Declaration of Sale, unless the exporter (1) obtains the written approval of the Director for shipment to a designated country other than the country named in the Declaration of Sale and (2) furnishes a certification to the Director that such shipment is at the request of the buyer named in the Declaration of Sale, such shipment constitutes delivery against the exporter's sale to the foreign buyer on which the export payment is based pursuant to § 483.121 and is not in connection with a different sale, and that the exporter knows of no circumstances with respect to such shipment which would impair the integrity of such sale.

(c) Shipment may be made to a consignee or notify party other than the buyer named in the Declaration of Sale, provided the exporter furnishes a certification to the Director as required in paragraph (b) of this section.

§ 483.107 Date of exportation.

Where the wheat is sold for export in a specified rate period announced by CCC the exportation must be completed before the end of that period in order for the exporter to obtain the export payment rate applicable to that period. Exportation in a different period will be acceptable only if approved in writing by the Director, and such approval may be given subject to such reduction in the export payment (expressed in a rate per bushel) as may be specified by the Director.

§ 483.108 Excess quantities loaded.

Payment will not be made on quantities loaded on vessels, cars, or trucks which are in excess of the contract quantity as shown on the Declaration of Sale plus the contract loading tolerance if one is specified in the contract of sale but in no case more than a tolerance of ten percent, or a one percent tolerance if no loading tolerance is specified in the contract. A new Notice of Sale and Declaration of Sale are required for any additional quantity loaded.

§ 483.109 Wheat exported prior to sale.

(a) In connection with any quantity of wheat exported prior to sale, payments will be made only on that portion thereof which has been reported in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section and only on sales made by the person who actually exports such wheat, and not to a person who buys such wheat after exportation and re-sells it to a designated country.

(b) In order to receive export payment on wheat exported prior to sale the exporter must have reported the exportation of such wheat to the Director not later than seven days after the date of such exportation as defined in § 483.189, unless additional time for reporting is granted in writing by the Director. This report must include the following information:

(1) Date of exportation.
(2) Port of exportation.
(3) Country and port of original destination of wheat.
(4) Name of ocean vessel upon which loaded.
(5) Quantity in bushels.
(6) Class and grade.
(7) The report shall also contain a statement that the vessel contains other wheat sold by the exporter filing the report, as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) Unless otherwise approved in writing by the Director only unsold wheat which is loaded on a vessel which also carries wheat sold by the same exporter under this program, or other export programs of CCC, shall be reported under paragraph (b) of this section, and shall be eligible for export payment when sold. In the case of full cargo shipments the unsold portion shall not exceed one-third of the total cargo. In the case of part cargo lots the unsold portion shall not exceed 2,000 metric tons. The exporter should obtain separate bill or bills of lading for both the unsold and sold quantities of wheat exported.

(d) At such time as the wheat is sold, the exporter shall report the sale to the Director as provided in § 483.125, and shall submit all other reports and documents as required by this subpart. In reporting the sale the exporter must state that the wheat sold was reported to the Director, as provided in paragraph (b) of this section. This may be done by the use of the code word "Abroad".

(e) The export rate applicable to such sale shall be that rate in effect at time of sale, or time of giving Notice of Sale, whichever is the lower, for the export rate period current at that time which applies (1) to the port from which the wheat was exported, and (2) to the country shown in the Declaration of Sale.

Export Payment Rates and Announcements

§ 483.120 Announcement of rates.

Export payment rates will be announced from Washington, D.C., daily or at intervals of up to 7 days. Rates will be released at approximately 3:31 p.m., e.s.t. (see § 483.199), and will remain in effect through 3:30 p.m., e.s.t., on the expiration date stated in the announcement at which time a new announcement will be made. No rates will be announced on Saturday, and rates effective at 3:31 p.m., e.s.t., on Friday will be in effect through 3:30 p.m., e.s.t., of the market day succeeding Saturday unless the announcement specifically provides otherwise. Announcements will be available through the press, ticker service, Commodity Stabilization Service Offices at Portland (Oregon), Minneapolis, Kansas City (Missouri), Dallas, Evanston (Illinois), and through representatives of the Office of the General Sales Manager, CSS, located at San Francisco and New York. Different rates of payment for separate coasts or ports, various classes of wheat, destinations, periods of exportation, etc., may be announced simultaneously.

§ 483.121 Determination of rates.

The rate in effect at the time of sale to the foreign buyer or the time of filing Notice of Sale as required by § 483.125 (a), whichever rate is the lower, shall be the rate applicable to the sale. The supporting evidence of sale submitted by the exporter in form prescribed in § 483.127 (d), will be the basis for determining the time of sale. Some of the factors which are determinative of such time of sale, for the purpose of this program, are as follows:

(a) Time of the exporter's filing a cablegram or mailing a written acceptance of a definite offer to purchase received from the foreign buyer.

(b) Time of receipt by the exporter of a cablegram or other written acceptance from the foreign buyer of a definite offer by the exporter to sell or the time of receipt by the exporter of a cablegram or other written notification from his agent that the foreign buyer has accepted a definite offer by the exporter to sell.

(c) Time of filing by the exporter of a cablegram or time of mailing of a written confirmation by the exporter of the booking of a shipment or shipments to be made pursuant to a standing order of the buyer to purchase. It must be clear from the evidence, however, that the exporter has the right under the terms of the standing order to create a firm contract of sale by issuing a confirmation. For example, if he is authorized to confirm the sale at a price which may be established at his option, the evidence must show that such is the understanding between buyer and seller, otherwise it will be necessary for the buyer also to confirm the price, and receipt of the buyer's confirmation will establish the time of sale.

(d) A sale shall not be considered as made until the purchase price has been established, and time of sale shall be the earliest time the exporter has knowledge that a firm contract exists with the foreign buyer on which a firm dollar and cent price has been established pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section. Any contract provisions which entail provisional, or basic or maximum or minimum prices to be adjusted at a future date, may affect the time of sale for purposes of this subpart. For example, a contract will be considered to have a firm dollar and cent price if it contains a maximum price which can be reduced only at the seller's option or a minimum price which can be increased only at the buyer's option.

(e) If export is wholly by truck or rail and a firm contract exists at a firm dollar and cent price but the time of sale cannot be determined on the basis of the factors set forth in this section, or by any other means, the sale will be deemed to have been made at the time of issuance of the inland bill of lading, or if none is issued, at the time of clearance through United States Customs. If export is by ocean carrier and time of sale cannot be determined under other provisions of this section, the sale will be deemed to have been made at the time of issuance of ocean carrier bill of lading, or if none is issued, at the time the wheat is loaded on board ocean carrier.

(f) If the time of day at which the sale was made is not established and two payment rates are in effect on the day the sale was entered into, the time of sale will be deemed to occur at the time the lower of the two rates was in effect.

(g) If a sale is made through an intermediary, for purposes of determination of the applicable export payment rate, no substantially greater lapse of time for concluding the sales transaction may be recognized than would have elapsed had the exporter been dealing directly with the foreign buyer.

(h) In any unusual cases involving factors other than those enumerated above, an exporter should make a written request for a determination in writing from the Director in advance of making the sale as to the effect of such factors on the time of sale.

Registration of Sales

§ 483.125 Notice of Sale.

(a) Time. (1) The exporter shall file a Notice of Sale as soon as possible after the date of the sale.

(2) Notices of Sale should normally be filed by telegraph, although telephone may be used. Telephoned notices should be confirmed immediately by telegraph.

(3) In order for the exporter to be assured of the current rate of payment, the telegram reporting the sale must be filed by 3:30 p.m., e.s.t. (or the telephone call must be made by that time), of the expiration date for such rate as shown in the rate announcement.

(4) The time of filing the Notice of Sale is considered to be as follows:

(i) In the case of a postal notice, the time which appears on the postmark on the envelope;

(ii) In the case of a telephonic notice, the time transmission of the telephonic message to CCC begins;

(iii) In the case of a telegraphic notice, the time transmission of the message to the telegraph company begins. CCC will accept as evidence of the time of filing a telegraphic Notice of Sale the time which appears on such notice. However, CCC will give consideration to any other corroborative evidence submitted by the exporter to support an earlier filing time. If the time of filing the Notice of Sale cannot be established and two rates are in effect on the day of filing, the time of filing the Notice of Sale will be deemed to be at the time the lower of the two rates was in effect.

(b) Information required. In giving Notice of Sale the exporter must report the following information:

(1) Date of sale.
(2) The Purchase Authorization Number, if a sale under Public Law 480 (83d Congress) or the Procurement Authorization Number if a sale under section 402 of the Mutual Security Act of 1954 (sales involving ICA funds).
(3) Contract quantity in bushels and the contract loading tolerance, if any, in percentage, but not in excess of 10 percent.
(4) The sale price must be shown on an f.o.b. vessel bulk basis, except that on exports from West Coast ports the price may be given on an instore basis. The f.o.b. or the instore price shown should include all charges and commissions necessary to the sale and moving of the wheat to the f.o.b. or the instore position. For example, a selling agent's commission would be included, whereas guaranteed outturn insurance would not be included.
(5) Coast of export.
(6) Country of destination.
(7) Name of purchaser. (Where the sale involves more than one purchaser, the Notice of Sale should contain the name of one purchaser and the word "others.")
(8) Delivery period specified in contract.
(9) Class and grade of wheat, and protein content when protein is specified in contract.
(10) If under subparagraph (5) of this paragraph, more than one coast of export is shown, indicate the CSS Commodity Office (Evanston, Dallas or Portland), to which the exporter will submit Application for Wheat Export Payment.
(11) The Word "Abroad" for wheat exported prior to sale. (See § 483.109 (d).)
(12) Such additional information in individual cases as may be requested by the Director.

§ 483.126 Notice of Registration.

(a) Upon receipt of the Notice of Sale, a Contracting Officer of CCC will issue a Notice of Registration by telegram unless he determines that to do so would not be in the best interests of the program. A Notice of Registration is a condition precedent to the exporter receiving payment under this subpart. Accordingly, before concluding a transaction it may be to the exporter's advantage in instances involving sales of an unusual nature to ascertain from the office indicated in § 483.178 whether the sale may be registered, or to condition his sales contract upon his receiving a Notice of Registration under this subpart.

(b) In the telegram of registration, the Contracting Officer may utilize the code letters "PIK" to indicate "Registered for Payment in Kind."

(c) Each Notice of Registration will include a registration number which shall be shown on the Declaration of Sale (see § 483.127), and on the Application for Wheat Export Payment, CCC

Form 357, and in all correspondence with reference to the transaction.

§ 483.127 Declaration of Sale and evidence of sale.

(a) Time of submission and required copies.

(1) The exporter shall prepare a Declaration of Sale (CCC Form No. 359), and mail or deliver it normally within two days after receipt of CCC's Notice of Registration. (See § 483.178.)

(2) The Declaration of Sale must be submitted in an original and three copies all of which shall be signed in an original signature by the exporter or his authorized representative. One copy of the Declaration of Sale will be acknowledged and returned to the exporter.

(3) Only one Declaration of Sale normally should be submitted by the exporter for each sale identified by a Registration Number assigned in the Notice of Registration (see § 483.126(c)), although this is not mandatory. If more than one Declaration of Sale is submitted, the letters A, B, C, etc., shall be added to Registration Numbers on the respective declarations.

(b) Information required. The information to be entered on the Declaration of Sale, is as follows:

(1) The Registration Number.

(2) The Purchase Authorization Number, if a sale under Public Law 480 (83d Congress) or the Procurement Authorization Number if a sale under section 402 of the Mutual Security Act of 1954 (sales involving ICA funds).

(3) Date and time of sale and of filing Notice of Sale.

(4) Name of purchaser, or purchasers.

(5) Contract quantity in bushels, and if the contract provides for a loading tolerance, the amount of such tolerance in percentage but not to exceed 10 percent.

(6) Country of destination.

(7) Delivery period specified in the contract.

(8) Class and grade of wheat, and protein content when specified in the contract.

(9) The sales price in the case of bulk wheat must be given on an f.o.b. vessel, bulk basis, on exports from Gulf and East Coast ports and on an instore, or f.o.b. vessel, bulk basis, on exports from West Coast ports. The f.o.b. or the instore price shown should include all charges and commissions necessary to the sale and the moving of the wheat to the f.o.b. or the instore position. For example, a selling agent's commission would be included, whereas guaranteed outturn insurance would not be included.

(10) Export rate per bushel of wheat in effect as determined by § 483.121.

(11) Coastal area from which it is anticipated exportation will be made.

(12) CSS Commodity Office to which Application for Wheat Export Payment will be submitted.

(13) Where the exporter intends to ship, tranship, or cause wheat to be shipped or transhipped to one or more of the countries or areas identified in § 483.167(b) (1) and (2), the license issued by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, U.S. Department of Commerce, for such movement, shall be identified. With respect to any such movement to Hong Kong or Macao not requiring a specific license, the exporter shall state that a specific license is not required.

(14) Such additional information in individual cases as may be requested by the Director.

(c) Name in which filed. The Declaration of Sale must be filed in the name of the exporter who sold the wheat to a foreign buyer. If the sale is made under a trade name, the Declaration of Sale may be filed under such name provided the name of the actual exporter and the relationship between the two is clearly established by an appropriate signature on the Declaration of Sale and all related documents, such as:

American Grain Company
(Trade Name)
U.S. Grain Company
[s] John Smith, Secretary

(d) Evidence of sale. Supporting evidence of sale, in one copy only, must be filed with each Declaration of Sale. Such evidence may be in the form of certified true copies of offer and acceptance or other documentary evidence of sale including contracts between exporter and buyer. In transactions involving an intermediate party (see § 483.121(g)) the evidence required is certified true copies of all documents evidencing the sales which are exchanged between the exporter, the intermediate party and the buyer shown in the Declaration of Sale, provided such evidence includes all information required under paragraph (b) of this section, and any additional documentation specifically requested by the Director.

OBLIGATION AND DEFAULT

§ 483.140 Exporter's Agreement with CCC.

The Notice of Sale by the exporter and the Notice of Registration shall constitute an agreement by the exporter to export the quantity of wheat to which such notices relate in accordance with the provisions of this subpart, in consideration of the undertaking of CCC to make an export payment, subject to the terms and conditions of this subpart.

§ 483.141 Cancellation of sale or failure to export.

(a) The exporter shall notify the Director promptly in every case where he is not able to fulfill his obligation under § 483.140 of this subpart because of (1) cancellation of a sale, (2) failure to export, (3) the re-entry into Canada or the United States, Alaska, Hawaii or Puerto Rico of wheat previously exported, or (4) failure to discharge fully any other obligation assumed by him under the program, and must state the reasons therefor.

(b) If the Vice President after affording an exporter the opportunity to present evidence determines that the exporter has cancelled the sale, or failed to export, or failed to discharge fully any other obligation assumed by him under the program, the exporter shall pay on demand any damages resulting from his failure to discharge his obligation to CCC, and the exporter may be denied the right to continue participating in this program or in any other program of CCC for such period as the Vice President may determine and until the exporter has complied with such other terms and conditions as the Vice President may prescribe, unless the exporter establishes to the satisfaction of the Vice President that his failure to discharge his obligations under the program was not due to his fault or negligence.

(c) If any quantity of wheat exported pursuant to the exporter's contract with CCC is re-entered into Canada or the United States, Alaska, Hawaii, or Puerto Rico, whether or not such re-entry is caused by the exporter, or if any wheat is transhipped or caused to be transhipped by the exporter to any country that is not a designated country, the exporter shall be in default, shall refund any payment received and shall comply with the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section, unless he establishes to the satisfaction of CCC with respect to any re-entry that (1) the re-entry was not due to his fault or negligence and promptly after he received notice of re-entry he exported to any designated country the wheat required to be exported under his contract with CCC or (2) the wheat re-entered was lost, damaged or destroyed and the physical condition is such that its re-entry into the United States will not impair CCC's price support program.

WHEAT EXPORT PAYMENT CERTIFICATE

§ 483.145 Application for Wheat Export Payment.

An original and two (2) copies of Application for Wheat Export Payment, CCC Form 357, must be prepared and submitted together with the evidence of exportation, as provided in § 483.147, to the CSS Commodity Office shown on the acknowledged copy of the Declaration of Sale which is returned to the exporter. The exporter should submit the application as soon as possible after exportation as the face value of the certificate is subject to discount as provided in § 483.146(b). Supplies of CCC Form 357 and detailed instructions regarding the preparation and submission of the form may be obtained from the CSS Commodity Offices in Evanston, Dallas and Portland (Oregon).

§ 483.146 Description of Certificate.

Upon receipt of an Application for Wheat Export Payment (CCC Form 357) the CSS Commodity Office will determine the amount of payment due and issue to the exporter a Wheat Export Payment Certificate (CCC Form 358) for the amount due. Such Certificate is described in this section and will be subject to the provisions embodied in the Certificate and the applicable provisions in this subpart.

(a) Payee. Except as provided in § 483.176, the Certificate will be issued only to the exporter who has filed a Declaration of Sale and has obtained the Registration Number which shall be shown in the space provided in the Certificate.

(b) Face value. The amount shown in the space provided for the face value of the Certificate will be the amount obtained by multiplying the number of net bushels of wheat exported by the applicable export payment rate. Certificates will be accepted at face value if applied to the purchase of wheat under contracts with CCC which specify a date of sale not more than 60 days after the date of export shown on the certificate. If a certificate is applied to the purchase of wheat under a contract with CCC which specifies a date of sale more than 60 days after the date of export shown on the certificate, the value at which the certificate will be accepted will be the face value reduced by 1/50 of one percent for each day beginning on the 61st day after such date of export and ending on the date of sale specified in the CCC contract to which it is applied.

(c) Date of export. The date of export shown on the Certificate will be the date of export as defined in § 483.189, which shall be deemed to be the date on which the export payment was earned.

(d) General provisions. The Wheat Export Payment Certificate will be redeemable in wheat which Commodity Credit Corporation makes available from its stocks for sale under this program. The certificate may be presented to the Dallas, Evanston, Kansas City, Minneapolis, or Portland offices of Commodity Stabilization Service, as provided in § 483.155, for wheat handled by the Office to which submitted. The certificate may be transferred by endorsement subject to all terms, conditions, and restrictions contained in § 483.146 and in the sections from § 483.155 through § 483.199 inclusive, applicable to the person or firm to whom it was originally issued.

§ 483.17 Documents required as evidence of export.

Each Application for Wheat Export Payment (CCC Form 357) must be supported by the following documentary evidence, as applicable:

(a) If export is by water, a nonnegotiable copy or photostat of the on-board-ship bill of lading issued at point of export certified by the exporter as true and correct and signed by an agent of the ocean carrier. The bill of lading must show the Registration Number assigned by CCC (see § 483.126) in the case of sales to European countries, the name of the vessel, the date and place of issuance, the weight of the wheat, the number or description of the hold or tank in which the wheat was stowed, the designated country to which the wheat was shipped, and the Purchase Authorization Number if exported under Public Law 480 (83d Congress) or the Procurement Authorization Number if exported under Section 402 of the Mutual Security Act of 1954 (sales involving ICA funds). Where loss, destruction or damage to the wheat occurs subsequent to loading aboard the ocean carrier but prior to issuance of the on-board-ship bill of lading, one copy of a loading tally sheet or acceptable similar document may be substituted for the ocean bill of lading. If the country of destination shown on the ocean bill of lading differs from that shown on the Declaration of Sale or the country of destination approved by the Director pursuant to § 483.106, the exporter shall also furnish one copy of the Shipper's Export Declaration, authenticated by the appropriate United States Custom official, showing that the country of destination is, in fact, the country to which the wheat is required to be exported.

(b) If exportation is by rail or truck, one copy of the Shipper's Export Declaration, authenticated by the appropriate United States Custom official, which identifies the shipment(s), the date of clearance into the foreign country and the weight of the wheat.

(c) A copy of an official loading weight certificate as defined in § 483.193 applicable to the wheat described in the on-board-ship bill of lading issued at point of export, or Shipper's Export Declaration and showing (1) date and place of issuance, and (2) name of vessel, and description of hold or tank in which the wheat was stowed, or where exportation is by rail-car or truck, description of such rail-car or truck. In the case of bagged wheat, the official loading weight certificate and the bill of lading or Shipper's Export Declaration shall contain the gross weight of the wheat and either the tare or the number of bags and an acceptable certification as to the weight of the bags.

(d) A copy of a grain inspection certificate issued at the point of export applicable to the wheat described in the on-board-ship bill of lading or Shipper's Export Declaration and showing (1) the date and place of issuance, (2) quantity of wheat, and (3) name of vessel and description of the hold or tank in which the wheat was stowed, or where exportation is by rail-car or truck, a description of such rail-car or truck in which exported. The grain inspection certificate shall be issued by an inspector licensed or authorized under the United States Grain Standards Act or the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 and shall show the grade of the wheat determined in accordance with the Official Grain Standards of the United States. If the certificate shows mixed wheat it will be necessary for the grade designation to show the approximate percentage of each class of wheat which constitutes more than 10 percent of the mixture.

(e) In the event of exportation from a point in Canada, (1) the bill of lading and other documentary evidence covering the movement of the wheat from the United States to the export vessel described in the on-board-ship bill of lading issued at the point of export, (2) a certification by the exporter that the wheat exported was produced in the United States, and (3) a copy of an official loading weight certificate and of a grain inspection certificate issued by an inspector licensed under the United States Grain Standards Act applicable to the grain shipped from the United States and showing date and place of issuance, name of vessel and description of hold or tank in which wheat was stowed.

(f) Where for good cause, the exporter establishes that he is unable to supply documentary evidence of export as specified in the above provisions of this section, CCC may accept such other evidence of export as will establish to the satisfaction of the Vice President, that the exporter has fully complied with his obligations to export.

(g) If the shipper or consignor named in the on-board bill(s) of lading or the Shipper's Export Declaration(s), is other than the exporter named in the Notice of Sale and Declaration of Sale, waiver by such shipper or consignor of any interest in the application for payment in favor of such exporter is required. Such waiver must clearly identify the on-board bill(s) of lading or Shipper's Export Declaration(s) submitted to evidence export.

(h) Where exportation of the wheat has been made by anyone or transhipment made or caused by the exporter to one or more countries or areas identified in § 483.187(b) (1) and (2), the bills of lading or other pertinent documentary evidence required to be furnished to CCC shall identify the license by number issued by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, United States Department of Commerce, for such movement. With respect to any such movement to Hong Kong or Macao not requiring a specified license, the required documentary evidence shall contain a statement by the exporter that a specific license was not required.

(i) In case a single bill of lading or other documentary evidence of export covers more than the net quantity of wheat which is applied against the exporter's agreement with CCC, and such documentary evidence of export is to be used as evidence of export of such excess quantity in connection with a different contract with CCC under this program or under any other export program of CCC pursuant to which CCC has paid or agreed to pay an export allowance, each copy of such documentary evidence of export submitted pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall be accompanied by a statement certified by the exporter identifying all contracts with CCC to which the documentary evidence of export has been or will be applied and the quantity applicable to each contract.

(j) If the export shipment is made by vessel, plane, truck or other carrier, operated by a United States Government agency, then in lieu of the bill of lading or Shipper's Export Declaration provided for in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, the exporter may submit a certificate issued by an authorized official or employee of such agency showing the date of shipment(s), type of carrier used, identification of the commodity, the quantity, the export destination, a certification by the exporter that shipment is not by or to a U.S. Government agency, and such other information required in paragraph (a) of this section as may be applicable hereto.

REDEMPTION OF WHEAT EXPORT CERTIFICATE

§ 483.155 Submission of offers.

Offers to purchase CCC wheat with certificates may be submitted by letter, telegram, or orally to any CSS Commodity Office from which the exporter desires delivery. The offerer must specify the class, grade, quality and quantity desired, and the desired point of delivery. CCC reserves the right to determine the classes, grades, qualities and quantities and point of delivery for which offers will be considered, and to reject any offer.

§ 483.156 Creation of contracts.

Preliminary negotiations for purchase of wheat under this subpart shall be confirmed by written Confirmation of Sale which shall be issued by the CSS Commodity Office in duplicate. One copy shall be signed and returned by the exporter whose offer to purchase wheat is accepted by CCC. Such exporter is hereinafter called "the purchaser." The Confirmation of Sale, together with the terms and conditions of this subpart and any amendments in effect on the date of sale, shall constitute the sales contract. Any provision of prior negotiations not contained in the Confirmation of Sale shall be of no effect. The term "date of sale," as used in §§ 483.155 to 483.165, inclusive, shall mean the date that the parties concluded their preliminary negotiations, and such date will be specified in the Confirmation of Sale.

The price shall be basis f.o.b. vessel, instore, or track at port or other point of export (without export allowance) as determined by CCC and shall be specified in the Confirmation of Sale.

§ 483.158 Payment terms and financial arrangements.

(a) The amount due CCC for wheat purchased hereunder shall be paid by the purchaser by surrender to CCC of properly endorsed certificate(s). If certificates having a value in excess of the purchase price are surrendered by the purchaser to CCC, the certificates having the earliest dates of export shall be applied first to the purchase and any certificates not applied shall be returned to the purchaser. If the value of certificates applied to the purchase exceeds the purchase price, such excess will be adjusted by issuance and delivery to the purchaser of a balance certificate which may be used on a subsequent purchase from CCC. The date of export shown on the balance certificate will be the date shown on the original certificate, or if more than one certificate is applied to the purchase, the date of export shown on the balance certificate will be the latest date of export shown on a certificate applied to the purchase. The face value of the balance certificate will be determined by deducting from the face value of certificates surrendered to CCC, the purchase price of the wheat and any discount applicable to the portion of the certificates being applied to the purchase as provided in § 483.146(b).

(b) Financial arrangements covering the purchase price specified in the Confirmation of Sale of any wheat purchased from CCC hereunder shall be made prior to delivery of the wheat by CCC in one (or a combination) of the following ways:

(1) Surrender to the appropriate CSS Commodity Office of certificate(s) sufficient to pay for the wheat.

(2) If a purchaser desires delivery prior to receipt by CCC of certificates, he may make payment in cash, certified check, or cashier's check for the wheat to be delivered, or if delivery is to be made in store, he may request that CCC draw a sight draft on him through a named bank with warehouse receipts attached or request that CCC surrender the warehouse receipts to him in a simultaneous exchange for an acceptable remittance delivered at the CSS Commodity Office. To the extent that acceptable certificates are received by CCC within 90 days after delivery of the wheat to the purchaser, CCC shall promptly make refund of funds received.

(3) If a purchaser desires delivery prior to receipt by CCC of certificates, he may establish an irrevocable commercial letter of credit acceptable to CCC for an amount equivalent to the total amount of the purchase price of the wheat plus interest thereon for 60 days, against which CCC will not draw to the extent that the purchaser pays to CCC the purchase price of the wheat and any applicable interest promptly upon presentation of invoices or prior to invoicing by CCC. To the extent that such payment is not made, CCC will draw drafts under the letter of credit for the amount remaining unpaid, supported by a statement specifying the amount due. When financial arrangements are made in this manner, the following shall apply:

(i) The letter of credit shall have an effective period of at least 60 days from the final date for delivery of the wheat to the purchaser as specified in the Confirmation of Sale. If a single letter of credit is used for this purpose as well as for the upward adjustment in price required under paragraph (c), the effective period shall be 150 days from the final date for delivery.

(ii) Interest on the purchase price of the wheat shall be paid in cash for the period from the date of delivery of the wheat to the date CCC receives acceptable certificates or cash or, in the case of payments against sight drafts drawn by CCC the date CCC estimates the draft will be paid. The rate of interest will be the rate in effect on the date of sale as announced in the CCC Monthly Sales List for sales made under the CCC credit sales program for periods up to 6 months. The interest shall be included in the amount of sight drafts drawn by CCC.

(iii) Unless otherwise requested by the purchaser, CCC shall, promptly after receiving cash for application on the purchase price and/or interest, or acceptable certificates for application on the purchase price, notify the bank which issued or confirmed the letter of credit that CCC consents to a reduction of such letter of credit in an amount equivalent to the amount of cash or acceptable certificates received.

(iv) To the extent acceptable certificates are received by CCC within 90 days after delivery of the wheat to the purchaser, CCC shall promptly make refund of any funds received representing the purchase price of the grain (but not any interest).

(c) The amount of the upward adjustment in price which is provided in § 483.163 for failure to submit certificates within 90 days after delivery shall be computed as of the date of sale, and shall be specified in the Confirmation of Sale. Financial arrangements for such price adjustments shall be made in one of the following ways:

(1) Payment in cash, certified check, or cashier's check or

(2) Establishment of an irrevocable commercial letter of credit acceptable to CCC which shall have an effective period of at least 150 days from the date for delivery specified in the Confirmation of Sale and upon which CCC will draw drafts for the amount of the upward adjustment in price resulting from such failure to submit certificates within 90 days after delivery,

Supported by a statement specifying the amount due CCC. Promptly after CCC receives acceptable certificates in payment of the wheat purchased as provided in paragraph (b) (2) or (3) of this section, CCC shall notify the bank which issued or confirmed the letter of credit that CCC consents to a reduction of such letter of credit, unless otherwise requested by the purchaser, or shall make refund to the purchaser of funds received. Any such reduction or refund shall be in an amount equivalent to the purchaser's financial coverage under this subsection related to the quantity for which payment has been received in the form of acceptable certificates by CCC.

(d) The financial arrangements provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section shall be made:

(1) Prior to delivery of the wheat by CCC on purchases which provide for delivery within 5 days following the date of the sale, and,

(2) On all other purchases, not less than 5 days prior to delivery of the wheat by CCC, unless CCC consents in writing to a different period.

(e) If the purchaser fails to make a financial arrangement acceptable to CCC in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section, CCC shall have the right to deem the purchaser in default and may avail itself of any remedy available to an unpaid seller. The purchaser shall be liable to CCC for any loss or damages resulting from such default.

§ 483.159 Delivery.

(a) The method, time, and place of delivery will be as specified in the Confirmation of Sale.

(b) If the wheat is to be delivered instore, delivery shall be accomplished by delivery to the purchaser of endorsed warehouse receipts, or other evidence of title. Delivery may be made by posting warehouse receipts in the mail. In the case of instore delivery the terms of continued storage thereafter shall be for determination between the purchaser and warehouseman.

(c) If the wheat is to be delivered other than instore, the details thereof shall be specified in the Confirmation of Sale.

(d) Title and risk of loss and damage shall pass to the purchaser upon delivery. All charges thereafter accruing, including warehouse and loading-out charges, in the case of instore delivery, shall be for the account of the purchaser: Provided, That if delivery is not made within 30 days after the date of sale, the purchaser shall make cash settlement with CCC for warehouse charges on the wheat not delivered, at the rate specified in the Confirmation of Sale for the period beginning on the 31st day to and including the final date for delivery specified in the Confirmation of Sale or any written extension thereof: Provided further, That the purchaser shall not be responsible for such charges accruing after such 30-day period as a result of delay on the part of CCC in making delivery which is not attributable to the fault of the purchaser.

(e) If on deliveries other than instore the purchaser fails to take delivery of the wheat within the delivery period specified in the Confirmation of Sale, or any written extension thereof, CCC may at its option deliver the wheat instore in a warehouse of its choice by delivery of endorsed warehouse receipts, or CCC shall have the right to deem the purchaser in default and the purchaser shall be liable to CCC for any loss or damages resulting from such default.

(a) If the wheat is to be delivered instore, CCC shall deliver warehouse receipts, or other evidence of title, representing the kind of wheat and the quantity, class, grade and/or quality stated in the Confirmation of Sale, and CCC shall have no responsibility in the event of failure of the warehouseman to deliver in accordance with the warehouse receipts or other evidence of title.

(b) If the wheat is to be delivered other than instore, the kind of wheat and the quantity, class, grade and/or quality delivered shall be that stated in the Confirmation of Sale. Determinations as to the class, grade, and/or quality of the wheat delivered shall be made on the basis of official inspection at point of delivery, unless otherwise specified in the Confirmation of Sale. The method of determining the quantity delivered shall be as stated in the Confirmation of Sale. If the wheat delivered is within the quality tolerance, if any, specified in the Confirmation of Sale, such delivery shall be accepted by the purchaser. If the wheat delivered is not within the quality tolerance, if any, specified in the Confirmation of Sale, the wheat may be rejected by the purchaser at the time of delivery or accepted subject to an adjustment in price for grade and quality difference in accordance with current market premiums and discounts, as determined by CCC. In case of rejection, CCC shall, upon request of the purchaser, replace such rejected quantity. The purchaser may reject any overdeliveries in quantity. Overdeliveries in quantity accepted by the purchaser shall be settled for at the contract price unless a different price has been agreed to between CCC and the purchaser. In case of underdeliveries a balance certificate shall be issued by CCC, or if other financial arrangements were furnished, the value of certificates the purchaser is required to surrender will be reduced. In the case of overdeliveries the purchaser shall tender cash or certificates to CCC. If the value of wheat delivered exceeds the value of certificates surrendered by $3.00 or less, no adjustment will be necessary. If the value of certificates surrendered exceeds the value of wheat delivered by $3.00 or less, a balance certificate will not be issued unless requested.

§ 483.161 Export requirements.

(a) The purchaser shall, on or after the date of sale and within 60 days after delivery of the wheat to him or within such extension of that period as may for good cause be approved by the Vice President in writing cause exportation to a designated country of wheat equal in quantity to and of the same class as the wheat delivered by CCC. In the case of delivery of wheat to the purchaser at a Great Lakes port, if exportation takes place other than from the place of delivery by CCC, the purchaser must within such 60-day period, or within such extension of that period as may for good cause be approved by the Vice President in writing, ship from the place of delivery by CCC to any export point not on the Great Lakes, wheat equal in quantity and of the same class as the wheat delivered by CCC. Wheat so shipped shall not be unloaded at any Lake Michigan or Lake Superior port. The requirement that wheat of the same class be exported or shipped may be satisfied by exporting or shipping a quantity of mixed wheat which contains, as evidenced by the applicable Grain Inspection Certificate, wheat at least equal in quantity and of the same class as that delivery by CCC. The wheat exported shall not be re-entered by anyone into the United States, Alaska, Hawaii or Puerto Rico, nor shall the purchaser cause the wheat exported to be transshipped to any country excluded by § 483.187.

(b) Except as provided in § 483.162(g), the purchaser shall, within 30 days after exportation, furnish to the CSS Commodity Office evidence of such exportation, as required in § 483.162. Failure of the purchaser to furnish CCC proof of exportation within 90 days after delivery of the wheat to him, or in the case of extension of the time for export, within 30 days from the last date specified for exportation under such extension, shall constitute prima facie evidence of failure to export. Documents supporting an Application for Wheat Export Payment on the wheat exported will be accepted as evidence of export of wheat purchased from CCC if they satisfy the requirements specified in § 483.162, and the Application for Wheat Export Payment is accompanied by a letter in duplicate specifying the documents which are submitted as evidence of export and the CCC sales contract number to which they relate.

Evidence of export shall consist of the following documentation, as applicable:

(a) If export is by water, a non-negotiable copy or photostat of the on-board-ship bill of lading certified by the exporter as true and correct and signed by an agent of the ocean carrier. The bill of lading must show the registration number assigned by CCC (see § 483.126) in the case of sales to European countries, the name of the vessel, the date and place of issuance, the weight of the wheat, the number or description of the hold or tank in which the wheat was stowed, the designated country to which the wheat was shipped, and the CCC sales contract number. Where loss, destruction or damage to the wheat occurs subsequent to loading aboard the ocean carrier but prior to issuance of the on-board-ship bill of lading, one copy of a loading tally sheet or acceptable similar document may be substituted for the ocean bill of lading.

(b) If export is by rail or truck, one unauthenticated copy of Shipper's Export Declaration (or photostat copy of an unauthenticated copy) which identifies the shipment(s), the date of clearance into the foreign country, the weight of the wheat, and the CCC sales contract number. The unauthenticated copy, or photostat copy, shall bear the following statement certified by the purchaser:

> The authenticated copy of this Shipper's Export Declaration was forwarded to (name of the CSS Commodity Office) with application for Wheat Export Payment under Registration No. _____.

(c) A copy of an official loading weight certificate as defined in § 483.193 applicable to the wheat described in the on-board-ship bill of lading or Shipper's Export Declaration and showing (1) date and place of issuance, and (2) name of vessel, and description of hold or tank in which wheat was stowed, or where exportation is by rail-car or truck, description of such rail-car or truck. In the case of bagged wheat, the official loading weight certificate and the bill of lading or Shipper's Export Declaration shall contain the gross weight of the wheat, and either the tare or the number of bags and an acceptable certification as to the weight of the bags.

(d) A copy of a grain inspection certificate issued at the point of export applicable to the wheat described in the on-board-ship bill of lading or Shipper's Export Declaration and showing (1) the date and place of issuance, (2) quantity of wheat, and (3) name of vessel and description of the hold or tank in which wheat was stowed, or where exportation is by rail-car or truck, a description of such rail-car or truck. The grain inspection certificate shall be issued by an inspector licensed or authorized under the United States Grain Standards Act or the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 and shall show the grade of the wheat determined in accordance with the Official Grain Standards of the United States. If the certificate shows mixed wheat it will be necessary for the grade designation to show the approximate percentage of each class of wheat which constitutes more than 10 percent of the mixture.

(e) In the event of exportation from a point in Canada, (1) the bill of lading and other documentary evidence covering the movement of wheat from the United States to the export vessel described in the bill of lading issued at the point of export, (2) a certification by the exporter that the wheat exported was produced in the United States, and (3) a copy of an official loading weight certificate and of a grain inspection certificate issued by an inspector licensed under the United States Grain Standards Act applicable to the grain shipped from the United States and showing date and place of issuance, name of vessel and description of hold or tank in which wheat was stowed.

(f) If the wheat is delivered by CCC at a Great Lakes port and if exportation takes place other than from the place of delivery by CCC, the exporter must, in conformance with the requirement in § 483.161(a) submit a non-negotiable copy(s) of the applicable bill(s) of lading showing the shipment of wheat of the required quantity and kind, from the place of delivery by CCC to an export point not on the Great Lakes. This evidence of shipment must be accompanied by an affidavit of the exporter that the wheat represented by such bill(s) of lading was not unloaded at a point other than the destination indicated on the evidence of shipment. The affidavit must also affirm that the bill(s) of lading submitted therewith has not or will not be used in any other instance as proof of such movement pursuant to a similar requirement except as provided in § 483.162(i). Such evidence shall be submitted in the time required by § 483.161(b) or within such extension of that time as may be approved by CCC in writing.

(g) Where for good cause, the exporter establishes that he is unable to supply documentary evidence of export as specified in the above provisions of this section, CCC may accept such other evidence of export as will establish to the satisfaction of the Vice President that the exporter has fully complied with his obligations to export.

(h) Where exportation of the wheat has been made by anyone or transshipment made or caused by the exporter to one or more of the countries or areas identified in § 483.187(b) (1) and (2), the bills of lading or other pertinent documentary evidence required to be furnished to CCC shall identify the license by number issued by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, U.S. Department of Commerce, for such movement. With respect to any such movement to Hong Kong or Macao not requiring a specified license, the required documentary evidence shall contain a statement by the purchaser that a specific license was not required.

(i) In case a single bill of lading or other documentary evidence of export covers more than the net quantity of wheat which is applied against any one contract with CCC and such documentary evidence of export is to be used as evidence of export of such excess quantity in connection with a different contract with CCC under any export program of CCC pursuant to which CCC has paid or agreed to pay an export allowance or has sold grain at prices which reflect any export allowance, each copy of such documentary evidence of export submitted pursuant to this section shall be accompanied by a statement certified by the exporter identifying all contracts with CCC to which this documentary evidence of export has been or will be applied and the quantity applicable to each contract.

(j) If the export shipment is made by vessel, plane, truck or other carrier, operated by a Government agency, then in lieu of the bill of lading or Shipper's Export Declaration provided for in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, the exporter may submit a certificate issued by an authorized official or employee of such agency showing the date of shipment(s), type of carrier used, identification of the commodity, the quantity, and the export destination and a certification by the exporter that shipment is not by or to a U.S. Government agency, and such other information required in paragraph (a) of this section as may be applicable hereto.

(a) Sales of wheat under this announcement are made at prices below the statutory minimum required under section 407 of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, for sales for unrestricted use upon condition that payment in certificates is made as provided in § 483.158, and upon the further condition that all applicable provisions of §§ 483.161 and 483.162 are complied with. In the event of failure to comply with such conditions, the sales price with respect to the quantity of wheat involved shall be the highest of the following prices in effect on the date of sale:

(1) CCC's statutory minimum sales price for unrestricted use for the same kind, class, grade and quality of the wheat, as determined by CCC, or

(2) The sales price, announced by CCC for sale for unrestricted use of the same kind, class, grade and quality of the wheat, or

(3) If no such sales price has been announced, the highest domestic market price at the point where CCC delivered the wheat, as determined by CCC.

(b) The total amount of any upward adjustment in sales price under this section shall be paid in cash by the purchaser to CCC promptly upon demand plus interest at the rate of 6 percent per annum from the date of sale. Any upward adjustment of sales price will not be made to the extent that the Vice President or his designated representative, determines:

(1) That the wheat has not been exported or has been re-entered into the United States, Alaska, Hawaii or Puerto Rico due to causes without the fault or negligence of the purchaser, that such wheat was pursuant to written approval of CCC, subsequently actually exported to a designated country within the period specified by CCC, and that the purchaser submitted evidence of such exportation in accordance with § 483.162, or

(2) That the wheat placed in transit to an export location for export under this announcement or re-entered into the United States, Alaska, Hawaii or Puerto Rico was lost, damaged, destroyed, or deteriorated and the physical condition thereof was such that its entry into domestic market channels will not impair CCC's price support operations, or

(3) That the wheat required to be moved from a Great Lakes port to an export point not on the Great Lakes was not moved as a result of its loss, damage, destruction, or deterioration after it was placed in transit for such shipment and the physical condition was such that its entry into domestic market channels will not impair CCC's price support operations.

§ 483.164 Inability to perform.

CCC shall not be responsible for damages for any failure to deliver, or delay in delivery of, the wheat due to any cause without the fault or negligence of CCC, including, but not restricted to, failure of warehousemen to meet delivery instructions. In case of delay in delivery due to any such causes, CCC shall make delivery to the purchaser as soon as practicable.

§ 483.165 Covenant against contingent fees.

The purchaser warrants that no person or selling agency has been employed or retained to solicit or secure the contract upon an agreement or understanding for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee, except bona fide employees or bona fide established commercial or selling agencies. For breach or violation of this warranty CCC shall have the right to annul the contract without liability or in its discretion to require the purchaser to pay, in addition to the contract price or consideration, the full amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fee.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

In addition to the performance guarantees required under § 483.158 (b)(3) and (c), CCC reserves the right to require the exporter to furnish a cash deposit, performance bond, or performance type letter of credit, acceptable to CCC to guarantee performance of any of his obligations under §§ 483.155 to 483.165, inclusive.

§ 483.175 Good faith.

If the Vice President after affording the exporter an opportunity to present evidence determines that such exporter has not acted in good faith in connection with any transaction under this subpart such exporter may be denied (a) the right to continue participating in this or in any other program of CCC or (b) the right to receive payment under this subpart in connection with any sales previously made under this program, or both. DEFINITIONS

"Day" means calendar day.

§ 483.187 Designated countries.

A "designated country" means:

(a) A country or territory designated as IWA in an announcement of export payment rates (§ 483.120), or

(b) Any other destination outside the United States, and excluding Alaska, Hawaii or Puerto Rico, and also excluding:

(1) Any country or area listed as Sub-Group A of Group R of the Comprehensive Export Schedule issued by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, U.S. Department of Commerce, unless a license for such shipment or transhipment thereto has been obtained from such Bureau.

(2) Hong Kong or Macao in the case of any commodity for which a specific license is required by regulations of the U.S. Department of Commerce under the Export Control Act of 1949, unless such specific license for shipment or transhipment thereto has been obtained from the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, U.S. Department of Commerce.

§ 483.188 Director.

"Director" means the Director of the Grain Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, Washington, D.C.

§ 483.189 Export and exportation.

"Export" and "exportation" mean, except as hereinafter provided, a shipment of wheat from the United States, destined to a designated country or a shipment from Canada, destined to a designated country, of wheat which has been moved from the United States into Canada, provided the identity of the wheat is preserved until shipped from Canada. The wheat so shipped shall be deemed to have been exported on the date which appears on the applicable on-board export bill of lading, or if shipment to the designated country is by truck or rail, on the date the shipment clears the United States Customs. If wheat is lost, destroyed or damaged after loading on board an export vessel, exportation shall be deemed to have been made as of the date of the on-board-vessel bill of lading or the latest date appearing on the loading tally sheet or similar documents if the loss, destruction or damage occurs subsequent to loading aboard vessel but prior to issuance of the on-board bill of lading: Provided, That if the "lost" or "damaged" wheat remains in the United States, it shall be considered as re-entered wheat and shall be subject to the provisions of § 483.141(c). Exportation by or to a United States Government agency shall not qualify as an exportation under the provisions of this announcement.

NOTE TO EXPORTER: Since the export payment on any given quantity of wheat is conditioned upon the exportation thereof to a designated country, exporters may find it desirable to carry insurance on the full domestic value of wheat against any loss which may occur prior to the wheat leaving this country by rail or truck or prior to loading on the export vessel.

"Exporter" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association or other business entity, which is regularly engaged in the business of buying and selling wheat for export and for this purpose maintains a bona fide business office in the United States, and therein has a person, principal, or resident agent upon whom service of process may be had.

§ 483.191 International Wheat Agreement.

"International Wheat Agreement" or "IWA" means the 1959 International Wheat Agreement, ratified by the United States on July 16, 1959, or subsequent agreements duly ratified by the United States.

§ 483.192 Ocean carrier.

"Ocean carrier" means the vessel on which shipment from the United States or Canada, other than shipments between such countries, is exported pursuant to a sale registered under this program.

§ 483.193 Official weight certificate.

"Official weight certificate" means a weight certificate issued:

(a) By Chambers of Commerce, Boards of trade, Grain Exchanges, State Weighing Departments, or other organizations having qualified, independent, impartial, paid employees stationed at elevators, or

(b) By or on authority of Chambers of Commerce, Boards of Trade, Grain Exchanges, State Weighing Departments, or other organizations where weighing is performed by elevator employees under the supervision of a qualified, independent, impartial, supervising weighmaster employed by one of the above organizations.

§ 483.194 United States.

"United States" unless otherwise qualified means all of those states situated on the North American continent excluding Alaska.

§ 483.195 United States Government Agency.

"United States Government Agency" means any corporation, wholly owned by the Federal Government and any department, bureau, administration or other unit of the Federal Government as, for example, the Departments of the Army, Navy and Air Force, the International Cooperation Administration, the Army and Air Force Exchange Service, and the Panama Canal Company. Sales of wheat to foreign buyers, including foreign governments though financed with funds made available by a U.S. agency, such as the International Cooperation Administration or the Export-Import Bank, are not sales to a U.S. Government agency, provided such wheat is not for transfer to a U.S. Government agency.

§ 483.196 Vice President.

"Vice President" means the Executive Vice President of the Commodity Credit Corporation or his designee.

§ 483.197 Wheat.

"Wheat" means wheat grown in the United States and as defined in the Official Grain Standards of the United States. The quantity of wheat exported which is eligible for export payment and which satisfies the exportation requirements of this subpart, shall be determined by deducting from the weight of the wheat (which shall not include the weight of any bags) any dockage indicated on the inspection certificate issued at the time of loading for export.

§ 483.198 Wheat Council.

"Wheat Council" means the International Wheat Council established by the International Wheat Agreement.

§ 483.199 3:31 e.s.t.

"3:31 e.s.t." as used in the subpart means 3:31 eastern standard time, except that when Washington, D.C., is on daylight saving time 3:31 e.s.t. means 3:31 eastern daylight saving time (2:31 eastern standard time).

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting requirements contained herein have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 20th day of June 1960.

CLARENCE D. PALMBY,
Acting Executive Vice President, Commodity Credit Corporation.

APPENDIX

NOTICE TO EXPORTERS

(Revision of October 21, 1958)

The Department of Commerce, Bureau of Foreign Commerce (BFC), pursuant to regulations under the Export Control Act of 1949, prohibits the exportation or re-exportation by anyone of any commodities under this program to the Soviet Bloc, or communist-controlled areas of the Far East including Communist China, North Korea and the communist-controlled areas of Vietnam, except under validated license issued by the U.S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of Foreign Commerce. A validated license is also required for shipment to Hong Kong or Macao unless the commodity is included on the general license GHK list.

These regulations generally require that exporters in or in connection with their contracts with foreign purchasers, where the contract involves $10,000 or more and exportation is to be made to a Group R country, obtain from the foreign purchaser a written acknowledgment of his understanding of (1) U.S. Commerce Department prohibitions (Comprehensive Export Schedule, 15 CFR 371.4 and 371.8) against sales or resale for re-export of said commodities, or any part thereof, without express Commerce Department authorization, to the Soviet Bloc, Communist China, North Korea or the communist-controlled area of Vietnam or to Hong Kong or Macao unless the commodity is on the General License GHK list (CES, 15 CFR 371.23), and (2) the sanction of denial of future U.S. export privileges that may be imposed for violation of the Commerce Department regulations. Exporters who have a continuing and regular relationship with a foreign purchaser may obtain a blanket acknowledgment from such purchaser covering all transactions involving surplus agricultural commodities and manufactures thereof purchased from CCC or subsidized for export by the Secretary of Agriculture or CCC. Where commodities are to be exported by a party other than the original purchaser of the commodities from the CCC the original purchaser should inform the exporter in writing of the requirement for obtaining the signed acknowledgment from the foreign purchaser.

For all exportations, one of the destination control statements specified in BFC Regulation (Comprehensive Export Schedule, 15 CFR § 379.10(c)) is required to be placed on all copies of the shipper's export declaration, all copies of the bill of lading, and all copies of the commercial invoices. For additional information as to which destination control statement to use, the exporter should communicate with the Bureau of Foreign Commerce or one of the field offices of the Department of Commerce.

GENERAL

§ 483.201 General statement.

In order to encourage the sale and exportation by commercial exporters of flour processed in the United States or Puerto Rico from wheat produced in the United States, and in order to exercise the rights, obtain the benefits and fulfill the obligations of the United States under the International Wheat Agreement, the Commodity Credit Corporation (referred to in this subpart as CCC) offers to make cash payments to exporters under the terms and conditions stated in this subpart. This program will be administered by the Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture, and information pertaining to the program may be obtained from any of the CSS offices listed in § 483.280.

§ 483.205 General conditions of eligibility.

(a) Payment under this program will be made to an exporter, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this subpart, in connection with the net quantity of flour exported from the United States or Puerto Rico to a designated country as defined in § 483.287 and the net quantity of flour shipped to Canada and exported to a designated country from Canadian ports, excluding West Coast Canadian ports, pursuant to a sale to a foreign buyer for which the exporter receives a Notice of Registration from a Contracting Officer, CCC, in accordance with § 483.226. The term "foreign buyer" or "foreign buyer in the country of destination" as referred to in this subpart, shall include the Panama Canal Company and the Army and Air Force Exchange Service purchasing flour for shipment to installations abroad. Payment also will be made to an exporter on flour exported prior to sale for which the exporter has received a Notice of Registration from a Contracting Officer, CCC, subject to the terms and conditions of this subpart, particularly § 483.209.

(b) Sales to foreign buyers in countries and territories designated as IWA (see § 483.287) as well as sales to other designated countries may be made under this program. CCC will determine which sales registered under the program in accordance with § 483.226 are considered eligible for recording under the Wheat Agreement and will report such sales to the Wheat Council. Final determination of recordability rests with the Wheat Council. An exporter's subsidy rights under this subpart will not be impaired if any transaction is not ultimately recorded by the Wheat Council.

(c) A sale which involves flour derived in whole or in part from wheat produced outside the United States, or flour milled outside the United States or Puerto Rico, is not eligible for registration under the program. However, in the event the Director determines that ineligible flour is exported unintentionally, payment may be made but only on that portion which it is established to his satisfaction was milled in the United States or Puerto Rico from wheat produced in the United States.

(d) To be eligible for payment under this program, the exporter shall furnish documentary evidence of export, as required in § 483.246, which has not been used, or will not subsequently be used as evidence of export in connection with (1) any other application for flour export payment under this program, (2) any other export program under which CCC has made or has agreed to make an export allowance, (3) any other export program which involves the sale of wheat for export as flour at prices which reflect any export allowance, or (4) a CCC barter transaction. Nothing herein shall be construed as precluding exportations of flour under this program from fulfilling sales under Purchase Authorizations pursuant to Public Law 480 (83d Congress), or Procurement Authorizations pursuant to section 402 of the Mutual Security Act of 1954 (sales involving ICA funds).

(e) Sales may be made pursuant to this program to a foreign buyer for shipment to any designated country whether or not such buyer is located in the country of destination. A sale to be eligible for payment must be a bona fide sales transaction with the foreign buyer named in the Declaration of Sale. Brokers or agents of either the seller or the foreign buyer shall not be named as the buyer in the Declaration of Sale.

(f) Where a sale is made by an exporter to a foreign buyer who simultaneously resells to another foreign buyer, the latter may be the buyer named in the Notice of Sale and Declaration of Sale.

(g) The foreign buyer may be an affiliate of the U.S. exporter, in which case the sale registered for export payment must be a bona fide sales transaction in which the affiliate is acting in its own behalf as an independent buyer and not on behalf of the exporter. The foreign sale shall not be a "wash sale" or any other type of intercompany transaction which does not result in an actual exportation of wheat against the specific sale on which the export payment rate was based.

(h) Exportation of flour by or to a United States Government agency (as defined in § 483.295), excluding the Army and Air Force Exchange Service and the Panama Canal Company, to or in a designated country shall not qualify as an exportation for the purposes of this program.

§ 483.206 Countries and buyers to which flour may be exported.

(a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section exports under this program shall be made only to the designated country and buyer named in the Declaration of Sale and the exporter shall not ship, tranship or cause the flour to be transhipped to any other country.

(b) Shipment shall be made only to the country named in the Declaration of Sale, unless the exporter (1) obtains the written approval of the Director for shipment to a designated country other than the country named in the Declaration of Sale and (2) furnishes a certification to the Director that such shipment is at the request of the buyer named in the Declaration of Sale, such shipment constitutes delivery against the exporter's sale to the foreign buyer on which the export payment is based pursuant to § 483.221 and is not in connection with a different sale, and that the exporter knows of no circumstances with respect to such shipment which would impair the integrity of such sale.

(c) Shipment may be made to a consignee or notify party other than the buyer named in the Declaration of Sale, provided the exporter furnishes a certification to the Director as required in paragraph (b) of this section.

§ 483.207 Date of exportation.

Where the flour is sold for export in a specified rate period announced by CCC the exportation must be completed before the end of that period in order for the exporter to obtain the export payment rate applicable to that period. Exportation in a different period will be acceptable only if approved in writing by the Director, and such approval may be given subject to such reduction in the export payment (expressed in a rate per hundredweight) as may be specified by the Director. In the case of flour sold to the Army and Air Force Exchange Service, where exportation is to be made by the service and not by the seller, the term "export", for the purpose of determining the applicable rate pursuant to this section, means delivery of the flour to the Exchange Service.

§ 483.208 Excess quantities loaded.

Payment will not be made on quantities loaded on vessels, cars, or trucks which are in excess of the contract quantity as shown on the Declaration of Sale plus a tolerance of one percent except that in the case of sales to foreign Governments where the tender specifies a loading tolerance the quantity eligible for subsidy payment shall be the contract quantity plus the contract tolerance but not more than ten percent. A new Notice of Sale and Declaration of Sale are required for any additional quantity loaded.

§ 483.209 Flour exported prior to sale.

(a) In connection with any quantity of flour exported prior to sale, payments will be made only on that portion thereof which has been reported in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section and only on sales made by the person who actually exports such flour and not to a person who buys such flour after exportation thereof and re-sells it to a designated country.

(b) In order to receive export payment on flour exported prior to sale the exporter must have reported the exportation of such flour to the Director not later than seven days after the date of such exportation as defined in § 483.289, unless additional time for reporting is granted in writing by the Director. This report must include the following information:

(1) Date of exportation.
(2) Port of exportation.
(3) Country and port of original destination of flour.
(4) Name of ocean vessel upon which loaded.
(5) Quantity in hundredweight.
(6) The report shall also contain a statement that the vessel contains other flour sold by the exporter filing the report, as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) Unless otherwise approved in writing by the Director, only unsold flour which is loaded on a vessel which also carries flour sold by the same exporter under this program or other export programs of CCC shall be reported under paragraph (b) of this section, and shall be eligible for export payment when sold. In the case of full cargo shipments the unsold portion shall not exceed one-third of the total cargo. In the case of part cargo lots the unsold portion shall not exceed 2,000 metric tons. The exporter should obtain separate bill or bills of lading for both the unsold and sold quantities of flour exported.

(d) At such time as the flour is sold, the exporter shall report the sale to the Director as provided in § 483.225, and shall submit all other reports and documents as required by this subpart. In reporting the sale the exporter must state that the flour sold was reported to the Director, as provided in paragraph (b) of this section. This may be done by the use of the code word "Abroad".

(e) The export rate applicable to such sale shall be that rate in effect at time of sale, or time of giving Notice of Sale, whichever is the lower, for the export rate period current at that time which applies (1) to the port from which the flour was exported, and (2) to the country shown in the Declaration of Sale.

§ 483.220 Announcement of rates.

Export payment rates will be announced from Washington, D.C., daily or at intervals of up to 7 days. Rates will be released at approximately 3:31 p.m., e.s.t. (see § 483.298), and will remain in effect through 3:30 p.m., e.s.t., on the expiration date stated in the announcement at which time a new announcement will be made. No rates will be announced on Saturday, and rates effective at 3:31 p.m., e.s.t., on Friday, will be in effect through 3:30 p.m., e.s.t., of the market day succeeding Saturday unless the announcement specifically provides otherwise. Announcements will be available through the press, ticker service, Commodity Stabilization Service Offices at Portland (Oregon), Minneapolis, Kansas City (Missouri), Dallas, Evanston (Illinois), and through representatives of the Office of the General Sales Manager, CCS located at San Francisco and New York. Different rates of payment for separate coasts or ports, destinations, periods of exportation, etc., may be announced simultaneously.

The rate in effect at the time of sale to the foreign buyer, or the time of filing Notice of Sale as required by § 483.225 (a), whichever rate is the lower, shall be the rate applicable to the sale. The supporting evidence of sale submitted by the exporter in form prescribed in § 483.227(d), will be the basis for determining the time of sale. Some of the factors which are determinative of such time of sale for the purpose of this program, are as follows:

(a) Time of the exporter's filing a cablegram or mailing a written acceptance of a definite offer to purchase received from the foreign buyer.

(b) Time of receipt by the exporter of a cablegram or other written acceptance from the foreign buyer of a definite offer by the exporter to sell or the time of receipt by the exporter of a cablegram or other written notification from his agent that the foreign buyer has accepted a definite offer by the exporter to sell.

(c) Time of filing by the exporter of a cablegram or time of mailing of a written confirmation by the exporter of the booking of a shipment or shipments to be made pursuant to a standing order of the buyer to purchase. It must be clear from the evidence, however, that the exporter has the right under the terms of the standing order to create a firm contract of sale by issuing a confirmation. For example, if he is authorized to confirm the sale at a price which may be established at his option, the evidence must show that such is the understanding between buyer and seller, otherwise it will be necessary for the buyer also to confirm the price, and receipt of the buyer's confirmation will establish the time of sale.

(d) Sales may be made through a third principal party but for the purpose of this subpart the third principal party will be considered as an agent or intermediary and the sale as being between the exporter and the ultimate foreign buyer in the country of destination. The time of sale shall be determined by reference to the factors listed elsewhere in this section. The evidence of sale required by § 483.227(d) shall include documents exchanged between the exporter, the ultimate foreign buyer, and the intermediate third party. For purposes of determining the applicable export payment rate, when the sale is made through an intermediary, no substantially greater lapse of time for concluding the sales transaction may be recognized than would have elapsed had the exporter been dealing directly with the foreign buyer.

(e) A sale shall not be considered as made until the purchase price has been established, and time of sale shall be the earliest time the exporter has knowledge that a firm contract exists with the foreign buyer on which a firm dollar and cent price has been established pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section. Any contract provisions which entail provisional, or basic, or maximum or minimum prices to be adjusted at a future date, may affect the time of sale for purposes of this subpart. For example, a contract will be considered to have a firm dollar and cent price if it contains a maximum price which can be reduced only at the seller's option or a minimum price which can be increased only at the buyer's option.

(f) If export is wholly by truck or rail and a firm contract exists at a firm dollar and cents price but the time of sale cannot be determined on the basis of the factors set forth in this section, or by any other means, the sale will be deemed to have been made at the time of issuance of the inland bill of lading, or if none is issued, at the time of clearance through United States Customs. If export is by ocean carrier and time of sale cannot be determined under other provisions of this section, the sale will be deemed to have been made at the time of issuance of ocean carrier bill of lading, or if none is issued, at the time the flour is loaded on board ocean carrier.

(g) If the time of day at which the sale was made is not established and two payment rates are in effect on such day, the time of sale will be deemed to be at the time the lower of the two rates was in effect.

(h) In the case of sales to the Army and Air Force Exchange Service, the time of sale shall be the time appearing on the Army and Air Force Exchange Service Purchase Order.

(i) In any unusual cases involving factors other than those enumerated above, an exporter should make a written request for a determination in writing from the Director in advance of making the sale as to the effect of such factors on the time of sale.

§ 483.222 Conversion factors.

The following conversion factors shall be applied to the announced rate to determine the rate applicable to a particular type of flour:

	Rate factor
Wheat flour (including clears), derived from conventional milling practices which are generally accepted in the milling industry in the United States as representing a 72 percent extraction operation	1.000
Semolina and farina	1.000
Wheat flour, derived from conventional milling practices which are generally accepted in the milling industry in the United States as representing an 80 percent extraction operation	.921
Bulgur	.872
Wheat flour, derived from conventional milling practices which are generally accepted in the milling industry in the United States as representing a 90 percent extraction operation	.822
Whole wheat flour	.726

Flour of a specified percent extraction will be eligible for the applicable rate factor only if the flour exported constitutes a component of the percent of flour extracted under such operation and is not in any part a component of the mill-feed by-product. No part of the mill-feed by-product from any milling operation shall be eligible at any rate of payment.

REGISTRATION OF SALES AND REPORTS

§ 483.225 Notice of Sale.

(a) Time. (1) The exporter shall file a Notice of Sale as soon as possible after the date of the sale (see § 483.278).

(2) Notices of Sale should normally be filed by telegraph, although telephone may be used. Telephoned notices should be confirmed immediately by telegraph.

(3) In order for the exporter to be assured of the current rate of payment, the telegram reporting the sale must be filed or the telephone call made by 3:30 p.m., e.s.t. of the expiration date for such rate as shown in the rate announcement.

(4) The time of filing a Notice of Sale is considered to be as follows: (i) In the case of a postal notice, the time which appears on the postmark on the envelope, (ii) in the case of a telephone notice, the time transmission of the telephone message to CCC begins, (iii) in the case of a telegraphic notice, the time transmission of the message to the telegraph company begins. CCC will accept as evidence of the time of filing a telegraphic notice the time which appears on such notice. However, CCC will give consideration to any other corroborative evidence submitted by the exporter to support an earlier filing time.

If the time of filing the Notice of Sale cannot be established and two rates are in effect on the day of filing, the time of filing the Notice of Sale will be deemed to be at the time the lower of the two rates was in effect.

(b) Information required. In giving Notice of Sale the exporter must report the following information:

(1) Date of Sale.

(2) The Purchase Authorization Number, if PL-480 (83rd Congress) or the Procurement Authorization Number if Section 402 of the Mutual Security Act of 1954 (sales involving ICA funds).

(3) Contract quantity in net hundredweight.

(4) The sale price need not be shown. However, in the case of sales to designated IWA countries and territories other than sales under PL-480 (83d Congress) and under section 402 of the Mutual Security Act of 1954 (sales involving ICA funds), the Notice of Sale should include an indication that the buyer and seller agree that the price is consistent with a price of wheat which may be entered against obligations under the Wheat Agreement. This agreement may be indicated by the code word "AKORD".

(5) Country of destination. In the case of sales to the Army and Air Force Exchange Service, the exporter shall give the complete markings specified on the purchase order.

(6) Name of purchaser. (Where the sale involves more than one purchaser the Notice of Sale shall contain the name of one purchaser and the word "others".)

(7) Delivery period specified in the contract.

(8) The word "Abroad" for flour exported prior to sale (see § 483.209(d)).

(9) Such additional information in individual cases as may be requested by the Director.

§ 483.226 Notice of Registration.

(a) Upon receipt of the Notice of Sale, a Contracting Officer of CCC will issue a Notice of Registration by telegram unless he determines that to do so would not be in the best interests of the program. A Notice of Registration is a condition precedent to the exporter receiving payment under this subpart. Accordingly, before concluding a transaction it may be to the exporter's advantage in instances involving sales of an unusual nature to ascertain from the office indicated in § 483.279, whether the sale may be registered, or to condition his sales contract upon his receiving a Notice of Registration under this subpart.

(b) In the telegram of registration, the Contracting Officer may utilize the code letters "REP" to indicate "Registered as Eligible for Payment."

(c) Each Notice of Registration will include a registration number which shall be shown on the Declaration of Sale (see § 483.227), the Notice of Export (see § 483.228), Application for Flour Export Payment Form CCC-413 (see § 483.245) and in all correspondence with reference to the transaction.

§ 483.227 Declaration of Sale and evidence of sale.

(a) Time of submission and required copies. (1) The exporter shall prepare a Declaration of Sale (CCC Form 362), and mail or deliver it normally within two days after receipt of Notice of Registration. (See § 483.226.)

(2) The Declaration of Sale must be submitted in an original and three copies all of which shall be signed in an original signature by the exporter or his authorized representative. One copy of the Declaration of Sale will be acknowledged and returned to the exporter.

(3) Only one Declaration of Sale should be submitted by the exporter for each sale identified by a Registration Number assigned in the Notice of Registration (see § 483.226(c)), although this is not mandatory. If more than one Declaration of Sale is submitted, the letters A, B, C, etc., shall be added to Registration Numbers on the respective declarations.

(b) Information required. The information to be entered on the Declaration of Sale, is as follows:

(1) The Registration Number.

(2) The Purchase Authorization Number if a sale under Public Law 480 (83d Congress) or the Procurement Authorization Number if a sale under section 402 of the Mutual Security Act of 1954 (sales involving ICA funds).

(3) Date and time of sale and of filing Notice of Sale.

(4) Name of purchaser, or purchasers.

(5) Contract quantity in net hundredweight.

(6) Country of destination. In the case of sales to the Army and Air Force Exchange Service, the exporter shall give the complete markings specified on the Service purchase order.

(7) Delivery period specified in the contract.

(8) Type and extraction of flour, the class of wheat from which the flour was milled and the approximate ash content must be shown. For example: "Hard Spring .48 Ash". For blended flours, the most predominant class of wheat contained in the blend should be shown. For example: "blended (predominantly) Hard Winter .70 Ash".

(9) Export payment rate per hundredweight of flour in effect as determined by § 483.221.

(10) Coastal area from which it is anticipated exportation will be made.

(11) Where the exporter intends to ship, tranship, or cause flour to be transhipped to one or more of the countries or areas identified in § 483.287(b) (1) and (2), the license issued by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, U.S. Department of Commerce for such movement shall be identified. With respect to any such movement to Hong Kong or Macao not requiring a specified license, the exporter shall state that a specific license is not required.

(12) Such additional information in individual cases as may be requested by the Director.

(c) Name in which filed. Except in the circumstances described in § 483.221(d), the Declaration of Sale must be filed in the name of the exporter who sold the flour to a foreign buyer. If the sale is made under a trade name, the Declaration of Sale may be filed under such name provided the name of the actual exporter and the relationship between the two is clearly established by an appropriate signature on the Declaration and all related documents, such as:

American Milling Company
(Trade Name)
U. S. Milling Company
[s] John Smith, Secretary

(d) Evidence of sale. Supporting evidence of sale, in one copy only, must be filed with each Declaration of Sale. Such evidence may be in the form of certified true copies of offer and acceptance or other documentary evidence of sale including contracts between exporter and buyer. In transactions involving a third principal party (see § 483.221(d)), the evidence required is certified true copies of all documents evidencing the sales which are exchanged between the exporter, the intermediate third party and the buyer shown in the Declaration of Sale, provided such evidence includes all information required under paragraph (b) of this section, and shall also include such additional documentation as requested by the Director. In the case of sales to designated IWA countries and territories other than sales under Public Law 480 (83d Congress) and section 402 of the Mutual Security Act of 1954 (sales involving ICA funds), the evidence should include acceptable evidence, such as an exchange of cables, to the effect that buyer and exporter agree that the price of the flour is consistent with a price of wheat which may be entered against obligations of the exporting or importing country under the Wheat Agreement. In the case of sales to the Army and Air Force Exchange Service, a certified copy of the Service purchase order shall be submitted as evidence of sale.

§ 483.228 Notice of export.

(a) Time of submission and required copies. A Notice of Export, CCC Form 363, is required in connection with each Declaration of Sale. Such Notice of Export should be mailed or delivered by the exporter normally within three days after date of export of the last shipment against the quantity shown as sold on the applicable Declaration of Sale.

(b) Information required. The Notice of Export shall contain the following information:

(1) Registration Number.

(2) Date of export of final shipment.

(3) Country of destination.

(4) Total quantity in net hundredweight actually loaded on all shipments made in connection with applicable Declaration of Sale.

(5) The U.S. coastal area or areas from which the flour was exported. If more than one coastal area is involved, the quantity exported from each should be shown.

OBLIGATION AND DEFAULT

§ 483.240 Exporter's agreement with CCC.

The Notice of Sale by the exporter and the Notice of Registration shall constitute an agreement by the exporter to export the quantity of flour to which such notices relate in accordance with the provisions of this subpart, in consideration of the undertaking of CCC to make an export payment, subject to the terms and conditions of this subpart.

§ 483.241 Cancellation of sale or failure to export.

(a) The exporter shall notify the Director promptly in every case where he is not able to fulfill his obligation under § 483.240 of this subpart because of (1) cancellation of a sale, (2) failure to export, (3) the reentry into Canada or the United States, Alaska, Hawaii or Puerto Rico of flour previously exported, or (4) failure to discharge fully any other obligation assumed by him under the program, and must state the reasons therefor.

(b) If the Vice President, after affording an exporter the opportunity to present evidence, determines that the exporter has cancelled the sale, or failed to export, or failed to discharge fully any other obligation assumed by him under the program, the exporter shall pay on demand any damages resulting from his failure to discharge his obligation to CCC, and the exporter may be denied the right to continue participating in this program or in any other program of CCC for such period as the Vice President may determine and until the exporter has complied with such other terms and conditions as the Vice President may prescribe, unless the exporter establishes to the satisfaction of the Vice President that his failure to discharge his obligations under the program was not due to his fault or negligence.

(c) If any quantity of flour exported pursuant to the exporter's contract with CCC is reentered into Canada or the United States, Alaska, Hawaii, or Puerto Rico, whether or not such reentry is caused by the exporter, or if any flour is transhipped or caused to be transhipped by the exporter to any country that is not a designated country, the exporter shall be in default, shall refund any payment received, and shall comply with the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section, unless he establishes to the satisfaction of CCC with respect to any reentry that (1) the reentry was not due to his fault or negligence and promptly after he received notice of reentry he exported to any designated country the flour required to be exported under his contract with CCC, or (2) the flour reentered was lost, damaged or destroyed and the physical condition is such that its reentry into the United States will not impair CCC's price support program.

Application for Payment

§ 483.245 Application for Flour Export Payment, Form CCC–413.

An original and two (2) copies of Application for Flour Export Payment, Form CCC–413, must be prepared and submitted together with the evidence of exportation as set forth in Sec. 483.246, to the CSS Commodity Office shown on the acknowledged copy of the Declaration of Sale which is returned to the exporter. Supplies of Form CCC–413 and detailed instructions regarding the preparation and submission of the form may be obtained from the CSS Commodity Offices listed in § 483.280.

§ 483.246 Documents required as evidence of export.

(a) Each Application for Flour Export Payment, Form CCC–413, must be supported by the following evidence of export, as applicable:

(1) If export is by water or air, a non-negotiable duplicate copy of the applicable on-board commercial bill of lading signed by an agent of the export carrier which shows the weight of the flour exported, the number of containers, the weight of the containers (or a certification from the exporter as to the weight of the containers), the identification of the export carrier, and that the flour is destined for the buyer and the country of destination identified on the Declaration of Sale, or to a different consignee or country determined pursuant to § 483.206. Where loss, damage or destruction of the flour occurs subsequent to loading aboard the export carrier, but prior to issuance of the on-board commercial bill of lading, a copy of the loading tally sheet or acceptable similar document may be substituted for the bill of lading. If the country of destination shown on the ocean bill of lading differs from that shown on the Declaration of Sale or the country of destination approved by the Director pursuant to § 483.206, the exporter shall also furnish one copy of the Shipper's Export Declaration, authenticated by the appropriate United States Custom official, showing that the country of destination is, in fact, the country to which the wheat is required to be exported.

(2) If export is by rail or truck, a Shipper's Export Declaration, authenticated by a representative of the Bureau of Customs at the port of export which identifies the shipment(s), the date of clearance into the foreign country, the weight of the flour and shows that the flour is destined for the buyer identified in the Declaration of Sale. If the weight of the flour shown on the Shipper's Export Declaration includes the weight of the containers, the exporter must submit a certification of the weight of the containers.

(3) If the shipper or consignor named in the on-board commercial bill(s) of lading or the Shipper's Export Declaration(s), is other than the exporter named in the Declaration of Sale, waiver by such shipper or consignor of any interest in the claim in favor of such exporter is required. Such waiver must clearly identify the on-board commercial bill(s) of lading or Shipper's Export Declaration(s) submitted to evidence export.

(4) A certification by the exporter that the flour for which export payment is claimed is the same flour which is described in the Declaration of Sale and which is covered by the evidence of export referred to in subparagraphs (1) or (2) of this paragraph, and a certification of the weight of any enrichments or other additives to the flour in excess of one-half of one percent of the combined net weight of the flour and additives.

(5) Where shipment takes place from a Canadian port:

(i) One signed or certified true copy of the bill of lading or other document covering the movement of the flour from the United States to the export vessel described in the on-board ship bill of lading issued at the point by export in Canada, and

(ii) One signed or certified true copy of a document evidencing the preservation of the identity of the flour until exported from Canada.

(iii) A certification by the exporter that the flour was milled in the United States or Puerto Rico from wheat produced in the United States.

(6) Where exportation of the flour has been made by anyone or transhipment made or caused by the exporter to one or more of the countries or areas identified in § 483.287(b), (1) and (2), the license issued by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, U.S. Department of Commerce for such movement shall be identified in the on-board commercial bill of lading. With respect to any such movement to Hong Kong or Macao not requiring a specified license, the exporter shall state that a specific license is not required.

(7) In the case of sales to the Army and Air Force Exchange Service each Form CCC–413 must be supported by:

(i) A certified copy of the inland bill of lading showing delivery of the flour to the Service,

(ii) A certificate of exportation obtained from the Army and Air Force Exchange Service and signed by the Chief or Assistant Chief, Transportation Division, AAFES,

(iii) A statement by the exporter, certified as being a true and correct statement, that the flour for which export payment is claimed is the same flour as described in the Declaration of Sale and covered by the bill of lading. If the shipper or consignor named in the inland bill of lading is other than the exporter named in the Declaration of Sale, waiver by such shipper or consignor of any interest in the claim in favor of such exporter is required. Such waiver must clearly identify the bill of lading and other evidence of exportation.

(8) In the case of sales to the Army and Air Force Exchange Service or the Panama Canal Company, each Form CCC–413 must be supported by a certified statement, made by an authorized official or employee of such Service or Company, that such Service or Company has received in its purchase price paid or to be paid for the flour exported, the benefit of the export allowance under this program.

(9) If the export shipment is made by vessel, plane, truck or other carrier, operated by a United States Government agency, then in lieu of the bill of lading or Shipper's Export Declaration provided for in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph (a), the exporter may submit a certificate issued by an authorized official or employee of such agency showing the date of shipment(s), type of carrier used, identification of the commodity, the weight of the flour, the weight of the containers and the number of containers, the export destination, a certification by the exporter that shipment is not by or to a U.S. Government agency (unless it is the A & AF Exchange Service or the Panama Canal Company), and such other information required in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph as may be applicable hereto.

(b) In case a single bill of lading or other documentary evidence of export covers more than the net quantity of flour which is applied against the exporter's contract with CCC, and such documentary evidence of export is to be used as evidence of export of such excess quantity in connection with a different contract with CCC under this program or under any other export program of CCC pursuant to which CCC has paid or agreed to pay an export allowance, each copy of such documentary evidence of export submitted pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall be accompanied by a statement certified by the exporter identifying all contracts with CCC to which the documentary evidence of export has been or will be applied and the quantity applicable to each contract.

(c) The Authorization Number shall be shown on any bill of lading or other documentary evidence of export which covers exportation of flour under PL–480, 83d Congress or section 402 of the Mutual Security Act of 1954 (sales involving ICA funds).

(d) Where for good cause, the exporter establishes that he is unable to supply documentary evidence of export as specified in the above provisions of this section, CCC may accept such other evidence of export as will establish to the satisfaction of the Vice President that the exporter has fully complied with his obligation to export.

(e) The exporter shall furnish such additional evidence of export as the Director may require in order to determine that there has been compliance with the export requirements hereof.

Miscellaneous Provisions

§ 483.275 Good faith.

If the Vice President after affording the exporter an opportunity to present evidence determines that such exporter has not acted in good faith in connection with any transaction under this subpart such exporter may be denied (a) the right to continue participation in this or in any other program of CCC or (b) the right to receive payment under this subpart in connection with any sales previously made under this program, or both. Each exporter shall maintain accurate records showing sales and deliveries of flour exported or to be exported in connection with this program. Such records, accounts and other documents relating to any transaction in connection with this program shall be available during regular business hours for inspection and audit by authorized employees of the United States Department of Agriculture, and shall be preserved for two years after date of export.

Approval may also be granted by the Director after the time specified for performance of the requirement where the exporter has established good cause therefor.

Definitions

§ 483.286 Day.

"Day" means calendar day.

§ 483.287 Designated countries.

A "designated country" means:

(a) A country or territory designated as IWA in an announcement of export payment rates (See § 483.220), or

(b) Any other destination outside the United States and excluding Alaska, Hawaii or Puerto Rico, and also excluding:

(1) Any country or area listed as Sub-Group A of Group R of the Comprehensive Export Schedule issued by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, U.S. Department of Commerce, unless a license for such shipment or transhipment thereto has been obtained from such Bureau;

(2) Hong Kong or Macao in the case of any commodity for which a specific license is required by regulations of the U.S. Department of Commerce under the Export Control Act of 1949, unless such specific license for shipment or transhipment thereto has been obtained from the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, U.S. Department of Commerce.

§ 483.288 Director.

"Director" means the Director of the Grain Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, Washington, D.C.

§ 483.289 Export and exportation.

"Export" and "exportation" mean, except as hereinafter provided, a shipment of flour from the United States or from Puerto Rico, destined to a designated country or a shipment from Canada destined to a designated country of flour which has been moved from the United States into Canada, provided the identity of the flour is preserved until shipped from Canada. The flour so shipped shall be deemed to have been exported on the date which appears on the applicable on-board export bill of lading, or if shipment to the designated country is by truck or rail, on the date the shipment clears the United States Customs. If the flour is lost, destroyed or damaged after loading on board an export vessel, exportation shall be deemed to have been made as of the date of the on-board vessel bill of lading or the latest date appearing on the loading tally sheet or similar documents if the loss, destruction or damage occurs subsequent to loading aboard vessel but prior to issuance of the on-board bill of lading: Provided, That if the "lost" or "damaged" flour remains in the United States or Puerto Rico, as applicable, it shall be considered as reentered flour and shall be subject to the provisions of § 483.241(c). Exportation by or to a United States Government agency shall not qualify as an exportation under the provisions of this announcement unless exportation is by or to the Army and Air Force Exchange Service or the Panama Canal Company.

NOTE TO EXPORTER: Since the export payment on any given quantity of flour is conditioned upon the exportation thereof to a designated country, exporters may find it desirable to carry insurance on the full domestic value of flour against any loss which may occur prior to the flour leaving this country by rail or truck or prior to loading on the export vessel.

§ 483.290 Exporter.

"Exporter" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association or other business entity, which is regularly engaged in the business of buying and selling flour for export and for this purpose maintains a bona fide business office in the United States or Puerto Rico and therein has a person, principal, or resident agent upon whom service of process may be had. The term "exporter" shall be deemed to include a commercial firm selling flour to the Army and Air Force Exchange Service and the Panama Canal Company for export regardless of whether exportation is actually made by the commercial firm or by the Exchange Service or the Panama Canal Company.

§ 483.291 Flour.

"Flour" means wheat flour processed in the United States or Puerto Rico from wheat as defined in the Official Grain Standards of the United States and grown in the United States, and shall include whole wheat flour, durum flour, malted wheat flour, self-rising flour, semolina, Farina and bulgur, but shall not include wheat products produced during a continuing process of manufacturing processed wheat products other than flour; nor flour mixes unless composed entirely of wheat flour, except for additives. The flour shall be such as not to be in conflict with the laws of the country to which it is intended for export. As used herein, the word bulgur means the food product prepared from wheat by scouring, tempering, cooking (steaming under pressure), drying, removing the bran coat and grinding into granular form and screening to various size granules. The quantity of flour exported which is eligible for export payment shall be determined by deducting from the net weight of the shipment, the weight of any enrichment, or other additive (including Creta Praeperata), in excess of one-half of one percent of the combined net weight of the flour and additive. (See § 483.222 with regard to eligibility of particular types of flour for particular rates of payment.)

§ 483.292 International Wheat Agreement.

"International Wheat Agreement" or "IWA" means the 1959 International Wheat Agreement ratified by the United States on July 16, 1959, or subsequent Agreements duly ratified by the United States.

§ 483.293 Ocean Carrier.

"Ocean Carrier" means the vessel on which shipment from the United States, or Puerto Rico, or Canada, other than shipments between such countries, is exported pursuant to a sale registered under this program.

§ 483.294 United States.

"United States", unless otherwise qualified, means all of those states situated on the North American continent excluding Alaska.

§ 483.295 United States Government Agency.

"United States Government Agency" means any corporation, wholly owned by the Federal Government and any department, bureau, administration or other unit of the Federal Government as, for example, the Departments of the Army, Navy and Air Force, and the International Cooperation Administration. Sales of flour to foreign buyers, including foreign governments though financed with funds made available by a U.S. agency, such as the International Cooperation Administration or the Export-Import Bank, are not sales to a U.S. Government agency, provided such flour is not for transfer by the foreign buyer to a U.S. Government agency.

§ 483.296 Vice President.

"Vice President" means the Executive Vice President of the Commodity Credit Corporation or his designee.

§ 483.297 Wheat Council.

"Wheat Council" means the International Wheat Council established by the International Wheat Agreement.

§ 483.298 3:31 e.s.t.

"3:31 e.s.t." as used in this subpart means 3:31 eastern standard time, except that when Washington, D.C., is on daylight saving time 3:31 e.s.t. means 3:31 eastern daylight saving time (2:31 eastern standard time).

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting requirements contained herein have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 20th day of June 1960.

CLARENCE D. PALMBY,
Acting Executive Vice President, Commodity Credit Corporation.

APPENDIX

NOTICE TO EXPORTERS

(Revision of October 21, 1958)

The Department of Commerce, Bureau of Foreign Commerce (BFC), pursuant to regulations under the Export Control Act of 1949, prohibits the exportation or re-exportation by anyone of any commodities under this program to the Soviet Bloc, or communist-controlled areas of the Far East including Communist China, North Korea and the communist-controlled areas of Vietnam, except under validated license issued by the U.S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of Foreign Commerce. A validated license is also required for shipment to Hong Kong or Macao unless the commodity is included on the general license GHK list.

These regulations generally require that exporters in or in connection with their contracts with foreign purchasers, where the contract involves $10,000 or more and exportation is to be made to a Group R country, obtain from the foreign purchaser a written acknowledgment of his understanding of (1) U.S. Commerce Department prohibitions (Comprehensive Export Schedule, 15 CFR 371.4 and 371.8) against sales or resale for re-export of said commodities, or any part thereof, without express Commerce Department authorization, to the Soviet Bloc, Communist China, North Korea or the communist-controlled area of Vietnam or to Hong Kong or Macao unless the commodity is on the General License GHK list (CES, 15 CFR 371.23), and (2) the sanction of denial of future U.S. export privileges that may be imposed for violation of the Commerce Department regulations. Exporters who have a continuing and regular relationship with a foreign purchaser may obtain a blanket acknowledgment from such purchaser covering all transactions involving surplus agricultural commodities and manufactures thereof purchased from CCC or subsidized for export by the Secretary of Agriculture or CCC. Where commodities are to be exported by a party other than the original purchaser of the commodities from the CCC the original purchaser should inform the exporter in writing of the requirement for obtaining the signed acknowledgment from the foreign purchaser.

For all exportations, one of the destination control statements specified in BFC Regulation (Comprehensive Export Schedule, 15 CFR 379.10(c)) is required to be placed on all copies of the shipper's export declaration, all copies of the bill of lading, and all copies of the commercial invoices. For additional information as to which destination control statement to use, the exporter should communicate with the Bureau of Foreign Commerce or one of the field offices of the Department of Commerce.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001-1011) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than the date hereinafter specified. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until the date hereinafter set forth on which an open meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof, to consider the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such plums. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; shipments of the current crop of such plums are expected to begin on or about the effective date hereof; this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; the provisions of this section are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee; and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such plums and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof. Such committee meeting was held on June 20, 1960.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., June 25, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., November 1, 1960, no shipper shall ship any package or container of Duarte or Becky Smith plums, unless:

(i) Such plums are of a size that, when packed in a standard basket, they will pack at least a 4 x 5 standard pack and will have a net weight of not less than twenty-eight (28) pounds: Provided, That, not to exceed ten (10) percent, by count, of the packages or containers in any lot may fail to meet such net weight requirement; and

(ii) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in such package or container do not vary more than one-fourth (¼) inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) When used in this section, "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for Plums and Prunes (Fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1537 of this title); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "diameter" shall mean the distance through the widest portion of the cross section of a plum at right angles to a line running from the stem to the blossom end; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(3) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this section. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

Regulation by Grade and Sizes

§ 936.646 Plum Order 10.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than the date hereinafter specified. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until the date hereinafter set forth on which an open meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof, to consider the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such plums. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; shipments of the current crop of such plums are expected to begin on or about the effective date hereof; this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; the provisions of this section are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee; and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such plums and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof. Such committee meeting was held on June 20, 1960.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., June 25, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., November 1, 1960, no shipper shall ship any package or container of Mariposa plums except in accordance with the following terms and conditions:

(i) Such plums grade at least U.S. No. 1, as required by the provisions of § 936.636 (Plum Order 1; 25 F.R. 4539) except that a total tolerance of ten (10) percent for defects not considered serious damage is permitted in addition to the tolerances permitted for such grade;

(ii) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 3 x 4 x 5 standard pack;

(iii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket, seventy-five (75) percent, by count, of the plums measure not less than one and fourteen-sixteenth ($1\frac{14}{16}$) inches in diameter: Provided, That, individual containers in any lot may contain not more than thirty-seven and one-half ($37\frac{1}{2}$) percent, by count, of plums which measure less than one and fourteen-sixteenth ($1\frac{14}{16}$) inches in diameter, if the average percentage of such smaller sized plums in all containers in such lot does not exceed twenty-five (25) percent: And provided further, That, if the plums are packed in a special plum box and are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a $6\frac{1}{2}$-row standard pack, they shall be deemed to meet the minimum size requirements of this subparagraph; and

(iv) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) When used in this section, "U.S. No. 1," "fairly uniform in size," "serious damage," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for Plums and Prunes (Fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1537 of this title); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "special plum box" shall mean the special plum box set forth in section 828.15 of the Agricultural Code of California; "$6\frac{1}{2}$-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 42 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "diameter" shall mean the distance through the widest portion of the cross section of a plum at right angles to a line running from the stem to the blossom end; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(3) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this section. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

[Milk Order 43]

PART 943—MILK IN NORTH TEXAS MARKETING AREA

Order Amending Order

§ 943.0 Findings and determinations.

The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the North Texas marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order effective not later than July 1, 1960. Any delay beyond that date would tend to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk in the marketing area.

The provisions of the said order are known to handlers. The recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service was issued March 25, 1960 and the decision of the Assistant Secretary containing all amendment provisions of this order, was issued May 27, 1960. The changes effected by this order will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration of operation for handlers. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order effective July 1, 1960, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (See section 4 (c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of handlers (excluding cooperative associations specified in section 8c(9) of the Act) of more than 50 percent of the milk, which is marketed within the marketing area, to sign a proposed marketing agreement, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the Act of advancing the interests of producers as defined in the order as hereby amended; and

(3 The issuance of the order amending the order is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who during the determined representative period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the North Texas marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as hereby amended, and the aforesaid order is hereby amended as follows:

§ 943.9 [Amendment]

1. Delete the phrase, "and under the routine inspection of", in the first sentence thereof.

§ 943.51 [Amendment]

2a. Amend the introductory paragraph of § 943.51(a) to read as follows:

(a) Class I milk. The basic formula price for the preceding month (rounded to the nearest one-tenth cent) plus $1.85 for the months of March through June, and plus $2.25 for all other months subject to a supply-demand adjustment of not more than 50 cents computed as follows:

b. Delete the table contained in § 943.51(a) (2) (iii) and substitute therefor the following:

Month for which price applies	Months used in computation	Standard utilization percentages
		Minimum	Maximum
January	October–November	106	112
February	November–December	107	113
March	December–January	109	115
April	January–February	109	115
May	February–March	113	119
June	March–April	120	126
July	April–May	126	132
August	May–June	123	129
September	June–July	119	125
October	July–August	113	119
November	August–September	106	112
December	September–October	105	111

c. Reissue § 943.51(a) (3) (ii) and (iii) to read as follows:

(ii) One cent for the lesser of:

(a) Each such percentage point of net deviation, or

(b) Each percentage point of net deviation of like direction (plus or minus, with any net deviation of opposite direction considered to be zero for purposes of computations of this subparagraph) computed pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph for the month immediately preceding; plus

(iii) One cent for the least of:

(a) Each such percentage point of net deviation;

(b) Each percentage point of net deviation of like direction computed pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph for the month immediately preceding, or

(c) Each percentage point of net deviation of like direction computed pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph for the second preceding month;

3. Add as § 943.54 the following:

§ 943.54 Use of equivalent prices.

If for any reason a price quotation required by this order for computing class prices or for any other purpose is not available in the manner described, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to the price which is required.

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 21st day of June 1960, to be effective on and after the 1st day of July 1960.

Assistant Secretary.

Title 13—BUSINESS CREDIT AND ASSISTANCE

Chapter I—Small Business Administration

[Amdt. 5]

PART 107—SMALL BUSINESS INVESTMENT COMPANIES

Insurance

There was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 23, 1960 (25 F.R. 3556), a proposal to amend § 107.308–8, relating to insurance.

Interested persons were given an opportunity to present their comments or suggestions pertaining thereto, to the Small Business Investment Division, Small Business Administration, Washington 25, D.C., within 30 days of the date of publication of the notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by the interested persons regarding the proposed amendment, the amendment of regulations as so proposed, with changes resulting from such consideration, is hereby adopted as set forth below.

The Small Business Investment Companies Regulation (23 F.R. 9383), as amended (25 F.R. 1397, 2354, 3316), is hereby further amended by:

Deleting § 107.308–8 and substituting in lieu thereof the following new § 107.308–8:

§ 107.308–8 Insurance.

(a) A Licensee shall maintain fidelity or such other types of bonds or insurance as shall be required by SBA.

(b) Each Licensee shall provide and maintain a fidelity bond in form acceptable to SBA covering each officer or employee who has control over or access to cash, securities, or other property of the Licensee. Such bond shall cover all such persons and shall be approved by the board of directors of the Licensee for the protection of the Licensee. Brokers Blanket Bond, Standard Form No. 14, or other bond containing equivalent surety provisions, will be acceptable to SBA. Each such bond must be executed by a surety holding a certificate of authority from the Secretary of the Treasury under the act of Congress approved July 30, 1947 (6 U.S.C., secs. 6–13) as an acceptable surety on Federal bonds in the State or jurisdiction concerned. In lieu of the foregoing, a Licensee which submits evidence satisfactory to SBA that it has suitable fidelity bond coverage in form and substance acceptable to SBA in an amount at least equal to the minimum coverage required for such company in the table set forth below may be considered as having met the requirements of this section upon written approval by SBA. The minimum amount of fidelity bond for each Licensee acceptable to SBA shall be based upon the total amount of the assets of the Licensee plus the unpaid balance of loans and investments which the Licensee has contracted to service for others, as follows:

Assets	Minimum coverage
Up to $300,000	$20,000

[1] $225,000 plus $10,000 for each $1,000,000 or fraction thereof over $15,000,000, except that no Licensee shall be required to provide and maintain a fidelity bond in an amount greater than $1,000,000.

This amendment shall become effective 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: June 20, 1960.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter III—Federal Aviation Agency

SUBCHAPTER C—AIRCRAFT REGULATIONS

[Reg. Docket No. 362; Amdt. 171]

PART 507—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Sikorsky S–51 and S–55 Helicopters

A proposal to amend Part 507 of the regulations of the Administrator to include an airworthiness directive requiring removal of hollow shank rod end bearings in the rotor control arm of Sikorsky S–51 and S–55 helicopters, and replacement with solid shank units was published in 25 F.R. 3858.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the amendment. No objections were received.

In consideration of the foregoing § 507.10(a) (14 CFR Part 507) is hereby amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

SIKORSKY. Applies to all Model S–51 and S–55 helicopters.

Compliance required by August 15, 1960.

A fatigue failure of the RE5M7 shank rod end bearing has occurred in the S–55 main rotor upper controls. This rod had a hollow shank rather than a solid shank and is not an approved part. Preliminary investigation indicates that the hollow shank part has been installed in S–51 and S–55 helicopters because of improper identification. To ensure removal of this part from service, the following must be accomplished:

Unless already accomplished, remove the following rod assemblies and inspect for RE5M7 rod end bearings with hollow shanks and S510085 pivots with hollow shanks, as noted (S510085 pivots are altered RE5M7 rod ends).

(a) Model S–51 main rotor assembly, P/N S510000.

(1) P/N S510333 (Alternate P/N S510140) rod assembly contains one RE5M7 rod end.

(2) P/N S510062 rod assembly contains one RE5M7 rod end and one P/N S510085 pivot.

(b) Model S–51 main rotor assembly, P/N S10–10–1100.

(1) P/N S510333 rod assembly contains one RE5M7 rod end.

(c) Model S–55 servo unit assembly, P/N S14–40–5000.

(1) P/N S14–40–5024 control arm contains one RE5M7 rod end.

Remove all hollow shank units and replace with solid shank units.

Administrator.

PART 507—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Lockheed 188 Series Aircraft

A more positive means for securing the antiswirl vane assembly on Lockheed 188 Series aircraft was developed subsequent to adoption of Amendment 165, 25 F.R. 4736. It consists of installation of a strap between the engine tailpipe and the antiswirl vane assembly, as well as an improved clamp. When the rework is incorporated, the required daily visual inspection of the assembly may be discontinued.

Therefore, the Administrator found that a situation existed requiring immediate action, that notice and public procedure thereon were impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and that good cause existed for taking corrective action. Accordingly an amendment to Amendment 165 was adopted on May 26, 1960, and made effective immediately as to all known operators of Lockheed 188 Series aircraft by individual telegrams dated May 26, 1960. It is hereby published as an amendment to § 507.10(a) (14 CFR 507) and shall become effective upon the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER as to all other persons:

Amendment 165, Lockheed 188 Series aircraft, as it appeared in 25 F.R. 4736 is amended by adding a new subparagraph (4) under paragraph (a) as follows:

(4) No later than the next periodic inspection the straightener installation must be reworked by the addition of a 1- by 4- by 0.063-inch steel strap between the engine tailpipe and straightener assembly in accordance with Lockheed L–188 Service Bulletin Number 479 and Allison Commercial Engine Bulletin 72–190. Also, the hinge portion of the present swirl vane straightener clamp must be reinforced by installing two retainers and a stainless steel reinforcing strap in accordance with Lockheed Service Bulletin No. 88/SB–363 or install a new production clamp LAC P/N 751341–1 or equivalent. When the 1- by 4- by 0.063-inch strap has been installed and the swirl vane straightener clamp reinforced or replaced, the daily visual inspection of the clamp and straightener assembly required in subparagraph (3) may be discontinued and the inspection frequency normal to the operator's maintenance plan may be resumed.

This amendment shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER as to all persons not receiving individual notice by telegram dated May 26, 1960.

(Secs. 313(a), 601, 603; 72 Stat. 752, 775, 776; 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 17, 1960.

E. R. QUESADA,
Administrator.

[Reg. Docket No. 429; Amdt. 173]

PART 507—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Douglas DC–8 Series Aircraft

There have been recent reports of Douglas DC–8 fuel dump chutes oscillating when being extended and retracted. Such oscillations cause cracking of the dump chutes which may result in fuel impinging on the wing and flap creating a fire hazard, or separation of aircraft parts in flight. It has been determined that these oscillations are caused by aerodynamic loading of the dump chutes and a reduction of airspeed during operation of the fuel dumping system will avoid occurrence.

In the interest of safety the Administrator finds that notice and public procedures hereon are impracticable and that good cause exists for making this amendment effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

In consideration of the foregoing § 507.10(a) (14 CFR Part 507) is hereby amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

DOUGLAS. Applies to all DC–8 Series aircraft.

Compliance required as indicated.

Several cases of fuel dump chute oscillation have occurred during extension and retraction of the chutes. This has caused cracking of the chutes which may create a hazardous condition by allowing fuel impingement on the wing and flap when dumping fuel. Oscillation of dump chutes occurs at speeds in excess of 200 knots indicated airspeed. To prevent possible fuel dump chute cracking, the following action is required.

(a) No later than 10 days following publication of this airworthiness directive in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the maximum speed for fuel dump chute operation and fuel dumping is restricted to not more than 200 knots indicated airspeed and the following placard shall be posted in full view of the pilot:

Do not exceed 200 KIAS when operating dump chute and dumping fuel.

The limitations section of the FAA approved airplane flight manual is hereby amended to incorporate this limitation.

(b) Not later than the next periodic inspection ascertain that the dump cable control system is properly rigged in accordance with Douglas drawing No. 7651290 BS change. (Douglas telegraphic alert Service Bulletin No. A28–16 covers the above speed limitation.)

This amendment shall become effective upon the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 313(a), 601, 603; 72 Stat. 752, 775, 776; 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 17, 1960.

E. R. QUESADA,
Administrator.

PART 507—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Lockheed 188 Series Aircraft

Extensive operation of a new torquemeter assembly design on Lockheed 188 Series aircraft which incorporates additional bearing in the mid-section has resulted in trouble-free operation to date. Consequently, the current requirement in Amendment 134, 25 F.R. 3396, for feathering propellers in event the torquemeter should go to zero or full scale in flight, adopted as safeguard against torqueshaft failures, is unnecessary for operators using the new torqueshaft. Paragraph (a) of Amendment 134 is amended to reflect this development.

Since this amendment imposes no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and it may be made effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

In consideration of the foregoing, § 507.10(a) (14 CFR Part 507) is amended as follows:

Amendment 134, Lockheed 188 Series aircraft as it appeared in 25 F.R. 3396 is amended by amending paragraph (a)(2) to read as follows:

(2) Feather propeller in event the torquemeter indicator should go to zero or full scale in flight. This placard may be removed from the aircraft when all its installed engines are equipped with mid-bearing torquemeter, P/N 6823900 identified by a ½-inch by 2½-inch blue stripe on forward bevel of housing as described in Allison Commercial Engine Bulletin No. 72–113. In case of aircraft having one or more, but not all, engines equipped with mid-bearing torquemeters, the placard may be suitably altered to indicate those engines so equipped, which are exempt from compliance with its provisions.

This amendment shall become effective upon the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Secs. 313(a), 601, 603; 72 Stat. 752, 775, 776; 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 17, 1960.

Administrator.

PART 507—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Lockheed 188 Series Aircraft

As a result of investigations, it has been determined that Aeroproducts A6441FN–606 propellers installed on Lockheed 188 Series aircraft must continue to be track checked after compliance with inspection and rework covered in AD 59–23–2. Amendment 59, 24 F.R. 9620. Accordingly, a new directive superseding AD 59–23–2 is being issued requiring a track check every 120 flight-hours.

In the interest of safety the Administrator finds that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and that good cause exists for making this amendment effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

In consideration of the foregoing § 507.10(a) (14 CFR Part 507) is hereby amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

LOCKHEED. Applies to all Aeroproducts A6441FN–606 propellers installed on Lockheed 188 Series aircraft.

Compliance required as indicated.

As a result of investigations, it has been determined that the following must be accomplished to minimize the possible occurrence of propeller roughness and/or failures:

All blades except those installed on engines equipped with operating vibration indicators must be checked for track per Aeroproducts Service Information Letter 59–27 dated March 11, 1959, within the next 120 flight-hours. Propellers with any blade out of track more than ¼ inch from the other blades in the propeller must be removed from service prior to further flight. This inspection must be repeated at intervals not to exceed 120 flight-hours. If excessive propeller roughness is encountered or is detected by the vibration indicators, the propeller(s) shall be track checked prior to further flight.

(Aeroproducts Service Information Letter 59–27 dated March 11, 1959, covers this same subject.)

This supersedes AD 59–23–2, Amdt. 59, 24 F.R. 9620.

This amendment shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 313(a), 601, 603; 72 Stat. 752, 775, 776; 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423)

Issued in Washington, D. C., on June 17, 1960.

E. R. QUESADA,
Administrator.

[Reg. Docket No. 432; Amdt. 176]

PART 507—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Lockheed 188 Series Aircraft

Several incidents of overpressurization of the fuel tanks have occurred during refueling of Lockheed 188 Series aircraft. These were attributed to failure of the automatic shutoff devices or presence of foreign objects in the system. Overpressurization can result in fuel tank rupture with consequent fuel leakage, constituting a serious fire hazard. For those aircraft not equipped with wing tank pressure relief overflow valves, it is necessary that proper refueling procedures be followed, as well as constant monitoring of the fueling system control panel during all fueling operations. Accordingly, more detailed requirements are necessary than those currently provided in Amendment 134, 25 F.R. 3396.

In the interest of safety the Administrator finds that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and that good cause exists for making this amendment effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

In consideration of the foregoing § 507.10(a) (14 CFR Part 507) is hereby amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive to supersede paragraph (d) of Amendment 134, 25 F.R. 3396:

LOCKHEED. Applies to all 188 airplanes not equipped with fuel tank pressure relief overflow valves.

Compliance required as indicated.

Service experience indicates that a check of the fueling system valves at a high fuel level point should be made when filling tanks to capacity. This check is necessary to determine that the system is functioning properly since failure of a fueling valve to close fully may subject the tank to high fuel pressure which could cause not only tank rupture but structural damage. To prevent possible fuel tank overpressurizing, the following actions are required commencing not later than 10 days after publication of this airworthiness directive in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(a) Conduct a check of the fueling system at the start of each fueling operation in accordance with the placard located on the fueling panel.

(b)(1) On all outboard tanks and on extended inboard tanks, when installed, conduct a second check of the primary and secondary controls between 8,000 and 10,000 pounds fuel per item 2 on the placard.

(2) When standard inboard tanks are installed, conduct a second check of the primary and secondary controls between 4,500 and 6,500 pounds fuel.

(c) Any malfunctions indicated by the checks required by items (a) and (b) of this airworthiness directive must be corrected prior to continuance of pressure fueling to that tank.

(d) The fueling panel will be monitored during the entire fueling operation.

This supersedes paragraph (d) of Amdt. 134, 25 F.R. 3396.

This amendment shall become effective upon date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 313(a), 601, 603; 72 Stat. 752, 775, 776; 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 17, 1960.

E. R. QUESADA,
Administrator.

SUBCHAPTER E—AIR NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

[Reg. Docket No. 420; Amdt. 171]

PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

Miscellaneous Alterations

The new and revised standard instrument approach procedures appearing hereinafter are adopted to become effective and/or canceled when indicated in order to promote safety. The revised procedures supersede the existing procedures of the same classification now in effect for the airports specified therein. For the convenience of the users, the revised procedures specify the complete procedure and indicate the changes to the existing procedures. Pursuant to authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 5662), I find that a situation exists requiring immediate action in the interest of safety, that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable, and that good cause exists for making this amendment effective on less than thirty days' notice.

Part 609 (14 CFR, Part 609) is amended as follows:

1. The low or medium frequency range procedures prescribed in § 609.100(a) are amended to read in part:

In the Matter of Fiber Enterprises, Inc., a Corporation, Fairfield Wool Company, Inc., a Corporation, and Samuel Young, Individually and as an Officer of Both Corporations

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging two associated corporations, in New York City and Danbury, Conn., respectively, and their common officer, engaged in reprocessing fur products by separating the hair from the skin and selling the resultant fiber to cloth manufacturers, with violating the Wool Products Labeling Act by falsely labeling and invoicing as "Vicuna", "100% Processed Vicuna", etc., interstate shipments of hair fibers which were those of the guanaquito or young guanaco of the "Llama" genus.

Following the usual hearings, the hearing examiner made his initial decision, including findings, conclusion, and order to cease and desist which, after modification, became on May 6 the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist, as modified, is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents, Fiber Enterprises, Inc., a corporation, and its officers; Fairfield Wool Company, Inc., a corporation, and its officers; and Samuel Young, individually and as an officer of both corporations, and respondents' representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the introduction or manufacture for introduction into commerce, or the offering for sale, sale, transportation or distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act and the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, of "wool products" as such products are defined in and subject to the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, do forthwith cease and desist from misbranding such products by:

1. Falsely or deceptively stamping, tagging, labeling, or otherwise identifying such products as to the character or amount of the constituent fibers contained therein;

2. Failing to securely affix to or place on each such product a stamp, tag, label or other means of identification showing in a clear and conspicuous manner:

(a) The percentage of the total fiber weight of such wool product, exclusive of ornamentation not exceeding five percentum of said total fiber weight, of (1) wool, (2) reprocessed wool, (3) reused wool, (4) each fiber other than wool where said percentage by weight of such fiber is five percentum or more, and (5) the aggregate of all other fibers;

(b) The maximum percentage of the total weight of such wool products, of any nonfibrous loading, filling, or adulterating matter;

(c) The name or the registered identification number of the manufacturer of such wool product or of one or more persons engaged in introducing such wool product into commerce, or in the offering for sale, sale, transportation, distribution or delivery for shipment thereof in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939.

It is further ordered, That respondents, Fiber Enterprises, Inc., a corporation, and its officers; Fairfield Wool Company, Inc., a corporation, and its officers; and Samuel Young, individually and as an officer of both corporations; and said respondents' representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of fur fiber, or any other products, in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from misrepresenting the constituent fibers of respondents' products, or the percentages or amounts of the fibers contained therein, in sales invoices or by any other means.

By "Order Modifying Initial Decision", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is further ordered, That respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist contained in the initial decision as modified.

In the Matter of Globe Rubber Products Corporation, a Corporation, and Emanuel Meyer, Individually and as an Officer of Said Corporation

The complaint in this case charged Philadelphia distributors of rubber products, including swimming ware and household goods, to jobbers and retailers for resale, with preticketing some of their products with fictitious and excessive prices, represented thereby as the usual retail price.

Accepting a consent agreement, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on May 7 the decision of the Commission.

Said order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Globe Rubber Products Corporation, a corporation, and its officers, and Emanuel Meyer, as an officer of said corporation, and respondents' agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of rubber products or other merchandise in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

There shall be "public disclosure" within the meaning of this order, by any employee of a radio or television broadcasting station, or any other person, who selects or participates in the selection and broadcasting of a record when he shall disclose, or cause to have disclosed, to the listening public at the time the record is played, that his selection and broadcasting of such record are in consideration for compensation of some nature, directly or indirectly, received by him or his employer.

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging a New York City operator of an interstate chain of some 85 retail stores, with violating the Wool Products Labeling Act by tagging as "Dacron and Worsted", men's suits which were in fact 48 percent dacron, 44 percent wool, and 8 percent rayon, as disclosed by a separate label; and with representing falsely in advertising that certain suits had regularly sold at an excessive price set out as "Value", and were selling at "Factory Price", and that the fabric therein was "guaranteed" without disclosing the extent of the guarantee.

Accepting an agreement for a consent order, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on May 5 the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Coghlen Corp., a corporation, and its officers, representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the introduction into commerce, or the offering for sale, sale, transportation, or distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act and the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, of woolen men's clothing or other "wool products," as such products are defined in and subject to the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, do forthwith cease and desist from misbranding such products by: Falsely or deceptively stamping, tagging, labeling, or otherwise identifying such products as to the character or amount of the constituent fibers included therein.

It is further ordered, That respondent Coghlen Corp., a corporation, and its officers, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the advertising, offering for sale, sale, or distribution of men's clothing or other merchandise in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

A. Representing, directly or indirectly:

1. That any amount is respondent's usual and customary retail price of merchandise when it is in excess of the price at which said merchandise has been customarily and usually sold by respondent in the recent, regular course of its business;

2. That respondent sells its merchandise at the price charged by the factory;

3. That such merchandise is guaranteed, unless the nature and extent of the guarantee, and the manner in which the guarantor will perform thereunder, are clearly and conspicuously set forth;

B. Misrepresenting in any manner the amount of savings available to purchasers of respondent's merchandise.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Coghlen Corp. (formerly Stein's Stores, Inc.) shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with the order to cease and desist.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 722; 15 U.S.C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 2, 49 Stat. 1527; 15 U.S.C. 13) [Cease and desist order, Wetter Numbering Machine Company, Inc., Brooklyn, N.Y., Docket 7700, May 10, 1960]

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging a Brooklyn, N.Y., manufacturer of typographical numbering machines for the graphic arts industry with violating section 2(d) of the Clayton Act by paying promotional allowances to certain favored customers—such as a payment of $1,500 for advertising to Foster Type and Equipment Co., Inc., of Philadelphia—while failing to make comparable allowances available to their competitors.

Accepting an agreement for a consent order, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on May 10 the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Wetter Numbering Machine Company, Inc., its officers, employees, agents and representatives, directly or through any corporate or other device, in the course of its business in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Clayton Act, as amended, do forthwith cease and desist from: Making or contracting to make, to or for the benefit of any customer, any payment of anything of value as compensation or in consideration for any advertising or other services or facilities furnished by or through such customer, in connection with the handling, resale or offering for resale of typographical numbering machines manufactured, sold, or offered for sale by respondent, unless such payment or consideration is affirmatively offered or otherwise made available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the resale or distribution of such products.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondent herein shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: May 10, 1960.

By the Commission.

PART 92—WOODWORKING MACHINERY INDUSTRY

Promulgation of Trade Practice Rules

Due proceedings having been held under the trade practice conference procedure in pursuance of the Act of Congress approved September 26, 1914, as amended (Federal Trade Commission Act), and other provisions of law administered by the Commission:

It is now ordered, That the trade practice rules as hereinafter set forth, which have been approved by the Commission in this proceeding, be promulgated as of June 24, 1960.

Statement by the Commission. Trade practice rules for the Woodworking Machinery Industry, as hereinafter set forth, are promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission under the trade practice conference procedure. Such rules constitute a revision and extension of the trade practice rules for the Woodworking Machinery Industry promulgated by the Commission on May 3, 1933, and supersede the 1933 rules.

The industry for which these rules are established is composed of persons, firms, corporations and organizations engaged in the manufacture, sale, offering for sale, lease, or distribution of any type of new, rebuilt, or used power-driven machinery which is designed for use in the commercial fabrication of logs and wood into finished or semi-finished products, and which is of such size, weight, or type as not to be easily and conveniently transported by hand; and parts and accessories for such machinery.

The rules are directed to the prevention and elimination of various practices deemed to be violative of laws administered by the Commission. They are to be applied to such end and to the exclusion of any acts or practices which suppress competition or otherwise restrain trade.

Proceedings for the establishment of these rules were instituted upon application of the Woodworking Machinery Manufacturers' Association. After due consideration of proposals received, proposed rules for the Woodworking Machinery Industry were published by the Commission and made available to all industry members and other interested or affected parties upon public notice whereby they were afforded opportunity to present their views, including such pertinent information, suggestions, or amendments as they desired to offer and to be heard in the premises. Pursuant to such notice, public hearing was held in New York, N.Y., on December 4, 1959, and all matters there presented, or otherwise received in the proceedings, were duly considered by the Commission.

Following such hearing, and upon full consideration of the entire matter, final action was taken by the Commission whereby it approved the rules as hereinafter set forth.

Such rules become operative thirty (30) days from the date of promulgation.

The rules. These rules promulgated by the Commission are designed to foster and promote the maintenance of fair competitive conditions in the interest of protecting industry, trade, and the public. It is to this end, and to the exclusion of any act or practice which fixes or controls prices through combination or agreement, or which unreasonably restrains trade or suppresses competition, or otherwise unlawfully injures, destroys, or prevents competition, that the rules are to be applied.

Group I. The unfair trade practices embraced in the rules herein are considered to be unfair methods of competition, unfair or deceptive acts or practices, or other illegal practices, prohibited under laws administered by the Federal Trade Commission, and appropriate proceedings in the public interest will be taken by the Commission to prevent the use, by any person, partnership, corporation, or other organization subject to its jurisdiction, of such unlawful practices in commerce.

§ 92.0 The industry and its products defined.

(a) Products of the industry consist of all types of new, rebuilt, or used power-driven machinery which are designed for use in the commercial fabrication of logs and wood into finished or semi-finished products, and which are of such size, weight, or type as not to be easily and conveniently transported by hand; and parts and accessories for such products.

(b) Members of the industry are persons, firms, corporations, and organizations engaged in the manufacture, sale, offering for sale, lease, or distribution of such products.

GROUP I

§ 92.1 Misrepresentation (general).

It is an unfair trade practice to make or publish, or cause to be made or published, by way of advertising, labeling or otherwise, any statement or representation which, directly or by implication, has the capacity and tendency or effect of deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers as to the grade, quality, quantity, weight, working range, efficiency, use, size, material, finish, origin, character, nature, design, condition, performance, durability, manufacture, distribution, availability, or delivery dates, of any industry product, or part or accessory therefor, or which has the capacity and tendency or effect of deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers in any other material respect. [Rule 1]

§ 92.2 Misrepresentation as to character of business.

It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to represent, directly or by implication, in his advertising or otherwise, that he is a producer or manufacturer of products of the industry, or that he owns or controls a factory making such products, when such is not the fact, or in any other manner to misrepresent the character, extent, or type of his business. [Rule 2]

§ 92.3 Misrepresenting products as conforming to standard.

In the sale, offering for sale, lease, or distribution of industry products, it is an unfair trade practice to represent, through advertising or otherwise, that such products conform to any standards recognized in or applicable to the industry when such is not the fact. [Rule 3]

§ 92.4 Guarantees, warranties, etc.

(a) In the sale, offering for sale, lease, or distribution of industry products, it is an unfair trade practice for any industry member:

(1) To represent that any industry product is guaranteed unless, prominently and in close conjunction with such representation, the identity of the guarantor, the extent and nature of the guarantee, and any material conditions or limitations relating to the liability of the guarantor under the guarantee, are adequately and nondeceptively disclosed; or

(2) To offer or use any guarantee respecting an industry product under which the guarantor fails to observe his obligations; or

(3) To offer or use any guarantee which is otherwise deceptive or unfair.

(b) This section shall be applicable not only to guarantees but also to warranties, to purported guarantees and warranties, and to any promise or representation in the nature of a guarantee or warranty.

NOTE: On April 26, 1960, the Commission adopted "Guides Against Deceptive Advertising of Guarantees," which are set forth as an appendix to these rules.[1]

[Rule 4]

§ 92.5 Deception as to rebuilt or second-hand products.

(a) It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to sell, offer for sale, advertise, or otherwise represent, any industry product as being new when such is not the fact.

(b) In the marketing of industry products which are second-hand or rebuilt, or which contain second-hand or rebuilt parts, it is an unfair trade practice to fail to make full and nondeceptive disclosure, by a conspicuous tag or label firmly attached to the products, and in all advertising and promotional literature relating thereto, of the fact:

(1) That such products are second-hand, rebuilt, or contain rebuilt or second-hand parts, as the case may be; and

(2) That the rebuilding was done by other than the original manufacturer, when such is the case; when the failure to make such disclosure has the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading purchasers or prospective purchasers of such products. [Rule 5]

§ 92.6 Substitution of products.

It is an unfair trade practice for a member of the industry to make an unauthorized substitution of products, where such substitution has the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, by:

(a) Shipping or delivering industry products which do not conform to samples submitted, to specifications (in bids or otherwise) upon which the sale or lease is consummated, or to representations made prior to securing the order, without advising the purchaser or lessee of the substitution and obtaining his consent thereto prior to making shipment or delivery; or

(b) Falsely representing the reason for making a substitution.

NOTE: Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the application of such tolerances as are agreed upon between buyer and seller.

[Rule 6]

§ 92.7 Deceptive use or imitation or simulation of trade or corporate names, trade-marks, etc.

It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry:

(a) To imitate or simulate the trade-marks, trade names, brands, or labels of competitors, with the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers; or

(b) To use any trade name, corporate name, trade-mark, or other trade designation, which has the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers as to the name, nature, or origin of any product of the industry, or of any material used therein, or which is false, deceptive, or misleading in any other material respect. [Rule 7]

It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to issue invoices, billings, or sales slips which by reason of misstatements therein or omissions therefrom have the capacity and tendency or effect of deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers in any material respect. [Rule 8]

§ 92.9 Defamation of competitors or false disparagement of their products.

The defamation of competitors by falsely inputing to them dishonorable conduct, inability to perform contracts, questionable credit standing, or by other false representations, or the false disparagement of the products of competitors in any respect, or of their business methods, selling prices, values, credit terms, policies, or services, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 9]

§ 92.10 Inducing breach of contract.

(a) Knowingly inducing or attempting to induce the breach of existing lawful contracts between competitors and their customers or their suppliers, or interfering with or obstructing the performance of any such contractural duties or services, under any circumstance having the capacity and tendency or effect of substantially injuring or lessening present or potential competition, is an unfair trade practice.

(b) Nothing in this section is intended to imply that it is improper for any industry member to solicit the business of a customer of a competing industry member; nor is the section to be construed as in anywise authorizing any agreement, understanding, or planned common course of action by two or more industry members not to solicit business from the customers of either of them, or from customers of any other industry member. [Rule 10]

§ 92.11 Enticing away employees of competitors.

It is an unfair trade practice wilfully to entice away employees or sales representatives of competitors with the intent and effect of thereby unduly hampering or injuring competitors in their business and destroying or substantially lessening competition: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting employees from seeking more favorable employment, or as prohibiting employers from hiring or offering employment to employees of competitors in good faith and not for the purpose of injuring, destroying, or preventing competition. [Rule 11]

§ 92.12 Commercial bribery.

It is an unfair trade practice for a member of the industry, directly or indirectly, to give, or offer to give, or permit or cause to be given, money or anything of value to agents, employees, or representatives of customers or prospective customers, or to agents, employees, or representatives of competitors' customers or prospective customers, without the knowledge of their employers or principals, as an inducement to influence their employers or principals to purchase or contract to purchase products manufactured or sold by such industry member or the maker of such gifts or offer, or to influence such employers or principals to refrain from dealing in the products of competitors or from dealing or contracting to deal with competitors. [Rule 12]

§ 92.13 Procurement of competitors' confidential information.

It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to obtain information concerning the business of a competitor by bribery of an employee or agent of such competitor, by false or misleading statements or representations, by the impersonation of one in authority, or by any other unfair means, and to use the information so obtained so as to injure said competitor in his business or to suppress competition or unreasonably restrain trade. [Rule 13]

§ 92.14 Tie-in sales—coercing purchase of one product as a prerequisite to the purchase of other products.

The practice of coercing the purchase of one or more products as a prerequisite to the purchase of one or more other products, where the effect may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or unreasonably to restrain trade, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 14]

§ 92.15 Unfair threats of infringement suits.

The circulation of threats of suit for infringement of patents or trade-marks among customers or prospective customers of competitors, not made in good faith but for the purpose or with the effect of thereby harassing or intimidating such customers or prospective customers, or of unduly hampering, injuring, or prejudicing competitors in their business, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 15]

§ 92.16 Consignment distribution.

(a) It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to employ the practice of shipping industry products on consignment without the express request or prior consent of the purchasers.

(b) It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to employ the practice of shipping industry products on consignment or pretended consignment for the purpose and with the effect of artificially clogging or closing trade outlets and unduly restricting competitors' use of said trade outlets in getting their products to purchasers through regular channels of distribution, thereby injuring, destroying, or preventing competition or tending to create a monopoly or unreasonably to restrain trade.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize any understanding or agreement, combination or conspiracy, or planned common course of action, by and between industry members, mutually to conform or restrict their practice of shipping goods on consignment with the intent or effect of lessening competition. [Rule 16]

§ 92.17 Prohibited forms of trade restraints (unlawful price fixing, etc.)[2]

It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry, either directly or indirectly, to engage in any planned common course of action, or to enter into or take part in any understanding, agreement, combination, or conspiracy, with one or more members of the industry, or with any other person or persons, to fix or maintain the price of any goods or otherwise unlawfully to restrain trade; or to use any form of threat, intimidation, or coercion to induce any member of the industry or other person or persons to engage in any such planned common course of action, or to become a party to any such understanding, agreement, combination, or conspiracy. [Rule 17]

§ 92.18 Prohibited exclusive deals.

It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to lease, or contract to sell or sell any industry product, or to fix a price charged therefor, or discount from, or rebate upon, such price, on the condition, agreement, or understanding that the lessee or purchaser thereof shall not use or deal in the products of a competitor or competitors of such industry member, where the effect of such lease, sale or contract for sale, or such condition, agreement, or understanding, may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce. [Rule 18]

§ 92.19 Prohibited sales below cost.

(a) The practice of selling products of the industry at a price less than the cost thereof to the seller, with the purpose or intent, and where the effect is, or where there is a reasonable probability that the effect will be, to substantially injure, suppress, or stifle competition or tend to create a monopoly, is an unfair trade practice.

(b) This section is not to be construed as prohibiting all sales below cost, but only such selling below the seller's cost as is resorted to and pursued with the wrongful intent or purpose referred to and where the effect is, or where there is reasonable probability that the effect will be, to substantially injure, suppress, or stifle competition or to create a monopoly. Among the situations in which the requisite purpose or intent would ordinarily be lacking are cases in which such sales were: (1) Made under judicial process; or (2) made in bona fide discontinuance of business in the goods concerned.

(c) As used in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, the term "cost" means the respective seller's cost and not an average cost in the industry whether such average cost be determined by an industry cost survey or some other method. It consists of the total outlay or expenditure by the seller in the acquisition, production, and distribution of the products involved, and comprises all elements of cost such as labor, material, depreciation, taxes (except taxes on net income and such other taxes as are not properly applicable to cost), and general overhead expenses, incurred by the seller in the acquisition, manufacture, processing, preparation for marketing, sale, and delivery of the products. Not to be included are dividends or interest on borrowed or invested capital, or non-operating losses, such as fire losses and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets. Operating cost should not be reduced by items of nonoperating income, such as income from investment, and gain on the sale of capital assets.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed as relieving an industry member from compliance with any of the requirements of the Robinson-Patman Act. [Rule 19]

§ 92.20 Prohibited discrimination.[3]

(a) Prohibited discriminatory prices, rebates, refunds, discounts, credits, etc.,

[1] Copies available at the Federal Trade Commission.

[2] The inhibitions of this section are subject to Public Law 542, approved July 14, 1952, 66 Stat. 632 (the McGuire Act) which provides that with respect to a commodity which bears, or the label or container of which bears, the trade-mark, brand, or name of the producer or distributor of such commodity and which is in free and open competition with commodities of the same general class produced or distributed by others, a seller of such a commodity may enter into a contract or agreement with a buyer thereof which establishes a minimum or stipulated price at which such commodity may be resold by such buyer when such contract or agreement is lawful as applied to intrastate transactions under the laws of the State, Territory, or territorial jurisdiction in which the resale is to be made or to which the commodity is to be transported for such resale, and when such contract or agreement is not between manufacturers, or between wholesalers, or between brokers, or between factors, or between retailers, or between persons, firms, or corporations in competition with each other.

[3] As used in this section, the word "commerce" means "trade or commerce among the several States and with foreign nations, or between the District of Columbia or any Territory of the United States and any State, Territory, or foreign nation, or between any insular possessions or other places under the jurisdiction of the United States, or between any such possession or place and any State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia or any foreign nation, or within the District of Columbia or any Territory or any insular possession or other place under the jurisdiction of the United States."

which effect unlawful price discrimination. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce, in the course of such commerce, to grant or allow, secretly or openly, directly or indirectly, any rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other form of price differential, where such rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other form of price differential, effects a discrimination in price between different purchasers of goods of like grade and quality, where either or any of the purchases involved therein are in commerce, and where the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce, or to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination, or with customers of either of them: Provided, however:

(1) That the goods involved in any such transaction are sold for use, consumption, or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States, and are not purchased by schools, colleges, universities, public libraries, churches, hospitals, and charitable institutions not operated for profit, as supplies for their own use;

(2) That nothing contained in this paragraph shall prevent differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which such commodities are to such purchasers sold or delivered;

NOTE: Cost justification to be based on net savings in cost of manufacture, sale or delivery. Cost justification under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph depends upon net savings in cost based on all facts relevant to the transactions under the terms of such subparagraph. For example, if a seller regularly grants a discount based upon the purchase of a specified quantity by a single order for a single delivery, and this discount is justified by cost differences, it does not follow that the same discount can be cost justified if granted to a purchaser of the same quantity by multiple orders or for multiple deliveries.

(3) That nothing contained in this section shall prevent persons engaged in selling goods, wares, or merchandise in commerce from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions and not in restraint of trade;

(4) That nothing contained in this paragraph shall prevent price changes from time to time where made in response to changing conditions affecting the market for or the marketability of the goods concerned, such as but not limited to, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in the goods concerned;

(5) That nothing contained in this section shall prevent the meeting in good faith of an equally low price of a competitor.

NOTE: Subsection (b) of Section 2 of the Clayton Act, as amended, reads as follows:

"Upon proof being made, at any hearing on a complaint under this section, that there has been discrimination in price or services or facilities furnished, the burden of rebutting the prima facie case thus made by showing justification shall be upon the person charged with a violation of this section, and unless justification shall be affirmatively shown, the Commission is authorized to issue an order terminating the discrimination: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall prevent a seller rebutting the prima facie case thus made by showing that his lower price or the furnishing of services or facilities to any purchaser or purchasers was made in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor, or the services or facilities furnished by a competitor."

(b) Examples of prohibited price differential practices. The following are examples of price differential practices to be considered as subject to the prohibitions of paragraph (a) of this section when involving goods of like grade and quality which are sold for use, consumption, or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States, and which are not purchased by schools, colleges, universities, public libraries, churches, hospitals, and charitable institutions not operated for profit, as supplies for their own use, and when:

(1) The commerce requirements specified in paragraph (a) of this section are present; and

(2) The price differential has a reasonable probability of substantially lessening competition or tending to create a monopoly in any line of commerce, or of injuring, destroying, or preventing competition with the industry member or with the customer receiving the benefit of the price differential, or with customers of either of them; and

(3) The price differential is not justified by cost savings (see paragraph (a) (2) of this section); and

(4) The price differential is not made in response to changing conditions affecting the market for or the marketability of the goods concerned (see paragraph (a) (4) of this section); and

(5) The lower price was not made to meet in good faith an equally low price of a competitor (see paragraph (a) (5) of this section).

Example No. 1. The granting of a discount on a purchase made by a customer which is not granted on purchases made by all other customers, or which is not granted in the same amount on the purchases of all other customers.

Example No. 2. At the end of a given period an industry member grants a discount to a customer equivalent to a fixed percentage of the total of such customer's purchases during the period and fails to grant a discount of the same percentage to all other customers on their purchases during such period.

Example No. 3. An industry member sells goods to one or more of his customers at a higher price than he charges other customers for like merchandise. It is immaterial whether or not such discrimination is attended by misrepresentation as to the grade and quality of the products sold.

Example No. 4. Terms of 2/10th prox. are granted by an industry member to some customers on goods purchased by them from the industry member. Another customer or customers are, nevertheless, allowed to take an additional discount when making payment to the industry member within the time prescribed.

NOTE: As previously indicated, the foregoing are examples of practices to be considered violative of the prohibitions of paragraph (a) of this section when involving goods of like grade and quality and when not subject to the other exemptions, exclusions, or defenses set forth in this paragraph.

(c) Prohibited brokerage and commissions. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce, in the course of such commerce, to pay or grant, or to receive or accept, anything of value as a commission, brokerage, or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, except for services rendered in connection with the sale or purchase of goods, wares, or merchandise, either to the other party to such transaction or to an agent, representative, or other intermediary therein where such intermediary is acting in fact for or in behalf, or is subject to the direct or indirect control, of any party to such transaction other than the person by whom such compensation is so granted or paid.

(d) Prohibited advertising or promotional allowances, etc. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce to pay or contract for the payment of advertising or promotional allowances or any other thing of value to or for the benefit of a customer of such member in the course of such commerce as compensation or in consideration for any services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of any products or commodities manufactured, sold, or offered for sale by such member, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the distribution of such products or commodities.

(e) Prohibited discriminatory services or facilities. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce to discriminate in favor of one purchaser against another purchaser or purchasers of a commodity bought for resale, with or without processing, by contracting to furnish or furnishing, or by contributing to the furnishing of, any services or facilities connected with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of such commodity so purchased upon terms not accorded to all competing purchasers on proportionally equal terms.

NOTE: See subsection (b) of section 2 of the Clayton Act, as amended, which is set forth in the note concluding paragraph (a) of this section.

(f) Inducing or receiving an illegal discrimination in price. It is an unfair trade practice for any person engaged in commerce, in the course of such commerce, knowingly to induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by the foregoing provisions of paragraphs (a) to (e) of this section. [Rule 20]

§ 92.21 Aiding or abetting use of unfair trade practices.

It is an unfair trade practice for any person, firm, or corporation to aid, abet, coerce, or induce another, directly or indirectly, to use or promote the use of any unfair trade practice specified in this part. [Rule 21]

PART 1010—BONDS AND INSURANCE

Subpart A—Bonds

1. The title of Subpart A is changed as shown above.

2. Section 1010.102-51 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1010.102-51 Bid bonds for construction contracts.

Only individual bid bonds (Standard Form 24) will be used for construction contracts. If a bid bond is required, the penal amount therein should be generally 20 percent of the bid price.

2. Section 1010.102-52 is added as follows:

§ 1010.102-52 Bid bonds for sale of Government property.

(a) Two bid bond forms have been designed specifically for the sale of Government property by the Air Force. The specific or one-time bid bond is AFPI Form 90, "Bid Bond (Sale of Government Property)." The annual bid bond is AFPI Form 91, "Annual Bid Bond (Sale of Government Property)." These bid bonds are listed in § 1016.805-50 of this chapter.

(b) AFPI Forms 90 and 91 will be used for the sale of contractor inventory and termination inventory as well as the sale of surplus Government property. No other bid bond forms are authorized for use in connection with the sale of Government property.

(c) The instructions on the reverse side of each bond form will be strictly adhered to in preparing and completing the bond forms. Any deviation from either bid bond form, including the instructions, is authorized only with the prior written approval of the Commander, AMC.

(d) If a bid bond is required in connection with the sale of Government property such bond will be prepared on AFPI Form 90 and the penal amount thereof will be determined by the AF official responsible for conducting the sale (see AFM 67-1).

(e) If a bidder elects to furnish an annual bid bond, such bond will be prepared on AFPI Form 91 and submitted in duplicate to AMC (MCJCR) for review and filing of the original with the General Accounting Office. When such annual bid bond has been approved, the bond may be used throughout the Air Force. If the bid made in connection with the sale of Government property indicates that the bidder has an annual bid bond on file, verification may be obtained from AMC (MCJCR).

3. Section 1010.103 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1010.103 Performance bonds.

§ 1010.103-1 Performance bonds for contracts other than construction contracts.

See § 10.103-1 of this title.

(a) See § 10.103-1(a) of this title.

(b) A performance bond will not be required without the specific prior approval of a chief or deputy chief of a buying division or a purchasing office as appropriate to the location of the PCO. When such bonds are authorized, the penal sum will usually be no less than 20%, and only rarely will it exceed 40%, of the total amount of the contract. If a contract is increased in price to cover new or additional work, the PCO will determine whether an additional bond will be required. The consent of surety set forth in § 1010.203(a) may be accepted in lieu of the additional bond.

(c) Requests for determinations in specified classes of cases will be forwarded through channels to DCS/M, Attn: AFMPP-PR. The need for the class determination shall be fully documented. Attach six copies of the determination proposed for signature.

(d) to (e) See § 10.103-1(d) to (e) of this title.

§ 1010.103-2 Performance bonds in connection with construction contracts.

(a) Performance bonds of less than 100% of the contract price at time of award shall not be prescribed without the specific prior approval of a chief or deputy chief of a buying division or purchasing office as appropriate to the location of the PCO. The advantages to the Government which would result from requiring less than a 100% performance bond must be documented.

(b) Performance and payment bonds are not required on a construction contract not exceeding $2,000. However, if the amount of such contract is increased beyond $2,000, a performance bond and a payment bond will be required and will be based upon the total contract price, which means the original price plus the increases thereto.

(c) The Secretary of the Air Force has waived requirement of performance and payment bonds with respect to all cost-reimbursement type contracts involving construction. However, in unusual circumstances, bonds may be required if authorized in advance by the Commander, AMC. This authority has been delegated by the Commander, AMC, to Directors and Deputy Directors of Procurement and Production, Hq AMC. Submit any request for authorization to the AMC (MCPF), with statement of facts justifying requirement.

§ 1010.103–3 Annual performance bonds.

All annual performance bonds must be submitted to MCJCR, in duplicate, for review, approval, and filing of the original with the General Accounting Office. Use Standard Form 35, "Annual Performance Bond." Such bonds are not authorized without prior approval of the Procurement Law Division (MCJC), Hq AMC.

4. Section 1010.104 is revised as follows:

§ 1010.104 Payment bonds.

§ 1010.104–1 Payment bonds in connection with contracts other than construction contracts.

Such bonds are not authorized without prior approval from Pricing and Negotiation Division (MCPF), Hq AMC.

§ 1010.104–2 Payment bonds in connection with construction contracts.

See § 10.104–2 of this title.

(a) See § 10.104–2(a) of this title.

(b) See § 1010.103–2(b) regarding requirements for payment bonds for contracts initially less than $2,000 which are increased over that amount.

(c) See § 1010.103–2(c) regarding waiver of payment bonds with respect to cost-reimbursement type construction contracts.

5. Section 1010.105 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1010.105 Advance payment bonds.

Such bonds are not authorized without prior approval of MCPF.

6. Section 1010.108–54 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1010.108–54 Authority to substitute surety bonds.

The Commander, AMC, is authorized to act for the Secretary in accepting a new surety bond in substitution for a bond previously approved covering part or all of the same obligation; and in authorizing the notification of the principal and surety on the bond originally furnished that it will not be considered as security for any default occurring subsequent to the date of approval of the new bond. The Commander, AMC has not delegated the authority to relieve an original surety of liability with respect to default occurring subsequent to the date of approval of a substitute bond but has delegated the authority to accept substitute surety to MCJC without power of redelegation. Requests for approval to accept substitute surety will be referred to MCJCR for action.

7. Section 1010.108–56 is added as follows:

§ 1010.108–56 Evaluation of individual sureties.

The contracting officer, in evaluating bonds and consents of surety underwritten by individual sureties, must first ascertain that all documents, including the Affidavits of Individual Surety required by Instruction No. 2 on the reverse of Standard Forms 24, "Bid Bond," 25, "Performance Bond," and 25A, "Payment Bond," have been completely filled out and are properly executed. The contracting officer must next ascertain that each individual surety justifies his net worth "in a sum not less than the penalty of the bond" as required by Instruction No. 3 on the reverse of Standard Form 28, "Affidavit of Individual Surety". Since individual sureties are jointly and severally liable in the event of default by the principal, each individual surety must list on Standard Form 28 a net worth at least equal to the total penal amount(s) of the bond(s) or consent of surety. Example: If performance and payment bonds on a Construction contract have penal amounts of $4,000 and $2,000 respectively, each individual surety must show a net worth of at least $6000 to have the contracting officer accept his underwriting of such bonds. Normally net worth is the difference between the block on Standard Form 28 titled "Amount I am Worth in Real Estate and Personal Property, etc." and the total of the blocks titled "All Mortgages or Other Encumbrances, etc." and "All Other Bonds, etc.". Example: If an individual surety designates in the appropriate blocks on Standard Form 28 that he is worth $50,000 in real estate and personal property, that he has mortgages and other encumbrances totaling $17,000 and that he is presently a surety of other bonds with total penal amounts of $8,000, his net worth would be $25,000. In determining the net worth of an individual surety, however, the contracting officer is expected to exercise judgment in considering all relevant information furnished by the individual surety on Standard Form 28. Example: The contracting officer should normally consider the "fair value" of real estate rather than the "assessed value" for taxation purposes. However, there may be situations where the assessed value is a more realistic figure for determining net worth, and in those cases, the figure in the "Assessed Value" block on Standard Form 28 should be used. If the contracting officer cannot make a determination of net worth on the basis of information furnished on Standard Form 28, he should require the individual surety to furnish additional information. As a general rule, the contracting officer should not require extrinsic evidence of an individual surety's net worth (other than Standard Form 28) unless Standard Form 28 is not filled out completely or properly, or unless the contracting officer has reason to believe that the individual surety's statements on Standard Form 28 do not reflect his true net worth. When the contracting officer is satisfied that the net worth is adequate and he has completed his review of the bond(s) or consent of surety, they should be distributed according to § 1053.603(d) of this chapter. In the event the contracting officer has any doubt or question concerning legal sufficiency, the advice of the staff judge advocate serving the facility should be obtained before making distribution.

Subpart B—Sureties on Bonds

1. Sections 1010.201–50 and 1010.201–52 are revised to read as follows:

§ 1010.201–50 Corporate sureties, acceptability.

A list of approved sureties is published annually by the Treasury Department (TD Circular 570). This list indicates the maximum penal sum for which any corporate surety may underwrite any one obligation. On or before April 1st in each year, publications distribution officers (PDO's) will submit requirements for TD Circular 570 to the Air Force Publications Distribution Center, Washington 25, D.C., and the Center will make distribution of TD Circular 570 to the PDO's. Only sureties appearing on the Treasury list and not in excess of the underwriting limits stated therein will be accepted in the United States, its Territories and Possessions. Foreign procurement activities may use sureties not appearing on TD Circular 570 if determined by the contracting officer to be in the best interest of the Government.

§ 1010.201–52 Individual sureties.

Individual sureties are acceptable as sureties for all types of bonds. The Staff Judge Advocate (MCJCR), Hq AMC, will evaluate and approve use of individual sureties on all annual bid bonds. The contracting officer, using § 1010.108–56 as a guide, will evaluate and approve use of individual sureties on all bonds other than annual bid bonds.

2. In § 1010.203(a), footnote 1 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1010.203 Consent of surety.

• • • • •

[1] The penal amounts shall be increased as determined by the contracting officer. See §§ 1010.103–1(b), 1010.103–2(b) and 1010.104–2(b). The penalty of the payment bond shall not be increased beyond two million five hundred thousand dollars.

(Sec. 8012, 70A Stat. 488; 10 U.S.C. 8012. Interpret or apply secs. 2301–2314, 70A Stat. 127–133; 10 U.S.C. 2301–2314)

AUTHORITY: §§ 1011.101 to 1011.104 issued under sec. 8012, 70A Stat. 488; 10 U.S.C. 8012. Interpret or apply secs. 2301–2314, 70A Stat. 127–133; 10 U.S.C. 2301–2314.

§ 1011.101 Retailers excise taxes.

§ 1011.101–1 General.

When title passes, and thus when a tax attaches, depends upon the intention of the parties as gathered from the contract and attendant circumstances. In the absence of expressed intention, the legal rules of presumption in the jurisdiction where the sale is made govern in determining when title passes. Generally, title passes upon delivery of an article to a purchaser or to a carrier for a purchaser. If an article purchased under a contract is returned to a retailer, before or after use, because of a defect or failure under a warranty in the contract, and a new article of the same kind is delivered without charge in exchange, the exchange transaction is not taxable.

§ 1011.101–2 Jewelry and related items.

See § 11.101–2 of this title.

§ 1011.101–3 Furs.

If fur on the hide or pelt is supplied to a dresser or dryer of fur skins or to a manufacturer or repairer of fur articles, who produces a taxable article for use of the supplier of the fur, the tax applicable to such transaction is computed upon the fair retail market value of the finished article. Generally, the fair retail market value may be considered as the sales price at which the same or a similar finished article is sold by retailers generally in the ordinary course of retail trade. (Sec. 320.41, TR 51.)

§ 1011.101–4 Toilet preparations.

See § 11.101–4 of this title.

§ 1011.101–5 Luggage and handbags.

See § 11.101–5 of this title.

§ 1011.101–6 Special fuels.

Diesel fuel and special motor fuel procured by delivery order under a Military Petroleum Supply Agency contract are tax-exclusive unless delivered by the contractor into the tank of a highway motor vehicle. Small purchases of fuel, other than AF Form 15 purchases, not under a Military Petroleum Supply Agency contract, will be tax-exclusive unless all the fuel purchased under the contract is for a taxable use. If fuel, which has been procured tax-free, is used for a taxable purpose, the activity using the fuel must make quarterly payment of the tax directly to the Internal Revenue Service on TD Form 720, "Quarterly Federal Excise Tax Return." Commanders of installations and activities will establish procedures to insure that such taxes are paid when due. Refunds or credits for certain uses of tax-paid fuels will not be claimed unless the amount recoverable exceeds $100. Refunds or credits will be obtained by adjustment of the contract price. Evidence of such nontaxable use may be furnished. See § 1011.205(a)(2) for exemption certificate.

§ 1011.102–1 General.

When title passes, and thus when a tax attaches, depends upon the intention of the parties as gathered from the contract and attendant circumstances. In the absence of expressed intention, the legal rules of presumption in the jurisdiction where the sale is made govern in determining when title passes. Generally, title passes upon delivery of an article to a purchaser or to a carrier for a purchaser.

§ 1011.102–2 Motor vehicles.

(a) Chassis and bodies. The chassis and the body are treated separately for tax purposes. Thus, the chassis and the body may be taxable at different rates although combined. The respective selling prices of the body and chassis must include all instruments, parts, and accessories made a part thereof, or attached to, or sold in connection therewith. If doubt exists as to whether a part or accessory should be included in the sale price of the body or of the chassis, the custom of selling such part or accessory with either body or chassis, when sold separately, will govern. If a purchaser of a taxpaid chassis attaches thereto a body manufactured by him and sells the completed vehicle, he is liable for the tax on the sale price of the body. If the completed vehicle is sold for a lump sum, the tax attaches to the lump sum, unless the sale price of the body is stated as a separate item on the invoice to the customer, or unless such sale price can be established by adequate records. A like rule applies where the manufacturer of a chassis installs thereon a tax-paid body and sells the completed vehicle. Bodies are exempt from tax when sold by the manufacturer to a manufacturer of automobiles to be sold by the purchaser; however, a chassis manufacturer who purchases a body tax-free is required to pay tax on his sale of the completed vehicle as the manufacturer of both chassis and body. There is no provision permitting a manufacturer of automobile chassis to sell such chassis tax free to manufacturers of automobile bodies.

(b) Internal Revenue Rulings have held this tax inapplicable to motor driven machines not designed for highway use, or barred from such use because of overweight, overwidth or for any other reason. Similar rulings apply to trailers (oxygen or bomb dollies) not constructed primarily for highway use or not adaptable for such use without adjustment. Replacement parts for such vehicles, if interchangeable between taxable and nontaxable vehicles, are taxable.

§ 1011.102–3 Tires and tubes.

See § 11.102–3 of this title.

§ 1011.102–4 Gasoline.

(a) Aircraft gasoline procured by delivery orders under Military Petroleum Supply Agency contracts will be tax exclusive; other gasoline so procured will be tax inclusive. Refund will not be claimed.

(b) Purchases of aircraft gasoline on AF Form 15 will include Federal excise taxes. An exemption certificate will not be issued.

§ 1011.102–5 Lubricating oils.

(a) Lubricating oils, including oils for cutting, procured by delivery orders under a Military Petroleum Supply Agency contract normally include a tax. Small purchases of oil, not under a Military Petroleum Supply Agency contract, will include a tax only to the extent required by the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Exemption certificates (Sec. 314.43, TR 44): An exemption certificate is available if lubricating oils are sold by the manufacturer directly for nonlubricating purposes, provided that:

(1) The manufacturer has definite knowledge, prior to or at the time of sale, that the product is purchased for such purposes.

(2) An appropriate certificate is furnished the manufacturer. This exemption will be used in any case in which use appears advantageous. See § 1011.205(a)(3).

(c) Refunds and credits will not be claimed unless the amount recoverable exceeds $100. Refunds or credits will be obtained by adjustment of the contract price.

§ 1011.102–6 Household type equipment.

See § 11.102–6 of this title.

§ 1011.102–7 Radio and television receiving sets, phonographs and records.

See § 11.102–7 of this title.

§ 1011.102–8 Musical instruments.

See § 11.102–8 of this title.

§ 1011.102–9 Sporting goods.

See § 11.102–9 of this title.

§ 1011.102–10 Photographic equipment.

See § 11.102–10 of this title.

§ 1011.102–11 Firearms, shells, and cartridges.

The term "firearms" includes all portable weapons, such as rifles, carbines, machine guns, shotguns, and fowling pieces, from which a shot, bullet, or projectile may be discharged by an explosive. The terms "shells" and "cartridges" include all combinations of projectile, explosive, and container which are designed, assembled, and ready for use without further manufacturing in portable firearms, including pistols and revolvers. Generally, clearly identified orders or contracts of a military department when signed by an authorized officer of such department will be accepted in support of the exemption. In the absence of such orders or contracts, a statement signed by an authorized officer of a military department that the firearms, shells, or cartridges were purchased with funds appropriated for the military departments will be acceptable. Procurements involving the purchase of "firearms", "shells" or "cartridges" for the Air Force will be exclusive of Federal excise taxes.

§ 1011.102–12 Business machines.

See § 11.102–12 of this title.

§ 1011.102–13 Pens, mechanical pencils, and lighters.

See § 11.102–13 of this title.

§ 1011.102–14 Matches.

See § 11.102–14 of this title.

§ 1011.103 Excise taxes on facilities and services.

It is not necessary that the transportation be between two definite points. If not otherwise exempt, a payment for continuous transportation beginning and ending at the same point is subject to tax. A tax exemption is applicable if a motor vehicle or "air taxi" (under 12,500 pounds gross take-off weight) has a seating capacity of less than 10 adult passengers, including the operator, and is not operated on an established line. The tax does not apply to payments for transportation if the charge is 60 cents or less. The exemption is determined by the amount paid for a one-way trip. An amount paid for the charter of a car, train, motor vehicle, aircraft, or boat is exempt from tax if the payment represents a per capita charge of 60 cents or less for each person actually transported. Any amount paid for eating or sleeping accommodations is not subject to tax if the amount of the related payment for transportation is 60 cents or less.

§ 1011.104 Use tax on highway motor vehicles.

See § 11.104 of this title.

Subpart B—Exemptions From Federal Excise Taxes

Subpart B is revised as follows:

Sec.
1011.201 Retailers excise taxes.
1011.202 Manufacturers excise taxes.
1011.203 Supplies and services for the exclusive use of the United States.
1011.204 Exemptions from other federal taxes.
1011.205 Tax exemption forms.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1011.201 to 1011.205 issued under sec. 8012, 70A Stat. 488; 10 U.S.C. 8012. Interpret or apply secs. 2301–2314, 70A Stat. 127–133; 10 U.S.C. 2301–2314.

§ 1011.201 Retailers excise taxes.

See § 11.201 of this title.

(a) See § 11.201(a) of this title.

(b) Temporary storage or delays are not inconsistent with immediate export or shipment to a possession. To qualify for the exemption of sales for export or for shipment to a possession or to Puerto Rico, two conditions must be met:

(1) The supplies must be certified as having been sold by the manufacturer (if the tax is a manufacturer's excise tax) or the retailer (if the tax is a retailer's excise tax) for export or shipment to a possession. The words "for export or shipment to a possession or to Puerto Rico" incorporated into or stamped on a contract or purchase order, is acceptable to the Internal Revenue Service as satisfactory evidence that the sale has been made for export or shipment to a possession or to Puerto Rico.

(2) The supplies must be exported or shipped to a possession or to Puerto Rico in due course. The responsible officer at the port of embarkation will furnish a certificate of export or shipment to a possession or to Puerto Rico to the contracting officer, together with a statement as to where the shipping documents are being retained. Proof of export or shipment will be furnished by the contracting officer to the contractor in the form set forth in § 1011.205(a)(4). Intention to export or ship the supplies to a possession or to Puerto Rico should be specified in the contract initially or by amendment. If included initially in a fixed-price contract, the contract price must exclude the retailer's or manufacturer's excise tax; if included by amendment, a downward adjustment of the contract price may be required.

(c) Sales to retailers for resale: See § 11.202(c) of this title and § 1011.202(c) of this chapter.

§ 1011.202 Manufacturers excise taxes.

(a) See § 11.202(a) of this title.

(b) See § 11.201(b) of this title and § 1011.201(b) of this chapter.

(c) Exemption will be claimed only when, at the time of purchase, a determination is made by the contracting officer that the supplies are intended for use in "vessels of war" of the United States and the administrative burden of obtaining the exemption would not outweigh the benefits which would be derived from use of the exemption. If the exemption is claimed, the contract will specifically provide that the tax is not included in the price. Contracting officers will furnish exemption certificates to a contractor in the form set forth in § 1011.205(a)(1).

(d) See § 11.202(d) of this title.

(e) The Air Force may indirectly benefit from inapplicability of tax in procuring from such agencies, e.g., a state university is usually regarded as a political subdivision of a state; another university may be regarded as a nonprofit educational organization. Purchases by such agencies in performance of AF contracts should exclude taxes to the extent exemption is available.

§ 1011.203 Supplies and services for the exclusive use of the United States.

See § 11.203 of this title.

§ 1011.204 Exemptions from other Federal taxes.

(a) Cost-reimbursement contracts. See § 1011.402(a) of this title.

(b) Distilled spirits and alcohol. Distilled spirits of 160 degrees or more of proof, alcohol, and specially denatured alcohol, may be withdrawn tax free by the United States or any Government agency thereof. (26 CFR 171.265–266, 182.171–174.)

(1) Authority to sign applications to the Treasury Department Commissioner of Internal Revenue, for permits to procure tax-free and specially denatured alcohol (TD Form 1444, "Tax-Free Spirits for Use of United States") has been delegated by the Secretary, without power of redelegation, to the:

(i) Commander, AMC.

(ii) Deputy Directors, Directorate of Procurement and Production, Hq AMC.

(iii) Director of Procurement and Production, Middletown Air Materiel Area.

and, while he is so acting, to the person acting for the time being in any of the foregoing capacities.

(2) Submit TD Forms 1444 and 1486, "Specially Denatured Spirits for Use of United States," to the Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, attn: Deputy Commissioner, Alcohol Tax Unit, Washington 25, D.C., by letter of transmittal, setting forth the following:

(i) That the appropriate form is submitted in triplicate pursuant to Internal Revenue Regulations for permit to procure tax-free or specially denatured alcohol.

(ii) Name and location of supplier.

(iii) Name and location of consignee.

(iv) Purpose for which alcohol will be used.

(v) Address to which permit is to be sent (requesting activity).

(3) All PCO's except those at AMCASC, will submit applications and letters to Middletown AMA (MAP) for signature by the Director of Procurement and Productions, MAAMA. PCO's at AMCASC will submit applications and letters to a Deputy Director, Directorate of Procurement and Production, Hq AMC, for signature.

(4) TD Form 1444 and TD Form 1486 are not stocked in AF supply depots. Forms may be requested in writing from Assistant Regional Commissioner, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service in Atlanta, Boston, Chicago, Cincinnati, Dallas, New York, Omaha, Philadelphia, or San Francisco.

(5) Certificates of Receipt (TD Form 1453 or TD Form 1453A) furnished in duplicate by vendors should identify the Government contract or purchase order by number, and recipients should send the original to the appropriate Assistant Regional Commissioner (Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division) shown on the form and retain a copy for the contract file.

(c) Additional exemptions. In addition to the exemptions discussed herein, certain miscellaneous exemptions from Federal excise taxes, applying to private as well as Government procurement, are available. An exemption for which policy is not provided need not be claimed; contract prices will not exclude taxes on the basis of such exemption and proof of exemption will not be furnished to contractor.

§ 1011.205 Tax exemption forms.

(a) Certificates of exemption. See § 16.804 of this title. Certificates may be reproduced locally.

(1) Supplies for vessels and aircraft tax exemption certificates. Tax exemption certificates to be used by purchasers of articles for use as fuel supplies, ships' stores, sea stores, or legitimate equipment on certain vessels, including aircraft, will be as prescribed in Treasury Regulations or as shown below. For purchase of special fuels (§ 11.101–6 of this title), substitute "vendor" for "manufacturer" in the certificate.

EXEMPTION CERTIFICATE

(For use by purchasers of articles for use as fuel supplies, ships' stores, sea stores, or legitimate equipment on certain vessels (sec. 4222 of the Internal Revenue Code).)

(Date)

The undersigned purchaser hereby certifies that he is an authorized agent of the United States Air Force and that the article or articles specified in the accompanying order, or as specified below or on the reverse side hereof, will be used only for fuel supplies, ships' stores, sea stores, or legitimate equipment on a vessel belonging to the following class which is among those enumerated in section 4222 of the Internal Revenue Code:

Vessels of war of the United States or a foreign nation (aircraft owned by the United States or a foreign nation and constituting a part of the armed forces thereof).

It is understood that if the article is used for any purpose other than as stated in this certificate, or is resold or otherwise disposed of, this fact must be reported to the manufacturer. It is understood that this certificate may not be used in purchasing articles tax free for use as fuel supplies and so forth, on pleasure vessels, or on any type of aircraft except civil aircraft employed in foreign trade or trade between the United States and any of its possessions, and otherwise entitled to exemption, and aircraft owned by the United States or any foreign country and constituting a part of the armed forces thereof. (b) Who may execute. Authority to issue tax exemption certificates will only be given to contracting officers as directed by the Commander or other officer who has been delegated authority to designated contracting officers at the AF activity responsible for procurement or contract administration.

(c) Preparation and execution of exemption certificate—(1) Methods. In the preparation and execution the following rules will be applied:

(i) Use typewriter when practicable; in unusual circumstances, ink or indelible pencil may be used. Use of ordinary lead pencil is prohibited. Fill in or line out all blank spaces. An exemption certificate will not be delivered to a contractor unless fully and properly executed, except that the Internal Revenue Service has advised that a statement on the exemption certificate of the amount of federal tax is not necessary. The amount of tax should be stated, however, if readily available. If federal excise taxes have been excluded from the contract price but the exact amount of the tax cannot be determined at the time, a blanket tax exemption certificate may be issued to cover all purchases under the contract. The blanket certificate will cover all articles purchased under the contract, including delivery orders placed thereunder by other officers.

(ii) Prepare a separate certificate for each kind of tax involved. In the issuance of a certificate fill in blank spaces showing on each certificate the separate amounts of each tax involved, if known, so that the certificate may be used only for the purpose intended.

(iii) If the supplies covered by the contract are not taxable as such and the certificate will be used to obtain exemption of articles to be incorporated in the supplies covered by the contract, state "none" as the amount of the tax on the certificate. Tax should not be shown on the certificate unless the tax is imposed directly upon the supplies or work covered by the contract.

(iv) Modify certificates as necessary to adapt to contracts for construction, alterations, improvements, and repairs.

(2) When exemption certificates are issued to contractors. An exemption certificate covering federal excise taxes will be executed and delivered to a contractor upon request at any time after execution of a contract: Provided (i) The contract so provides, (ii) the supplies are taxable, and (iii) the supplies are purchased by the Government at a price which is exclusive of such tax. In such case, insert a description of the supplies furnished tax-free on the tax exemption certificate. Number certificates and keep a record of each one issued, showing to whom issued, the number of the applicable contract, the type of supplies involved, and the period covered by the certificate. Such records should be retained and disposed of with the contract files to which they pertain.

(3) Blanket tax exemption certificates. Contracts under Federal Supply Schedules.

(i) Issue a separate certificate for each order covering purchases under Federal Supply Schedules.

(ii) Upon application of the contractor, if it is impracticable to furnish separate certificates, a blanket exemption certificate may be issued to cover purchases under term contracts. Blanket certificates should cover all orders between given dates; it is recommended that such period not exceed 1 calendar month. Certificate should be issued only if the tax is applicable and the order indicates the tax is not included in the price. Invoices must indicate the number of the applicable blanket tax-exemption certificate.

(iii) Individual orders need not contain the number of the applicable tax-exemption certificate. Reference to the Federal Supply Schedule contract number will suffice.

Subpart C—State and Local Taxes

Subpart C is revised as follows:

Sec.
1011.301 Applicability.
1011.302 Tax-exemption forms.
1011.350 Particular State or local taxes.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1011.301 to 1011.350 issued under sec. 8012, 70A Stat. 488; 10 U.S.C. 8012. Interpret or apply secs. 2301–2314, 70A Stat. 127–133; 10 U.S.C. 2301–2314.

§ 1011.301 Applicability.

See § 11.301 of this title. Also see § 1011.401–50(a) of this chapter.

(a) General rules for availability of exemption from State and local taxes. Exemption certificates may be issued for State and local taxes if the prices paid by the Government exclude such tax.

§ 1011.302 Tax-exemption forms.

(a) Prepare certificates to meet the requirements of the State or local tax authority concerned. In most cases, Standard Form 1094, "U.S. Government Tax Exemption Certificate," will be appropriate. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, a tax-exemption certificate will not be issued unless the contract shows that the price is exclusive of the tax or unless the contractor consents to deduction of the tax from the contract price and acceptance of the tax-exemption certificate.

(b) If for any reason it is impossible to exclude an inapplicable State or local tax, execute SF 1094 and deliver to the accounting and finance officer, with a written statement that the vendor refused such certificate, for use of the U.S. Comptroller General in obtaining a refund of the tax. Show the serial number of the tax-exemption certificate on the payment voucher.

§ 1011.350 Particular State or local taxes.

State and local tax laws are not uniform and it is not possible to furnish detailed information and instructions on each tax. When difficulties develop and it is desired to adopt a uniform policy with respect to a State or local tax, information will be supplied as added sections subsequent to this section.

Subpart D—Contract Clauses

Subpart D is revised as follows:

Sec.
1011.401 Fixed-price type contracts.
1011.401–1 Clause for advertised and certain negotiated contracts.
1011.401–2 Alternate clause for certain negotiated contracts.
1011.401–50 Special provisions in contracts.
1011.402 Cost reimbursement type contracts.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1011.401 to 1011.402 issued under sec. 8012, 70A Stat. 488; 10 U.S.C. 8012. Interpret or apply secs. 2301–2314, 70A Stat. 127–133; 10 U.S.C. 2301–2314.

§ 1011.401 Fixed-price type contracts.

See § 11.401 of this title.

§ 1011.401–1 Clause for advertised and certain negotiated contracts.

See § 11.401–1 of this title.

§ 1011.401–2 Alternate clause for certain negotiated contracts.

See § 11.401–2 of this title.

§ 1011.401–50 Special provisions in contracts.

(a) State taxes. Contracting officers may include special provisions in a contract with respect to a State or local tax as to which a doubt exists concerning its applicability or the availability of an exemption. Special provisions will clearly identify the tax included. Contracting officers will assure, to the extent practicable, that bids or contract prices do not include State or local sales or use taxes which do not apply to sales to the Government, or any other State or local tax, exemption from which is available.

(b) Federal taxes. Unless otherwise indicated in the contract, the prices set forth therein should include applicable Federal taxes. As outlined in Subpart B, Part 11 of this title and Subpart B, Part 1011 of this chapter, several exemptions are available and certain of these are to be claimed. When the exemption is claimed, the tax must be excluded from the contract price and expressly identified in the contract. Invitations for bids and requests for proposals should require a specific identification of the taxes to be excluded from the contract price. The tax provisions of each resulting contract must conform to the bid or proposal.

§ 1011.402 Cost reimbursement type contracts.

See Part 15 of this title and Part 1015 of this chapter.

(a) Exemptions from federal excise taxes; cost reimbursement contracts. (1) Purchase and subsidiary articles:

(i) A prime contractor under a cost type contract is not liable for Federal excise taxes with respect to taxable purchase articles which the manufacturer fabricates or assembles out of materials owned by the United States. An exemption certificate is not necessary to establish nonliability.

(ii) Under an informal ruling of the Internal Revenue Service a prime contractor under a cost type contract is entitled to purchase tax free direct from a manufacturer thereof articles which the Government is entitled to purchase tax free under section 4221 of the Internal Revenue Code (SPJGT/7570, July 12, 1944). A contractor should be urged to follow the policy of claiming exemptions set out in § 1011.202(c) of this Part, but cannot be compelled to do so. If an exemption is claimed, the exemption certificate should be in the special form illustrated in figure 1, § 1011.205 of this Part, or as prescribed in Treasury Regulations.

(iii) Prime and subcontractors under cost type contracts are entitled to purchase subsidiary articles tax free as provided in § 11.202(a) of this title.

Subpart U—Collection and Payment of Federal Excise Taxes by the Government Where the United States is Vendor

Subpart U is revised as follows:

Sec.
1011.2100 Collection from purchaser or user.
1011.2101 Disposition of funds received.
1011.2102 Transfers of Government-owned property.
1011.2103 Sale of property to a contractor under a fixed-price contract.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1011.2100 to 1011.2103 issued under sec. 8012, 70A Stat. 488; 10 U.S.C. 8012. Interpret or apply secs. 2301–2314, 70A Stat. 127–133; 10 U.S.C. 2301–2314.

§ 1011.2100 Collection from purchaser or user.

Except as provided in § 1011.2102, collect the Federal excise tax from the purchaser if articles subject to tax under section 4181, IRC (tax on pistols and revolvers, see § 11.102–11 of this title) or retailers' or manufacturers' excise taxes (see §§ 11.101 and 11.102 of this title and the following sections), purchased free of tax, are sold to individuals or used for other than the use of the United States.

§ 1011.2101 Disposition of funds received.

Deposit funds collected pursuant to § 1011.2100 with local accounting and finance officer and furnish the name of the contractor from whom the articles were originally purchased by the Government. If the contractor's name and the amount of the contract involved are not known, the sales officer will ascertain whether the information is available from the contracting officer.

§ 1011.2102 Transfers of Government-owned property.

Sections 1011.2100 and 1011.2101 are not applicable to the following types of transfers of Government-owned property purchased by the Government free of tax:

(a) All sales of surplus property and Government-owned contractor inventory (except gasoline), as defined in the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 (40 U.S.C. 472).

(b) All sales of scrap or of used property.

(c) Transfers to a contractor under a cost type contract of Government-owned property for use in connection with the performance of the contract.

(d) Sales to contractor under a fixed price contract of Government-owned property for use in connection with the performance of the contract. (See § 1011.2103.)

(e) Transfers to other agencies of the Government, including transfer for disposition to the Federal Supply Service.

(f) Transfer to any State, Territory of the United States, or political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, when original sales to such agencies or instrumentalities are tax exempt.

§ 1011.2103 Sale of property to a contractor under a fixed-price contract.

As indicated in § 1011.2102(d), if property is sold to a contractor under a fixed-price contract, the amount of the Federal tax, as such, need not be collected. Since a contractor should not derive any benefit from the fact that the Government originally acquired the property free of tax, the price to be paid to the Government will include an amount equal to the Federal excise tax which would ordinarily be payable upon a sale of similar property by a vendor other than the Government.

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to authority contained in section 308, Public Law 85-699, 72 Stat. 694, it is proposed to amend, as set forth below, § 107.308-1(b) of Part 107 of Subchapter B, Chapter I, of Title 13 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Part 107, Subchapter B, Title 13 of the Code of Federal Regulations governing the establishment and operation of small business investment companies chartered or licensed by the Small Business Administration to operate under the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, and to carry out the provisions of said Act, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on December 4, 1958 (23 F.R. 9383), and became effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Prior to final adoption of the amendment set forth below, consideration will be given to any comments or suggestions pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing, in triplicate, to the Small Business Investment Division, Small Business Administration, Washington 25, D.C., within a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The amendment under consideration changes the provisions of present § 107.308-1(b) relating to the determination of the existence of an impairment of Licensee's capital by eliminating reference to an evaluation of assets and liabilities, making clear that subordinated debentures issued to SBA pursuant to section 302(a) of the Act will not (for the purpose of this determination) be considered a part of capital and surplus, and eliminating (for the purpose of this determination) the alternative comparison of the amount of retained earnings solely with the amount of paid-in surplus.

(b) An impairment shall be deemed to exist when the retained earnings deficit exceeds 50 percent of the combined capital stock outstanding and paid-in surplus. For the purpose of this determination, subordinated debentures issued to SBA pursuant to section 302(a) of the Act will not be considered a part of the capital and surplus.

Reports

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to authority contained in section 308, Public Law 85-699, 72 Stat. 694, it is proposed to amend, as set forth below, § 107.308-5 of Part 107 of Subchapter B, Chapter I of Title 13 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Part 107, Subchapter B, Chapter I of Title 13 of the Code of Federal Regulations, governing the establishment and operation of small business investment companies chartered or licensed by the Small Business Administration to operate under the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, and to carry out the provisions of said Act, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on December 4, 1958 (23 F.R. 9383), and became effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Amendment 2 of Part 107 which revised § 107.308-5 was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 19, 1960 (25 F.R. 2354), and became effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Prior to final adoption of the amendments set forth below, consideration will be given to any comments or suggestions pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing, in triplicate, to the Small Business Investment Division, Small Business Administration, Washington 25, D.C., within a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The amendment under consideration changes the provisions of present § 107.308-5 by requiring the submission of a periodic activity report and such other reports as may be specifically requested by SBA. Section 107.308-5 as revised by this proposed amendment requires small business investment companies to submit semiannually Activity Report, SBA Form 477, to the Investment Division, Small Business Administration, Washington 25, D.C. The purpose of this report is to provide current activity data concerning loan and equity financing by Licensees.

It is proposed to amend the Small Business Investment Companies Regulation as follows:

The Small Business Investment Companies Regulation (25 F.R. 9383) as amended (25 F.R. 1397, 2354, 5316) is hereby further amended by adding at the end of § 107.308-5 the following new paragraphs (i) and (j), to read as follows:

§ 107.308-5 Reports.

* * * * *

(i) Each Licensee shall submit in triplicate to the Investment Division, Small Business Administration, Washington 25, D.C., at the end of the first six months period of each fiscal year, and at the end of the second six months period of each fiscal year, an activity report, showing by significant categories the amounts of the Licensee's loan and equity financing transactions for the period covered by the report, in accordance with the instructions contained in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, for preparation of the Activity Report, SBA Form 477,[1] which form is incorporated in and expressly made a part of this section. The fiscal year to which such reports shall relate shall be for SBA purposes the period beginning April 1 and ending March 31. Such Activity Report shall be submitted on or before the last day of the month immediately following the close of the six months period covered by such report.

(1) The Activity Report, SBA Form 477, includes the following:

Table 1—Loan and Equity Financing Transactions—by State.

Table 2—Applications Received.

Table 3—Loan and Equity Financing Transactions—by Industry Grouping.

Table 4—Loan and Equity Financing Transactions—by Firm Size.

Major Groupings of Nonmanufacturing and Manufacturing Industries

(2) The Activity Report, SBA Form 477, required by this section to be submitted to SBA by Licensee shall commence with the report for the six months period ending September 30, 1960.

(3) (i) Each Activity Report, SBA Form 477, prepared by a Licensee shall present data, as shown by the books of account and other records, reflecting the amounts of the Licensee's loan and equity financing transactions by the categories included in these tables.

(ii) All money amounts required to be shown in the tables of the Activity Report, SBA Form 477, shall be expressed to the nearest dollar. Appropriate adjustments of individual amounts shall be made for the fractional parts of a dollar, so that the items will add to the totals shown.

(iii) Loans in which other companies participate shall be reported only by the initiating company, which services the loan, to avoid the duplication that would otherwise occur when the data from all Licensees are combined.

(iv) All copies of the signature page of the Activity Report, SBA Form 477, shall bear the signature of the chief financial officer, or other person authorized by the board of directors to sign on behalf of the Licensee. The date on which the signature is affixed shall be shown.

TABLE 1—LOAN AND EQUITY FINANCING TRANSACTIONS—BY STATE

The amounts approved and amounts disbursed during the period covered by the report for loans and for equity financing, and the number of individual small-business concerns involved for each type of financing, shall be classified by State, on the basis of the principal office location of the small-business concern. With respect to multiple-disbursement loan or equity financing, a firm shall be included in the number count in column (4) or column (8) only the one time when the initial disbursement is made. Subsequent disbursements to the same firm under the same loan or the same equity financing shall serve only to increase the amount disbursed or the amount purchased shown in column (5) or column (9), without altering the number count. The data reflected in this table shall be listed in the alphabetical sequence of the names of the States. The amounts of loans and equity financing approved shall not be decreased by cancellations following formal approval action.

TABLE 2—APPLICATIONS RECEIVED

This table shall reflect information as to both the number and the dollar amount of specific financing applications received from small-business concerns during the period covered by the report, regardless of the action taken thereon.

TABLE 3—LOAN AND EQUITY FINANCING TRANSACTIONS—BY INDUSTRY GROUPING

This table shall show by major industry grouping the amounts approved and amounts disbursed during the period covered by the report for loans and for equity financing, and the number of individual small business concerns involved for each type of financing. With respect to multiple-disbursement loan or equity financing, a firm shall be included in the number count in column (4) or column (8) only the one time when the initial disbursement is made. Subsequent disbursements to the same firm under the same loan or the same equity financing shall serve only to increase the amount disbursed or the amount purchased shown in column (5) or column (9), without altering the number count. The amounts of loans and equity financing approved shall not be decreased by cancellations following formal approval action.

The major industry groupings are based on the Standard Industrial Classification Manual issued by the Office of Statistical Standards, U.S. Bureau of the Budget. The individual groupings (by 2-digit code number and title) are listed, in the numerical sequence of the code numbers, on page 5 of the Activity Report, SBA Form 477. This represents the complete listing of the major groupings of nonmanufacturing and manufacturing industries shown in the SIC Manual, plus additional groupings for wholesale trade. Obviously, many of the types of businesses included therein would not be eligible for SBIC financing. Each small business concern involved can be classified in only one major grouping for reporting purposes, even though the firm may engage in multiple activities. The classification assigned for multiple activity firms shall be that covering the primary activity of the firm, based on anticipated dollar sales or income, etc., as is most representative.

The table is in two parts to permit showing data, including totals, for nonmanufacturing industries separately from those for manufacturing industries, plus grand totals for the period for both types of industries. The grand totals for all industries shall be identical with the totals by states given in Table 1. The "Description" column (col. 1) on each page of the table shall reflect the code number and related title of the grouping for each industry grouping represented by the small business concerns involved. These code numbers and related titles shall be entered in numerical sequence to facilitate consolidation of the reports from all SBICs.

TABLE 4—LOAN AND EQUITY FINANCING TRANSACTIONS—BY FIRM SIZE

The amounts approved during the period covered by the report for loans and for equity financing, and the number of individual small business concerns involved for each type of financing, shall be classified in this table on the basis of size of the firms. Separate classifications shall be shown for nonmanufacturing firms and manufacturing firms. The surveys represented by the plats were made to meet certain administrative needs in connection with a proposed withdrawal of the islands for power purposes, BLM 043309.

On May 21, 1908, by Order of the Commissioner, General Land Office (now Director, Bureau of Land Management), at the request of the Secretary of War, all public lands in the subdivisions or fractional tracts of the townships in Alabama bordering upon the Coosa River and all such lands embraced in islands situated in the river in the townships, were temporarily withdrawn from all forms of disposition, until otherwise directed, for the improvement of the navigation of the river.

The islands are all clayey loam; ranging in height from 2 to 15 feet. Timber specie consists of ash, hackberry, birch, elm, willow, maple, oak, walnut and sycamore, from 4 to 30 inches in diameter. There is no evidence of past or present use or occupancy. Each of the islands is well over 50 percent upland within the interpretation of the swamp land acts.

Upon the effective date hereof, the lands recited herein, will be subject to the filing of applications based upon prior, valid, existing and maintained settlement rights; preference rights conferred by existing law; and equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. The lands will not be subject to application, petition, location, selection, or to any other appropriation under any other public land law, including the mining and mineral leasing laws, unless and until a further order is issued by a duly authorized official of the Bureau of Land Management.

All inquiries relating to the lands should be directed to the Manager, Eastern States Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D.C.

[2] Includes 0.21931 cent per Mcf for dehydration deducted by buyer.
[3] Or until such further time as the related rate of West Lake Natural Gasoline Co. is made effective subject to refund in Docket No. RI60–30 in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.
[4] Also subject to order in Docket No. G–15906.
[5] Also subject to order in Docket No. G–15905.
[6] Rate of 6.9918 cents per Mcf is suspended in Docket No. G–20453 until Jan. 23, 1960, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act. To date, no motion has been filed to place this rate into effect subject to refund.
[7] Also subject to orders in Docket Nos. G–15839 and G–14069.
[8] Also subject to orders in Docket No. G–15760 and G–14112.
[9] Or until one day subsequent to the date the related rate of West Lake Natural Gasoline Co. is made effective subject to refund in Docket No. RI60–30.

In support of the proposed favored-nation increases, Tidewater Oil Company and Virginia Ramsey, et al. cite the contract provisions thereof and submit copies of Tennessee Gas Transmission Company's letter establishing the increased price and state that the contracts resulted from arm's length bargaining. Tidewater states additionally that the pricing provisions protect seller from discrimination and the increased rate is just and reasonable. Ramsey states that the increased price does not exceed the going price of gas in the area.

Ramsey's filings are on behalf of separate co-owners under the same rate schedule and are in addition to interests of other co-owner's under the same rate schedule, whose proposed increased rates were suspended by the Commission in Docket No. RI 60–378 until November 9, 1960, and until such further time as they are made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act. In order to afford like treatment to all co-owners under the same rate schedule, the increases submitted by Ramsey and set forth in the above designated filings should also be suspended until November 9, 1960 and thereafter until made effective under the Natural Gas Act. However, it should be made clear that the shortening of the suspension period herein should not be construed as a precedent for other proposed increased rates.

In support of the revenue-sharing rate increases, Standard Oil Company of Texas, El Paso Natural Gas Products Company (Operator), et al., El Paso Natural Gas Products Company, C. L. McMahon, Inc., and Alvin C. Hope (Operator), et al. cite the contract provisions and West Lake Natural Gasoline Company's increased 17.0 cents per Mcf resale rate to El Paso Natural Gas Company, which is suspended in Docket No. RI 60–30 until June 23, 1960, and thereafter until made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act. In addition, Standard of Texas states that the increased rate is provided by a contract which resulted from arm's-length bargaining and suspension thereof would be inequitable, unfair and confiscatory. El Paso Natural Gas Products states that its contracts resulted from arm's-length bargaining and the increased rates are just and reasonable. McMahon cites arm's-length bargaining and states that the pricing provisions were a material inducement to seller in executing the long-term contract and the increased price is just and reasonable. Hope states that the increase merely brings the price in line with others in the area and allows a return commensurate with expenses and costs of operation.

Hope has a pending suspension proceeding in Docket No. G–20453 for a rate of 6.9918 cents per Mcf under the same rate schedule involved herein. Hope has never filed a motion to place the 6.9918 cents per Mcf rate in effect subject to refund and now files the subject increase from the now effective rate of 5.5 cents per Mcf to 8.5 cents per Mcf.

In support of the proposed favored-nation rate increases, Texas Gulf Producing Company and Texas Gulf Producing Company (Operator), et al. cite the initial 23.5¢ rates for the sale of natural gas in the area which were allowed to become effective in Trunkline Gas Company's application proceedings by Commission Opinion No. 321. In addition, Texas Gulf submits copies of Trunkline's favored-nation letter and states that the increase merely brings into being a price which was negotiated at arm's-length in the original contract and that the increased rate is less than the going price for gas in the area.

In support of the proposed periodic rate increase, Lario Oil & Gas Company cites the contract provisions and states that the contract was negotiated in open bargaining, the increased price is below the commodity value of the gas and is just and reasonable in view of the increasing costs.

In support of the proposed redetermined rate increase, Clegg & Hunt (Operator), et al. cite the contract price redetermination provisions and submit copies of the letter agreement establishing the increased price. Clegg & Hunt state that such pricing provisions are common in long-term contracts and afford seller protection against inflation. In addition, Clegg & Hunt state that the contract resulted from arm's-length bargaining and the increased price is below other prices in the area. Clegg & Hunt request waiver of statutory notice to permit this increased rate to become effective as of June 1, 1960.

The increased rates and charges so proposed may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed changes and that the above-designated supplements be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

(2) Good cause exists for permitting the tender submitted by Alvin C. Hope (Operator), et al. to be filed and for terminating the suspension proceeding involved in Docket No. G–20453.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), public hearings shall be held upon dates to be fixed by notices from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed increased rates and charges contained in the above-designated supplements.

(B) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, each of the above-designated supplements is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until the date indicated in the above "Rate Suspended Until" column, and thereafter until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until these proceedings have been disposed of or until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) The tender submitted by Alvin C. Hope (Operator), et al. is hereby permitted to be filed and the suspension proceeding involved in Docket No. G–20453 is hereby terminated.

(E) Notices of intervention or petition to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)) on or before August 1, 1960.

By the Commission.

JOSEPH H. GUTRIDE,
Secretary.

[1] This order does not provide for the consolidation for hearing or disposition of the several matters covered herein, nor should it be so construed.

Humble Oil & Refining Company, the Pure Oil Company, et al., the Pure Oil Company, Honolulu Oil Corporation, and Sunray Mid-Continent Oil Company propose revenue-sharing rate increases for sales of natural gas to West Lake Natural Gasoline Company. West Lake resells the gas to El Paso Natural Gas Company and pays the aforementioned Respondents 50 percent of the resale rate received from El Paso. The subject increases are based upon West Lake's favored-nation increased rate of 17.0 cents per Mcf, which increased rate was suspended in Docket No. RI60–30 until June 23, 1960, and thereafter until made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

In support of the proposed increased rates, Humble, Pure, Honolulu, and Sunray cite the revenue-sharing provisions of the contracts, West Lake's 17.0 cent rate now suspended, and state that the proposed increase fulfills the contractual obligation agreed to by both parties. In addition, Humble states that the contract resulted from arm's-length bargaining and the increased price is reasonable and in line with the going price for gas in the area and denial thereof would be unjust and unreasonable. Pure also cites arm's-length bargaining and states that without the pricing provisions it would not have executed the contract and the increased price is just and reasonable. Pure also cites other suspensions for sales to West Lake and states that any suspension of its increased rate for more than one day would result in a windfall to West Lake at Pure's expense. Honolulu states that the increased rate does not exceed the fair market value of the gas and is just and reasonable. Sunray states that the contract resulted from arm's-length bargaining and without the pricing provisions it would not have executed the contract. Sunray also states that the increased price is just and reasonable and below the market value of the gas, and denial thereof would be unjust and unreasonable.

In support of its proposed favored-nation rate increases, Sohio Petroleum Company cites the contract provisions and submits copies of Tennessee Gas Transmission's letter advising of the increased prices. Sohio also states that the proposed rates are not in excess of the current commodity value of the gas and are just and reasonable.

In support of its proposed favored-nation rate increase, Sun Oil Company refers to the contract provision and submits Trunkline Gas Company's letter advising of the increased rate. Sun states that the price increase provisions resulted from bargaining at arm's length and were a major consideration to seller and the increased price does not exceed the value of the gas in the area.

In support of its proposed rate increases, Tidewater Oil Company and Tidewater Oil Company (Operator), et al. cite the favored-nation provisions of the contracts and refer to increased rates paid by Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation to two other producers in the same area. These two producers are collecting the increased rate subject to refund in Docket Nos. G–18845 and G–18218. Texas Eastern has protested similar favored-nation rate increases in the area on the grounds that the favored-nation clauses were not activated, although no protest of the subject increases had been made.

In support of their proposed renegotiated rate increases, Jerome B. Rosenthal et al. and Jack H. Bryant, Trustees, submit copies of the renegotiated agreements citing the provisions thereof and state that such amendments resulted from arm's-length bargaining. They further state that the proposed rates are less than the current commodity value of gas in the area and that the deletion of the favored-nation provision will tend to stabilize gas prices to producers in the area. Bryant also states that the 5.0 cents per Mcf increase would compensate for a 5.0 cents per Mcf compression charge and would place him in an economic position equal to that of neighboring producers. Bryant further requests waiver of notice requirements to permit his increased rate to become effective as of January 1, 1960.

The increased rates and charges so proposed may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed changes and that the above-designated supplements be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), public hearings shall be held upon dates to be fixed by notices from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed increased rates and charges contained in the above-designated supplements.

(B) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, each of the above-designated supplements is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until the date indicated in the above "Rate Suspended Until" column, and thereafter until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until these proceedings have been disposed of or until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)) on or before August 2, 1960.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

[Docket No. G–19983]

TENNESSEE GAS TRANSMISSION CO.

Order Adopting Interim Order Procedure Omitting Intermediate Decision and Fixing Date for Oral Argument

JUNE 17, 1960.

The Presiding Examiner on May 27, 1960, reported to the Commission two motions entered orally upon the record by Staff counsel during the hearing on May 25, 1960. Those motions request (1) that the fair rate of return for Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (Tennessee) be determined on an interim order procedure; and (2) that the intermediate decision procedure be waived in accordance with § 1.30 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and that the record on rate of return be certified to the Commission for direct decision on this issue. There was no objection to the latter motion.

It is the contemplation of the first motion that Tennessee will be required to make immediate refund of excess revenues and to reduce its rates if it is determined under the intermediate order procedure that the fair rate of return for Tennessee is less than the 7 percent rate of return requested by it in this docket. It is further contemplated that for purposes of refund and reduced rates, all other factors relating to rate base, cost of service, allocation, etc., will be used as presented by Tennessee on the record, without prejudice to the rights of any party to question any of those items in subsequent phases of this proceeding, if such item is determined to be in issue by the Presiding Examiner.

The stated objective of Staff's proposals is to alleviate as soon as possible some of the financial burden of increased rates being borne by Tennessee's wholesale customers.

Several parties to the proceeding filed memoranda on the above motions. Generally stated, those memoranda do not object to the interim order procedure determining a fair rate of return for Tennessee nor omission of the intermediate decision procedure. Some of the parties, however, do object to that part of the motion which requests that upon determination of the fair rate of return, Tennessee be directed to make immediate refunds and rate reductions. Those objections are based on the fact that there has been no decision on the issue of allocation of costs to zones on Tennessee's system. The parties contend that absent a determination of that issue, an interim order prescribing refunds and reduction in rates would be both unlawful and inequitable in that it might prevent Tennessee from recovering its entire cost of service, or deprive customers in certain zones of the amount of refund dollars they contend they would receive if the zone allocation methods they are sponsoring are determined to be proper for Tennessee.

The issue of allocation of costs to zones has been fully heard in Docket No. G–11980 and is now before the Presiding Examiner in that docket for decision. The parties hereto also contend that an interim order prescribing refunds and rate reduction will constitute prejudgment of that issue even though such interim order used the zone allocation method presented by Tennessee only arguendo and without prejudice to final determination of that issue.

In view of the importance of the matters referred to above, and as requested by Tennessee, it would appear appropriate that opportunity to present oral argument be afforded to the parties, in addition to filing briefs on the issue of the proper rate of return for Tennessee, as hereinafter provided.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is appropriate in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the proper rate of return for Tennessee be determined uhder an interim order procedure.

(2) The Staff's motion for waiver of the intermediate decision on the rate of return issue should be granted, and the parties should be allowed to file briefs and present oral argument, as hereinafter provided.

The Commission orders:

(A) The intermediate decision procedure hereby is omitted for purposes of determination of the proper rate of return for Tennessee.

(B) The Presiding Examiner is directed to certify to us the evidence of record on the issue of rate of return for determination of that issue under interim order procedure.

(C) Main briefs on the issue of the proper rate of return for Tennessee shall be filed and served by all parties who desire to do so, on or before July 15, 1960.

(D) Oral argument before the Commission shall be held on July 21, 1960 at 10:00 a.m. in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C. (1) in lieu of reply briefs on the issue of the proper rate of return for Tennessee; and (2) on the questions whether as a result of determination of the proper rate of return, immediate refunds and rate reductions, if any, should be ordered, and if so, on what basis.

(E) All parties to this proceeding who desire to participate in the oral argument herein provided, shall notify the Secretary on or before July 11, 1960, of their intent to do so, indicating which items referred to in paragraph (D) above, they propose to argue and the amount of time they desire for such argument.

By the Commission.

Deposting of Stockyards

It has been ascertained, and notice is hereby given, that the stockyards named herein, originally posted on the respective dates specified below as being subject to the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U.S.C. 181 et seq.), no longer come within the definition of a stockyard under said act for the reason that they are no longer being conducted or operated as public markets, and are, therefore, no longer subject to the provisions of the act.

Name of Stockyard and Date of Posting
Benton County Sales Co., Rogers, Ark., Dec. 12, 1958.
Hensley Sale Barn, Fayetteville, Ark., Dec. 12, 1958.
Union Stock Yards, Los Angeles, Calif., Nov. 1, 1922.

Dixon Brothers Livestock Sales, Jackson, Mich., May 16, 1959.
McAlester Stockyard and Livestock Auction, McAlester, Okla., June 23, 1949.

Notice or other public procedure has not preceded promulgation of the foregoing rule since it is found that the giving of such notice would prevent the due and timely administration of the Packers and Stockyards Act and would, therefore, be impracticable and contrary to the public interest. There is no legal warrant or justification for not deposting promptly a stockyard which is no longer within the definition of that term contained in said act.

The foregoing is in the nature of a rule granting an exemption or relieving a restriction and, therefore, may be made effective in less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. This notice shall be come effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

SUBCHAPTER S—NUMBERING OF UNDOCUMENTED VESSELS, STATISTICS ON NUMBERING, AND "BOATING ACCIDENT REPORTS" AND ACCIDENT STATISTICS

[CGFR 60-43]

PART 171—STANDARDS FOR NUMBERING

Georgia System of Numbering Approved

Acting under the authority delegated by Treasury Department Order 167-32, dated September 23, 1958 (23 F.R. 7605), the Commandant, United States Coast Guard, on May 26, 1960, approved the Georgia system for the numbering of motorboats, which was established pursuant to the Federal Boating Act of 1958.

As provided in this approval, the Georgia system shall be operative on and after June 1, 1960. On that date the authority to number motorboats principally used in the State of Georgia passed to that State. Those motorboats presently numbered should continue to display the Coast Guard number until renumbered by Georgia. On and after June 1, 1960, all reports of "boating accidents" which involve motorboats numbered in Georgia will be required to be reported to the State Game and Fish Commission, Atlanta, Georgia, pursuant to Act No. 567 (H.B. 764) of the General Assembly of Georgia, approved by the Governor on March 7, 1960, and the rules and regulations of the Georgia State Game and Fish Commission.

Because the amendments to §§ 171.01–6(b), and 171.10–1(b), as set forth in this document, are informative rules about official actions performed by the Commandant, it is hereby found that compliance with the Administrative Procedure Act (respecting notice of proposed rule making, public rule making procedures thereon, and effective date requirements thereof) is unnecessary.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by Treasury Department Orders 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F.R. 6521), and 167-17, dated June 29, 1955 (20 F.R. 4976), to promulgate rules in accordance with the statutes cited with the informative rules below, the following amendments are prescribed with an effective date of June 1, 1960:

Subpart 171.01—General

1. In § 171.01-6 Temporary exemptions until July 1, 1960, paragraph (b) is amended by deleting "Georgia" from the list of States.

(Sec. 3, 60 Stat. 238, and sec. 633, 63 Stat. 545; 5 U.S.C. 1002, 14 U.S.C. 633)

Subpart 171.10—Application for Number

2. In § 171.10-1 To whom made, paragraph (b) is amended by inserting in the list of States having approved numbering systems the State of "Georgia."

(Sec. 3, 60 Stat. 238, and sec. 633, 63 Stat. 545; 5 U.S.C. 1002, 14 U.S.C. 633)

Dated: June 20, 1960.

[SEAL] J. A. HIRSHFIELD,
Vice Admiral, U.S. Coast Guard,
Acting Commandant.

SUBCHAPTER K—HUMANE SLAUGHTER OF LIVESTOCK

PART 181—IDENTIFICATION OF CARCASSES OF CERTAIN HUMANELY SLAUGHTERED LIVESTOCK

Statement of Policy Regarding Identification

Pursuant to section 4 of the Act of August 27, 1958, relating to humane slaughter (Pub. Law 85-765; 7 U.S.C. 1901 et seq.) the following statement of policy is hereby issued to appear in a new Part 181—Identification of Carcasses of Certain Humanely Slaughtered Livestock, prescribing the means to be used by the Department of Agriculture for identifying carcasses of animals inspected and passed under the Meat Inspection Act, as amended and extended (21 U.S.C. 71 et seq.) that have been slaughtered and handled incident to slaughter by humane methods in accordance with the public policy of the United States under the humane slaughter act.

§ 181.1 Statement of policy regarding identification.

(a) Under section 4 of the Act of August 27, 1958, relating to humane slaughter (7 U.S.C. 1904) the Department of Agriculture is directed to establish suitable means of identifying the carcasses of livestock inspected and passed under the Federal Meat Inspection Act (21 U.S.C. 71 et seq.) that have been slaughtered in accordance with the public policy declared in the humane slaughter act. The procedure described in paragraph (b) of this section is hereby established as the suitable means of such identification.

(b) Periodically, based on current information, the Director of the Meat Inspection Division, Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture, will publish in the FEDERAL REGISTER, as a notice, a table listing the names of the official establishments operating under the Federal Meat Inspection Act, which use humane methods of slaughter and incidental handling; the official establishment numbers thereof; and the species of livestock being slaughtered in such establishment in accordance with such methods. Additions and deletions from the list may also be made by the Director by notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER when necessary. Carcasses of the listed species of animals that have been prepared and branded with the Federal meat inspection stamp in the listed official establishments, respectively, will be considered thereby identified within the meaning of section 4 of the Act of August 27, 1958, as having been slaughtered in accordance with the public policy of that act, provided the establishment and the species were so listed at the time of such branding. The table should not be understood to indicate that species of livestock slaughtered at a listed establishment are slaughtered and handled by humane methods unless such species are listed for that establishment in the table. Nor should the table be understood to indicate whether or not the affiliates of any listed establishment use only humane methods.

Done at Washington, D.C., this 22d day of June 1960.

M. R. CLARKSON,
Acting Administrator,
Agricultural Research Service.

§ 427.1101. General statement.

This bulletin contains the regulations, instructions, and requirements with respect to the 1960 Cotton Loan Program of Commodity Credit Corporation (referred to in this subpart as "CCC") formulated by CCC and the Commodity Stabilization Service (referred to in this subpart as "CSS"). Under this program, loans will be made available on 1960-crop Choice (B) upland and extra long staple cotton in accordance with this bulletin. The requirements with respect to the price support program for upland cotton produced on farms for which the operator elected the Choice (A) allotment are contained in 1960 CCC Cotton Bulletin 2.

§ 427.1102 Administration.

Under the general direction and supervision of the Executive Vice President, CCC, the Cotton Division and other appropriate divisions of CSS will carry out the provisions of this subpart. In the field, the program will be administered through the New Orleans CSS Commodity Office, 120 Marais Street, New Orleans 16, Louisiana (referred to in this subpart as the "New Orleans office"), and Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (referred to in this subpart as "ASC") State and county committees (referred to in this subpart as "State committees" and "county committees," respectively). Program availability and maturity dates will be those specified hereinafter except that whenever the final date of availability or the maturity date falls on a nonwork day for ASC county offices or the New Orleans office, the applicable final date shall be extended to include the next work day. Forms will be distributed by the New Orleans office and will be available at county ASC offices (referred to in this subpart as "county offices") and at approved lending agencies, approved warehouses, and others designated to participate in the loan program. ASC State and county committees and the New Orleans office do not have authority to modify or waive any of the provisions of this subpart or any amendments or supplements hereto.

§ 427.1103 Availability of loans.

(a) General statement. Loans will be available to eligible producers on eligible cotton and will be made available through warehouse and bill of lading loans. As provided in § 427.1118, if an eligible producer obtains price support from CCC in excess of $50,000 on 1960-crop upland cotton or in excess of $50,000 on 1960-crop extra long staple cotton, and if he has not qualified for an exemption from the $50,000 limitation in Public Law 86-80 through reduction of his production of such kind of cotton, he will be obligated to repay loans obtained under this program on such kind of cotton in an amount equal to such excess. Any person who, on the basis of a reduction of his production, desires to qualify for an exemption from the $50,000 limitation shall file an application with the ASC county committee in accordance with the Regulations Relating to the $50,000 Limitation of Nonrecourse Price Support for the 1960 Crop of Price Supported Field Crops in Surplus Supply (25 F.R. 1001), as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "Regulations Relating to the $50,000 Limitation").

(b) Area. Loans on cotton produced in the areas specified below and covered by bills of lading will be available in areas designated by the New Orleans office where there is a shortage of storage space and the necessary arrangements for handling the cotton can be made. Warehouse loans will be available on:

(1) Upland cotton produced on Choice (B) farms in all cotton-producing areas of the continental United States.

(2) Extra long staple cotton produced in areas designated in this subparagraph.

(i) American-Egyptian cotton produced in Cochise, Graham, Greenlee, Maricopa, Mohave, Pima, Pinal, Santa Cruz, and Yuma Counties, Arizona; Imperial and Riverside Counties, California; Dona Ana, Eddy, Luna, Otero, and Sierra Counties, New Mexico; and Brewster, Culberson, El Paso, Hudspeth, Jeff Davis, Loving, Pecos, Presidio, Reeves, and Ward Counties, Texas.

(ii) Sea Island and Sealand cotton produced in Berrien, Cook, and Lanier Counties, Georgia; and Alachua, Bradford, Columbia, Hamilton, Jefferson, Lake, Levy, Madison, Marion, Orange, Putnam, Seminole, Sumter, Suwannee, Union, and Volusia Counties, Florida; and Sea Island cotton produced from seed planted in 1960 in Puerto Rico.

(c) Time. Loans will be available from the date rates are announced through April 30, 1961. Note and loan agreements covering warehouse-stored cotton must be signed by the producer and delivered to the lending agency on or before April 30, 1961, or postmarked not later than such date, if tendered for direct loans to the New Orleans office by mail. Loans on cotton covered by bills of lading will be available only during the periods specified by the New Orleans office.

(d) Source. Loans will be available from approved lending agencies or from the New Orleans office. Disbursements on loans will be made to producers by approved lending agencies under agreements with CCC or by the New Orleans office. Disbursement of loans by approved lending agencies will be made not later than April 30, 1961, except where specifically approved by the New Orleans office in each instance. The producer shall not present the loan documents for disbursement unless the cotton is in existence and in good condition. If the cotton is not in existence and in good condition at the time of disbursement, the producer shall promptly refund the proceeds.

§ 427.1104 Approved lending agency.

An approved lending agency shall be any bank, corporation, partnership, association, individual, or other legal entity which has entered into a Lending Agency Agreement—Cotton (CCC Cotton Form D) with CCC. Banks and other agencies desiring to enter into Lending Agency Agreements should make application to the New Orleans office, which will enter into such agreements on behalf of CCC with responsible applicants having organizations and facilities adequate to properly carry out their responsibilities and obligations under the program.

§ 427.1105 Producer.

A producer shall be any individual, partnership, corporation, association, trust, estate, or other legal entity, or a State or political subdivision thereof, or an agency of such State or political subdivision, producing eligible upland or extra long staple cotton in the capacity of landowner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper.

§ 427.1106 Eligible producer.

(a) A producer will be entitled to a loan on eligible Choice (B) upland cotton or eligible extra long staple cotton produced by or for him in 1960 on a farm (as defined for purposes of cotton marketing quotas) for which a 1960 acreage allotment for such kind of cotton has been determined under Title III of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended and supplemented, if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) In the case of Choice (B) upland cotton, the operator of the farm has elected the Choice (B) cotton acreage allotment, in accordance with the Acreage Allotment Regulations for the 1960 Crop of Upland Cotton (24 F.R. 8430 and any amendments or supplements thereof), and the 1960 planted acreage (as determined for purposes of cotton marketing quotas) of upland cotton on the farm does not exceed the 1960 Choice (B) upland cotton acreage allotment for the farm.

(2) In the case of extra long staple cotton, the 1960 planted acreage (as determined for purposes of cotton marketing quotas) of extra long staple cotton on the farm does not exceed the 1960 extra long staple cotton allotment for the farm.

(3) For the purpose of determining eligibility for a loan, the Choice (B) upland or extra long staple cotton acreage on the farm will not be deemed to be in excess of the acreage allotment for such cotton unless such acreage allotment for such kind of cotton is knowingly exceeded. If the producer operating the farm is notified that such acreage allotment has been exceeded and the planted acreage is not adjusted to such acreage allotment within the period allowed under the notice, such acreage allotment shall be deemed to have been knowingly exceeded by the producers having an interest in the cotton.

(b) In the case of eligible cotton produced by a landlord and his share tenant or sharecropper, a loan may be obtained only as follows:

(1) If the cotton is divided among the producers entitled to share in such cotton, each landlord, tenant, or sharecropper may obtain a loan on his separate share.

(2) If the cotton is not divided, (i) all producers having a share in the cotton may obtain a joint loan on such cotton, or (ii) the landlord may obtain a loan on cotton in which both he and one or more share tenants or sharecroppers have an interest if he has the legal right to do so, and in such cases the share tenants or sharecroppers must be paid their pro rata share of the loan proceeds and their pro rata share of any additional proceeds received from the cotton: Provided, That the landlord shall not be eligible to tender to CCC cotton in which a share tenant's or sharecropper's share of the price support proceeds when added to price support proceeds previously received by the share tenant or sharecropper with respect to 1960-crop cotton would exceed $50,000, unless such share tenant or sharecropper has qualified for an exemption from the $50,000 limitation on nonrecourse price support through reduction of his production, in accordance with the Regulations Relating to the $50,000 Limitation. In determining the amount of price support extended each producer in the case of loans on cotton in which both the landlord and one or more share tenants or sharecroppers have an interest, each producer shall be deemed to have been extended price support to the extent of his interest in the cotton. In no case shall a share tenant or sharecropper obtain a loan individually on cotton in which a landlord has an interest. Except as provided above, two or more producers may not obtain a joint loan on their cotton.

(c) A producer who has not qualified for an exemption from the $50,000 limitation on nonrecourse price support must not obtain a loan on cotton with other producers if his pro rata share of the loan proceeds plus the price support proceeds which he has previously received with respect to 1960-crop cotton would exceed $50,000, but if such cotton is divided among the producers entitled to share therein, he may obtain a loan upon his separate share.

§ 427.1107 Eligible cotton.

Eligible cotton shall be Choice (B) upland cotton produced in the United States in 1960 or extra long staple cotton planted in 1960 and produced in areas designated under § 427.1103, which meets the following requirements:

(a) Upland cotton must have been produced on a farm for which the farm operator elected the Choice (B) allotment and on which the acreage planted to such cotton is in compliance with such allotment, and extra long staple cotton must have been produced on a farm on which the acreage planted to such cotton is in compliance with the allotment.

(b) Such cotton must be of a grade and staple length specified in § 427.1129.

(c) Such cotton must not be false-packed, water-packed, mixed-packed, reginned, or repacked; upland cotton must not have been designated as "Wasty" or reduced in grade for any reason, except that any such cotton which is reduced not more than two grades because of preparation will be eligible; extra long staple cotton must have been ginned on a roller gin, shall be of normal character, and must not have been designated as "Wasty" or reduced in grade for any reason.

(d) Such cotton must be in existence and in good condition.

(e) Such cotton must not be compressed to high density.

(f) Such cotton must have been produced by the person tendering it for a loan, and such person must have the legal right to pledge or mortgage it as security for a loan.

(g) If such cotton was produced on land owned by the Federal Government, it must not have been produced in violation of the provisions of the lease.

(h) If the person tendering such cotton is a landlord or landowner, the cotton must not have been acquired by such landlord or landowner directly or indirectly from a share tenant or sharecropper and must not have been received in payment of fixed or standing rent; and if it was produced by him in the capacity of landlord, share tenant, or sharecropper, it must be his separate share of the crop, unless he is a landlord and is tendering cotton in which both he and one or more share tenants or sharecroppers have an interest.

(i) The person or association tendering such cotton must not have previously sold and repurchased such cotton.

(j) Each bale of cotton must weigh not less than 350 nor more than 625 pounds, gross weight, and must be adequately packaged in new material manufactured for cotton bale covering, except used jute and sugar bagging will be acceptable if such bagging is clean and in sound condition. The bagging must be sufficiently strong to adequately protect the cotton. Cotton compressed to standard density, whether compressed by a warehouseman or at a gin, must have not less than eight bands. Heads of bales must be completely covered. Bales packaged with new bagging and ties used in the Cotton Experimental Bale Packaging Program sponsored by the National Cotton Council, Memphis, Tennessee (referred to in this subpart as "Experimental Bale Packaging Program"), will be acceptable provided there is attached to each such bale a tag which identifies such bale with the program and which shows the actual tare weight and the number of pounds to be added to the gross weight of the bale for the purpose of adjusting the bale to the normal gross weight under such program.

(k) Each bale of cotton must bear the gin bale number.

The following documents must be delivered by producers in connection with every loan except loans made pursuant to § 427.1127:

(a) Warehouse-stored loans. (1) Cotton Producer's Note and Loan Agreement (Form CCC Cotton A, referred to in this subpart as "Form A").

(2) Warehouse receipts complying with the provisions of § 427.1119.

(3) Producer's Letter of Transmittal (CCC Cotton Form B, referred to in this subpart as "Form B"), if the loan is obtained direct from the New Orleans office.

(4) Lien Waiver (Form CCC Cotton 889) if used in lieu of execution of Lienholder's Waiver on the Form A in accordance with the provisions of § 427.1114.

(b) Cotton represented by order bills of lading. (1) Form A executed within the area and during the period such loans are available.

(2) Order bill of lading in a form acceptable to CCC and representing the cotton tendered as security for the loan.

(3) If the receiving agency is not a warehouseman, Weight and Condition Certificates complying with the provisions of § 427.1121 and a Receiving Agency's Certificate.

(4) Form B if the loan is obtained direct from the New Orleans office.

(5) Lien Waiver (Form 889) if used in lieu of execution of Lienholder's Waiver on the Form A in accordance with the provisions of § 427.1114.

(c) Loan documents executed by an administrator, executor, or trustee. Loan documents executed by an administrator, executor, or trustee will be acceptable only where valid in law. State documentary revenue stamps shall be affixed to loan documents where required by law. A producer who desires to appoint an attorney-in-fact to act in his place and stead in obtaining loans shall use Power of Attorney (CCC Cotton Form 18) which must be filed with the New Orleans office.

§ 427.1109 Approved storage.

Cotton will be accepted as security for loans only if stored by warehouses approved by CCC. Warehousemen desiring approval of their facilities should communicate with the New Orleans office. The names of approved warehouses may be obtained from the New Orleans office or ASC State or county offices.

§ 427.1110 Weight and rate.

(a) Loans will be made on the gross weight of upland cotton and on the net weight of extra long staple cotton. The gross weight of the bale shall be the gross weight shown on the warehouse receipt if the loan is made on cotton represented by warehouse receipts, or the gross weight shown on the Weight and Condition Certificate (see § 427.1121(c)) if the loan is made on cotton represented by order bills of lading. Notes covering cotton pledged on reweights will not be accepted if it is evident that such reweights reflect an increase in weight due to the absorption of additional moisture. In order to encourage improved wrapping methods and compensate for resulting reduced tare weight, in making loans on upland cotton wrapped with material under the Experimental Bale Packaging Program, there will be added to the gross weight of the bale an allowance equal to the number of pounds shown on the program bale tag to be necessary "to adjust to normal gross weight" under such programs. No allowances other than those provided for in this subsection will be made.

(b) The base loan rate for Middling 1-inch Choice (B) cotton at each approved warehouse will be shown in the Schedule of Base Loan Rates for Choice (B) upland cotton (which will be issued about June 15, 1960). This schedule will be available at county offices. The premium or discount applicable to each other eligible grade and staple length of upland cotton is shown in § 427.1129. Loan rates for extra long staple cotton are also shown in § 427.1129. After a loan is made, CCC will not be obligated to make adjustments in the amount of the loan as a result of any subsequent redetermination of the weight or quality of the cotton.

§ 427.1111 Preparation of documents.

(a) A producer desiring to obtain a loan may obtain the necessary forms from county offices, approved lending agencies, approved warehouses, and approved clerks (persons approved by the ASC county committees to assist producers in preparing and executing the loan forms). All applicable blanks on the loan forms must be filled in with ink, indelible pencil, or typewriter in the manner indicated therein, and documents containing additions, alterations, or erasures may be rejected by CCC. (Forms A having a date prior to May 2, 1960, shall not be used.) Both copies should be clearly legible. The spaces provided on Forms A for the producer to request and direct payment of the proceeds must be completed in every instance. All disbursements made from the proceeds of a note, including clerk's fee when deducted, must be shown, and the total must agree with the amount of the note. No deduction may be made from the loan proceeds by the lending agency as a charge for handling the loan documents, except the authorized clerk's fee in case an employee of the lending agency has executed the Clerk's Certificate on Form A. Care should be exercised by the lending agency to determine that the warehouse receipts and bills of lading are genuine. Before the loan clerk prepares loan documents for a producer, he must require the porducer to present his marketing card so that he can determine whether the producer is eligible for a loan. The marketing cards issued by the county office will indicate the producer's eligibility. If the producer's 1960 Choice (B) upland cotton marketing card is Form MQ–76–B—Upland Cotton (a white card) or his 1960 extra long staple cotton marketing card is Form MQ–76—ELS Cotton (a buff card), the loan clerk will use this as evidence that the producer is eligible to obtain a loan on the kind of cotton for which such card was issued. If the producer's 1960 marketing card is MQ–76–R—Upland Cotton (a red card) and the boxes following the words "1960 Choice (B)" and "Not eligible unless price support documents approved by county committees" contain an "X" or if his 1960 extra long staple cotton marketing card is Form MQ–76–R—ELS Cotton (a red card) and the box following the words "Not eligible unless price support documents approved by county committee" contains an "X," the loan clerk shall inform the producer that in order for him to obtain a loan on his cotton he must have the Certificate of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee on Form A executed by the county office manager (or a county office employee designated by him). If the box on Form MQ–76–R—Upland Cotton or MQ–76–R—ELS Cotton following the words "Not eligible" contains an "X," the producer cannot obtain a loan on such kind of cotton produced on that farm under any condition and should be so informed by the clerk. Lending agencies which are also eligible producers must obtain direct loans on cotton produced by them from the New Orleans office or obtain loans from another approved lending agency. An approved clerk cannot execute loan documents for cotton owned by him. An approved clerk who, under a power of attorney, executes the loan documents on behalf of the producer, shall not execute the Clerk's Certificate on such loan documents.

(b) The Clerk's Certificate on each Form A tendered for a loan must be executed by the approved clerk who assisted the producer in the preparation and execution of the Form A. The original of Form A must be signed by the producer, and the copy marked "producer's copy" is to be retained by the producer. Loan forms must not be signed in blank. All applicable entries must be completed prior to the time the form is signed by the producer or the loan clerk. The proper status of the producer (i.e., whether landowner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper) must be shown in the space provided therefor on Form A. If any producer has reason to believe that the total amount of price support advances which could be obtained by or for him (including any price support advances obtained in his name for sharecroppers or tenants) on upland cotton or on extra long staple cotton under the 1960 price support programs of CCC might exceed $50,000, his correct percentage share of the cotton must be shown in the space provided therefor on each Form A, unless he has qualified for an exemption from the $50,000 limitation in Public Law 86–80 through reduction of his production. If a producer's correct percentage share in the cotton is required to be shown, such producer must have the same percentage share in all cotton listed in the Schedule of Pledged Cotton on a particular Form A, and separate Forms A must be used for each lot of cotton in which the producer's share is different. In each case in which a loan is being obtained on Choice (B) upland cotton or extra long staple cotton, the "Yes" box or the "No" box opposite the question which is printed immediately below the space for producers' signatures on the Form A must be checked by the producer before executing the Form A to indicate whether any person (who has not qualified for an exemption) sharing in the proceeds of the loan will have received (including his share of the loan) more than $50,000 in price support on the kind of cotton pledged to secure the loan, determined in accordance with § 427.1118. (In the case of recourse loans on Choice (A) cotton pursuant to 1960 C.C.C. Cotton Bulletin 2, answers to this question are not required, and producers are not required to furnish the Forms CCC Cotton AX mentioned below.) If the answer is "Yes", the producer must prepare and execute a Form CCC Cotton AX showing all price support previously received by him (or by any other individuals or legal entities who, under the rules provided in the Regulations Relating to the $50,000 Limitation, are to be treated, together with the producer, as one person) with respect to the 1960 crop of the kind of cotton pledged to secure the note. The Form CCC Cotton AX must be attached to the Form A on which the "Yes" answer required the execution of this form. All persons claiming liens on the cotton must sign the Lienholder's Waiver on the Form A, except that in lieu of signing the Lienholder's Waiver on each Form A, the lienholder may waive his lien on all cotton produced on a farm by executing Form 889 as provided in § 427.1114. All of the cotton pledged as security for any loan must be of the same grade and staple length and must be stored in the same warehouse. A split grade (i.e., a bale for which the official classification shows a "+" or "LT.") must be pledged on separate notes from the full grade. Not more than 999 bales shall be pledged as security for any one note. Before preparing his loan documents, the producer should give careful consideration to the manner in which he may wish to withdraw the cotton from the loan. Cotton of the same grade and staple length will ordinarily be placed on the same note. However, it may be placed on separate notes if the producer believes it will facilitate the redemption of the cotton from the loan or the sale of his equity in such cotton. The approved lending agency shown as payee on the Form A shall make disbursement to the producer, must sign the Payee's Endorsement thereon, and must execute the covering Lending Agency's Letter of Transmittal. Date of disbursement shown on the Form A must be the actual date of disbursement to the producer by such lending agency.

§ 427.1112 Service charges.

No service charges will be collected by CCC in connection with warehouse loans (except for fees collected by county office employees, as provided in § 427.1113).

§ 427.1113 Fees.

The clerk or county office employee assisting the producer in the preparation of the loan documents may collect a fee from the producer not to exceed the fees shown in the following schedule:

Number of bales on note:	Maximum fee allowed
1	25 cents.
2–6	25 cents plus 15 cents for each bale over 1.
7–18	$1 plus 10 cents for each bale over 6.
19 and over	$2.20 plus 5 cents for each bale over 18.

§ 427.1114 Liens.

Eligible cotton tendered for loan must be free and clear of all liens except the warehouseman's lien for charges permitted under § 427.1120 on warehouse-stored cotton. The signatures of the holders of all existing liens on cotton tendered as security for a loan, such as landlords, laborers, or mortgagees (but not the warehouseman, if the cotton is stored in a warehouse) must be obtained on the Lienholder's Waiver on each Form A, except that in lieu of signing the Lienholder's Waiver on each Form A, the lienholder may waive his lien on all cotton produced on a farm for the crop year designated by executing a Lien Waiver (Form CCC Cotton 889, referred to in this subpart as "Form 889"). The original of the Form 889 must be attached securely to the first Form A on which the Lienholder's Waiver is not executed for the particular lien so as to be recorded and filed in the New Orleans office. Thereafter, the Lienholder's Waiver on Forms A covering additional cotton produced on the farm shall show the words "see Form 889 on file." An executed copy must be filed by the producer with each lending agency which disburses the proceeds of any Form A executed by the producer. Additional copies may be prepared and retained by the producer and agency as desired. A fraudulent representation, as to prior liens or otherwise, will render the producer personally liable under the terms of the Loan Agreement and subject him and any other person who causes the fraudulent representation to be made, to criminal prosecution under the provisions of the Commodity Credit Corporation Charter Act. The Lienholder's Waiver or Lien Waiver must be signed personally by all lienholders, by their agents (in which case duly executed Powers of Attorney (CCC Cotton Form 18) must be filed with the New Orleans office), or, if a corporation, by the designated officer thereof customarily authorized to execute such instruments (in which case no authority need be attached).

(a) If any installment or installments on any loan made available by CCC on farm-storage facilities or mobile drying equipment are payable, under the provisions of the note evidencing such loan out of any amount due the producer under the program provided for in this subpart, the producer must designate CCC or the lending agency holding such note as payee of such amount to the extent of such installments, but not to exceed that portion of the amount remaining after deduction of service charges, clerk's fees, and amounts due prior lienholders.

(b) If the producer is indebted to CCC, or if the producer is indebted to any other agency of the United States, and such indebtedness is listed on the county debt record, amounts due the producer under the program provided for in this subpart, after deduction of amounts payable on farm-storage facilities or mobile drying equipment and other amounts provided in paragraph (a) of this section, shall be applied, as provided in the Secretary's Setoff Regulations, 7 CFR Part 13 (23 F.R. 3757), to such indebtedness.

(c) In any case referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, the producer must go to the county office in the county in which he is listed on the debt record and have his loan documents completed by a clerk in the county office. Any amount which is to be set off must be entered in the space provided in the producer's note by the county office manager (or an employee designated by him).

(d) Compliance with the provisions of this section shall not deprive the producer of any right he might otherwise have to contest the justness of the indebtedness involved in the setoff action either by administrative appeal or by legal action.

§ 427.1116 Classification of cotton.

(a) All cotton tendered for loan must be classed by a Board of Cotton Examiners of the United States Department of Agriculture (referred to in this subpart as the "Board") and tendered on the basis of such classification. A Cotton Classification Memorandum Form 1 of the United States Department of Agriculture will be accepted only if the sample was a representative sample drawn in accordance with instruction to organized cotton improvement groups for sampling cotton under the 1960 Smith-Doxey Program. If the producer's cotton has not been sampled for a Form 1 classification, the warehouseman (for warehouse-stored cotton) or receiving agency (for cotton covered by bills of lading) shall sample such cotton and forward the samples to the Board serving the district in which the cotton is located. A Cotton Classification Memorandum Form A3 must be inserted in each such sample. A Tag List and Record Sheet (CCC Cotton Form L, referred to in this subpart as "Form L") must be prepared by the warehouseman or receiving agency, listing each sample included in a shipment to the Board. A copy of such Form L shall be included with the samples, and the original and two copies must be mailed separately to the Board. The Board will enter the classification of each bale on the Form L and return a copy of such form to the warehouse or receiving agency. The Cotton Classification Memorandum Form A3 will be returned to the producer by the Board. If a sample has been drawn and submitted for a Form 1 or Form A3 classification, another sample may not be drawn and forwarded to a Board except for a review classification. If through error or otherwise, in any case where review classification is not involved, two or more samples from the same bale are submitted for classification, the loan rate shall be based on the classification having the lower loan value. If a Form 1 or Form A3 review classification is obtained, the loan value of the cotton represented thereby will be based on such review classification.

(b) A charge of 25 cents per bale shall be collected from the producer by the warehouseman or receiving agency for all cotton for which samples are submitted to a Board for a Form A3 classification or a Form 1 or A3 review classification. The Boards will submit billings for classing charges to the warehousemen or receiving agencies at the end of each month. Checks or money orders covering these charges shall be made payable to "Commodity Credit Corporation" and shall be sent to the New Orleans office.

§ 427.1117 Interest rate.

Nonrecourse loans and charges shall bear interest at the rate of 3½ percent per annum from the date of disbursement to the date of repayment. Recourse loans and charges shall bear interest at the rate of 6 percent per annum from the date of disbursement to the date of repayment, except that amounts which are repaid on or before July 31, 1961, shall bear interest at the rate of 3½ percent per annum from the date of disbursement to the date of repayment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the rate of interest to be charged on any cotton price support advance and related charges with respect to which the producer made a willful misrepresentation in obtaining the advance shall be 6 percent per annum from the date of disbursement thereof to the date of repayment.

§ 427.1118 Maturity.

(a) Nonrecourse loans mature July 31, 1961, or upon such earlier date as CCC may make demand for repayment. Loans will be made on Choice (B) upland cotton and extra long staple cotton without identification of the recourse loans until the maturity date for nonrecourse loans. If the total amount of price support which is received by any person with respect to 1960-crop upland cotton or with respect to 1960-crop extra long staple cotton and which remains outstanding on August 1, 1961, is in excess of $50,000 (unless such person has qualified for an exemption from the $50,000 limitation in Public Law 86–80 through reduction of his production), CCC will, as soon as practicable, designate loans (or portions thereof) in a total amount equal to such excess over $50,000 on such kind of cotton under this program in which such persons shared in the proceeds. Each such loan so designated shall be a recourse loan, and the producer (or each producer, jointly and severally, in the case of joint loans) obtaining the loan shall be personally liable for the payment on or before April 30, 1962 (notwithstanding the earlier maturity date stated in the note), of such loan, plus charges and interest. Each producer obtaining a loan which is still outstanding on August 1, 1961, is required to make a full report to CCC as to the outstanding price support received by any person (who has not qualified for an exemption) sharing in the proceeds of the loan who has received a total amount of price support on the kind of cotton covered by such loan which is in excess of $50,000 on August 1, 1961, and to make such other reports as CCC may request as to the price support received by him or by any other person sharing in the proceeds of such loans. Producers will be personally liable for the refund of amounts paid through error, plus interest thereon, and loans obtained through fraudulent representations will be recourse loans. All other loans outstanding on August 1, 1961, which are not designated by CCC will be nonrecourse, except that if a producer's failure to notify CCC as to the outstanding price support in excess of $50,000 received by any person sharing in the proceeds of a loan causes CCC to fail to designate such loan as being recourse prior to April 30, 1962, CCC will have the right to designate the loan as a recourse loan after that date. The rules provided in the Regulations Relating to the $50,000 Limitation shall be applied for the purposes of this subpart to determine whether certain individuals or legal entities are to be treated as one person or as separate persons for the purpose of applying the $50,000 limitation in Public Law 86–80 and whether producers come within the exemption from such limitation through reduction of their production. In determining the total amount of price support received by any person and remaining outstanding on August 1, 1961, there shall be included all loans under the program on cotton of which such person is the sole owner which are not repaid prior to August 1, 1961, such person's share of each loan under the program on cotton in which he has a part interest (whether he signs the note as joint producer or his share of the proceeds is paid to him by the producer signing the note) which are not repaid prior to August 1, 1961, such person's share of each loan advance obtained from a cotton coopertiave marketing association on cotton in which he has the full or a part interest and which, on August 1, 1961, is security for a loan obtained by the association from CCC, and (if the determination is being made with respect to upland cotton) his share of the proceeds of any sales of 1960-crop Choice (A) cotton in which he has the full or a part interest.

(b) If a producer does not satisfy his nonrecourse loan by maturity, the holder of the note is authorized to sell the cotton securing the note. The holder of the note may become the purchaser of the whole or any part of the cotton. If CCC is the holder of the note, then at CCC's election title to the cotton securing the note shall, without a sale thereof, immediately vest in CCC, and CCC shall have no obligation to pay for any market value which such cotton may have in excess of the amount of the loan plus interest and charges.

(c) If a producer does not satisfy his recourse loan by maturity or by an earlier date if it is determined by CCC that the commodity can no longer be stored because of danger of deterioration or other reasons, the holder of the note is authorized to sell the cotton securing the note. Upon sale of the cotton, the net proceeds will be credited to the producer's recourse indebtedness. Any amount by which the net proceeds exceed the recourse indebtedness shall be payable only to such producer, without right of assignment by him. The producer shall be personally liable to CCC for the payment of the deficiency in any case where the net proceeds from the sale are less than the amount due on the recourse loan. Such payment shall be made promptly upon demand unless the commodity was sold prior to the maturity date, in which event such payment shall be made to CCC on the maturity date. Any unliquidated balance due CCC shall be collected by appropriate means. The amount of the deficiency may be set off against any payment which would otherwise be due to the producer under any agricultural program administered by the Secretary of Agriculture or any other payments which are due or may become due the producer from CCC, or any other agency of the United States.

(d) To avoid administrative costs of making small payments and handling small accounts, amounts due the producer of $3.00 or less will be paid only upon his request. Deficiencies of $3.00 or less, including interest, may be disregarded unless demand for payment is made by CCC.

§ 427.1119 Warehouse receipts and insurance.

Only negotiable machine card type warehouse receipts, acceptable to CCC, issued by an approved warehouse and properly assigned by an endorsement in blank so as to vest title in the holder or issued to bearer will be acceptable. The warehouse receipts must contain the gin bale number, must show that the cotton is covered by fire insurance, and must be dated on or prior to the date of the producer's notes. Each receipt must set out in its written or printed terms a description by tag number and weight of the bale represented thereby and all other facts and statements required to be stated in the written or printed terms of a warehouse receipt under the provisions of section 2 of the Uniform Warehouse Receipts Act. Block warehouse receipts will not be accepted except on cotton to be reconcentrated pursuant to § 427.1122.

§ 427.1120 Warehouse charges.

The Agreement of Warehouseman on each Form A must be executed by the warehouseman storing the cotton covered by the Form A not more than 10 days preceding the date of the Producer's Note on the Form A. In the case of loans made to a cotton cooperative marketing association as provided in § 427.1127, the Warehouseman's Certificate and Agreement on the Certificate of Association and Agreement of Warehouseman (CCC Cotton Form G–1, referred to in this subpart as "Form G–1") must be executed by the warehouseman storing the cotton covered by such form. By executing the Agreement of Warehouseman on the Form A or the Warehouseman's Certificate and Agreement on the Form G–1, the warehouseman agrees that such cotton will be stored and handled in accordance with the Warehouseman's Certificate and Agreement on the reverse side of the Form A or on the Form G–1 and makes the representations contained therein, and the warehouseman further agrees to store such cotton under conditions and at rates determined as follows: The cotton shall be insured against loss or damage by fire under a policy or policies providing coverage equivalent to that afforded under the standard fire policy of the State in which the cotton is stored for the full market value (if the cotton is compressed, its market value shall be the market value of flat cotton plus compression charges, or if the cotton is uncompressed and the warehouseman desires to collect his delivery charge for flat cotton in lieu of compression if it is destroyed by fire, such charge must be covered by insurance) at the time and place of loss and shall be kept so insured so long as the warehouse receipts therefor are outstanding, unless the cotton comes under a storage agreement between the warehouseman and CCC allowing the warehouseman to cancel his insurance on the cotton. Such insurance shall cover damage to the cotton by water from the warehouseman's sprinkler system when such damage results from fire in the same warehouse in which the cotton is stored. From the dates of the warehouse receipts representing the cotton or from the date through which the producer has paid storage charges, whichever is later, through July 31, 1961, all charges on the cotton for storage and insurance shall be at the rate of 46 cents per bale per month or fraction thereof for flat or compressed cotton stored in warehouses operating compress facilities or compressed cotton stored in warehouses not operating compress facilities, and at the rate of 51 cents per bale per month or fraction thereof for flat cotton stored in warehouses not operating compress facilities, or the warehouseman's established tariff on cotton other than CCC loan cotton, whichever is less: Provided, That on any cotton transferred prior to July 31, 1961, to another warehouseman without movement of the cotton, and for which new warehouse receipts must be issued, or on any cotton shipped by CCC prior to July 31, 1961, at the request of the warehouseman to permit the warehouseman to discontinue the storage of cotton, payment for the fractional part of the storage month prior to the date of such transfer or shipment shall be paid by CCC at the proportionate part of the monthly rate. If the warehouse operates compress facilities, the tariff rate to which reference is made herein shall be the rate applicable to compressed cotton regardless of the compression status of the cotton. Such charges, accrued through July 31 of any year in which these rates are in effect, shall be paid by CCC, as soon as possible after such date, on all of the cotton represented by warehouse receipts held by CCC at the time of payment: Provided, That on any cotton for which CCC makes payment of accrued charges through July 31 of any year, payment for the fractional part of a month prior to such date shall be at the proportionate part of the monthly rate. The warehouseman may make a charge for outhandling, including picking out by tag numbers and loading according to custom into cars or trucks, of not to exceed 25 cents per bale if such charges are included in the warehouseman's tariff: Provided, That no such outhandling charge may be made where collection for the service has been included in any other charge or otherwise collected. Charges for compression of cotton by the warehouseman, including compression charges on cotton compressed to standard density by the warehouseman at his gin, will be at the rates provided in the warehouseman's established tariff in effect at the time the service is ordered performed. Compression charges on cotton compressed to standard density for the warehouseman at a gin or another warehouse under contract with the warehouseman will be at the rate which the warehouseman pays the ginner or the other warehouseman. In no event shall compression charges on gin compressed cotton or cotton compressed by another warehouseman exceed the rate paid to the ginner or the other warehouseman by his customers on all other cotton. Charges for the compression of cotton will be paid by CCC only if the charges have not been paid by the producer, and if the cotton is shipped from the warehouse by CCC. All other charges on cotton, including flat delivery charges on cotton moved from a warehouse operating compress facilities without payment of compression charges, will be at the rates provided in the warehouseman's established tariff in effect at the time the service is ordered performed: Provided, That no charge may be made with respect to the cotton that is not applicable to cotton other than CCC loan cotton stored by the warehouseman, except that the warehouseman may make a charge of not to exceed 25 cents per bale for transmitting samples to the designated classing office, postage, verifying and guaranteeing the correctness of the information for which the warehouse is responsible in the Schedule of Pledged Cotton on the Form A or Form G–1, and executing the Agreement of Warehouseman on the Form A or the Warehouseman's Certificate and Agreement on the Form G–1, if such charges are included in the warehouseman's established tariff: And provided further, That in no event shall such charge, a service charge or charges for receiving, tagging, weighing, sampling on arrival, or storage of samples, be collected from CCC or a purchaser of the cotton. No charge for standard density compression or for delivery or outhandling, except as provided in this section, will be paid with respect to cotton received by the warehouseman which has been compressed to standard density either by a gin (gin compress bale) or by another warehouseman. No charge of any kind whatsoever will be paid with respect to any of the cotton compressed to high density without the written authority of CCC. The warehouseman shall execute and submit to CCC with each voucher for amounts payable by CCC under this agreement the following certificate:

I hereby certify that, since the cotton covered by this voucher was received at the warehouse, there has been removed from such cotton only that amount of cotton necessary to secure representative samples, to properly trim the sample holes, or to otherwise maintain the cotton in the interest of good housekeeping and fire prevention incidental to the handling, storage, or compressing of said cotton except for reconditioning of damaged cotton, and that since issuance of warehouse receipts thereon such cotton has not been reconditioned, picked, or cleaned by blowing or brushing except as noted on report attached hereto or to a previous voucher covering such cotton; and that neither the warehouseman nor any officer or employee of the warehouseman has purchased or otherwise obtained any Producer's Equity Transfers on cotton stored in the warehouse which have not been presented to Commodity Credit Corporation within 15 days from the dates such transfers were executed by the producers.

The warehouseman shall store the cotton so that the tags will be visible and readily accessible so as to permit an accurate check of stocks at any time. The rates quoted herein will remain in effect through July 31, 1961, and will remain in effect thereafter until terminated by CCC or the warehouseman on July 31, 1961, or at the end of any subsequent month by giving the other at least 30 days' prior notice, or until the cotton comes under another storage agreement between the warehouseman and CCC, whichever is earlier. If the cotton is redeemed from the loan or the cotton is sold by CCC, the storage rates provided in this section shall be applicable for storage services rendered up to and including the date of such redemption or sale, and the warehouseman shall not charge the holders of the warehouse receipts representing such cotton for such storage services an amount in excess of that computed in accordance with this agreement. The terms and provisions of this section shall prevail over the written or printed terms of the warehouse receipts representing the cotton.

§ 427.1121 Loans on order bills of lading.

(a) Loans on cotton represented by order bills of lading will be available only in areas and during the periods specified by the New Orleans office where there is a shortage of storage space and where the necessary arrangements for handling the cotton may be made.

(b) Cotton represented by order bills of lading will be eligible for a loan only when it is shipped by an approved receiving agency as agent for the producer. Warehousemen, ginners, and other responsible parties in areas where such loans are available may be approved to act as receiving agencies by the New Orleans office. Receiving agencies will enter into Receiving Agency Agreements with CCC. When receiving agencies are approved, notifications will be given by letter or published lists.

(c) A producer in any such area who is unable to find storage space in his local area and who wishes to obtain such a loan should deliver his cotton to a receiving agency with the request that it ship the cotton as agent for the producer, in accordance with shipping instructions furnished by CCC, to a warehouse where storage space is available. The receiving agency will complete the Schedule of Pledged Cotton on a Form A and, if it is a warehouseman, will execute the Agreement of Warehouseman thereon. If the receiving agency is not a warehouseman, it will have the cotton weighed by a public or licensed weigher and will secure a Weight and Condition Certificate in the form prescribed by CCC and execute the Receiving Agency's Certificate. The receiving agency will ship the cotton, secure order bills of lading in a form acceptable to CCC, and deliver to the producer the bills of lading, together with the Form A and Weight and Condition Certificates (if any). If the receiving agency is a warehouseman, it will be permitted to collect fees in accordance with § 427.1120 and a fee of not to exceed 10 cents per bale to cover the costs of preparation of shipping documents. If the receiving agency is not a warehouseman, it will, for the purpose of payment of gin compression only, be considered as a warehouseman and will be permitted to collect from CCC charges for gin compression as provided in § 427.1120 and will be permitted to collect from producers a fee not in excess of the fee set forth in the Receiving Agency Agreement executed by the receiving agency, and shall post, in a conspicuous place, a notice showing the fee to be charged producers. Loans will be made at the full loan rate at the point where the receiving agency receives the cotton. CCC will pay warehouse storage charges on cotton tendered by the producer for a loan under this section, if the receiving agency is a warehouseman.

§ 427.1122 Loans on cotton to be reconcentrated.

Loans on cotton to be reconcentrated will be available only on cotton stored at warehouses approved by the New Orleans office in areas where there is congestion and lack of storage space. The warehousemen will enter into Reconcentration Agreements (CCC Cotton Form 29, referred to in this subpart as "Reconcentration Agreements") with CCC. Warehouse receipts covering cotton to be reconcentrated under a Reconcentration Agreement must be in a form acceptable to CCC and must provide for delivery of the cotton to the order of CCC. Block warehouse receipts covering cotton to be reconcentrated under a Reconcentration Agreement will be accepted. A producer who desires to obtain a loan in this manner should request the warehouseman to issue a warehouse receipt to him in the form specified above and must furnish written authorization to the warehouseman for the reconcentration of the cotton after which the warehouseman will ship the cotton. The Forms A and warehouse receipts covering cotton to be reconcentrated under a Reconcentration Agreement must show the reconcentration order number under which the cotton will be shipped. The producer will obtain a loan on these documents in the usual manner, and after receipt of the loan documents, CCC will surrender the warehouse receipts to the warehouseman.

§ 427.1123 Tender of notes by lending agencies.

Notes (Forms A) evidencing loans made by a lending agency which has entered into a Lending Agency Agreement—Cotton (CCC Cotton Form D) prior to the making of the loans will be eligible for purchase or pooling by CCC. Under this agreement, lending agencies which are parties thereto are required to tender to CCC, on Lending Agency's Letter of Transmittal (CCC Cotton Form C, referred to in this subpart as "Form C"), all notes on Form A, with warehouse receipts or bills of lading (and weight and condition certificates, if required) attached, representing loans made by the lending agency within 15 days after the date of disbursement of the loans. All notes transmitted on a Form C must cover cotton stored in warehouses in the same custodial district. Separate Forms C shall be used for upland and extra long staple cotton. Separate Forms C shall be used for notes secured by warehouse receipts, notes secured by bills of lading, and notes executed by attorneys-in-fact. Each Form C shall state whether the lending agency desires CCC to purchase the notes or to place them in a pool. Upon receipt of the loan papers by the New Orleans office, they will be examined and, if found correct, will be approved and transmitted to the custodial office serving the district in which the cotton is stored, and will be purchased or placed in a pool as directed by the lending agency. Lending agencies which have previously been approved by CCC as eligible to draw drafts on CCC may, subject to such instructions and requirements as CCC may hereafter from time to time prescribe, obtain immediate payment for notes they desire to sell to CCC by drawing sight drafts with enclosed letters of transmittal on CCC through a Federal Reserve Bank or Branch Bank approved by CCC. Notes covered by such drafts must be immediately submitted to the New Orleans office. In the event that the notes are pooled, a Certificate of Interest representing the interest in the pool acquired as the result of the deposit therein of the notes shown on the Form C will be issued to any approved lending agency designated on the Form C.

§ 427.1124 Loss or damage to pledged cotton.

In any case where there is loss or damage to cotton which occurs while such cotton is pledged to CCC or a lending agency, CCC shall have the right to determine and file claims against any liable third parties for the resulting loss. Upon determination of the quantity of the lost or damaged cotton securing a nonrecourse loan, CCC will give credit for the loan value (including charges and interest) of such cotton. If the proceeds of the claim exceed the loan value of such cotton, the excess proceeds shall be remitted to the producer or, if the loan has been repaid, to the party repaying the loan. In the event of any loss or damage to any cotton securing a recourse loan, the producer shall remain personally liable to CCC for the amount, if any, by which the amount due on such recourse loan exceeds the amount of any insurance or other proceeds recovered by CCC plus the proceeds obtained from the sale of the balance of the cotton securing the loan.

§ 427.1125 Transfer of producer's interest.

If the producer desires to sell his equity in the Choice (B) upland or extra long staple cotton covered by a note, he must complete the Producer's Equity Transfer Agreement in the Producer's Equity Transfer on the reverse side of the Producer's Loan Statement—A, which will be mailed to the producer by the New Orleans office at the time the notes are processed by that office. The producer must sign the Producer's Equity Transfer Agreement in the presence of a witness approved for such purpose by a county committee, and the Certificate of Witness in the Producer's Equity Transfer must be dated and signed by the witness. An approved witness shall not witness an equity transfer if he, or the firm by which he is employed, is the purchaser. A producer who desires to appoint an attorney-in-fact to act in his place and stead in selling his equity in the cotton shall use Power of Attorney (CCC Cotton Form 19) and file it with the applicable custodial office. The equity purchaser must complete the Certificate of Purchaser in the Producer's Equity Transfer and send it within 15 days to CCC, in care of the custodial office serving the district in which the cotton was stored at the time the loan was obtained. Upon receipt of the Producer's Equity Transfer, the custodial office will forward the note and warehouse receipts to a bank designated by the person requesting their release with directions to the bank to release the note and warehouse receipts to the holder of the equity transfer upon payment of the amount due on the loan. In all such cases, the bank will be instructed to return the note and warehouse receipts to the custodial office if payment is not effected within 5 business days or prior to the time at which the loan matures and CCC acquires or sells the cotton, whichever is the earlier. Repayments will not be accepted after CCC acquires or sells the cotton. All charges assessed by the bank to which the note and warehouse receipts are sent must be paid by the person requesting the release of the cotton. No partial release of the cotton securing one note will be permitted except that CCC may allow partial releases in cases where loss or damage to part of the cotton occurs. In the event the Producer's Loan Statement—A is destroyed or lost, the producer may obtain a duplicate of such form from the custodial office serving the district in which the cotton is stored.

§ 427.1126 Repayments by producer.

If a producer desires to obtain the return of his note and the release of the cotton securing the note, he must execute the Producer's Redemption Request on the Producer's Loan Statement—A which will be mailed to the producer by the New Orleans office at the time the notes are processed by that office. The producer must send or deliver the Producer's Loan Statement—A to CCC, in care of the custodial office serving the district in which the cotton was stored when the loan was obtained, as designated in § 427.1128. Upon receipt of the Producer's Loan Statement—A, the custodial office will forward the note and warehouse receipts to a bank designated by the producer with directions to the bank to release such note and warehouse receipts only to the producer or his authorized agent upon payment of the amount due on the loan. The bank will be instructed to return the note and warehouse receipts to the custodial office if payment is not effected within 15 days or prior to the time at which the loan matures and CCC acquires or sells the cotton, whichever is the earlier. Repayments will not be accepted after CCC acquires or sells the cotton. All charges assessed by the bank must be paid by the producer. A producer who desires to appoint an attorney-in-fact to act in his place and stead in repaying loans shall use Power of Attorney (CCC Cotton Form 19) and file it with the applicable custodial office. No partial release of the cotton represented by warehouse receipts and securing a note will be permitted, except that CCC may allow partial releases in cases where loss or damage to part of the cotton occurs.

§ 427.1127 Cotton cooperative marketing association loans.

A special form of loan agreement will be made available to cotton cooperative marketing associations whereby members of such associations may act collectively in obtaining loans, subject to the $50,000 limitation on nonrecourse price support to any producer on 1960-crop cotton contained in Public Law 86-80. The loan rates under this agreement will be the same as the loan rates to individual producers, and eligibility requirements with respect to the cotton and the producers tendering the cotton to the association and other loan provisions will be substantially the same as for loans to individual producers. Members desiring to obtain loans from their associations should contact their associations.

PART 472—WOOL

Subpart—Payment Program for Shorn Wool and Unshorn Lambs (Pulled Wool)

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The regulations issued by Commodity Credit Corporation and the Commodity Stabilization Service containing the requirements with respect to the Payment Program for Shorn Wool and Unshorn Lambs (Pulled Wool), as amended (24 F.R. 649, 10191; 25 F.R. 1725, 2705), are further amended as follows:

1. In § 472.1005 the letter "(a)" is inserted immediately after the heading of said section and at the end of the section the following new paragraph (b) is added:

(b) The national average price received by producers for shorn wool marketed during the 1959 marketing year was 43.3 cents a pound, grease basis, which was 18.7 cents a pound below the incentive price of 62 cents. Therefore, the rate of incentive payment for the 1959 marketing year is 43.2 percent.

2. In § 472.1021, the letter "(a)" is inserted immediately after the heading of said section, and at the end of the section the following new paragraph (b) is added:

(b) The rate of payment on unshorn lambs sold during the 1959 marketing year is 75 cents per hundredweight of live animals based on a difference of 18.7 cents a pound between the incentive price of 62 cents and the national average price of 43.3 cents a pound received by producers for shorn wool during the 1959 marketing year (§ 472.1005(b)).

3. In § 472.1048, the letter "(a)" is inserted immediately after the heading of said section, and at the end of the section the following new paragraph (b) is added:

(b) For the 1959 marketing year, a deduction will be made from each shorn wool payment at the rate of 1 cent per pound of wool, grease basis, and from each unshorn lamb payment at the rate of 5 cents per hundredweight of live animals, as announced in the Department's press release issued October 26, 1959. Those funds will be used to finance the advertising and sales promotion program approved by the Department of Agriculture pursuant to Section 708 of the National Wool Act of 1954, as amended.

PART 27—COTTON CLASSIFICATION UNDER COTTON FUTURES LEGISLATION

Subpart A—Regulations

PART 28—COTTON CLASSING, TESTING, AND STANDARDS

Subpart A—Regulations Under the United States Cotton Standards Act

GRADE; WASTY STAPLE

On June 2, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 4867) regarding the proposed amendments of §§ 27.37 and 27.38(b) of the Regulations for Cotton Classification under Cotton Futures Legislation and §§ 28.39 and 28.40(b) of the Regulations under the United States Cotton Standards Act.

After consideration of all relevant matters presented pursuant to the notice, said regulations are hereby amended as follows, pursuant to authority contained in sec. 4863 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (68A Stat. 582; 26 U.S.C. 4863) and in sec. 10 of the United States Cotton Standards Act (42 Stat. 1519; 7 U.S.C. 61).

1. Section 27.37 of the Regulations for Cotton Classification under Cotton Futures Legislation is amended to read as follows:

§ 27.37 Cotton reduced in grade.

If cotton be reduced in grade, by reason of the presence of extraneous matter or other irregularities or defects, below its grade according to the official cotton standards of the United States, the grade from which it is so reduced, the grade to which it is so reduced, and the condition or reason which so reduces its grade shall be determined and stated.

§ 27.38 [Amendment]

2. Paragraph (b) of § 27.38 of the Regulations for Cotton Classification under Cotton Futures Legislation is amended to read as follows:

(b) Cotton of wasty staple. Cotton that has a weak, irregular, or immature staple.

(Sec. 4863, 69A Stat. 582; 26 U.S.C. 4863)

3. Section 28.39 of the Regulations under the United States Cotton Standards Act is amended to read as follows:

§ 28.39 Cotton reduced in grade.

If cotton be reduced in grade, by reason of the presence of extraneous matter or other irregularities or defects, below its grade according to the official cotton standards of the United States, the grade from which it is so reduced, and the condition or reason which so reduces its grade shall be determined and stated.

§ 28.40 [Amendment]

4. Paragraph (b) of § 28.40 of the Regulations under the United States Cotton Standards Act is amended to read as follows:

(b) Cotton of wasty staple. Cotton that has a weak, irregular, or immature staple.

(Sec. 10, 42 Stat. 1519; 7 U.S.C. 61)

Effective date. The foregoing amendments shall become effective July 1, 1960. The notice of proposed rule making published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for these amendments (25 F.R. 4867) proposed that the amendments would become effective on that date. No objections were received as to this proposed effective date. It is essential to have the changes in procedure provided by these amendments become effective with the beginning of classing of the 1960 cotton crop in order to fully protect the interests of cotton producers, buyers, and others handling cotton classification memoranda. Therefore, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003) good cause is found for making these amendments effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D.C., this 22d day of June 1960.

ROY W. LENNARTSON,
Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service.

PART 28—COTTON CLASSING, TESTING, AND STANDARDS

Original Representations of Staple Lengths

On February 2, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 871) regarding the proposed amendment of § 28.303 of the official cotton standards for length of staple pursuant to authority contained in section 10 of the United States Cotton Standards Act, as amended (42 Stat. 1519; 7 U.S.C. 61) and in section 4854 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (68A Stat. 580, 26 U.S.C. 4854).

After consideration of all relevant matters presented pursuant to the notice, § 28.303 is hereby amended to read as follows, effective August 1, 1961:

§ 28.303 Original representations of staple lengths.

The following lengths of staple are each represented by a quantity of cotton in the custody of the United States Department of Agriculture suitably contained and marked "Original Representation of official cotton standards of the United States" followed in each instance by name of growth, the appropriate designation of staple length, and the effective date:

(a) American Upland. 7/8, 15/16, 1, 1 1/32, 1 1/16, 1 3/32, 1 1/8, 1 5/32, 1 3/16, 1 7/32 and 1 1/4 inches (effective date, August 1, 1929); 1 3/16, 2 9/32 and 3 1/32 inches (effective date, August 1, 1933).

(b) American Egyptian. 1 5/16 (effective date, August 1, 1961); 1 3/8 and 1 7/16 inches (effective date, August 10, 1943); 1 1/2 inches (effective date, August 1, 1929).

(c) Sea Island. 1 1/2, 1 9/16, 1 5/8 and 1 3/4 inches (effective date, August 10, 1939).

The primary purpose of the amendment is to (1) eliminate the practical forms for the staple lengths 1 5/16 and 1 3/8 inches for American Upland cotton, (2) eliminate the practical forms for the staple lengths 1 9/16, 1 5/8, and 1 3/4 inches for American Egyptian cotton and (3) change the official staple standards for American Egyptian cotton in the length 1 5/16 inches from a descriptive standard to a practical form.

(Sec. 10, 42 Stat. 1519, 7 U.S.C. 61. Interpret or apply sec. 6, 42 Stat. 1518, as amended, sec. 4854, 68A Stat. 580; 7 U.S.C. 56, 26 U.S.C. 4854)

Done at Washington, D.C., this 22d day of June 1960.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Valencia Orange Reg. 203]

PART 922—VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

Limitation of Handling

§ 922.503 Valencia Orange Regulation 203.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 22, as amended (7 CFR Part 922), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said marketing agreement and order, as amended, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on June 23, 1960.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., June 26, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 3, 1960, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 400,000 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) All Valencia oranges handled during the period specified in this section are subject also to all applicable size restrictions which are in effect pursuant to this part during such period.

[Lemon Reg. 352]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

Limitation of Handling

§ 953.959 Lemon Regulation 352.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 23 F.R. 9053), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based become available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for lemons and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on June 21, 1960.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of lemons grown in California and Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., June 26, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 3, 1960, are hereby fixed as follows:

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter III—Federal Aviation Agency

SUBCHAPTER E—AIR NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

[Airspace Docket No. 59–NY–59]

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

Modification

On March 12, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 2107) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was considering an amendment to § 600.6140 of the regulations of the Administrator which would modify VOR Federal airway No. 140 between Baltimore, Md., and Coyle, N.J.

As stated in the notice, Victor 140 would be realigned from the Baltimore VOR via a VOR to be installed approximately October 1, 1960, near Millville, N.J., at latitude 39°32'17" N., longitude 74°58'03" W., to the Coyle VOR. This modification will provide an additional route which will facilitate management of the heavy volume of air traffic operations between the Washington, D.C./Baltimore and the New York City, N.Y., terminal areas. It will also provide a more direct airway between Baltimore and Coyle, thereby reducing the airway distance between these points. This action will result in this segment of Victor 140 and its associated control areas being designated from the Baltimore VOR to the Coyle VOR via the Millville VOR. Subsequent to the issuance of the Notice, the commissioning date of the Millville VOR was rescheduled to December 15, 1960.

The Department of the Air Force objected to the modification of Victor 140 as proposed. They contended that this airway would result in considerable delay to IFR military operations at New Castle County Airport, Wilmington, Del., and Philadelphia, Pa., International Airport, since the proposed airway transits, in part, the same airspace utilized in penetration and departure procedures at these terminals. The Air Force cites an estimated 200 military jet and 350 military non-jet IFR operations at New Castle Airport monthly and cites past delays as well as forecasting an increase in delays in the future because of the proposed airway. In addition, the following comments were submitted; the benefit by air traffic control to be derived from this airway is questionable due to the extent to which activity in the Aberdeen, Md., Restricted Area (R–54) would prevent its use; the airspace this airway would traverse is used extensively by VFR flights of military jet aircraft operating locally from Philadelphia International, New Castle County, Dover Air Force Base, Dover, Del., and Martin Airport, Baltimore; New Castle VFR jet arrival and departure routes are established in this area to minimize low altitude flight on the airways; the airspace in question encompasses a part of the flight test areas approved for use by the Martin Company and Patuxent, Md., Naval Air Station; and IFR and VFR traffic resulting from the modification of this airway will impose severe restrictions upon Air Force activities and adversely affect flight safety.

The Federal Aviation Agency feels that the modification of Victor 140 between Baltimore and Millville is an important adjunct to the airway configuration between the Washington/Baltimore and the New York City terminals. As an additional route, it will facilitate the movement of a heavy volume of air traffic operating between these terminals. This airway will transit the airspace encompassed by the jet penetration and departure procedures presently in effect at the New Castle and Philadelphia terminal; however, the air traffic activity figures do not represent an amount of air traffic which cannot effectively be accommodated by procedural methods. By virtue of Victor 140 transiting R–54, the airway will be utilized as a "part-time" airway and will not generate a full-time volume of traffic. With regard to the air traffic activity figures cited by the Air Force; New Castle County Airport activity figures, compiled from the Federal Aviation Agency Monthly Summary of Airport operations for a fifteen-month period from January 1959, to March 1960, show a total of 102 Air Force instrument approaches and a total of 21,473 combined instrument operations. This is an average of less than 7 instrument approaches per month for all types of Air Force aircraft and represents an average of 1,431 combined air carrier, civil, and military operations monthly. Figures from the same report and period for Philadelphia International Airport, indicate a total of 240 Air Force instrument approaches and a total of 113,091 combined instrument operations. These figures represent an average of 16 instrument approaches per month for all types of Air Force aircraft and an average of 7,539 combined air carrier, civil and military operations monthly.

The Federal Aviation Agency is of the opinion that the modification to Victor 140 in this area is justified to support the volume of IFR operations and should not be relegated to a position subordinate to VFR activity. This action should not be withheld because of a segment of activity which is a part of the entire IFR complex and to which air traffic management procedures also apply. Therefore, the Federal Aviation Agency is modifying Victor 140 and its associated control areas as proposed in the notice.

The Air Transport Association and Air Line Pilots Association concurred in the proposed amendment. No other adverse comments were received.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530), the following action is taken:

In the text of § 600.6140 (24 F.R. 10517, 10876, 25 F.R. 630) "INT of the Baltimore VOR 035° and the New Castle VOR 257° radials; New Castle, Del., VOR; Woodstown, N.J., VOR; point of INT of the Woodstown VOR 106° and the Dover, Del., direct radial to the Coyle VOR; Coyle, N.J., VOR; to the Idlewild, N.Y., VOR. The portions of this airway which lie more than 3 miles either side of the centerline between the Coyle, N.J., VOR and the point of INT of the Coyle VOR 031° and the Colts Neck, N.J., VOR 073° radials are excluded. The portions of this airway which lie within the geographical limits of, and between the designated altitudes of, the Washington Prohibited Area (P–56) and the Aberdeen Restricted Area R–54 are excluded during these areas' times of designation." is deleted and "Millville, N.J., VOR; Coyle, N.J., VOR; to the Idlewild, N.Y., VORTAC. The portions of this airway which lie within the geographical limits of, and between the designated altitudes of, the Washington Prohibited Area (P–56) and the Fort Dix Restricted Area (R–25) are excluded during these areas' times of designation." is substituted therefor.

This amendment shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. January 12, 1961.

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

Modification

On September 12, 1959, a notice of proposed rule-making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (24 F.R. 7383) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to amend Section 600.6614 of the regulations of the Administrator by modifying a segment of VOR Federal airway No. 1514 between the Hanksville, Utah, VOR and the Gunnison, Colo., VOR via the La Sal, Utah, VOR.

As stated in the notice, VOR Federal airway No. 1514 presently extends from San Francisco, Calif., to New York, N.Y. The distance between the Hanksville VOR and the Gunnison VOR is 172 miles. In order to provide more precise navigational guidance, Victor 1514 is being realigned via the La Sal VOR. Such action will result in Victor 1514 being designated from the Hanksville VOR to the Gunnison VOR via the La Sal VOR. The control areas associated with Victor 1514 are so designated as to conform automatically to the modified airway. Accordingly, no amendment relating to such control areas is necessary.

An objection was received from the Department of the Air Force based on the modified Victor 1514 airway conflicting with a Strategic Air Command low altitude refueling area called "Deadwood." They also recommended that the implementation of the final rule modifying Victor 1514 be delayed until a coordinated, mutually satisfactory segregation plan could be formulated. The Federal Aviation Agency recognizes that the modified Victor 1514 will penetrate the "Deadwood" refueling area. However, any air traffic control problem that may exist between refueling operations and air traffic on the modified Victor 1514 will be resolved procedurally by the appropriate air route traffic control center.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) § 600.6614 (24 F.R. 10529, 25 F.R. 635) is amended as follows:

In the text of § 600.6614 VOR Federal airway No. 1514 (Half Moon Bay, Calif., to New York, N.Y.), delete "Hanksville, Utah, VOR; Gunnison, Colo., VOR;" and substitute therefor "Hanksville, Utah, VOR; La Sal, Utah, VOR; Gunnison, Colo., VOR;".

This amendment shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. August 25, 1960.

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Modification of Federal Airway, Associated Control Areas and Control Area Extension

On March 9, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 2018) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to revoke the segment of Blue Federal airway No. 18 from the intersection of the northwest course of the New York, N.Y. (La Guardia) radio range with the southwest course of the Poughkeepsie, N.Y., radio range to the Albany, N.Y., radio range. Concurrently, the Newburgh, N.Y., control area extension would be redescribed to delete any reference to Blue 18. The Department of the Air Force offered no objections but recommended that the Poughkeepsie, N.Y., radio range continue to be shown on aeronautical charts. The revocation of Blue 18 will not result in the decommissioning of the Poughkeepsie radio range and it will continue to be depicted on aeronautical charts.

The Air Transport Association of America concurred in the action provided that the eastern boundary of the Newburgh, N.Y., control area extension be redefined as the western edge of the Victor airway planned between Albany and the proposed Clermont, N.Y., VOR.

The eastern boundary of the Newburgh control area extension, as proposed in the notice (a line from its point of intersection with VOR Federal airway No. 270 at latitude 42°10'00" N., longitude 73°55'00" W., to the point of intersection with the New York, N.Y., control area extension at latitude 41°47'10" N., longitude 73°55'00" W.), does coincide with the western edge of the proposed Victor airway (VOR Federal airway No. 489) between Albany and the proposed Clermont VOR. However, Victor 489 will not become effective until February 9, 1961 (Airspace Docket No. 59–WA–414, 25 F.R. 3816) and it is not in the public interest to delay the redesignation of the Newburgh control area extension until that date when it can be accomplished at the present time with the use of geographical coordinates.

No other adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendments.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rules herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendments having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530), and for the reasons stated in the Notice, §§ 600.618 (24 F.R. 10500), 601.618 (24 F.R. 10546), 601.4618 (24 F.R. 10596) and 601.1470 (24 F.R. 10570) are amended to read:

§ 600.618 Blue Federal airway No. 18 (Albany, N.Y., to Burlington, Vt.).

From the Albany, N.Y., RR to the Burlington, Vt., RR.

§ 601.618 Blue Federal airway No. 18 control areas (Albany, N.Y., to Burlington, Vt.).

§ 601.4618 Blue Federal airway No. 18 (Albany, N.Y., to Burlington, Vt.).

No reporting point designation.

§ 601.1470 Control area extension (Newburgh, N.Y.).

The airspace north of Stewart AFB bounded on the N by VOR Federal airway No. 270, on the E by a line from its point of INT with VOR Federal airway No. 270 at latitude 42°10'00" N., longitude 73°55'00" W., to the point of INT with the New York, N.Y., control area extension (§ 601.1066) at latitude 41°47'10" N., longitude 73°55'00" W., and on the S and W by the New York control area extension.

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. August 25, 1960.

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Modification of Federal Airway, Revocation of Federal Airway and Associated Control Areas

On March 5, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 1962) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to modify the segment of VOR Federal airway No. 19 between Las Vegas, N. Mex., and Pueblo, Colo., by redesignating it via a VOR to be commissioned approximately May 1, 1960, near Cimarron, N. Mex.; to designate an east alternate to Victor 19 from Cimarron to Pueblo via the intersection of the Cimarron VOR 026° True and the Pueblo VOR 176° True radials; to revoke Victor 19 east alternate from Las Vegas to Raton, N. Mex.; and to revoke in its entirety VOR Federal airway No. 197 and its associated control areas. Subsequent to the publication of the notice, the commissioning date of the Cimarron VOR was rescheduled to August 25, 1960.

On March 29, 1960, a modification to the notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 2648) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was amending its original proposal by designating the new east alternate to Victor 19 from Cimarron to Pueblo via the intersection of the Cimarron VOR 053° True and the Pueblo VOR 176° True radials. The period for submitting written data, views or arguments was extended to April 30, 1960.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendments.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rules herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendments having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the Notice, Parts 600 (24 F.R. 10487), 601 (24 F.R. 10530) and § 600.6019 (24 F.R. 10508) are amended as follows:

1. In the text of § 600.6019 "Raton, N. Mex., omnirange station, including an east alternate; Pueblo, Colo., omnirange station;" is deleted and "Cimarron, N. Mex., VOR; Pueblo, Colo., VORTAC, including an E alternate via the INT of the Cimarron VOR 053° True and the Pueblo VORTAC 176° True radials"; is substituted therefor.

2. Section 600.6197 VOR Federal airway No. 197 (Las Vegas, N. Mex., to Pueblo, Colo.). is revoked.

3. Section 601.6197 VOR Federal airway No. 197 control areas (Las Vegas, N. Mex., to Pueblo, Colo.). is revoked.

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. August 25, 1960.

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Extension of Federal Airway and Associated Control Areas

The purpose of these amendments to §§ 600.6244 and 601.6244 of the regulations of the Administrator is to extend VOR Federal airway No. 244, and its associated control areas from Pueblo, Colo., to Russell, Kans.

Victor 244 presently extends from Oakland, Calif., to Pueblo. The Federal Aviation Agency is extending this airway from the Pueblo VOR to the Russell VOR via the Lamar, Colo., VOR. This extension will overlie the same airspace now occupied by existing airways from Pueblo to Russell, however, this modification will simplify flight planning and permit more efficient air traffic management by providing a single numbered low altitude airway between these two terminals. Such action will result in Victor 244, and its associated control areas extending from Oakland, Calif., to Russell, Kans.

Since this action will not involve the designation of additional airspace, compliance with the notice, public procedure, and effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary. However, since it is necessary that sufficient time be allowed to permit appropriate changes to be made on aeronautical charts, this amendment will become effective more than 30 days after publication.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530), the following actions are taken:

1. In § 600.6244 (24 F.R. 10523, 25 F.R. 107, 25 F.R. 635), the following changes are made:

(a) In the caption "(Oakland, Calif., to Pueblo, Colo.)." is deleted and "(Oakland, Calif., to Russell, Kans.)" is substituted therefor.

(b) In the text "to the Pueblo, Colo., VOR." is deleted and "Pueblo, Colo., VOR; Lamar, Colo., VOR; to the Russell, Kans., VOR." is substituted therefor.

2. In the caption of § 601.6244 (25 F.R. 635) "(Oakland, Calif., to Pueblo, Colo.)" is deleted and "(Oakland, Calif., to Russell, Kans.)" is substituted therefor.

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. August 25, 1960.

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Revocation of Control Area Extension

The purpose of this amendment to Part 601 of the regulations of the Administrator is to revoke the Burlington, Vt., control area extention.

The Burlington control area extension is designated within the same airspace as Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor (R-540) associated with the Ethan Allen Air Force Base, Burlington. This restricted area has been revoked in Airspace Docket No. 59-WA-230 (25 F.R. 4377). Therefore, the Federal Aviation Agency is revoking the control area extension associated with the climb corridor.

Since this amendment imposes no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary, and it may be made effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530), Part 601 (24 F.R. 10530) is amended as follows:

Section 601.1220 Control area extension (Burlington, Vt.). is revoked.

This amendment shall become effective upon the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Designation of Control Zone

On January 6, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 83) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was proposing an amendment to Part 601 of the Regulations of the Administrator which would designate a control zone at Godman Army Air Field, Fort Knox, Ky.

As stated in the Notice, no control zone is designated for Godman AAF. The control zone will be designated within a 5-mile radius of the Godman AAF, with an extension 2 miles either side of a line bearing 354° True from the Fort Knox radio beacon extending from the radio beacon to a point 12 miles north of the radio beacon, excluding that portion which would overlie the Fort Knox Restricted Area (R-64). Subsequent to publication of the Notice, the Federal Aviation Agency was designated the controlling agency of the Fort Knox Restricted Area (R-64), therefore, it is no longer necessary to exclude that portion of the control zone which coincides with the restricted area. This control zone will provide protection to aircraft conducting approaches to and departing Godman AAF during instrument flight rule conditions.

The Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association objected to the control zone extension to the north as "The need for flight of aircraft at an altitude below 1000 feet above the ground at a distance beyond 5 miles from the field is not established in this proposal." However, in accordance with the prescribed ADF instrument approach, the procedure turn is completed at 2000 feet MSL within 10 nautical miles and then descent is made to cross the radio beacon at 1500 feet MSL which is only 747 feet above the surface of the airport. Therefore, the Federal Aviation Agency considers that the control zone extension, based on the 354° True bearing from the radio beacon, is required for the full protection of the instrument approach.

No other adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendment. The Department of the Army, Air Line Pilots Association and Air Transport Association concurred in the proposal as published.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530), Part 601 (24 F.R. 10530) is amended by adding the following section:

§ 601.2464 Fort Knox, Ky., control zone.

Within a 5-mile radius of geographical center of Godman AAF (latitude 85°58'15" N., longitude 37°54'25" W.) Fort Knox, Ky., and within 2 miles either side of a line bearing 354° True extending from the Fort Knox RBN to a point 12 miles N.

This amendment shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. August 25, 1960.

Title 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

SUBCHAPTER B—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

PART 120—TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

Tolerance for Residues of Ethoxyquin

A petition was filed with the Food and Drug Administration by Monsanto Chemical Company, St. Louis, Missouri, requesting the establishment of tolerances for residues of ethoxyquin (1,2-dihydro-6-ethoxy-2,2,4-trimethylquinoline) in or on apples and pears, at 3 parts per million.

The Secretary of Agriculture has certified that this pesticide chemical is useful on apples, but not on pears, for the purposes for which a tolerance is being established.

After consideration of the data submitted in the petition and other relevant material which show that the tolerance established in this order will protect the public health, and by virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408(d)(2), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U.S.C. 346a(d)(2)) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (21 CFR, 1959 Supp., 120.7(g)), the regulations for tolerances for pesticide chemicals in or on raw agricultural commodities (21 CFR, 1959 Supp., Part 120) are amended by adding thereto the following new section:

§ 120.178 Tolerances for residues of ethoxyquin.

A tolerance of 3 parts per million is established for residues of ethoxyquin (1,2-dihydro-6-ethoxy-2,2,4-trimethylquinoline) in or on apples.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington, D.C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order, and specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections. If a hearing is requested, the objections must state the issues for the hearing. A hearing will be granted if the objections are supported by grounds legally sufficient to justify the relief sought. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 120—TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

Extension of Effective Date of Public Law 86-139 as It Affects Section 408 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act

Under the authority provided in Public Law 86-139 (73 Stat. 388, 7 U.S.C. 135 et seq.), the Commissioner of Food and Drugs has extended the effective date of this statute as it affects section 408 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act for certain specified uses of nematocides, plant regulators, defoliants, or desiccants (25 F.R. 2836, 25 F.R. 3351, 25 F.R. 4864). The lists previously published in § 120.35 are hereby amended by adding thereto the following new items:

§ 120.35 Extension of effective date of Public Law 86-139 as it affects section 408 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

* * * * *

Sodium chlorate	On dry beans as desiccant and defoliant. On sorghum as desiccant.
Sodium salt of p-chlorophenoxy acetic acid.	On tomatoes to increase fruit set.
S,S,S-Tributyl phosphorotrithioate.	On cotton as defoliant.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order, and I so find, since extensions of time, under certain conditions, for the effective date of the Nematocide, Plant Regulator, Defoliant, and Desiccant Amendment of 1959 were contemplated by the statute as a relief of restrictions on the agricultural industry.

Effective date. This order shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 701(a), 52 Stat. 1055, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 371(a). Applies sec. 3(b), Public Law 86-139 (73 Stat. 288; 7 U.S.C. 135 et seq.))

Dated: June 17, 1960.

Miscellaneous Amendments

In accordance with the provisions of section 4 (a) and (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act, it has been found that notice and hearing on these schedules of fees are unnecessary for the reason that such procedures, because of the nature of these rules, serve no useful purpose. These amendments are effective from June 20, 1960.

1. Section 204.901—Calibration of gamma-emitting samples, is amended to read as follows:

§ 204.901 Calibration of gamma-emitting samples.

(1) 100-300 micrograms radium, calibration in terms of micrograms of radium content measured relative to the National Radium Standard. See § 204.134-1, 2, 3, 4, 5ii for pertinent information.

(2) Chemically stable solutions of the following nuclides can be measured:

i. 50-100 microcuries of sodium-22, sodium-24, scandium-46, cobalt-60, strontium-85, niobium-95, cesium-137/barium-137.

(3) Requests for these tests should be submitted, with full details for consideration.

Title 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans Administration

PART 3—VETERANS CLAIMS

Examination and Evaluation

1. Section 3.76 is revised to read as follows:

§ 3.76 Original examination for disability compensation or pension.

In original claims for disability compensation or pension, either for peacetime or wartime service, service-connected or otherwise, an examination will be authorized when there is acceptable evidence of record establishing the reasonable probability of a valid claim. No initial rating for compensation or pension will be made without first obtaining an official Veterans Administration examination except in the following instances:

(a) A claim filed within 6 months from date of separation may be rated initially on the records of the service department if they are adequate for rating purposes.

(b) Properly authenticated records from State, county, municipal, other Government hospitals or recognized private institutions (listed by the American Hospital Association or certified by the Veterans Administration Director, Outpatient Clinic or his physician designee) will be accepted if adequate for rating purposes.

(c) A statement from a private physician which is adequate for rating purposes may be accepted for rating the pension claim of a veteran not younger than age 65. If the statement is not adequate for rating, but establishes reasonable probability of a valid claim, an official examination will be authorized.

(d) A statement from a private physician may be accepted for rating the pension claim of a veteran of any age where the following conditions are met:

(1) The statement includes clinical manifestations and substantiation of the diagnosis by findings of diagnostic techniques generally accepted by medical authorities, such as pathological studies, X-rays or laboratory tests, as appropriate, and

(2) The statement shows permanent total disability precluding travel and requiring bedside examination. This is intended to be limited to serious illness cases where the evidence shows that recovery is doubtful such as cancer, cerebral vascular accidents, coronary occlusions or thrombosis.

2. In § 3.142, the headnote and paragraph (a) are amended to read as follows:

§ 3.142 Special action where evaluations provided under the rating schedule, 1945 (Loose Leaf Edition), are considered inadequate or excessive.

(a) Exceptional cases to which the application of the 1945 schedule (Loose Leaf Edition) is not understood, or with regard to which the evaluation under the schedule is considered inadequate or excessive, may be submitted by the field station for advisory opinion or for reevaluation, to the Director, Compensation and Pension Service, Central Office. Questionable special monthly compensation cases and cases involving severe disabilities considered total, but for which current procedure does not authorize a total rating, will be similarly submitted. The effective date of the evaluation granting or increasing benefits will be in accordance with the facts found but not earlier than the date of claim.

Proposed Rule Making

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

[29 CFR Parts 8, 9]

SHIP REPAIRING AND LONGSHORING

Safety and Health Regulations

Pursuant to section 41 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (44 Stat. 1444, as amended, 72 Stat. 835; 33 U.S.C. 941), safety and health regulations for the ship repair and longshore industries have heretofore been issued. Reexamination of these regulations and initial experience in their administration and enforcement has indicated need for certain editorial and substantive revision. Accordingly, notice is hereby given in accordance with section 4(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003(a)) that I propose to amend 29 CFR Parts 8 and 9 as hereinbelow set out under authority expressed in sections 30 and 41 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act as amended (44 Stat. 1444, as amended, 72 Stat. 835; 33 U.S.C. 930 and 941). Any person interested in the proposed amendments may file a written statement of data, views and argument with Arthur W. Motley, Director, Bureau of Labor Standards, United States Department of Labor, Washington 25, D.C., within 15 days after this proposal is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. All such statements will be considered carefully in determining the final disposition to be made of the following proposed amendments:

1. In order to conform the heading of § 8.1 to the preferable one stated in the table of contents as it appeared in 25 F.R. 1543, the heading of 29 CFR 8.1 is amended to read as follows:

§ 8.1 Purpose and authority.

2. In order to simplify its text, 29 CFR 8.2(a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 8.2 Scope and responsibility.

* * * * *

(a) The responsibility for compliance with the regulations in this Part 8 is placed on the "employer" as defined in 29 CFR 8.3(c).

(44 Stat. 1444, as amended, 72 Stat. 835; 33 U.S.C. 941)

3. In order to take advantage of the precision afforded by the definition in 29 CFR 8.3(j), 29 CFR 8.3(c) is amended by deleting the word "services" and substituting the word "employments" so that paragraph (c) will read as follows:

(c) The term "employer" means an employer any of whose employees are employed, in whole or in part, in ship repair or related employments as defined in this section within the Federal Maritime jurisdiction on the navigable waters of the United States, including dry docks and marine railways.

(44 Stat. 1444, as amended, 72 Stat. 835; 33 U.S.C. 941)

4. In order to make 29 CFR 8.7 available for the substance of a new section, the present 29 CFR 8.7 is renumbered 29 CFR 8.8.

5. In order to provide for notification of serious accidents in time for an investigation of their causes before the circumstances have changed substantially, a new 29 CFR 8.7 is provided to read as follows:

§ 8.7 Notification of accidents resulting in fatalities or serious injuries.

Within 48 hours after the occurrence of an accident causing the death of an employee or resulting in an employee's admission to a hospital as a bed patient, the employer shall file a copy of Bureau of Employees' Compensation Form US—202 (approved by Budget Bureau No. 44–R 887.2) with the Field Safety Consultant of the Bureau of Labor Standards serving the area where the accident occurred (in addition to such filing as is required by 20 CFR 31.3) unless prior thereto and as soon after the accident as feasible the employer has given oral or written notice of the accident to the person in charge of such office in sufficient detail to permit the accident to be identified readily.

6. In order to correct a typographical error the reference in 29 CFR 8.31(d)(1)(ii) to § 8.36(c) is amended to refer to § 8.36(e), so that as amended 29 CFR 31(d)(1)(ii) will read as follows:

§ 8.31 Ventilation and protection in welding, cutting, and heating.

* * * * *

(d) Inert-gas metal-arc welding. (1) * * *

* * * * *

(44 Stat. 1444, as amended, 72 Stat. 835; 33 U.S.C. 941)

7. In order to correct an inadvertence the reference in 29 CFR 8.33(b) to "paragraph (c) (1) and (2) of this section" is amended to refer to § 8.31(c) (1) and (2), so that as amended 29 CFR 8.33(b) will read as follows:

§ 8.33 Welding, cutting and heating in way of preservative coatings.

* * * * *

(b) When welding, cutting or other heating must be done in locations inaccessible to removal of preservatives containing toxic materials, the precautions specified in § 8.31(c) (1) and (2) shall be taken.

(44 Stat. 1444, as amended, 72 Stat. 835; 33 U.S.C. 941)

8. In order to correct a typographical error, the heading of paragraph (c) Manifolds of § 8.35 is amended to read: (e) Manifolds.

9. In order to eliminate the requirement of labeling hoses otherwise distinguishable and to make it clear that separate hoses for fuel and oxygen are required, 29 CFR 8.35(f)(1) is amended to read as follows:

§ 8.35 Gas welding and cutting.

* * * * *

(f) Hose. (1) Fuel gas hose and oxygen hose shall be easily distinguishable from each other. The contrast may be made by different colors or by surface characteristics readily distinguishable by the sense of touch. Oxygen and fuel gas hoses shall not be interchangeable. A single hose having more than one gas passage, a wall failure of which would permit the flow of one gas into the other gas passage, shall not be used.

(44 Stat. 1444, as amended, 72 Stat. 835; 33 U.S.C. 941)

10. In order to extend 29 CFR 8.45 to graving docks and add certain technical detail, 29 CFR 8.45 is revised to read as follows:

§ 8.45 Access to and guarding of dry docks.

(a) A gangway, ramp, or permanent stairway of not less than 20 inches walking surface, of adequate strength, maintained in safe repair and securely fastened, shall be provided between a floating dry dock and the pier or bulkhead.

(b) Each side of such gangway, ramp or permanent stairway, including those which are used for access to wingwalls from dry dock floors, shall have a railing with a midrail. Such railings on gangways or ramps shall be approximately 42 inches in height; and railings on permanent stairways shall be not less than approximately 30 nor more than approximately 34 inches in height. Rails shall be of wood, pipe, chain, wire, or rope and shall be kept taut at all times.

(c) Railings meeting the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section shall be provided on the means of access to and from the floors of graving docks.

(d) Railings approximately 42 inches in height, with a mid-rail, shall be provided on the edges of wingwalls of floating dry docks and on the edges of graving docks.

(e) When employees are working on the floor of a floating dry dock where they are exposed to the hazard of falling into the water, the end of the dry dock shall be equipped with portable stanchions and 42-inch railings with a midrail. When such a railing would be impractical or ineffective, other effective means shall be provided to prevent men from falling into the water.

11. In order to correct a typographical error the reference in 29 CFR 8.54 to § 8.31(b)(4) is amended to refer to § 8.31(b)(3), so that the amended 29 CFR 8.54 will read as follows:

§ 8.54 Work in confined or isolated spaces.

When any work is performed in a confined space, except as provided in § 8.31(b)(3), or when an employee is working alone in an isolated location, frequent checks shall be made to ensure the safety of the employees.

(44 Stat. 1444, as amended, 72 Stat. 835; 33 U.S.C. 941)

12. In order to correct an inadvertence, paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 8.62 are designated paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 8.63.

13. In order to correct an inadvertence by reversing the 30° and 60° bridle or basket hitch columns in tables G–3 and G–5 and to provide certain additional detail in table G–6, tables G–3, G–5, and G–6 in 29 CFR 8.63 are amended in accordance with the tables which appear below.

14. In order to provide a minimum distance between the work rests and grinder wheel and in order to clarify certain nomenclature, 29 CFR 8.74(b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 8.74 Abrasive wheels.

* * * * *

(b) Floor and bench mounted grinders shall be provided with work rests which are rigidly supported and readily adjustable. Such work rests shall be kept a distance not to exceed ⅛ inch from the surface of the wheel.

(44 Stat. 1444, as amended, 72 Stat. 835; 33 U.S.C. 941)

15. In order to conform the heading of § 9.1 to the preferable one stated in the table of contents as it appeared in 25 F.R. 1565, the heading of 29 CFR 9.1 is amended to read as follows:

§ 9.1 Purpose and authority.

16. In order to simplify its text and conform its structure to the comparable provision concerning ship repair (29 CFR 8.2), 29 CFR 9.2 is amended to read as follows:

§ 9.2 Scope and responsibility.

(a) The responsibility for compliance with the regulations of this part is placed upon "employers" as defined in § 9.3(c) of this part.

(b) It is not the intent of the regulations of this part to place additional responsibilities or duties on owners, operators, agents or masters of vessels unless such persons are acting as employers, nor is it the intent of these regulations to relieve such owners, operators, agents or masters of vessels from responsibilities or duties now placed upon them by law, regulation or custom.

17. In order to make 29 CFR 9.7 available for the substance of a new section, the present 29 CFR 9.7 is renumbered 29 CFR 9.8.

18. In order to provide for notification of serious accidents in time for an investigation of their causes before the circumstances have changed substantially, a new section § 9.7 is provided to read as follows:

§ 9.7 Notification of accidents resulting in fatalities or serious injuries.

Within 48 hours after the occurrence of an accident causing the death of an employee or resulting in an employee's admission to a hospital as a bed patient, the employer shall file a copy of Bureau of Employees' Compensation Form US—202 (approved by Budget Bureau No. 44–R 887.2) with the Field Safety Consultant of the Bureau of Labor Standards serving the area where the accident occurred (in addition to such filing as is required by 20 CFR 31.3) unless prior thereto and as soon after the accident as feasible the employer has given oral or written notice of the accident to the person in charge of such office in sufficient detail to permit the accident to be identified readily.

19. In order to make compliance with the recommendations of the International Labor Office mandatory, 29 CFR 9.12(a) is amended to read as follows:

MILK IN CINCINNATI, OHIO MARKETING AREA AND 15 NORTHERN KENTUCKY COUNTIES

Notice of Hearing on Proposed Amendments to Tentative Marketing Agreement and Order

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in the Sinton Hotel, Fourth and Vine Streets, Cincinnati, Ohio, beginning at 10:00 a.m., e.s.t., on July 12, 1960, with respect to (1) proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to order No. 65, regulating the handling of milk in the Cincinnati, Ohio marketing area and (2) as an alternative, a proposed marketing agreement and order to regulate the handling of milk in 15 Northern Kentucky Counties with terms and provisions of such separate order to be identical with those contained in order No. 65 as amended or with appropriate modifications thereof.

The public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to economic and marketing conditions relating to the handling of milk in the area and in relation to the other proposals set forth below.

The hearing on the various proposals is to determine whether or not:

(a) The handling of milk in the area proposed to be regulated is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce or directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate or foreign commerce;

(b) The proposed amendments to the present Order No. 65 or the issuance of an additional order is justified; and

(c) The provisions specified in the proposals and all other provisions of the present order would tend to effect the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, as applied to the marketing area, as proposed to be redefined or as a separate area, and if not, what modification of the proposals and of the provisions of Order No. 65 would be necessary and appropriate.

The proposed amendments, set forth below, have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Proposed by the Cincinnati Milk Sales Association, Inc., Cincinnati, Ohio:

Proposal No. 1. Consider the propriety of the inclusion of all of the territory geographically located within the limits of the Counties of Boone, Campbell, Kenton and Mason in the State of Kentucky:

(a) As a part of the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area, specified in § 965.3 of Order No. 65, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area; or;

(b) As the marketing area under a new and separate Federal milk marketing order for the regulation of such area, with further consideration to the application of the entire regulatory terms of Order No. 65, as amended, or appropriate modifications thereof as will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended.

Proposal No. 2. In the event that the marketing area of Federal Order No. 65, as amended, as described in § 965.3 hereof, should be expanded as proposed in Proposal No. 1 (a) hereof, then amend § 965.43 by deleting therefrom subsections (b) (1), (2), and (3) and renumbering the other and remaining provisions of § 965.43 in an appropriate manner and/or order.

Proposal No. 3. Amend § 965.50(b) (2) by deletion and substitution therefor the following:

(2) From the simple average of the weighted average of carlot prices per pound for non-fat dry milk solids, spray and roller process, respectively, for human consumption, f.o.b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the United States Department of Agriculture, deduct 5.5 cents and multiply by 8.2.

Proposal No. 4. Amend § 965.76 as follows:

Change the period at the end of the paragraph to a comma, and add the following:

And with respect to the total Class I utilization of a handler operating a fluid milk plant which is not a pool plant.

Proposal No. 5. Amend § 965.41 (b) and (c) as follows:

(b) By adding after the phrase "cottage cheese" the following: disposed of in bulk (in container of not less than two gallon capacity) as milk, skim milk or cream to any commercial food processing establishment where food products are prepared only for consumption off the premises.

(c) By deletion of subparagraph (3) and renumber subparagraph (4) and (5) as (3) and (4) respectively.

Proposal No. 6. Amend § 965.53 by deletion and substitute therefor the following:

Location differentials to handlers. For that skim milk and butterfat in producer milk received at a pool plant located outside the marketing area and more than thirty miles by shortest highway distance from City Hall in Cincinnati, Ohio, as determined by the market administrator, and which is (a) moved in the form of a fluid milk product or as condensed skim milk or frozen cream to a pool plant pursuant to § 965.7 (a) or (b) located in the marketing area or outside the marketing area not more than thirty miles by shortest highway distance from City Hall in Cincinnati, Ohio, or (b) otherwise disposed of or utilized as Class I or Class II milk at such plant the handler's obligation pursuant to § 965.60, subject to the proviso of this section, shall be reduced at the rate set forth in the following schedule according to the location of the pool plant where such skim milk and butterfat is received from producers as follows:

Distance from the City Hall (miles):	Rates per hundredweight (cents)
30 but less than 40	6.0
40 but less than 50	8.0
50 but less than 60	10.0
For each additional 10 miles or fraction thereof an additional	1.5

Provided, That in the case of transfers made under paragraph (a) of this section, the location differential credit (1) shall apply to the actual weight of the skim milk and butterfat moved, which weight shall not exceed the difference calculated by subtracting from the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk and Class II milk at the transferee's plant, the total skim milk and butterfat in producer milk physically received at such plant and (2) shall be allowed to the transferee handler if such credit does not exceed the obligation of such handler to the producer settlement fund for the month.

Proposal No. 7. Amend § 965.75 as follows: By deletion of the phrase "more than 20 miles" and substitute therefore the phrase "outside the marketing area and more than 30 miles".

Proposed by Amelia Dairy, Bethel, Ohio:

Proposal No. 8. That § 965.3 of the order be amended by deletion of the word "Clermont" and the insertion immediately following the word "Warren" of the following: "and the townships of Pierce, Union, and Miami, in Clermont County."

Proposed by Cloverleaf Dairy, Inc. and Louis Trauth Dairy, Inc., both of Newport, Kentucky, Hanneken Dairy, Inc. and Summe and Raterman Co., both of Covington, Kentucky, and Feldmann Dairy, Inc. of Wilder, Kentucky:

Proposal No. 9. If the handling of milk in any one or more of the four Kentucky counties, Boone, Campbell, Kenton and Mason, is subjected to regulation, the following Kentucky counties should be included in the same marketing area:

Gallatin.
Carroll.
Owen.
Grant.
Pendleton.
Harrison.
Bracken.
Robertson.
Fleming.
Nicholas.
Lewis (except Magisterial Districts 2, 3, and 8).

Proposal No. 10. Any order regulating the handling of milk in any of the said four Kentucky counties, Boone, Campbell, Kenton and Mason, should provide for the full regulation of any fluid milk plant located either inside or outside the marketing area from which any Class I milk (i.e., one quart or more) is disposed of on a route or routes operated wholly or partially in the marketing area. If any of the said four counties should be placed in the Cincinnati marketing area, to effectuate this proposal, it would be necessary to amend § 965.7(b) of Order No. 65.

Proposed by the Dairy Division, Agricultural Marketing Service:

Proposal No. 11. Make such changes as may be necessary to make the entire marketing agreement and the order conform with any amendments thereto that may result from this hearing.

Copies of this notice of hearing and the order may be procured from the Market Administrator, Fred W. Issler, 519 Main Street, Cincinnati 1, Ohio, or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 112, Administration Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C. or may be there inspected.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 22d day of June 1960.

ROY W. LENNARTSON,
Deputy Administrator.

MILK IN PADUCAH, KENTUCKY MARKETING AREA

Notice of Hearing on Proposed Amendments to Tentative Marketing Agreement and Order

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in the Barkley Room, Irvin Cobb Hotel, Paducah, Kentucky, beginning at 10:00 a.m., c.s.t., on July 12, 1960, with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, regulating the handling of milk in the Paducah, Kentucky marketing area.

The public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to the economic and marketing conditions which relate to the proposed amendments, hereinafter set forth, and any appropriate modification thereof, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order.

The proposal relative to a redefinition of the marketing area raises the issue whether the provisions of the present order would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act, if they are applied to the marketing area as proposed to be redefined, and, if not, what modifications of the provisions of the order would be appropriate.

The proposed amendments, set forth below, have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Proposed by the George L. Atkins Dairy, Model Pure Milk Company, Inc., and Paducah Graded Milk Producers Association:

Proposal No. 1. Revise § 977.5 to read as follows:

§ 977.5 Paducah, Kentucky, marketing area.

The "Paducah, Kentucky, marketing area" hereinafter called the "marketing area" means all of the territory within the boundaries of the Kentucky counties of McCracken, Ballard, Marshall, Graves, Calloway, Livingston, Lyon, Caldwell, Trigg (except that portion contained in the Fort Campbell military reservation), Carlisle, Hickman and Christian (except that portion contained in the Fort Campbell military reservation).

Proposed by the Paducah Graded Milk Producers Association:

Proposal No. 2. Revise § 977.51(a) to read as follows:

(a) Class I milk price. The price of Class I milk for the month shall be the basic formula price for the preceding month plus $.90 in April, May and June, $1.20 in July and March, $1.50 in December, January and February, and $1.65 in August, September, October and November.

Proposal No. 3. Revise § 977.87(a) to read as follows:

(a) Deductions for marketing services. Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler in making payment to producers pursuant to § 977.80 with respect to milk received from producers (excluding such handler's own farm production), shall deduct 8 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary may prescribe; and, on or before the 20th day after the end of the month, shall pay such deductions to the market administrator. Such moneys shall be expended by the market administrator to verify weights, samples, and tests of the milk of such producers and to provide such producers with market information. Such services shall be performed in whole or in part by the market administrator or by an agent engaged by and responsible to him.

Proposal No. 4. Revise § 977.62(b) (1) (ii) to read as follows:

(ii) Deduct the payments per hundredweight of milk made by such handler to approved dairy farmers for milk received during such month: Provided, That if such handler has paid approved dairy farmers by more than one rate, the payments to approved dairy farmers shall be computed on the total receipts of milk from approved dairy farmers at said plant at the lowest average rate paid by said plant for a volume of milk equal to the volume disposed of in the marketing area.

Proposed by the Dairy Division, Agricultural Marketing Service:

Proposal No. 5. Make such changes as may be necessary to make the entire marketing agreement and the order conform with any amendments thereto that may result from this hearing.

Copies of this notice of hearing and the order may be procured from the Market Administrator, 2710 Hampton Avenue, St. Louis 9, Mo., or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 112, Administration Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C., or may be there inspected.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 22d day of June 1960.

Acting Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service.

ELMER F. BENNETT,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

The following changes are confined to §§ 18.1 and 18.20, as indicated.

1. The thirteenth definition under § 18.1 is amended to read as follows:

Portable (trailing) cable. A flexible cable or cord by means of which portable, semi-portable, or mobile mine equipment may be connected to a source of electrical energy. The portable (trailing) cable is that portion of the power-supply system between the last overcurrent protective device on the system and the mobile equipment for which the cable furnishes electric power.

2. In § 18.20, paragraph (a), the second sentence—The length shall not exceed 500 feet—is deleted.

3. In § 18.20, paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) are redesignated paragraphs (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g), respectively; and a new paragraph (b) is inserted after paragraph (a) to read as follows:

(b) Ordinarily the length of a portable (trailing) cable shall not exceed 500 feet, and such cables shall contain not more than five well-made temporary splices. Where the method of mining is such that it is necessary to have the length of a portable (trailing) cable more than 500 feet, such length of cable shall be permitted only under the following prescribed conditions:

(1) The lengths of portable (trailing) cable shall not exceed those specified in the accompanying table, titled "Permissible Lengths and Other Specifications of Portable (Trailing) Cables." (Table 4.)

(2) Not more than five well-made temporary splices shall be permitted in a single length of portable (trailing) cable that exceeds 500 feet.

(3) Short-circuit protection shall be provided by an overcurrent protective device with an instantaneous trip setting as near as practicable to the maximum starting-current-inrush value, but the setting shall not exceed the trip value specified in the Bureau of Mines approval for the equipment for which the portable (trailing) cable furnishes electric power.

BIOLOGIC PRODUCTS

Additional Standards; Poliomyelitis Vaccine

Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making pursuant to section 351 of the Public Health Service Act, as amended (58 Stat. 702; 42 U.S.C. 262), providing for two amendments to the Additional Standards for Poliomyelitis Vaccine. Amendment number 1 would correct a technical error and would permit the omission under certain conditions of the filtration process during inactivation of the virus. Amendment number 2 would prohibit the release of any lot unless it is one of a series of five consecutive lots, all tests for which have shown negative results with respect to the presence of live poliovirus.

Notice is also given that since the first amendment is merely technical, and eliminates a requirement which has been found to be unnecessary, under the specified circumstances, to insure safety, purity and potency, and since the second amendment, while imposing a more stringent requirement represents current practice and is necessary to insure the same goals to protect the public health, it is proposed to make any amendments that are adopted effective immediately upon final publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Inquiries may be addressed, and data, views and arguments may be presented by interested parties, in writing, in triplicate, to the Surgeon General, Public Health Service, Washington 25, D.C. All relevant material received not later than 21 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered.

1. Amend the last sentence of § 73.101 (d) to read as follows: "Filtration equivalent to that described in paragraph (b) of this section shall be performed after the estimated base-line time (time at which the 50 percent end-point reaches one tissue culture infective dose per milliliter), but prior to sampling for the first single strain tissue culture test required in § 73.102(b), except that this filtration may be omitted for strains of a virulence for monkeys equal to or less than that of the MEF-1 Type 2 strain of poliovirus."

2. Amend the last sentence of § 73.104 (a) to read as follows: "In addition, no lot of final vaccine shall be released unless it is one of a series of five consecutive lots produced by the same manufacturing process, all of which have shown negative results with respect to all tests for the presence of living poliovirus, and unless each of the monovalent pools of which a polyvalent final vaccine is composed similarly is one of a series of five consecutive monovalent pools of the same type of inactivated poliovirus, all of which have shown negative results in all tests for the presence of living poliovirus."

JUNE 21, 1960.

I. Cryogenic Engineering Company (issuer), a Colorado corporation, 200 West 48th Avenue, Denver, Colorado, filed, with the Commission on September 22, 1958, a notification on Form 1-A and an offering circular relating to a proposed public offering of 150,000 shares of its 10¢ par value common stock at $2 per share for an aggregate offering of $300,000, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3(b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder.

B. The notification and offering circular contain untrue statements of material facts and omit to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, particularly with respect to:

1. The fact that securities being sold in the State of California were being sold in violation of California law;

2. The failure to disclose the contingent liability arising from the sale of securities in the State of California in violation of California law.

C. The offering was made in violation of section 17 of the Securities Act of 1933.

In connection with the approval and enforcement of the amended plan, the Commission and the Court reserved jurisdiction, among other things, to entertain such further proceedings, to make such further findings, to enter such supplemental orders, to take such further action, and to grant such further relief as may be deemed appropriate in connection with the plan, the transactions incidental thereto, and the consummation thereof; and the order of the Court further reserved jurisdiction to enforce, if application therefore is duly made, subsequent orders of the Commission relating to the plan.

All interested persons are referred to the plan and amendment No. 2 on file at the office of the Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

The amended plan, as approved and ordered enforced, provides, among other things, that (a) Louisiana Power will transfer to Louisiana Gas, at the net book cost thereof, all of the non-electric properties (largely natural gas utility facilities) of Louisiana Power, in exchange for two-year promissory notes in the face amount of $4,900,000 and the common stock (having an aggregate par value equal to the difference between the face amount of the notes and the net book cost of the property) of Louisiana Gas; and (b) Louisiana Power will sell or otherwise dispose of the stock of Louisiana Gas within two years of the date of the transfer of the property, unless an extension of time is granted by the Commission, or within such shorter period as is sufficient for Louisiana Gas to develop an operating organization and to establish an earnings record and a dividend program.

On September 30, 1958, Louisiana Power effectuated the transfer of its non-electric properties to Louisiana Gas and received in exchange therefore a promissory note in the face amount of $4,900,000 and 605,010 shares of $10 par value common stock of Louisiana Gas. Subsequently, to provide Louisiana Gas with needed funds, Louisiana Power advanced an additional $1,100,000 for which it received $1,100,000 face amount of promissory notes of Louisiana Gas. On January 19, 1960 Louisiana Gas issued and sold to the public $7,500,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds, and out of the proceeds thereof retired all of its outstanding indebtedness to Louisiana Power.

As the final steps in the consummation of the amended plan, it is proposed that (a) to provide Louisiana Gas with funds needed for construction and to facilitate the disposition of the Louisiana Gas stock, Louisiana Gas will issue and sell, and Louisiana Power will purchase, at par value thereof, $10 per share, an additional 64,890 shares of Louisiana Gas common stock; (b) Louisiana Power will sell to the stockholders of Middle South, pursuant to a rights offering, the 670,000 shares of Louisiana Gas then to be held by Louisiana Power, at a price, to be fixed, which will yield to Louisiana Power an amount substantially equivalent to the book value of the stock plus the estimated cost of the proposed transaction.

To effectuate the sale of the stock, Louisiana Power will issue to the stockholders of Middle South, of record on a date to be fixed as soon as practicable after the issuance by an appropriate court of an order enforcing the amended plan as further amended, transferable warrants granting (1) the primary right to subscribe for one share of the common stock of Louisiana Gas for each 25 shares of Middle South stock held on the record date, with a supplementary right to subscribe for one full share of Louisiana Gas common stock for each fraction of 25 shares of Middle South stock held, subject to allotment in case of oversubscription, and (2) the additional right, subject to allotment, to subscribe for any shares not subscribed for on primary rights. The rights will expire on the 15th full business day after commencement of the subscription period. The offering will not be underwritten.

The fees and expenses to be incurred in connection with the sale and distribution of the stock are estimated at an aggregate of $121,000, including transfer agent's fees of $15,000, warrant agent's fees of $55,000, printing and engraving expense $21,000, counsel fees $19,000, and auditor's fees of $3,000.

Applicants request that the Commission apply to an appropriate court to enforce the amended plan as further amended.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 7, 1960, request in writing that a hearing be held in respect of the amendment to the amended plan, stating the nature of his interest, the reason for such request, and the issue of law or fact which he desires to controvert, or he may request that he be notified should the Commission order a hearing in respect thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. At any time after said date the Commission may approve the amendment to the amended plan and the plan as thus amended, or take such other action as it deems appropriate.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

Title 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter III—Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture

PART 319—FOREIGN QUARANTINE NOTICES

Subpart—Fruits and Vegetables

GUAM; ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTIONS

Pursuant to § 319.56–2 of the regulations supplemental to the Fruit and Vegetable Quarantine (7 CFR 319.56–2) under sections 5 and 9 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U.S.C. 159, 162), § 319.56a(a)(6) of administrative instructions now appearing as 7 CFR 319.56a(a)(6) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 319.56a Administrative instructions and interpretation relating to entry into Guam of fruits and vegetables under § 319.56.

(a) * * *

(6) Citrus fruits, celery, chives, garlic, leek, onions, arrowroot, kale, cow-cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli, cabbage, sprouts, asparagus, Portuguese cabbage, cassava, dasheen, gingerroot, horseradish, kudzu, lettuce, turnip, udo, waterchestnut, watercress, waterlilyroot, and yam bean root, from Taiwan (Formosa);

(Sec. 9, 37 Stat. 318; 7 U.S.C. 162. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 37 Stat. 316; 7 U.S.C. 159)

This amendment shall become effective June 28, 1960.

This amendment allows the importation of citrus fruits into Guam from Taiwan (Formosa). Citrus fruits were previously prohibited entry into Guam from Taiwan. The amendment is therefore a lessening of restrictions.

In order to be of maximum benefit to importers in Guam, it should be made effective as soon as possible. Therefore, pursuant to section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003), it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the amendment are impracticable and unnecessary, and the amendment may be made effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D.C., this 23d day of June 1960.

[SEAL] H. S. DEAN,
Acting Director, Plant Quarantine Division.

Chapter VII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Farm Marketing Quotas), Department of Agriculture

[Referenda Bulletin 1, Amdt. 2]

PART 717—HOLDING OF REFERENDA ON MARKETING QUOTAS

Posting a Notice of Referendum

Basis and purpose. The amendment contained herein is issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (52 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1281 et seq.) for the purpose of amending paragraph (a) of Section 717.6 of the regulations governing the holding of referenda on marketing quotas contained in §§ 717.1 to 717.14 inclusive (23 F.R. 3432; 7285). Prior to preparing this amendment, public notice (25 F.R. 4920) was given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003). The data, views, and recommendations pertaining to this amendment which were submitted pursuant to such notice have been duly considered.

In order that this amendment may be in effect for the referendum on wheat to be held on July 21, 1960, it is necessary to waive the 30-day effective date requirement of the Administrative Procedure Act. Accordingly, it is hereby determined and found that compliance with such 30-day effective date requirement is impracticable and contrary to the public interest and this amendment shall be effective upon filing this document with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

The regulations governing the holding of referenda on marketing quotas (23 F.R. 3432; 7285) are hereby amended in the following respects:

Paragraph (a) of § 717.6 is amended to read as follows:

(a) Posting a notice. The county committee shall give public notice in each community or neighborhood of a referendum by posting a notice at one or more places open to the public within such community or neighborhood prior to the date of the referendum. Such notice shall be on a form prescribed by the Deputy Administrator, and shall state the commodity or commodities and marketing year, or years, or crops for which the referendum is to be held, the location of the polling places in the community or neighborhood, the date of the referendum, and the hours when the polls will be opened and closed. The county office manager is authorized to sign such notice on behalf of the county committee.

(Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1375)

Done at Washington, D.C., this 22d day of June 1960.

CLARENCE D. PALMBY,
Acting Administrator, Commodity Stabilization Service.

(4) Examine and cross-examine witnesses and receive evidence;

(5) Admit or exclude evidence;

(6) Hear oral argument on facts or law;

(7) Do all acts and take all measures necessary for the maintenance of order at the hearing and the efficient conduct of the proceeding.

(c) Who may act in absence of presiding officer. In case of the absence of the presiding officer or his inability to act, the powers and duties to be performed by him under this part in connection with a proceeding may, without abatement of the proceeding unless otherwise ordered by the Secretary, be assigned to any other presiding officer.

(d) Disqualification of presiding officer. The presiding officer may at any time withdraw as presiding officer in a proceeding if he deems himself to be disqualified. Upon the filing by an interested person in good faith of a timely and sufficient affidavit of personal bias or disqualification of a presiding officer, the Secretary shall determine the matter as a part of the record and decision in the proceeding, after making such investigation or holding such hearings, or both, as he may deem appropriate in the circumstances.

§ 900.7 Motions and requests.

(a) General. All motions and requests shall be filed with the hearing clerk, except that those made during the course of the hearing may be filed with the presiding officer or may be stated orally and made a part of the transcript.

Except as provided in § 900.15 (b) such motions and requests shall be addressed to, and ruled on by, the presiding officer if made prior to his certification of the transcript pursuant to § 900.10 or by the Secretary if made thereafter.

(b) Certification to Secretary. The presiding officer may in his discretion submit or certify to the Secretary for decision any motion, request, objection, or other question addressed to the presiding officer.

§ 900.8 Conduct of the hearing.

(a) Time and place. The hearing shall be held at the time and place fixed in the notice of hearing, unless the presiding officer shall have changed the time or place, in which event the presiding officer shall file with the hearing clerk a notice of such change, which notice shall be given in the same manner as provided in § 900.4 (relating to the giving of notice of the hearing): Provided, That, if the change in time or place of hearing is made less than 5 days prior to the date previously fixed for the hearing, the presiding officer, either in addition to or in lieu of causing the notice of the change to be given, shall announce, or cause to be announced, the change at the time and place previously fixed for the hearing.

(b) Appearances—(1) Right to appear. At the hearing, any interested person shall be given an opportunity to appear, either in person or through his authorized counsel or representative, and to be heard with respect to matters relevant and material to the proceeding. Any interested person who desires to be heard in person at any hearing under these rules shall, before proceeding to testify, state his name, address, and occupation. If any such person is appearing through a counsel or representative, such person or such counsel or representative shall, before proceeding to testify or otherwise to participate in the hearing, state for the record the authority to act as such counsel or representative, and the names and addresses and occupations of such person and such counsel or representative. Any such person or such counsel or representative shall give such other information respecting his appearance as the presiding officer may request.

(2) Debarment of counsel or representative. Whenever, while a proceeding is pending before him, the presiding officer finds that a person, acting as counsel or representative for any person participating in the proceeding, is guilty of unethical or unprofessional conduct, the presiding officer may order that such person be precluded from further acting as counsel or representative in such proceeding. An appeal to the Secretary may be taken from any such order, but the proceeding shall not be delayed or suspended pending disposition of the appeal: Provided, That the presiding officer may suspend the proceeding for a reasonable time for the purpose of enabling the client to obtain other counsel or other representative.

In case the presiding officer has ordered that a person be precluded from further acting as counsel or representative in the proceeding, the presiding officer, within a reasonable time thereafter, shall submit to the Secretary a report of the facts and circumstances surrounding such order and shall recommend what action the Secretary should take respecting the appearance of such person as counsel or representative in other proceedings before the Secretary. Thereafter the Secretary may, after notice and an opportunity for hearing, issue such order, respecting the appearance of such person as counsel or representative in proceedings before the Secretary, as the Secretary finds to be appropriate.

(3) Failure to appear. If any interested person fails to appear at the hearing, he shall be deemed to have waived the right to be heard in the proceeding.

(c) Order of procedure. (1) The presiding officer shall, at the opening of the hearing prior to the taking of testimony, have noted as part of the record his designation as presiding officer, the notice of hearing as filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and the affidavit or certificate of the giving of notice or the determination provided for in § 900.4(c).

(2) Evidence shall then be received with respect to the matters specified in the notice of the hearing in such order as the presiding officer shall announce.

(d) Evidence—(1) In general. The hearing shall be publicly conducted, and the testimony given at the hearing shall be reported verbatim.

Every witness shall, before proceeding to testify, be sworn or make affirmation. Cross-examination shall be permitted to the extent required for a full and true disclosure of the facts.

When necessary, in order to prevent undue prolongation of the hearing, the presiding officer may limit the number of times any witness may testify to the same matter or the amount of corroborative or cumulative evidence.

The presiding officer shall, insofar as practicable, exclude evidence which is immaterial, irrelevant, or unduly repetitious, or which is not of the sort upon which responsible persons are accustomed to rely.

(2) Objections. If a party objects to the admission or rejection of any evidence or to any other ruling of the presiding officer during the hearing, he shall state briefly the grounds of such objection, whereupon an automatic exception will follow if the objection is overruled by the presiding officer. The transcript shall not include argument or debate thereon except as ordered by the presiding officer. The ruling of the presiding officer on any objection shall be a part of the transcript.

Only objections made before the presiding officer may subsequently be relied upon in the proceeding.

(3) Proof and authentication of official records or documents. An official record or document, when admissible for any purpose, shall be admissible as evidence without the production of the person who made or prepared the same. Such record or document shall, in the discretion of the presiding officer, be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the person having legal custody thereof and accompanied by a certificate that such person has the custody.

(4) Exhibits. All written statements, charts, tabulations, or similar data offered in evidence at the hearing shall, after identification by the proponent and upon satisfactory showing of the authenticity, relevancy, and materiality of the contents thereof, be numbered as exhibits and received in evidence and made a part of the record. Such exhibits shall be submitted in quadruplicate and in documentary form. In case the required number of copies is not made available, the presiding officer shall exercise his discretion as to whether said exhibits shall, when practicable, be read in evidence or whether additional copies shall be required to be submitted within a time to be specified by the presiding officer. If the testimony of a witness refers to a statute, or to a report or document (including the record of any previous hearing) the presiding officer, after inquiry relating to the identification of such statute, report, or document, shall determine whether the same shall be produced at the hearing and physically be made a part of the evidence as an exhibit, or whether it shall be incorporated into the evidence by reference. If relevant and material matter offered in evidence is embraced in a report or document (including the record of any previous hearing) containing immaterial or irrelevant matter, such immaterial or irrelevant matter shall be excluded and shall be segregated insofar as practicable, subject to the direction of the presiding officer.

(5) Official notice. Official notice may be taken of such matters as are judicially noticed by the courts of the United States and of any other matter of technical, scientific or commercial fact of established character: Provided, That interested persons shall be given adequate notice, at the hearing or subsequent thereto, of matters so noticed and shall be given adequate opportunity to show that such facts are inaccurate or are erroneously noticed.

(6) Offer of proof. Whenever evidence is excluded from the record, the party offering such evidence may make an offer of proof, which shall be included in the transcript. The offer of proof shall consist of a brief statement describing the evidence to be offered. If the evidence consists of a brief oral statement or of an exhibit, it shall be inserted into the transcript in toto. In such event, it shall be considered a part of the transcript if the Secretary decides that the presiding officer's ruling in excluding the evidence was erroneous. The presiding officer shall not allow the insertion of such evidence in toto if the taking of such evidence will consume a considerable length of time at the hearing. In the latter event, if the Secretary decides that the presiding officer erred in excluding the evidence, and that such error was substantial, the hearing shall be reopened to permit the taking of such evidence.

§ 900.9 Oral and written arguments.

(a) Oral argument before presiding officer. Oral argument before the presiding officer shall be in the discretion of the presiding officer. Such argument, when permitted, may be limited by the presiding officer to any extent that he finds necessary for the expeditious disposition of the proceeding and shall be reduced to writing and made part of the transcript.

(b) Briefs, proposed findings and conclusions. The presiding officer shall announce at the hearing a reasonable period of time within which interested persons may file with the hearing clerk proposed findings and conclusions, and written arguments or briefs, based upon the evidence received at the hearing, citing, where practicable, the page or pages of the transcript of the testimony where such evidence appears. Factual material other than that adduced at the hearing or subject to official notice shall not be alluded to therein, and, in any case, shall not be considered in the formulation of the marketing agreement or marketing order. If the person filing a brief desires the Secretary to consider any objection made by such person to a ruling of the presiding officer, as provided in § 900.8 (d), he shall include in the brief a concise statement concerning each such objection, referring where practicable, to the pertinent pages of the transcript.

§ 900.10 Certification of the transcript.

The presiding officer shall notify the hearing clerk of the close of a hearing as soon as possible thereafter and of the time for filing written arguments, briefs, proposed findings and proposed conclusions, and shall furnish the hearing clerk with such other information as may be necessary. As soon as possible after the hearing, the presiding officer shall transmit to the hearing clerk an original and three copies of the transcript of the testimony and the original and all copies of the exhibits not already on file in the office of the hearing clerk. He shall attach to the original transcript of testimony his certificate stating that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the transcript is a true transcript of the testimony given at the hearing except in such particulars as he shall specify; and that the exhibits transmitted are all the exhibits as introduced at the hearing with such exceptions as he shall specify. A copy of such certificate shall be attached to each of the copies of the transcript of testimony. In accordance with such certificate the hearing clerk shall note upon the official record copy, and cause to be noted on other copies, of the transcript each correction detailed therein by adding or crossing out (but without obscuring the text as originally transcribed) at the appropriate place any words necessary to make the same conform to the correct meaning, as certified by the presiding officer. The hearing clerk shall obtain and file certifications to the effect that such corrections have been effected in copies other than the official record copy.

§ 900.11 Copies of the transcript.

(a) During the period in which the proceeding has an active status in the Department, a copy of the transcript and exhibits shall be kept on file in the office of the hearing clerk, where it shall be available for examination during official hours of business. Thereafter said transcript and exhibits shall be made available by the hearing clerk for examination during official hours of business after prior request and reasonable notice to the hearing clerk.

(b) If a personal copy of the transcript is desired, such copy may be obtained upon written application filed with the reporter and upon payment of fees at the rate (if any) provided in the contract between the reporter and the Secretary.

§ 900.12 Deputy Administrator's recommended decision.

(a) Preparation. As soon as practicable following the termination of the period allowed for the filing of written arguments or briefs and proposed findings and conclusions the Deputy Administrator shall file with the hearing clerk a recommended decision.

(b) Contents. The Deputy Administrator's recommended decision shall include: (1) A preliminary statement containing a description of the history of the proceedings, a brief explanation of the material issues of fact, law, or discretion presented on the record, and proposed findings and conclusions with respect to such issues as well as the reasons or basis therefor: (2) A ruling upon each proposed finding or conclusion submitted by interested persons, and (3) An appropriate proposed marketing agreement or marketing order effectuating his recommendations.

(c) Exceptions to recommended decision. Immediately following the filing of his recommended decision the Deputy Administrator shall give notice thereof, and opportunity to file exceptions thereto by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Within a period of time specified in such notice any interested person may file with the hearing clerk exceptions to the Deputy Administrator's proposed marketing agreement or marketing order, or both, as the case may be, and a brief in support of such exceptions. Such exceptions shall be in writing, shall refer, where practicable, to the related pages of the transcript and may suggest appropriate changes in the proposed marketing agreement or marketing order.

(d) Omission of recommended decision. The procedure provided in this section may be omitted only if the Secretary finds on the basis of the record that due and timely execution of his functions imperatively and unavoidably requires such omission.

§ 900.13 Submission to Secretary.

Upon the expiration of the period allowed for filing exceptions or upon request of the Secretary, the hearing clerk shall transmit to the Secretary the record of the proceeding. Such record shall include: all motions and requests filed with the hearing clerk and rulings thereon; the certified transcript; any proposed findings or conclusions or written arguments or briefs that may have been filed; the Deputy Administrator's recommended decision, if any, and such exceptions as may have been filed.

§ 900.13a Decision by Secretary.

After due consideration of the record, the Secretary shall render a decision. Such decision shall become a part of the record and shall include (a) a statement of his findings and conclusions, as well as the reasons or basis therefor, upon all the material issues of fact, law or discretion presented on the record, (b) a ruling upon each proposed finding and proposed conclusion not previously ruled upon in the record, (c) a ruling upon each exception filed by interested persons and (d) either (1) a denial of the proposal to issue a marketing agreement or marketing order or (2) a marketing agreement and, if the findings upon the record so warrant, a marketing order, the provisions of which shall be set forth directly or by reference, regulating the handling of the commodity or product in the same manner and to the same extent as such marketing agreement, which order shall be complete except for its effective date and any determinations to be made under § 900.14 (b) or § 900.14 (c): Provided, That such marketing order shall not be executed, issued, or made effective until and unless the Secretary determines that the requirements of § 900.14 (b) or § 900.14 (c) have been met.

§ 900.14 Execution of marketing agreement and issuance of marketing order.

(a) Execution of marketing agreement. If the Secretary has approved a marketing agreement, as provided in § 900.13a, the Deputy Administrator shall cause copies thereof to be distributed for execution by the handlers eligible to become parties thereto. If and when such number of the handlers as the Secretary shall deem to be sufficient shall have executed the marketing agreement, the Secretary shall execute the same, and notice of its effective date shall be mailed by the hearing clerk to each person signatory thereto. A marketing agreement shall be effective and binding upon any party thereto even though such party may not have received the notice provided for in this paragraph, or the hearing clerk may have failed to mail such notice.

(b) Issuance of marketing order with marketing agreement. Whenever, as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, the Secretary executes a marketing agreement, and handlers also have executed the same as provided in section 8c (8) of the act, he shall, if he finds that it will tend to effectuate the purposes of the act, issue and make effective the marketing order, if any, which was filed as a part of his decision pursuant to § 900.13a: Provided, That the issuance of such order shall have been approved or favored by producers as required by section 8c (8) of the act.

(c) Issuance of marketing order without marketing agreement. If, despite the failure or refusal of handlers to sign the marketing agreement, as provided in section 8c (8) of the act, the Secretary makes the determinations required under section 8c (9) of the act, the Secretary shall issue and make effective the marketing order, if any, which was filed as a part of his decision pursuant to § 900.13a.

(d) Effective date of marketing order. No marketing order shall become effective less than 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, unless the Secretary, upon good cause found and published with the order, fixes an earlier effective date therefor: Provided, That no marketing order shall become effective as to any person sought to be charged thereunder before either (1) it has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register, or (2) such person has received actual notice of the issuance and terms of the marketing order.

(e) Notice of issuance. After issuance of a marketing order, such order shall be filed with the hearing clerk, and notice thereof, together with notice of the effective date, shall be given by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (7 U.S.C. 610(c).)

§ 900.15 Filing; extensions of time; effective date of filing; and computation of time.

(a) Filing, number of copies. Except as is provided otherwise in this subpart, all documents or papers required or authorized by the foregoing provisions of this subpart to be filed with the hearing clerk shall be filed in quadruplicate. Any document or paper, so required or authorized to be filed with the hearing clerk, shall, during the course of an oral hearing, be filed with the presiding officer.

(b) Extensions of time. The time for the filing of any document or paper required or authorized by the foregoing provisions of this subpart to be filed may be extended by the presiding officer (before the record is certified by the presiding officer) or by the Deputy Administrator (after the record is so certified by the presiding officer but before it is transmitted to the Secretary), or by the Secretary (after the record is transmitted to the Secretary) upon request filed, and if, in the judgment of the presiding officer, Deputy Administrator, or the Secretary, as the case may be, there is good reason for the extension. All rulings made pursuant to this paragraph shall be filed with the hearing clerk.

(c) Effective date of filing. Any document or paper required or authorized by the foregoing provisions of this subpart to be filed shall be deemed to be filed when it is postmarked or when it is received by the hearing clerk.

(d) Computation of time. Sundays and Federal holidays shall be included in computing the time allowed for the filing of any document or paper: Provided, That, when such time expires on a Sunday or legal holiday, such period shall be extended to include the next following business day.

§ 900.16 Discussion of issues, etc., of proceeding prohibited.

Except as may be provided otherwise in this subpart, no officer or employee of the Department shall, following the close of the hearing in a marketing agreement or marketing order proceeding and prior to the execution of a marketing agreement or the issuance of a marketing order therein, discuss the issues, merits, or evidence involved in the proceeding with any person interested in the result of the proceeding or with any representative of such person: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not preclude an officer or employee who has been duly assigned to, or who has supervision over, a proceeding from discussing with interested persons or their representatives matters of procedure in connection with such proceeding. Insofar as the provisions of this section are inconsistent with the provisions of Regulation 1544 of the publication entitled "Regulations of the U. S. Department of Agriculture," the provisions of this section shall prevail.

§ 900.17 Additional documents to be filed with hearing clerk.

In addition to the documents or papers required or authorized by the foregoing provisions of this subpart to be filed with the hearing clerk, the hearing clerk shall receive for filing and shall have custody of all papers, reports, records, orders, and other documents which relate to the administration of any marketing agreement or marketing order and which the Secretary is required to issue or to approve.

§ 900.18 Hearing before Secretary.

The Secretary may act in the place and stead of a presiding officer in any proceeding under this subpart. When he so acts the hearing clerk shall transmit the record to the Secretary at the expiration of the period provided for the filing of proposed findings of fact, conclusions and orders, and the Secretary shall thereupon, after due consideration of the record, issue his final decision in the proceeding: Provided, That he may issue a tentative decision in which event the parties shall be afforded an opportunity to file exceptions before the issuance of the final decision.

§ 900.52 Institution of proceeding.

(a) Filing and service of petition. Any handler desiring to complain that any marketing order or any provision of any such order or any obligation imposed in connection therewith is not in accordance with law, shall file with the hearing clerk, in quadruplicate, a petition in writing addressed to the Secretary. Promptly upon receipt of the petition, the hearing clerk shall transmit a true copy thereof to the Deputy Administrator and the General Counsel, respectively.

(b) Contents of petition. A petition shall contain:

(1) The correct name, address, and principal place of business of the petitioner. If petitioner is a corporation, such fact shall be stated, together with the name of the State of incorporation, the date of incorporation, and the names, addresses, and respective positions held by its officers and directors; if an unincorporated association, the names and addresses of its officers, and the respective positions held by them; if a partnership, the name and address of each partner;

(2) Reference to the specific terms or provisions of the order, or the interpretation or application thereof, which are complained of;

(3) A full statement of the facts (avoiding a mere repetition of detailed evidence) upon which the petition is based, and which it is desired that the Secretary consider, setting forth clearly and concisely the nature of the petitioner's business and the manner in which petitioner claims to be affected by the terms or provisions of the order, or the interpretation or application thereof, which are complained of;

(6) An affidavit by the petitioner, or, if the petitioner is not an individual, by an officer of the petitioner having knowledge of the facts stated in the petition, verifying the petition and stating that it is filed in good faith and not for purposes of delay.

(c) Application to dismiss petition—(1) Filing, contents, and responses thereto. If the Deputy Administrator is of the opinion that the petition, or any portion thereof, does not substantially comply, in form or content, with the act or with the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section, or is not filed in good faith, or is filed for purposes of delay, he may, within 30 days after the filing of the petition, file with the hearing clerk an application to dismiss the petition, or any portion thereof, on one or more of the grounds stated in this paragraph. Such application shall specify the grounds of objection to the petition and if based, in whole or in part, on allegations of fact not appearing on the face of the petition, shall be accompanied by appropriate affidavits or documentary evidence substantiating such allegations of fact. The application may be accompanied by a memorandum of law. Upon receipt of such application, the hearing clerk shall cause a copy thereof to be served upon the petitioner, together with a notice stating that all papers to be submitted in opposition to such application, including any memorandum of law, must be filed by the petitioner with the hearing clerk not later than 20 days after the service of such notice upon the petitioner. Upon the expiration of the time specified in such notice, or upon receipt of such papers from the petitioner, the hearing clerk shall transmit all papers which have been filed in connection with the application to the Secretary for his consideration.

(2) Decision by Secretary. The Secretary, after due consideration, shall render a decision upon the application, stating the reasons for his action. Such decision shall be in the form of an order and shall be filed with the hearing clerk who shall cause a copy thereof to be served upon the petitioner and a copy thereof to be transmitted to the Deputy Administrator. Any such order of the Secretary shall be a final order: Provided, That within 20 days following the service upon the petitioner of a copy of an order of the Secretary dismissing the petition, or any portion thereof, on the ground that it does not substantially comply in form and content with the act or with paragraph (b) of this section, the petitioner shall be permitted to file an amended petition.

(3) Referral to presiding officer. The Secretary may, in his discretion, refer any application made under this section to the presiding officer for preliminary consideration and report, and, in a proper case, for the taking of evidence: Provided, That the provisions of §§ 900.60 to 900.65, inclusive, shall be applicable to the reception of such evidence, if any; the form, content, and filing of such report; the allowance of exceptions thereto; and transmittal of the record to the Secretary.

(4) Oral argument. Unless a written application for oral argument is filed by a party with the hearing clerk not later than the time fixed for filing papers in opposition to the application, it shall be considered that the party does not desire oral argument. The granting of a request to make oral argument shall rest in the discretion of the Secretary or the presiding officer, as the case may be.

§ 900.52a Answer to petition.

(a) Time of filing. Within 30 days after the filing of the petition, the Deputy Administrator shall file an answer thereto: Provided, That if an application to dismiss the petition, in whole or in part, is made pursuant to § 900.52(c), the answer shall be filed within 15 days after the filing of an order of the Secretary denying the application or granting the application with respect to only a portion of the petition. The answer shall be filed with the hearing clerk who shall cause a copy thereof to be served promptly upon the petitioner.

(b) Contents. The answer shall specify which of the material allegations of fact or of law in the petition are controverted and which are not controverted. The answer also may contain affirmative allegations of fact constituting separate defenses and statements of objections to the sufficiency of the whole or any part of the petition.

§ 900.52b Amended pleadings.

At any time before the close of the hearing the petition or answer may be amended, but the hearing shall, at the request of the adverse party, be adjourned or recessed for such reasonable time as the presiding officer may determine to be necessary to protect the interests of the parties. Amendments subsequent to the first amendment or subsequent to the filing of an answer may be made only with leave of the presiding officer or with the written consent of the adverse party.

§ 900.53 Withdrawal of petition.

If, at any time after the petition is filed, the petitioner desires to withdraw the same, he shall file with the hearing clerk (or, if filed during the course of a hearing, with the presiding officer) a written request for permission to withdraw. The Secretary may, in his discretion, thereupon dismiss the petition without further procedure: Provided, That, if the request to withdraw is filed after a hearing has been opened, permission to withdraw shall be granted only in exceptional circumstances.

§ 900.54 Docket number.

Each proceeding, immediately following its institution, shall be assigned a docket number by the hearing clerk and thereafter the proceeding may be referred to by such number.

§ 900.55 Presiding officers.

(a) Assignment. No presiding officer who has any pecuniary interest in the outcome of the proceeding, or who has participated in any investigation preceding the institution of the proceeding, shall serve as presiding officer in such proceeding.

(b) Conduct. The presiding officer shall conduct the proceeding in a fair and impartial manner and shall not discuss ex parte the merits of the proceeding with any person who is or who has been connected in any manner with the proceeding in an advocative or investigative capacity.

(c) Powers of presiding officers. Subject to review by the Secretary, as provided elsewhere in this subpart, the presiding officer shall have power to:

(1) Rule upon motions and requests;

(2) Adjourn the hearing from time to time, and change the time and place of hearing;

(3) Administer oaths and affirmations and take affidavits;

(4) Issue subpenas, under the facsimile signature of the Secretary, requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, records, contracts, papers, and other documentary evidence;

(5) Examine witnesses and receive evidence;

(6) Take or order, under the facsimile signature of the Secretary, the taking of depositions;

(7) Admit or exclude evidence;

(8) Hear oral argument on facts or law;

(9) Consolidate hearings upon two or more petitions pertaining to the same order;

(10) Do all acts and take all measures necessary for the maintenance of order at the hearing and the efficient conduct of the proceeding.

(d) Who may act in absence of presiding officer. In case of the absence of the presiding officer or his inability to act, the powers and duties to be performed by him under these rules of practice in connection with a proceeding may, without abatement of the proceeding unless otherwise ordered by the Secretary, be assigned to any other presiding officer.

(e) Disqualification of presiding officer. The presiding officer may at any time withdraw as presiding officer in a proceeding if he deems himself to be disqualified. Upon the filing by an interested person in good faith of a timely and sufficient affidavit of personal bias or disqualification of a presiding officer, the Secretary shall determine the matter as a part of the record and decision in the proceeding, after making such investigation or holding such hearings, or both, as he may deem appropriate in the circumstances.

§ 900.56 Consolidated hearings.

At the discretion of the presiding officer, hearings upon two or more petitions pertaining to the same order may be consolidated, and the evidence taken at such consolidated hearing may be embodied in a single record.

§ 900.57 Intervention.

Intervention in proceedings subject to this subpart shall not be allowed, except that, in the discretion of the Secretary or the presiding officer, any person (other than the petitioner) showing a substantial interest in the outcome of a proceeding shall be permitted to participate in the oral argument and to file a brief.

§ 900.58 Prehearing conferences.

In any proceeding in which it appears that such procedure will expedite the proceeding, the presiding officer, at any time prior to the commencement of or during the course of the hearing, may request the parties or their counsel to appear at a conference before him to consider (a) the simplification of issues; (b) the possibility of obtaining stipulations of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof; (c) the limitation of the number of expert or other witnesses; and (d) such other matters as may expedite and aid in the disposition of the proceeding. No transcript of such conference shall be made, but the presiding officer shall prepare and file for the record a written summary of the action taken at the conference, which shall incorporate any written stipulations or agreements made by the parties at the conference or as a result of the conference. If the circumstances are such that a conference is impracticable, the presiding officer may request the parties to correspond with him for the purpose of accomplishing any of the objects set forth in this section. The presiding officer shall forward copies of letters and documents to the parties as the circumstances require. Correspondence in such negotiations shall not be a part of the record, but the presiding officer shall submit a written summary for the record if any action is taken.

§ 900.59 Motions and requests.

(a) General. All motions and requests shall be filed with the hearing clerk, except that those made during the course of an oral hearing may be filed with the presiding officer or may be stated orally and made a part of the transcript.

The presiding officer is authorized to rule upon all motions and requests filed or made prior to the transmittal by the hearing clerk to the Secretary of the record as provided in this subpart. The Secretary shall rule upon all motions and requests filed after that time.

(b) Certification of motions. The submission or certification of any motion, request, objection, or other question to the Secretary prior to the transmittal of the record to the Secretary, as provided in this subpart, shall be in the discretion of the presiding officer.

§ 900.60 Oral hearings before presiding officer.

(a) Time and place. The presiding officer shall set a time and place for hearing and shall file with the hearing clerk a notice stating the time and place of hearing. If any change in the time or place of hearing becomes necessary, it shall be made by the presiding officer, who, in such event, shall file with the hearing clerk a notice of the change. Such notice shall be served upon the parties, unless it is made during the course of an oral hearing and made a part of the transcript.

(b) Appearances—(1) Representation. In any proceeding under the act, the parties may appear in person or by counsel or other representative. The Department, if represented by counsel, shall be represented by an attorney assigned by the General Counsel of the Department, and such attorney shall present or supervise the presentation of the position of the Department.

(2) Debarment of counsel or representative. Whenever, while a proceeding is pending before him, the presiding officer finds that a person acting as counsel or representative for any party to the proceeding is guilty of unethical or unprofessional conduct, the presiding officer may order that such person be precluded from further acting as counsel or representative in such proceeding. An appeal to the Secretary may be taken from any such order, but the proceeding shall not be delayed or suspended pending disposition of the appeal: Provided, That the presiding officer may suspend the proceeding for a reasonable time for the purpose of enabling the client to obtain other counsel or representative.

In case the presiding officer has issued an order precluding a person from further acting as counsel or representative in the proceeding, the presiding officer, within a reasonable time thereafter, shall submit to the Secretary a report of the facts and circumstances surrounding the issuance of the order and shall recommend what action the Secretary should take respecting the appearance of such person as counsel or representative in other proceedings before the Secretary. Thereafter, the Secretary may, after notice and an opportunity for hearing, issue such order respecting the appearance of such person as counsel or representative in proceedings before the Secretary as the Secretary finds to be appropriate.

(3) Failure to appear. If the petitioner, after being duly notified, fails to appear at the hearing, he shall be deemed to have authorized the Secretary, without further procedure, to dismiss the proceeding with or without prejudice, as the Secretary may determine. In the event that the petitioner appears at the hearing and no representative of the Department appears, the presiding officer shall proceed ex parte to hear the evidence of the petitioner: Provided, That failure on the part of such representative of the Department to appear at a hearing shall not be deemed to be a waiver of the Department's right to file suggested findings of fact, conclusions, and order; to be served with a copy of the presiding officer's report; and to file exceptions with and to submit argument before the Secretary with respect thereto.

(c) Order of proceeding. Except as may be determined otherwise by the presiding officer, the petitioner shall proceed first at the hearing.

(d) Evidence—(1) In general. The hearing shall be publicly conducted, and the testimony given at the hearing shall be reported verbatim.

The testimony of witnesses at a hearing shall be upon oath or affirmation and subject to cross-examination.

Any witness may, in the discretion of the presiding officer, be examined separately and apart from all other witnesses except those who may be parties to the proceeding.

The presiding officer shall exclude, insofar as practicable, evidence which is immaterial, irrelevant, or unduly repetitious, or which is not of the sort upon which responsible persons are accustomed to rely.

(2) Objections. If a party objects to the admission or rejection of any evidence or to the limitation of the scope of any examination or cross-examination, he shall state briefly the grounds of such objection, whereupon an automatic exception will follow if the objection is overruled by the presiding officer. The transcript shall not include argument or debate thereon, except as ordered by the presiding officer. The ruling of the presiding officer on any objection shall be a part of the transcript.

Only objections made before the presiding officer may subsequently be relied upon in the proceeding.

(3) Depositions. The deposition of any witness shall be admitted, in the manner hereinafter provided in and subject to the provisions of § 900.61.

(4) Affidavits. Except as is otherwise provided in this subpart, affidavits may be admitted only if the evidence is otherwise admissible and the parties agree (which may be determined by their failure to make timely objections) that affidavits may be used.

(5) Proof and authentication of official records or documents. An official record or document, when admissible for any purpose, shall be admissible in evidence without the production of the person who made or prepared the same. Such record or document shall, in the discretion of the presiding officer, be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the person having legal custody thereof and accompanied by a certificate that such person has the custody.

(6) Exhibits. All written statements, charts, tabulations, or similar data offered in evidence at the hearing shall, after identification by the proponent and upon a satisfactory showing of the admissibility of the contents thereof, be numbered as exhibits and received in evidence and made a part of the record. Except where the presiding officer finds that the furnishing of copies is impracticable, a copy of each exhibit, in addition to the original, shall be filed with the presiding officer for the use of each other party to the proceeding. The presiding officer shall advise the parties as to the exact number of copies which will be required to be filed and shall make and have noted on the record the proper distribution of the copies.

If the testimony of a witness refers to a statute, or to a report, document, or transcript, the presiding officer, after inquiry relating to the identification of such statute, report, document, or transcript, shall determine whether the same shall be produced at the hearing and physically be made a part of the evidence as an exhibit, or whether it shall be incorporated into the evidence by reference. If relevant and material matter offered in evidence is embraced in a report, document, or transcript containing immaterial or irrelevant matter, such immaterial or irrelevant matter shall be excluded and shall be segregated insofar as practicable, subject to the direction of the presiding officer.

(7) Official notice. Official notice will be taken of such matters as are judicially noticed by the courts of the United States and of any other matter of technical, scientific, or commercial fact of established character: Provided, That the parties shall be given adequate notice, at the hearing or by reference in the presiding officer's report or the tentative order or otherwise, of matters so noticed, and (except where official notice is taken, for the first time in the proceeding, in the final order) shall be given adequate opportunity to show that such facts are erroneously noticed.

(8) Offer of proof. Whenever evidence is excluded from the record, the party offering such evidence may make an offer of proof, which shall be included in the transcript. The offer of proof shall consist of a brief statement describing the evidence to be offered. If the evidence consists of a brief oral statement or of an exhibit, it shall be inserted into the transcript in toto. In such event, it shall be considered a part of the transcript if the Secretary decides that the presiding officer's ruling in excluding the evidence was erroneous. The presiding officer shall not allow the insertion of such evidence in toto if the taking of such evidence will consume a considerable length of time at the hearing. In the latter event, if the Secretary decides that the presiding officer erred in excluding the evidence, and that such error was substantial, the hearing shall be reopened to permit the taking of such evidence.

(c) Oral argument before presiding officer. Oral argument before the presiding officer shall be allowed unless the presiding officer finds that the denial of such argument will not deprive the parties of an adequate opportunity for oral argument subsequently in the proceeding. Such argument may be limited by the presiding officer to any extent that he finds necessary for the expeditious disposition of the proceeding and shall be reduced to writing and made part of the transcript.

(f) Transcript. (1) During the period in which the proceeding has an active status in the Department, a copy of the transcript and exhibits shall be kept on file in the office of the hearing clerk, where it shall be available for examination during official hours of business. Thereafter said transcript and exhibits shall be made available by the hearing clerk for examination during official hours of business after prior request and reasonable notice to the hearing clerk.

(2) If a personal copy of the transcript is desired, such copy may be obtained upon written application filed with the reporter, and upon payment of fees at the rate (if any) provided in the contract between the reporter and the Secretary.

§ 900.61 Depositions.

(a) Procedure in lieu of deposition. Before any party may have testimony taken by deposition, said party shall, if practicable, submit to the other party an affidavit which shall set forth the facts to which the witness would testify, if the deposition should be taken. If, after examination of such affidavit, the other party agrees, or (within 10 days after submission of the affidavit) fails to object, that the affidavit may be used in lieu of the deposition, the presiding officer shall admit the affidavit in evidence and shall not order the deposition to be taken.

(b) Application for taking deposition. Upon the application of a party to the proceeding, the presiding officer may, at any time after the filing of the moving paper, order, under the facsimile signature of the Secretary, the taking of testimony by deposition. The application shall be in writing and shall be filed with the hearing clerk and shall set forth: (1) the name and address of the proposed deponent; (2) the name and address of the person (referred to hereinafter in this section as the "officer"), qualified under the rules in this part to take depositions, before whom the proposed examination is to be made; (3) the proposed time and place of the examination, which shall be at least 15 days after the date of the mailing of the application; and (4) the reasons why such deposition should be taken.

(c) Presiding officer's order for taking deposition. If, after the examination of the application, the presiding officer is of the opinion that the deposition should be taken, he shall order its taking. The order shall be filed with the hearing clerk and shall be served upon the parties and shall state: (1) the time and place of the examination (which shall not be less than 10 days after the filing of the order); (2) the name of the officer before whom the examination is to be made; (3) the name of the deponent. The officer and the time and place need not be the same as those suggested in the application.

(d) Qualifications of officer. The deposition shall be taken before the presiding officer, or before an officer authorized by the law of the United States or by the law of the place of the examination to administer oaths, or before an officer authorized by the Secretary to administer oaths.

(e) Procedure on examination. The deponent shall be examined under oath or affirmation and shall be subject to cross-examination. The testimony of the deponent shall be recorded by the officer or by some person under his direction and in his presence. In lieu of oral examination, parties may transmit written interrogatories to the officer prior to the examination and the officer shall propound such interrogatories to the deponent.

The applicant must arrange for the examination of the witness either by oral examination or by written interrogatories. If it is found by the presiding officer, upon the protest of a party to the proceeding, that such party has his residence and his place of business more than 100 miles from the place of the examination and that it would constitute an undue hardship upon such party to be represented at the examination, the applicant will be required to conduct the examination by means of interrogatories.

When the examination is conducted by means of interrogatories, copies of the interrogatories shall be served upon the other parties to the proceeding at least five days prior to the date set for the examination, and the other parties shall be afforded an opportunity to file with the officer cross-interrogatories at any time prior to the time of the examination.

(f) Certification by officer. The officer shall certify on the deposition that the deponent was duly sworn by him and that the deposition is a true record of the deponent's testimony. He shall then securely seal the deposition, together with two copies thereof, in an envelope and mail the same by registered mail to the hearing clerk.

(g) Use of depositions. A deposition ordered and taken in accord with the provisions of this section may be used in a proceeding under the act if the presiding officer finds that the evidence is otherwise admissible and (1) that the witness is dead; or (2) that the witness is at a distance greater than 100 miles from the place of hearing, unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition; or (3) that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of age, sickness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or (4) that the party offering the deposition has endeavored to procure the attendance of the witness by subpena but has been unable to do so; or (5) that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interests of justice, to allow the deposition to be used. If a deposition has been taken, and the party upon whose application it was taken refuses to offer it in evidence, the other party may offer the deposition, or any part thereof, in evidence.

§ 900.62 Subpenas.

(a) Issuance of subpenas. The attendance of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence from any place in the United States on behalf of any party to the proceeding may, by subpena, be required at any designated place of hearing. Subpenas may be issued by the Secretary or by the presiding officer, under the facsimile signature of the Secretary, upon a reasonable showing by the applicant of the grounds, necessity, and reasonable scope thereof.

(b) Application for subpena duces tecum. Subpenas for the production of documentary evidence, unless issued by the presiding officer upon his own motion, shall be issued only upon a verified written application. Such application shall specify, as exactly as possible, the documents desired and shall show their competency, relevancy, and materiality and the necessity for their production.

(c) Service of subpenas. Subpenas may be served (1) by a United States Marshal or his deputy, or (2) by any other person who is not less than 18 years of age, or (3) by registering and mailing a copy of the subpena addressed to the person to be served at his or its last known residence or principal place of business or residence. Proof of service may be made by the return of service on the subpena by the United States Marshal or his deputy; or, if served by an individual other than a United States Marshal or his deputy, by an affidavit of such person stating that he personally served a copy of the subpena upon the person named therein; or, if service was by registered mail, by an affidavit made by the person mailing the subpena that it was mailed as provided in this paragraph and by the signed return post-office receipt: Provided, That, if the subpena is issued on behalf of the Department, the return receipt without an affidavit of mailing shall be sufficient proof of service. In making personal service, the person making service shall leave a copy of the subpena with the person subpenaed; the original, bearing or accompanied by the required proof of service, shall be returned to the official who issued the same.

§ 900.63 Fees and mileage.

Witnesses who are subpenaed and who appear in such proceeding, including witnesses whose depositions are taken, shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the courts of the United States, and persons taking depositions shall be entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in the courts of the United States, to be paid by the party at whose request the deposition is taken. Witness fees and mileage shall be paid by the party at whose instance the witnesses appear, and claims therefor, as to witnesses subpenaed on behalf of the Department, shall be proved before the person issuing the subpena, and, as to witnesses subpenaed on behalf of any other party, shall be presented to such party.

§ 900.64 The presiding officer's report.

(a) Filing the transcript of evidence. (1) As soon as practicable after the close of the hearing, the presiding officer shall transmit to the hearing clerk an original and three copies of the transcript of the testimony and the original and all copies of the exhibits not already on file in the office of the hearing clerk. The presiding officer shall attach to the original transcript of testimony his certificate stating that to the best of his knowledge and belief, the transcript is a true, correct, and complete transcript of the testimony given in the hearing except in such particulars as he shall specify, and that the exhibits transmitted are all the exhibits received in evidence at the hearing with such exceptions as he shall specify. A copy of such certification shall be attached to each copy of the transcript of testimony. In accordance with such certificate the presiding officer shall note on the original transcript and the hearing clerk shall cause to be noted on other copies of the transcript, each correction detailed in such certificate by adding or crossing out (but without obscuring the text as originally transcribed) at the appropriate places any words necessary to make the text conform to the correct meaning, as certified by the presiding officer.

(2) Immediately following the filing of the transcript, the hearing clerk shall advise each party to the proceeding as to the date of such filing.

(b) Proposed findings of fact, conclusions, and orders. Within 10 days (unless the presiding officer shall have announced at the hearing a shorter or longer period of time) after the transcript has been filed with the hearing clerk, as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, each party may file with the hearing clerk proposed findings of fact, conclusions, and order, based solely upon the evidence of record, and briefs in support thereof.

(c) Presiding officer's report. The presiding officer, within a reasonable time after the termination of the period allowed for the filing of proposed findings of fact, conclusions, and orders, and briefs in support thereof, shall prepare, upon the basis of the record, and shall file with the hearing clerk, his report, a copy of which (together with notification of the date fixed by the presiding officer for the filing of exceptions thereto) shall be served by the hearing clerk upon each of the parties.

(d) Exceptions. Within a period of time (to be fixed by the presiding officer but not to exceed 20 days) after the filing of the presiding officer's report, the parties may file exceptions to the report. Any party who desires to take exception to any matter set out in the report shall transmit his exceptions in writing to the hearing clerk, referring, where practicable, to the relevant pages of the transcript, and suggesting a corrected finding of fact, conclusion, or order. Within the same period of time, each party shall transmit to the hearing clerk a brief statement in writing concerning each of the objections taken to the action of the presiding officer, as set out in § 900.60, upon which the party wishes to rely, referring, where practicable, to the pertinent pages of the transcript. A party, if he files exceptions or a statement of objections, shall state in writing whether he desires to make an oral argument thereon before the Secretary; otherwise, it shall be considered that he does not desire to make such oral argument.

(e) Revision of presiding officer's report. If exceptions are filed to the presiding officer's report, as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, the presiding officer, after consideration of such exceptions, shall make and file with the hearing clerk a draft of the findings of fact, conclusions, and final order of the Secretary, which shall include such revision of his report as he deems to be appropriate in view of such exceptions.

§ 900.65 Transmittal of record.

The hearing clerk, immediately following the filing of the revision of the presiding officer's report, or upon notification by the presiding officer that no revision will be made, shall transmit to the Secretary the record of the proceeding. Such record shall include: the petition; motions and requests filed with the hearing clerk, and rulings thereon; the transcript of the testimony taken at the hearing, together with the exhibits filed therein; any documents or papers filed in connection with prehearing conferences; such proposed findings of fact, conclusions, and orders, and briefs in support thereof, as may have been filed in connection with the hearing; the presiding officer's report; such exceptions, statements of objections, and briefs in support thereof, as may have been filed in the proceeding; and the presiding officer's draft of the findings of fact, conclusions, and final order of the Secretary.

§ 900.66 Argument before Secretary.

(a) Oral argument. Unless a party has included in his exceptions a request for oral argument or has filed a separate request for oral argument prior to the expiration of the last date for filing such exceptions, it shall be considered that he does not desire to make such oral argument. The granting of a request to make oral argument shall rest in the discretion of the Secretary.

(b) Briefs. The parties may, in the discretion of the Secretary, file written briefs either in addition to oral argument or in lieu thereof.

(c) Scope of argument. Except where the Secretary determines that argument on additional issues would be helpful, argument, whether oral or in a written brief, shall be limited to the issues raised by the exceptions and statement of objections, or to such issues as the Secretary may indicate. If the Secretary determines that additional issues should be argued, counsel for the parties shall be given reasonable notice of such determination, so as to permit the preparation of adequate argument on all the issues to be argued.

§ 900.67 Consideration and issuance of order.

(a) Consideration of order. As soon as practicable after the receipt of the record from the hearing clerk, or in case argument was had, as soon as practicable thereafter, the Secretary, upon the basis of the record, shall begin his consideration of the final order to be issued in the proceeding. If an oral argument was held, the order shall be considered by and shall be issued over the signature of the official who heard such oral argument, unless the parties shall consent to a different arrangement. At no stage of the proceeding between its institution and the issuance of the order shall the Secretary discuss ex parte the merits of the proceeding with any person who is connected with the proceeding in an advocative or an investigative capacity, or with any representative of such person: Provided, however, That the Secretary may discuss the merits of the proceeding with such a person if all parties to the proceeding, or their representatives, have been given an opportunity to be present. If, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, a memorandum or other communication from any party, or from any person acting on behalf of any party, which relates to the merits of the proceeding, receives the personal attention of the Secretary (or, if an official other than the Secretary is to issue the order, then of such other official) during the pendency of the proceeding, such memorandum or communication shall be regarded as argument made in the proceeding and shall be filed with the hearing clerk, who shall serve a copy thereof upon the other party to the proceeding, and opportunity shall be given the opposite party to file a reply thereto.

(b) Issuance of order. The order shall be issued and served upon the parties as the final order in the proceeding without further procedure: Provided, That, if the terms of the order differ substantially from those proposed in the report of the presiding officer, the Secretary shall, if he deems it advisable to do so, direct that a copy of the order be served upon the parties as a tentative order; and, in such event, opportunity shall be given the parties to file exceptions thereto and written arguments or briefs in support of such exceptions. In such case, if exceptions are filed within a period of time (to be fixed by the Secretary but not to exceed 20 days) following the service of the tentative order, the Secretary shall give consideration to and shall make such changes in the tentative order as he deems to be appropriate; otherwise, the tentative order shall become final, as of the day following the date of expiration of the period fixed for the filing of exceptions.

§ 900.68 Applications for reopening hearings; for rehearings or reargu-ments of proceedings; or for reconsideration of orders.

(a) Petition requisite—(1) Filing; service. An application for reopening the hearing to take further evidence, or for rehearing or reargument of the proceeding, or for reconsideration of the order shall be made by petition addressed to the Secretary and filed with the hearing clerk, who immediately shall notify and serve a copy thereof upon the other party to the proceeding. Every such petition shall state specifically the grounds relied upon.

(2) Petitions to reopen hearings. A petition to reopen the hearing for the purpose of taking additional evidence may be filed at any time prior to the issuance of the final order. Every such petition shall state briefly the nature and purpose of the evidence to be adduced, shall show that such evidence is not merely cumulative, and shall set forth a good reason why such evidence was not adduced at the hearing.

(3) Petitions to rehear or reargue proceedings, or to reconsider orders. A petition to rehear or reargue the proceeding or to reconsider the final order shall be filed within 15 days after the date of the service of such order. Every such petition shall state specifically the matters claimed to have been erroneously decided, and alleged errors must be briefly stated.

(b) Procedure for disposition of petitions. Within 10 days following the service of any petition provided for in this section, the other party to the proceeding shall file with the hearing clerk an answer thereto. As soon as practicable thereafter, the Secretary shall announce the decision granting or denying the petition. Unless the Secretary shall determine otherwise, the issuance or operation of the order shall not be stayed pending the decision of the Secretary upon the petition. In the event that any such petition is granted by the Secretary, the applicable rules of practice, as set out elsewhere in this subpart, shall be followed.

§ 900.69 Filing; service; extensions of time; effective date of filing; and computation of time.

(a) Filing; number of copies. Except as provided otherwise herein, all documents or papers required or authorized in this subpart to be filed with the hearing clerk shall be filed in quadruplicate: Provided, That, if there are more than two parties to the proceeding, a sufficient number of additional copies shall be filed so as to provide for service upon all the parties to the proceeding. Any document or paper, required or authorized in this subpart to be filed with the hearing clerk, shall, during the course of an oral hearing, be filed with the presiding officer.

(b) Service; proof of service. Copies of all such papers shall be served upon the parties by the hearing clerk, by the presiding officer, or by some other employee of the Department or by a United States Marshal or his deputy. Service shall be made either (1) by delivering a copy of the document or paper to the individual to be served or to a member of the partnership to be served or to the president, secretary, or other executive officer or any director of the corporation, organization, or association to be served, or to the attorney or agent of record of such individual, partnership, corporation, organization, or association; or (2) by leaving a copy of the document or paper at the principal office or place of business of such individual, partnership, corporation, organization, or association, or of his or its attorney or agent of record; or (3) by registering and mailing a copy of the document or paper, addressed to such individual, partnership, corporation, organization, or association, or to his or its attorney or agent of record, at his or its last known principal office, place of business, or residence. Proof of service hereunder shall be made by the affidavit of the person who actually made the service. The affidavit contemplated herein shall be filed with the hearing clerk, and the fact of filing thereof shall be noted on the docket of the proceeding.

(c) Extensions of time. The time for the filing of any documents or papers required or authorized in this subpart to be filed may be extended upon (1) a written stipulation between the parties, or (2) upon the request of a party, by the presiding officer before the transmittal of the record to the Secretary, or by the Secretary at any other time if, in the judgment of the Secretary or the presiding officer, as the case may be, there is good reason for the extension.

(d) Effective date of filing. Any document or paper, except a petition filed pursuant to § 900.52, required or authorized under these rules to be filed shall be deemed to have been filed when it is postmarked, or when it is received by the hearing clerk. Any petition filed under § 900.52 shall be deemed to be filed when it is received by the hearing clerk.

(e) Computation of time. Sundays and Federal holidays shall be included in computing the time allowed for the filing of any document or paper: Provided, That, when such time expires on a Sunday or legal holiday, such time shall be extended to include the next following business day.

§ 900.70 Applications for interim relief.

(a) Filing the application. A person who has filed a petition pursuant to § 900.52 may by separate application filed with the hearing clerk apply to the Secretary or an order postponing the effective date of, or suspending the application of, the marketing order or any provision thereof, or any obligation imposed in connection therewith, pending final determination of the proceeding.

(b) Contents of the application. The application shall contain a statement of the facts upon which the relief is requested, including any facts showing irreparable injury. The application must be signed and sworn to by the petitioner and any facts alleged therein which are not within his personal knowledge shall be supported by affidavits of a person or persons having personal knowledge of such facts or by proper documentary evidence thereof.

(c) Answer to application. Immediately upon receipt of the application, the hearing clerk shall transmit a copy thereof, together with all supporting papers, to the Deputy Administrator, who shall, within 20 days, or such other time fixed by the Secretary, after the filing of the application file an answer thereto with the hearing clerk.

(d) Contents of answer. The answer shall contain a statement of the objections, if any, of the Deputy Administrator to the application for interim relief, and may be supported by affidavits and documentary evidence.

(e) Transmittal to Secretary. Upon receiving the answer of the Deputy Administrator or upon the expiration of the time for filing the answer, the hearing clerk shall transmit to the Secretary for his decision all papers filed in connection with the application.

(f) Hearing and oral argument. The Secretary may, in his discretion, permit oral argument or the taking of testimony in connection with such application. However, unless written request therefor is filed with the hearing clerk prior to the transmittal of the papers to the Secretary, the parties shall be deemed to have waived oral argument and the taking of testimony.

(g) Decision by Secretary. The Secretary may grant or deny the application. Any action taken by the Secretary shall be in the form of an order filed with the hearing clerk and shall contain a brief statement of the reasons for the action taken. The hearing clerk shall cause copies of the order to be served upon the parties.

§ 900.71 Hearing before Secretary.

The Secretary may act in the place and stead of a presiding officer in any proceeding hereunder. When he so acts the hearing clerk shall transmit the record to the Secretary at the expiration of the period provided for the filing of proposed findings of fact, conclusions and orders, and the Secretary shall thereupon, after due consideration of the record, issue his final order in the proceeding: Provided, That he may issue a tentative order in which event the parties shall be afforded an opportunity to file exceptions before the issuance of the final order.

[Lemon Reg. 861, Amdt. 1]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

Limitation of Handling

Findings. 1. Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

2. It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b)(1)(ii) of § 953.958 (Lemon Regulation 851; 25 F.R. 5475) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(ii) District 2: 465,000 cartons.

[Milk Order 73]

PART 973—MILK IN MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL MARKETING AREA

Order Amending Order

§ 973.0 Findings and determinations.

The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Minneapolis-St. Paul marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(4) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expense, 3 cents per hundredweight or such amount not to exceed 3 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to producer milk (including such handler's own farm production) and to other source milk which is classified as Class I milk.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order effective not later than July 1, 1960.

The provisions of the said order are known to handlers. The recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service was issued May 17, 1960, and the decision of the Assistant Secretary containing all amendment provisions of this order, was issued June 9, 1960. The changes effected by this order will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration marketing of milk, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order effective July 1, 1960, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (See section 4(c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.).

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of handlers (excluding cooperative associations specified in section 8c(9) of the Act) of more than 50 percent of the milk, which is marketed within the marketing area, to sign a proposed marketing agreement, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the Act of advancing the interests of producers as defined in the order as hereby amended; and

(3) The issuance of the order amending the order is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who during the determined representative period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Minneapolis-St. Paul marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as hereby amended, and the aforesaid order is hereby amended as follows:

(6) In § 1004.80(a) (2), the phrase "or base milk and excess milk".

(b) Notice of proposed rule making, public procedure thereon, and 30 days notice of effective date hereof are impractical, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest in that:

(1) This termination order does not require of persons affected substantial or extensive preparation prior to the effective date.

(2) This termination order is necessary to reflect current marketing conditions and to maintain orderly marketing conditions in the marketing area.

(3) The termination order should be made effective July 1, 1960, in order that producers may receive advance notice that their deliveries of milk during the months of August through November of 1960 will not be used as a basis for computing payments during the months of January through June 1961.

(4) The termination will have no effect on the cost of milk to handlers, but will affect the distribution of returns for milk among producers with different seasonal production patterns. Producer organizations presently provides incentives for their member producers to maintain even production throughout the year.

(5) Based on a request for the termination of the base plan, supported by producer associations representing approximately 90 percent of the producers supplying the market, a notice of proposed termination of such provisions was issued June 1, 1960 (25 F.R. 4962), to which interested parties were given opportunity to submit written views, data and arguments. No views in opposition to the proposed termination were received from any producers, nor were any substantive views presented by other interested parties to the effect that such provisions should be retained in the order.

Therefore, good cause exists for making this order effective July 1, 1960.

It is therefore ordered, That the aforesaid provisions of the order are hereby terminated effective July 1, 1960.

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 22d day of June 1960.

CLARENCE L. MILLER,
Assistant Secretary.

[Milk Order 111]

PART 1011—MILK IN MICHIGAN UPPER PENINSULA MARKETING AREA

Order Amending Order

§ 1011.0 Findings and determinations.

The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Michigan Upper Peninsula marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in the order as hereby amended, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expense, 5 cents per hundredweight or such amount not to exceed 5 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to (i) all receipts within the month of milk from producers including milk of such handler's own production, and (ii) any other source milk allocated to Class I pursuant to § 1011.46(b) and the corresponding step of § 1011.47.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order effective not later than July 1, 1960. Any delay beyond that date would tend to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk in the marketing area.

The provisions of the said order are known to handlers. The recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service was issued May 20, 1960, and the decision of the Assistant Secretary containing all amendment provisions of this order, was issued June 9, 1960. The changes effected by this order will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration in method of operation for handlers. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order effective July 1, 1960, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (See sec. 4(c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of handlers (excluding cooperative associations specified in section 8c(9) of the Act) of more than 50 percent of the milk, which is marketed within the marketing area, to sign a proposed marketing agreement, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the Act of advancing the interests of producers as defined in the order as hereby amended; and

(3) The issuance of the order amending the order is approved or favored by at least three-fourths of the producers who participated in a referendum and who during the determined representative period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Michigan Upper Peninsula marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as hereby amended, and the aforesaid order is hereby amended as follows:

1. Amend § 1011.5 to read as follows:

§ 1011.5 Michigan Upper Peninsula marketing area.

(a) "Michigan Upper Peninsula marketing area" (hereinafter referred to as the "marketing area") means all the territory including all municipal corporations within the zones described below in this section.

(b) "Zone 1(a)": The city of Menominee and the townships of Menominee, Mellen and Ingallston, in Menominee, County, Michigan; the town of Peshtigo and the cities of Marinette and Peshtigo in Marinette County, Wisconsin;

(c) "Zone 1": Counties of Delta, Dickinson, Gogebic, Iron, Ontonagon and all territory in Menominee County not included in Zone 1(a), all in the State of Michigan; the town of Niagara and the village of Niagara, in Marinette County; the towns of Aurora and Florence, in Florence County, and the towns of Carey, Kimball, Oma, Pence, Saxon and the cities of Hurley and Montreal in Iron County, all in the State of Wisconsin;

(d) "Zone 2": Counties of Alger, Baraga, Chippewa, Houghton, Keweenaw, Luce, Mackinac, Marquette and Schoolcraft, all in the State of Michigan.

§ 1011.46 [Amendment]

2. Amend § 1011.46(c) to read as follows:

(c) Subtract from the pounds of butterfat remaining in each class the pounds of butterfat in other source milk received during the month in the form of fluid milk products from a plant subject to another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the Act as follows:

(1) From Class I, the pounds of such butterfat received in a consumer-packaged form not so packaged in the plant during the month, and disposed of without further processing or packaging; and

(2) In series beginning with the lowest priced utilization, the remaining pounds of such butterfat;

3. Amend § 1011.51 to read as follows:

§ 1011.51 Class I milk price.

Through November 1961, subject to the provisions of § 1011.54, the minimum price to be paid by each handler for milk received at his fluid milk plant from producers or the fluid milk plant of a cooperative association during the month and utilized as Class I milk shall be the basic formula price for the preceding month, plus the applicable amounts specified below for the marketing area zone in which such plant is located. For plants located outside the marketing area and west of Lake Michigan the price (subject to § 1011.55) shall be that specified for Zone 1. For plants located outside the marketing area and east of Lake Michigan the price (subject to § 1011.55) shall be that specified for Zone 2.

Zone	Months of Mar. through June	Months of Jan., Feb., and Dec.	Months of July through Nov.
1(a)	$0.65	$0.85	$1.05
1	.75	.95	1.15
2	.95	1.15	1.35

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 22d day of June 1960, to be effective on and after the 1st day of July 1960.

Title 9—ANIMALS AND ANIMAL PRODUCTS

Chapter I—Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture

SUBCHAPTER A—MEAT INSPECTION REGULATIONS

PART 14—TANKING AND DENATURING CONDEMNED CARCASSES AND PARTS

Required Permits for Specimens for Educational, Research, and Other Nonfood Purposes

Pursuant to the authority conferred by the Meat Inspection Act, as amended and extended (21 U.S.C. 71–96), § 14.5 of the Meat Inspection Regulations (9 CFR 14.5) is amended to read as follows:

§ 14.5 Specimens for educational, research, and other nonfood purposes; permits for, required.

(a) Specimens of diseased, condemned, or inedible materials, including embryos and specimens of animal parasites, may be released for educational, research or other nonfood purposes under permit issued by the inspector in charge: Provided, That the person desiring such specimens makes a written application to such inspector for such permit on M.I. Form 403–10 and arranges with and receives permission from the official establishment to obtain the specimens. Permits shall be issued for a period not longer than one year. The permit may be revoked by the inspector in charge if the specimens are not used as stated in the application, or if the collection or handling of the specimens interferes with inspection or the maintenance of sanitary conditions in the establishment.

(b) The collection and handling of the specimens referred to in paragraph (a) of this section shall be at such time and place and in such a manner as not to interfere with the inspection or to cause any objectionable condition.

(34 Stat. 1264; 21 U.S.C. 89)

The foregoing amendment merely simplifies the procedure for obtaining release from inspected establishments of specimens for research and certain other nonfood purposes, now eligible for such release. In order to be of maximum benefit to affected persons, the amendment should be made effective as soon as possible. Therefore under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003) it is found upon good cause that publication of notice of rule-making and other public procedure with respect to the amendment are impracticable and unnecessary and good cause is found for making the amendment effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The amendment shall become effective on June 28, 1960.

Done at Washington, D.C., this 22d day of June 1960.

M. R. CLARKSON,
Acting Administrator,
Agricultural Research Service.

Title 12—BANKS AND BANKING

Chapter II—Federal Reserve System

SUBCHAPTER A—BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

[Reg. Q]

PART 217—PAYMENT OF INTEREST ON DEPOSITS

Monthly Payments by Check

§ 217.116 Monthly payment by check of interest on deposits.

(a) The Board has recently considered the question whether a member bank's plan for payment of interest on a one-year time certificate of deposit conforms with the requirements of Part 217. Under this plan the bank would pay interest monthly by means of check in an amount equal to one-twelfth of the amount that would have been paid for the year if the bank had compounded interest quarterly at the maximum permissible rate of 3 percent.

(b) Section 217.6 prohibits a member bank from paying interest on a savings deposit or on a time deposit having a maturity of 6 months or more "at a rate in excess of 3 percent per annum, compounded quarterly, regardless of the basis upon which such interest may be computed." A footnote states that this limitation "is not to be interpreted as preventing the compounding of interest at other than quarterly intervals, provided that the aggregate amount of such interest so compounded does not exceed the aggregate amount of interest at the rate above prescribed when compounded quarterly."

(c) These provisions in effect permit a member bank to pay interest in an amount somewhat greater than that paid on a straight 3 percent basis if the bank's practice is to compound interest, provided that on whatever basis interest is compounded the amount "so compounded" does not exceed the amount that would have been paid at the maximum rate when compounded quarterly. The regulation does not prevent a member bank from paying interest monthly by check instead of compounding interest. However, the regulation does not contemplate payment of interest in excess of a straight or simple rate of 3 percent except where it is paid on interest left in the account, that is, where interest is compounded. Accordingly, a plan under which monthly payments are made by check in an amount equal to one-twelfth of the amount that would have been paid for a year if the bank had compounded interest quarterly at a rate of 3 percent would not be in accordance with the regulation.

(d) The same principles would, of course, apply to monthly payments of interest by check on a time deposit having a maturity of less than 6 months and on which the maximum permissible rate would be 2½ percent or 1 percent. They would equally apply to monthly payments of interest on savings deposits.

[Reg. U]

PART 221—LOANS BY BANKS FOR THE PURPOSE OF PURCHASING OR CARRYING REGISTERED STOCKS

Capacity as Trustee

§ 221.112 Loans by bank in capacity as trustee.

(a) The Board's advice has been requested whether a bank's activities in connection with the administration of an employees' savings plan are subject to Part 221.

(b) Under the plan, any regular, full-time employee may participate by authorizing the sponsoring company to deduct a percentage of his salary and wages and transmit the same to the bank as trustee. Voluntary contributions by the company are allocated among the participants. A participant may direct that funds held for him be invested by the trustee in insurance, annuity contracts, Series E Bonds, or in one or more of three specified securities which are listed on a stock exchange. Loans to purchase the stocks may be made to participants from funds of the trust, subject to approval of the administrative committee, which is composed of five participants, and of the trustee. The bank's right to approve is said to be restricted to the mechanics of making the loan, the purpose being to avoid cumbersome procedures.

(c) Loans are secured by the credit balance of the borrowing participants in the savings fund, including stock, but excluding (in practice) insurance and annuity contracts and government securities. Additional stocks may be, but, in practice, have not been pledged as collateral for loans. Loans are not made, under the plan, from bank funds, and participants do not borrow from the bank upon assignment of the participants' accounts in the trust.

(d) It is urged that loans under the plan are not subject to this Part 221 because a loan should not be considered as having been made by a bank where the bank acts solely in its capacity of trustee, without exercise of any discretion.

(c) The Board reviewed this question upon at least one other occasion in recent years, and full consideration has again been given to the matter. After considering the arguments on both sides, the Board has reaffirmed its earlier view that, in conformity with in interpretation not published in CFR which was published at page 874 of the 1946 Federal Reserve Bulletin, this Part 221 applies to the activities of a bank when it is acting in its capacity as trustee. Although the bank in that case had at best a limited discretion with respect to loans made by it in its capacity as trustee, the Board concluded that this fact did not affect the application of the regulation to such loans.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter III—Federal Aviation Agency

SUBCHAPTER E—AIR NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

[Airspace Docket No. 59-KC-6]

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

Modification

On December 16, 1959, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (24 F.R. 10161) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed the realignment of the north alternate to VOR Federal airway No. 14 and the south alternates to VOR Federal airways No. 14 and 210 between Terre Haute, Ind., and Indianapolis, Ind.

Subsequent to the notice, further study revealed that the intersection of Victor 14 S and Victor 210 S via the Terre Haute VOR 080° True and the Indianapolis VORTAC 230° True radials would not coincide with the intersection formed by VOR Federal airway No. 11 W. Therefore, the south alternates to Victor 14 and Victor 210 are designated via the Terre Haute VOR 079° True and the Indianapolis VORTAC 230° True radials. This change is minor in nature in that it represents a correction of only one degree and is reflected in the amendment. The notice stated that the north alternate to Victor 14 between Terre Haute and Indianapolis was a standard alternate. This alternate airway had been nonstandard and is being realigned as a standard alternate. The amendment to § 600.6210 includes a change in the caption of the section to more accurately describe the airway. Relocation of the Terre Haute VOR has been rescheduled and will now be commissioned at the new site approximately October 20, 1960.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendments.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rules herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendments having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the notice, §§ 600.6014 (24 F.R. 10506; 25 F.R. 5328) and 600.6210 (24 F.R. 10522; 25 F.R. 5329) are amended as follows:

1. In the text of § 600.6014 VOR Federal airway No. 14 (Roswell, N. Mex., to Boston, Mass.), delete "including a north alternate via the INT of the Terre Haute VOR 052° and the Indianapolis VOR 273° radials and also a south alternate via the Terre Haute VOR 082° and the Indianapolis VOR 230° radials;" and substitute therefor "including a north alternate and a south alternate via the INT of the Terre Haute VOR 079° True and the Indianapolis VORTAC 230° True radials;"

2. Section 600.6210 VOR Federal airway No. 210 (Los Angeles, Calif., to Imperial, Pa.):

(a) In the caption delete "(Los Angeles, Calif., to Imperial, Pa.)." and substitute therefor "(Los Angeles, Calif., to Pueblo, Colo., and Kansas City, Mo., to Imperial, Pa.)."

(b) In the text delete "Terre Haute omnirange 082° and the Indianapolis omnirange 230° radials;" and substitute therefor "Terre Haute VOR 079° True and the Indianapolis VORTAC 230° True radials;".

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t., November 17, 1960.

4. Section 601.6452 VOR Federal airway No. 452 control areas (Raton, N. Mex., to Dalhart, Tex.). is revoked.

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Designation of Federal Airway and Associated Control Areas

On April 9, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 3087) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was proposing to designate VOR Federal airway No. 307 and associated control areas from the Victoria, British Columbia, L/MF radio range direct to the Vancouver, British Columbia, VOR, excluding that portion outside the United States.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendments.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rules herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendments having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the notice, Parts 600 (24 F.R. 10487) and 601 (24 F.R. 10530) are amended by adding the following:

§ 600.6307 VOR Federal airway No. 307 (Victoria, British Columbia, to Vancouver, British Columbia).

From the Victoria, British Columbia, RR to the Vancouver, British Columbia, VOR.

§ 601.6307 VOR Federal airway No. 307 control areas (Victoria, British Columbia, to Vancouver, British Columbia).

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Revocation of Prohibited Area and Modification of Control Area Extension

The purpose of these amendments is to modify Executive Order 10127 by repealing the airspace reservation, hereinafter referred to as Prohibited Area (P-78), established over the Clinton Engineering Works, Oak Ridge, Tenn., and to amend § 601.1126 of the regulations of the Administrator by modifying the Knoxville, Tenn., control area extension.

The Clinton Engineering Works Prohibited Area (P-78) was established at Oak Ridge by Presidential Executive Order 10127 (paragraph 1 thereof) dated May 23, 1950 (15 F.R. 3171) at the request of the Atomic Energy Commission for national defense and other governmental purposes. The prohibited area is in effect continuously from the surface to an unlimited altitude and encompasses the area beginning at latitude 36°00'25" N., and longitude 84°07'05" W.; thence to latitude 35°51'35" N., longitude 84°16'25" W.; thence to latitude 35°52'10" N., longitude 84°24'15" W.; thence to latitude 35°55'45" N., longitude 84°29'30" W.; thence to latitude 36°05'05" N., longitude 84°13'30" W.; thence to the point of beginning.

The Federal Aviation Agency has received information from the Atomic Energy Commission stating that there is no longer a requirement for this prohibited area. Therefore, the retention of Prohibited Area P-78 is no longer justified as an assignment of airspace and the revocation thereof is in the public interest.

A portion of the Knoxville, Tenn., control area extension penetrates Prohibited Area P-78 and is excluded from P-78 in the control area extension's description. Since the action taken herein revokes P-78, the reference to P-78 in the description of the Knoxville control area extension is no longer required and is deleted.

Since this amendment reduces a burden on the public, compliance with the notice, public procedure, and effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary and it may be made effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, the following action is taken:

1. In Executive Order 10127 (15 F.R. 3171), the Clinton Engineering Works, Oak Ridge, Tenn., Prohibited Area (P-

78) (Chattanooga and Nashville Charts) is revoked.

2. In the text of § 601.1126 (24 F.R. 10553), "The airspace which lies within Prohibited Area P-78 is excluded." is deleted.

These amendments shall become effective upon the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

Modification and Redesignation

The purpose of this amendment to § 608.13 of the regulations of the Administrator is to divide the Fort Chaffee, Ark., Restricted Area (R-215) (Little Rock Chart) into a west area (R-215A) and an east area (R-215B); modify the designated altitudes and time of use, and change the controlling agency.

Restricted Area (R-215) is presently designated from the surface to 26,000 feet MSL; time of use continuous, and the controlling agency, the Commanding General, Fort Chaffee, Ark. A joint Federal Aviation Agency, Department of the Army study of the activities currently conducted in this area indicated that certain modifications in the description and time of use of the area are feasible and would promote the more efficient utilization of airspace. The area, when restricted, will be utilized by reserve components of the Department of the Army for training purposes. Small arms firing to include pistols, rifles, machine guns, mortars and rocket launchers will be conducted in the west segment of the area (R-215A). Firing of heavy field artillery, to include 8-inch howitzers, will be conducted in the east portion of the area (R-215B). These activities will be confined to the summer months and to Saturdays and Sundays for the balance of the year.

Restricted Area (R-215A) will include the section of existing Restricted Area (R-215) which lies west of Arkansas State Highway 96 and will be designated as Surface to 6,000 feet MSL. The time of designation shall be 0500 to 2200 local time, Monday through Saturday, July 1 through August 31; and 0500 to 1800 local time, Saturday and Sunday, September 1 through June 30.

Restricted Area (R-215B) will consist of that section of existing Restricted Area (R-215) which lies east of State Highway 96 and will be designated as Surface to 26,000 feet MSL. The time of designation shall be 0500 to 2200 local time, Monday through Saturday, July 1 through August 31; and 0500 to 1800 local time, Saturday and Sunday, September 1 through June 30. The controlling agency of both areas shall be the Federal Aviation Agency. The Department of the Army concurs that these modified areas will adequately meet their current requirements.

Since this amendment reduces a burden on the public, compliance with the notice, public procedure, and effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary.

In consideration of the foregoing, the following action is taken:

1. Section 608.13 Arkansas (23 F.R. 8576; 24 F.R. 2233) is amended as follows:

(b) Fort Chaffee, Arkansas, Restricted Area (R-215A) (Little Rock Chart) is added to read:

Description by geographical coordinates.

(c) Fort Chaffee, Arkansas, Restricted Area (R-215B) (Little Rock Chart) is added to read:

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

Modification and Revocation

On September 19, 1959, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (24 F.R. 7585) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was proposing an amendment to § 608.14 of the regulations of the Administrator, which would modify the following restricted areas in the State of California: Complex (R-484), Camp Irwin (R-276), Cuddeback Dry Lake (R-447), Trona (R-277), Muroc Lake (R-279), Saline Valley (R-485), all located within Complex R-484 and Bullion Mountains (R-344).

As stated in the notice, the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to combine the Saline Valley Restricted Area (R-485) with Complex Restricted Area (R-484) within which it is presently encompassed. Although the notice proposed to enlarge the combined geographical area, such action is not now being taken for reasons contained herein.

The Camp Irwin (R-276), Cuddeback Dry Lake (R-447), Trona (R-277), and the Muroc Lake (R-279) restricted areas, all contained within Complex (R-484) were proposed to be combined as the Muroc Lake, Calif., Restricted Area (R-279). The geographical area encompassed by this proposed modification would not change.

The Bullion Mountains Restricted Area (R-344) was to be modified by revoking the portion in the northwest corner of the restricted area which overlies VOR Federal airways Nos. 8, 21, 1518, and 1520, thereby relieving these airways from present altitude restriction.

A public hearing was held October 29, 1959, at the Mission Inn Hotel, Riverside, Calif., at which time all interested persons were given an opportunity to submit views or arguments, in writing or orally concerning the proposal.

As a result of the hearing, certain positions have been brought to the attention of the Federal Aviation Agency. The Department of Defense states that no requirement exists at this time for the expansion of Complex (R-484) to the north and west as proposed. Further, the consolidation of these restricted areas and redesignation as two separate restricted areas is not practical from a users standpoint because of the many differing agencies within the Department of Defense and the various segments of the aviation industry using the areas for flight test purposes. They also requested that the modification of the southwest corner of Complex (R-484) be held in abeyance pending further study of its effect on the Palmdale, Calif., terminal area. The Federal Aviation Agency does not consider the designation of a restricted area for the purpose of protecting terminal military traffic justified since this is not the purpose for which restricted areas are intended.

The Aerospace Industries Association concurred with the Department of Defense comments.

The California Aeronautics Commission, California Association of Airports and the County of San Bernardino, Calif., concurred in the proposal provided no lower altitude restrictions were placed on Complex (R-484). They also recommended that the Federal Aviation Agency be designated the controlling agency of Complex (R-484) and all restricted areas contained within the Complex as well as R-344. Mr. Robert C. Davis, owner and operator of the Ridgecrest-Davis Airport, Ridgecrest, Calif., concurred in the proposal.

In so far as the actions proposed in 59-WA-174 are concerned, Mr. Albert J. Huber, Aviation Director, Kern County, Calif., concurred in the combining of R-279 and Complex (R-484) and recommended a central controlling agency be designated for the entire complex.

As a result of the hearing and all other available data, the Federal Aviation Agency is taking the following action: Complex (R-484), external boundary of R-484 and area to remain as presently designated with the exception of the southwest corner, and that will be designated along the following coordinates from latitude 34°56'00" N., longitude 118°21'00" W., to latitude 35°15'00" N., longitude 118°35'00" W. Bullion Mountains Restricted Area (R-344), boundary to remain as presently designated with the exception of the northwest corner and that will be designated along coordinates latitude 34°30'00" N., longitude 116°26'30" W., to latitude 34°40'30" N., longitude 116°29'40" W., to latitude 34°43'00" N., longitude 116°26'20" W. The above boundary redesignations will reduce to a slight extent the size of restricted areas R-344 and Complex (R-484) thereby providing additional airspace that will permit airway widths in the area to meet the minimum criteria. Saline Valley Restricted Area (R-485), located within the geographical boundaries of Complex Restricted Area (R-484) is being revoked because the report required by Special Airspace Regulation No. 1 (24 F.R. 5898) did not indicate sufficient utilization or justification for its continued separate designation. However, as pointed out in the Notice, R-485 was under joint use and, thus, there remains justification for the retention of the area within the confines of R-484. The remaining restricted areas will remain as presently designated with the exception of the controlling agency for Complex (R-484), including the restricted areas therein, and R-344 which are changed to the Federal Aviation Agency.

No other comments were received concerning the proposed amendments.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rules herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, the following action is taken:

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

Designation of Restricted Area/ Military Climb Corridor

On December 5, 1959, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (24 F.R. 9792) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was considering an amendment to § 608.14 of the regulations of the Administrator which would designate a Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor at George Air Force Base, Victorville, Calif.

As stated in the notice, the military climb corridor, designated as a restricted area, would confine high speed, high rate-of-climb Century series aircraft departing from the airbase on active air defense missions within a relatively small area. The restricted area would provide protection for these aircraft and other users of the airspace during the climb phase of the air defense mission.

The notice described the proposed Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor as being centered on the 250° True radial of the George Air Force Base TVOR, extending from 5 statute miles west of the airbase to 30 statute miles west of the airbase expanding uniformly from a width of 2 statute miles at the beginning to 4.6 statute miles at the outer extremity. The lower altitude limits would extend in graduated steps from 4,900 feet MSL to 21,900 feet MSL. The upper altitude limits would extend in graduated steps from 17,900 feet MSL to 27,000 feet MSL. The time of use would be continuous, and the controlling agency would be George Air Force Base Approach Control. The controlling agency of a Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor will authorize aircraft to operate within and through the area when it is not in use.

Comments objecting to the designation of this Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor were submitted by sailplane soaring associations and organizations and from the owner of the El Mirage Field. The El Mirage Field is a small field approximately 12 miles west of George AFB which functions primarily as a base serving sailplane and soaring activities. Mr. William G. Briegleb, owner of El Mirage states that the corridor will seriously affect flying in the area and curtail activities at his field. Mr. Briegleb questions the necessity for the low floor of the corridor, or for the designation of a corridor at all. Other comments from interested groups and organizations state and contend: that while the purpose and safety feature of a military climb corridor is recognized, objection is made regarding the location and configuration of this corridor; that sailplanes do not have sufficient radio equipment to obtain clearance through such a restricted area when it is not in use; that the floor of the proposed corridor is unnecessarily low in its first stages; that if a corridor must be used, it should be centered on a radial of the George AFB TVOR between 200° and 220° True; that the corridor will seriously hinder sailplane activity at El Mirage Field; that such restrictions to civil aviation "far outnumber and outweigh the military benefits", and that the corridor would conflict with El Mirage Field, Hansen Airport and Federal airways Green 4, Blue 14, and Victor 12, Victor 137 and Victor 201. These comments, received from the Soaring Society of America, Inc.; the Southern California Soaring Association, Inc.; the Antelope Valley Soaring Club, and the California Aeronautics Commission, all reflect concern over the adverse effects the corridor will have on soaring activities at El Mirage Field.

Similar written objections to the corridor, though not received in response to the Notice, but resulting from the original proposal as presented before the Regional Airspace Subcommittee of the Air Coordinating Committee, have also been given careful consideration.

The Federal Aviation Agency fully appreciates its responsibilities in serving all aviation interests and will continue to exert every effort toward the equitable and efficient allocation of airspace consistent with safety and military defense requirements. In this instance, an Air Defense committment exists at George AFB, and increased safety to all users of surrounding airspace dictates the designation of a restricted area/military climb corridor. George AFB is situated in a complex area surrounded by Federal airways. Designating the corridor to the west from George AFB will cause conflict with segments of Federal airways Blue 14 and Victor 137, and may result in a proposal to revoke these segments. However, these are the least used of the surrounding airway segments that would otherwise be affected. Also, it is necessary to as closely as practicable approximate the scramble runway heading in designating a climb corridor. In order to alleviate the impact of the climb corridor on the soaring activities at El Mirage Field, the corridor is designated on the 242° True radial of the George AFB TVOR rather than the 250° True radial as proposed in the notice. This aligns the corridor as far south and away from El Mirage as possible without conflicting with heavily traveled Federal airways Victor 210 and Victor 8 north. Centered on this radial, the corridor will not conflict with Federal airways Green 4, Victor 12 or Victor 201, nor with the Hansen Airport. To further relieve, to all extent possible, the restrictive effect on local soaring activities, the floor of the corridor is modified herein in the stages between 7 and 15 statute miles from the airbase, with the exception of the 10-mile stage, by redefining the length of the stages and by raising the floor from that proposed in the Notice in the 7 through 9 and the 11 through 14-mile stages. This will result in the floor of the corridor being 4,900 feet MSL from 5 statute to 7 statute miles from the airbase; 5,900 feet MSL from 7 to 8 statute miles; 6,900 feet MSL from 8 to 9 statute miles; 7,900 feet MSL from 9 to 10 statute miles; 8,900 feet MSL from 10 to 11 statute miles; 9,900 feet MSL from 11 to 12 statute miles; 10,900 feet MSL from 12 to 13 statute miles; and 11,900 feet MSL from 13 to 15 statute miles, rather than the standard floor of 4,900 feet MSL from 5 to 10 statute miles from the airbase and 8,900 feet MSL from 10 to 15 statute miles as proposed in the Notice. The Department of the Air Force has concurred in these modifications of the proposal. It is true that to allow aircraft to transit the restricted area when it is not in use, the controlling agency must have two-way radio contact with such aircraft to exercise this controlling authority. However, in modifying the alignment and the floor of the corridor, additional airspace has been provided which soaring aircraft may traverse without entering the corridor and obtaining the necessary clearance to do so.

The notice stated that the controlling agency of the climb corridor would be the George Air Force Base Approach Control. Subsequent to publication of the notice, the Palmdale Approach Control was commissioned and is providing approach control service for George AFB. Accordingly, Palmdale Approach Control is designated as the controlling agency.

No other adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendment.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, the following action is taken:

In § 608.14 California, (25 F.R. 8576) add the following:

Victorville, Calif., (George AFB) Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor (R–576) (Los Angeles Chart).

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

Modification

The purpose of this amendment to § 608.22 of the regulations of the Administrator is to change the time of designation of the Camp Atterbury, Ind., Restricted Area (R–65) (Cincinnati Chart) from "Continuous" to "Sunrise to sunset."

Activities conducted in Restricted Area (R–65) consist of artillery firing, bombing, air-to-ground firing and aerial gunnery. The Department of the Army has requested that the time of designation for this restricted area be changed from "Continuous" to "Sunrise to sunset".

Since this amendment reduces a burden on the public, compliance with the notice, public procedure and effective date requirements of Section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary and it may be made effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, the following action is taken:

In § 608.22, the Camp Atterbury, Ind., Restricted Area (R–65) (Cincinnati Chart) (23 F.R. 8580, 24 F.R. 2233, 3875, 7982) is amended by deleting "Continuous." and substituting therefor "Sunrise to sunset."

This amendment shall become effective upon the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

Designation of Restricted Area/ Military Climb Corridor

On November 24, 1959, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (24 F.R. 9431) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was considering an amendment to § 608.27 of the regulations of the Administrator which would designate a Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor at Loring Air Force Base, Limestone, Maine.

As stated in the notice, the Military Climb Corridor, designated as a Restricted Area, will confine the high-speed, high rate-of-climb Century series air defense aircraft, departing from the base on active air defense missions, within a relatively small area. The Restricted Area will provide protection for high speed air defense aircraft and other users of the airspace during the climb phase of the air defense aircraft mission. A portion of this Military Climb Corridor will extend into Canada. The Department of Transport of the Canadian Government has no objection to the extension of this Military Climb Corridor into the Province of New Brunswick, and agrees to designate the Canadian portion as Restricted Airspace. The overall dimensions of the proposed Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor, including the Canadian and United States portions will be as follows:

That area centered on the 353° True radial of the Loring AFB TACAN from 5 statute miles north of the airbase to 32 statute miles north of the airbase, 2 statute miles wide at the beginning and uniformly expanding to a width of 4.6 statute miles at the outer extremity. The lower altitude limits in graduated steps will extend from 2,750 feet MSL to 19,750 feet MSL. The upper altitude limits will extend from 15,750 feet MSL to 27,000 feet MSL. Time of use will be continuous. The controlling agency will be the Loring AFB Approach Control. The controlling agency will authorize aircraft to operate within the Climb Corridor when not in use by active air defense aircraft.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendment. However, the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association/National Aviation Trades Association Airspace Representative requested that consideration be given to raising the floor of the corridor in the areas from 6 to 7 and 7 to 10 statute miles from the airbase. The Federal Aviation Agency has coordinated this recommendation with the Department of the Air Force. The Air Force has indicated a requirement to maintain the present configuration of the climb corridors due to aircraft operating characteristics.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, the following action is taken:

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

Modification

The purpose of this amendment to § 608.29 of the regulations of the Administrator is to change the designated altitudes of the Camp Edwards, Mass., Restricted Area (R–14) (Boston Chart) from "surface to 26,000 feet" to "surface to 13,000 feet MSL".

Activities within R–14 consists of 105 mm and 155 mm howitzer firing. The Department of the Army no longer has a requirement for the airspace above 13,000 feet MSL within this restricted area and has concurred in the action to reduce the upper limit of Restricted Area (R–14) to 13,000 feet MSL.

Since this amendment reduces a burden on the public, compliance with the notice, public procedure, and effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary and it may be made effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, the following action is taken:

In § 608.29 the Camp Edwards, Mass., Restricted Area (R–14) (Boston Chart) (23 F.R. 8582) is amended by deleting "Surface to 26,000 feet." and substituting therefor "Surface to 13,000 feet MSL."

This amendment shall become effective upon the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

Modification of Restricted Area/ Military Climb Corridor

On November 11, 1959, a notice of proposed rule-making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (24 F.R. 9212) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was considering an amendment to § 608.38 of the regulations of the Administrator which would modify the upper altitude limits of the Wrightstown (McGuire AFB), N.J., Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor (R–539).

As stated in the notice, the present McGuire AFB climb corridor extends from a point 5 statute miles southwest of the airbase on the 226° True radial of the McGuire TVOR to a point 32 statute miles southwest of the airbase. The lower altitude limits extend in graduated steps from 2,100 feet MSL to 19,100 feet MSL. The upper altitude limits extend from 10,100 feet MSL to 27,000 feet MSL. The upper altitude limits of the present climb corridor will not contain later models of the Century series aircraft due to the ability of the aircraft to reach high speed and high rate of climb in a short time after takeoff. Accordingly, to provide protection for the air defense Century series aircraft and other aircraft operating in the vicinity of the airbase, the Federal Aviation Agency is raising the upper altitude limits of the climb corridor. This action will result in the upper altitude limits of the McGuire AFB climb corridor extending from 15,100 feet MSL to 27,000 feet MSL.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendment. However, the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association/National Aviation Trades Association Airspace Representative requested that consideration be given to raising the floor of the corridor in the steps from 6 to 7 and 7 to 10 statute miles from the airbase. The Federal Aviation Agency has coordinated this recommendation with the Department of the Air Force. The Air Force has indicated a requirement to maintain the present configuration of the climb corridors due to aircraft operating characteristics.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

Modification

The purpose of this amendment to § 608.57 of the regulations of the Administrator is to change the time of designation of the Volk Field, Wis., Restricted Area (R-468) (Twin Cities and Green Bay Charts) from "day and night" to "sunrise to sunset, June 1 to August 31, and on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, September 1 through May 31, excepting January and February," and the designated altitude from "12,000 feet" to "surface to 12,000 feet MSL".

The U.S. Air Force has advised that Air National Guard units conducting air-to-ground gunnery in Restricted Area (R-468) no longer have a requirement for the area, other than as specified above, and has concurred in the action to reduce the time of use.

Since this amendment reduces a burden on the public, compliance with the notice, public procedure and effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary and it may be made effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, the following action is taken:

In § 608.57 the Volk Field, Wis., Restricted Area (R-468) (Twin Cities and Green Bay Charts) (23 F.R. 8590, 24 F.R. 7637) is amended as follows: In the text delete "Designated altitudes. Surface to 12,000 feet MSL. Time of designation. Sunrise to sunset, June 1 to August 31, annually, and on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, September 1 through May 31, annually, excepting January and February."

In the Matter of Alvin M. Hayim, and Ella M. Hayim, Individually and as Copartners Doing Business as Hayim & Company

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging New York City distributors of rugs and floor coverings, many of them of foreign origin, with representing falsely on attached labels, invoices, price lists, etc., that they manufactured their products; that certain mixed fiber rugs were composed entirely of wool and that others were predominantly of wool; and that some branded with American place names, were made in the United States.

Following acceptance of a consent agreement, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on May 12 the decision of the Commission.

Said order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Alvin M. Hayim and Ella M. Hayim, as individuals or as copartners trading and doing business as Hayim & Company, or under any other trade name, and respondents' agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of rugs or floor coverings or any other textile product in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing, directly or indirectly, through the use of the word "manufacturer" or by any other means that respondents own, operate or control the manufacturing plant or facilities in which the aforesaid products are made in whole or in part, unless such shall be the fact;

2. Using the terms "wool" or "all wool" or any other word or term indicative of wool, to designate or describe any product or portion thereof which is not composed wholly of wool, the fiber from the fleece of the sheep or lamb, or hair of the Angora or Cashmere Goat, or hair of the camel, alpaca, llama or vicuna, which has never been reclaimed from any woven or felted product; provided, that in the case of products or portions thereof which are composed in substantial part of wool and in part of other fibers or materials, the term "wool" may be used as descriptive of the wool content of the product or portion thereof if there are used in immediate connection or conjunction therewith, in letters of at least equal size and conspicuousness, words truthfully designated each constituent fiber or material thereof in the order of its predominance by weight; provided further, that if any fiber or material so designated is not present in a substantial quantity, the percentage thereof shall be stated. Nothing herein shall prohibit the use of the terms "reprocessed wool" or "reused wool" when the products or those portions thereof referred to are composed of such fibers;

3. Using the words "Southhampton", "Bar Harbor", "Northhampton", "Miami Shores", "Palm Beach", or "Pinehurst", or any other distinctively American name in advertising or in labeling to designate or describe the aforesaid products which are not in fact made in the United States, or using any other word or term in advertising or in labeling as descriptive of the aforesaid products which represents, directly or indirectly, that said products are made in a country other than the one in which they are in fact made, without clearly and conspicuously revealing in immediate connection with each of the aforesaid names, words or terms, the actual country of origin of such products: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall relieve the respondents from their obligation to comply with the requirements of the Textile Fiber Products Identification Act after the effective date thereof or forbid the respondents thereafter from labeling and otherwise offering products subject to that Act in the manner prescribed thereby and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder by the Commission.

The terms "reprocessed wool" and "reused wool", as herein used, are to be defined as in section 2(c) and section 2(d) of the Wool Products Labeling Act.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Alvin M. Hayim and Ella M. Hayim, individually and as copartners doing business as Hayim & Company, shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

In the Matter of Joseph Zable, an Individual Trading as J. I. Zable Fur Co. and Joseph Zable Furs

The complaint in this case charged a Dallas, Tex., furrier with violating the Fur Products Labeling Act by labeling and invoicing fur products falsely with respect to the animal producing the fur; by advertising in newspapers which failed to disclose the names of animals producing the fur contained in fur products, represented sale prices as reduced from regular prices which were in fact fictitious, and used earlier comparative prices without designating the time they were in effect; by failing to maintain adequate records as a basis for said pricing claims; and by failing in other respects to comply with requirements of the Act.

Accepting a consent agreement, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on May 12 the decision of the Commission.

Said order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That Joseph Zable, an individual trading as J. I. Zable Fur Co. and Joseph Zable Furs, or under any other name, and respondent's representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the introduction into commerce, or the sale, advertising, or offering for sale in commerce of fur products, or in connection with the sale, advertising, offering for sale, transportation, or distribution of fur products which are made in whole or in part of fur which has been shipped and received in commerce, as "commerce", "fur" and "fur product" are defined in the Fur Products Labeling Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Misbranding fur products by:

A. Failing to affix labels to fur products showing in words and figures plainly legible all of the information required to be disclosed by each of the subsections of section 4(2) of the Fur Products Labeling Act.

B. Falsely or deceptively labeling or otherwise identifying any such products as to the name or names of the animal or animals that produce the fur from which such products were manufactured.

C. Setting forth on labels affixed to fur products:

(1) Information required under section 4(2) of the Fur Products Labeling Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder in abbreviated form.

(2) Information required under section 4(2) of the Fur Products Labeling Act and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder mingled with nonrequired information.

2. Falsely and deceptively invoicing fur products by:

A. Failing to furnish to purchasers of fur products an invoice showing all the information required to be disclosed by each of the subsections of section 5(b)(1) of the Fur Products Labeling Act.

B. Setting forth on invoices pertaining to fur products the name or names of animals other than the name or names provided for in section 5(b)(1) of the Fur Products Labeling Act.

3. Falsely or deceptively advertising fur products through the use of any advertisement, representation, public announcement, or notice which is intended to aid, promote or assist, directly or indirectly, in the sale or offering for sale of fur products and which:

A. Fails to disclose the name or names of the animal or animals producing the fur or furs in the fur product as set forth in the Fur Products Name Guide and as prescribed in the rules and regulations.

B. Represents, directly or by implication, that the respondent's usual or regular price of any fur product is any amount in excess of the price at which the respondent has usually or customarily sold the product in the recent regular course of business.

C. Setting forth former prices without designating the time of such former prices.

4. Misrepresenting in any manner the savings available to purchasers of respondent's fur products.

5. Making claims or representations in advertisements respecting prices or values of fur products unless respondent maintains full and adequate records disclosing the facts upon which such claims and representations are based.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondent herein shall within sixty (60) days after service upon him of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with the order to cease and desist.

Title 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

Chapter I—Coast Guard, Department of the Treasury

SUBCHAPTER A—GENERAL

[CGFR 60-40]

PART 47—PAYMENT OF COUNSEL FEES AND OTHER EXPENSES IN FOREIGN COURTS

By virtue of the authority contained in the Act of September 2, 1958 (72 Stat. 1445), Title 10, U.S.C. 1037, the following regulations in a new part are prescribed and read as follows:

Sec.
47.01 Policy.
47.02 Purpose.
47.05 Statutory authority.
47.08 Responsibility.
47.10 Criteria for the provision of counsel and payment of expenses in criminal cases.
47.11 Provision of bail in criminal cases.
47.12 Criteria for the furnishing of counsel and payment of expenses in civil cases.
47.15 Procedures for hiring of counsel and payment of expenses.
47.17 Payment of counsel fees and other expenses.
47.20 Reimbursement.

AUTHORITY: §§ 47.01 to 47.20 issued under 72 Stat. 1445; 10 U.S.C. 1037.

§ 47.01 Policy.

It is the policy of the Department of the Treasury to protect, to the maximum extent possible, the rights of United States Coast Guard personnel who may be subject to trial by foreign courts and imprisonment in foreign prisons.

§ 47.02 Purpose.

The regulations in this part establish criteria and assign responsibility for the provision of counsel, for the provision of bail, and for the payment of court costs and other necesary and reasonable expenses incident to representation in civil and criminal proceedings, including appellate proceedings, before foreign courts and foreign administrative agencies, which involve any persons subject to the court-martial jurisdiction of the United States Coast Guard. Payment of fines is not authorized hereunder.

§ 47.05 Statutory authority.

(a) Under regulations to be prescribed by him, the Secretary concerned may employ counsel, and pay counsel fees, court costs, bail, and other expenses incident to the representation, before the judicial tribunals and administrative agencies of any foreign nation, of persons subject to the Uniform Code of Military Justice. So far as practicable, these regulations shall be uniform for all armed forces.

(b) The person on whose behalf a payment is made under this section is not liable to reimburse the United States for that payment, unless he is responsible for forfeiture of bail provided under subsection (a).

(c) Appropriations available to the military department concerned or the Department of the Treasury, as the case may be, for the pay of persons under its jurisdiction may be used to carry out this section. Act of September 2, 1958 (72 Stat. 1445) Title 10, U.S.C. 1037.

§ 47.06 Responsibility.

(a) Requests for provision of counsel, provision of bail or payment of expenses will ordinarily be made by the defendant accused or cited in a foreign court or agency through channels appropriate under the circumstances to the officer exercising general court-martial jurisdiction over him. This officer will determine whether the request meets the criteria prescribed in this part and based upon such determination will take final action to approve or disapprove the request.

(b) In the interest of obtaining prompt and effective legal service, the Commandant may designate as approval authority, instead of the officer exercising general court-martial jurisdiction, any subordinate U.S. Coast Guard officer having area responsibility in a particular country for all U.S. Coast Guard personnel subject to foreign criminal jurisdiction.

§ 47.10 Criteria for the provision of counsel and payment of expenses in criminal cases.

Requests for the provision of counsel and payment of expenses in criminal cases may be granted in both trial and appellate proceedings in any one of the following criminal cases:

(a) Where the act complained of occurred in the performance of official duty; or

(b) Where the sentence which is normally imposed includes confinement in excess of six months, whether or not such sentence is suspended; or

(c) Where capital punishment might be imposed; or

(d) Where an appeal is made from any proceeding in which there appears to have been a denial of the substantial rights of the accused; or

(e) Where the case, although not within the criteria established in paragraph (a), (b), (c), or (d), of this section, is considered to have significant impact upon the relations of United States forces with the host country, or the case is considered to involve a particular United States interest.

§ 47.11 Provision of bail in criminal cases.

(a) Funds for the posting of bail or bond to secure the release of personnel from confinement by foreign authorities before, during, or after trial may be furnished in all criminal cases. Safeguards should be imposed to assure that at the conclusion of the proceedings or on the appearance of the defendant in court the bail or bond will be refunded to the military authorities.

(b) Bail will be provided only to guarantee the presence of the defendant and will not be provided to guarantee the payment of fines or civil damages. It is contemplated that provision of bail will be made, in any case, only after other reasonable efforts have been made to secure release of pretrial custody to the United States by other normal methods.

§ 47.12 Criteria for the furnishing of counsel and payment of expenses in civil cases.

(a) Request for provision of counsel and payment of expenses in civil cases may be granted in both trial and appellate proceedings in either of the following cases:

(1) Where the act complained of occurred in the performance of official duty; or

(2) Where the case is considered to have a significant impact upon the relations of United States forces with the host country, or the case is considered to involve a particular United States interest.

(b) No funds shall be provided under these regulations in cases where the United States of America is in legal effect the defendant without prior authorization of the Commandant.

§ 47.15 Procedures for hiring of counsel and payment of expenses.

(a) The selection of individual trial or appellate counsel shall be made by or with the approval of the defendant. Such counsel shall represent the individual defendant and not the Government of the United States. Selection will be from approved lists of attorneys. These lists will normally be co-ordinated with the local bar association, if any, and the appropriate diplomatic mission of the United States. In any event, these lists will be composed only of attorneys who are qualified and admitted for full practice, on their own account, before the courts of the foreign country involved. Counsel fees and expenses should conform to amounts paid under similar circumstances by nationals of the foreign country where the trial is held. When appropriate and reasonable in the case, the payment of expenses, in addition to counsel fees, may include court costs, bail costs, charges for obtaining copies of records, printing and filing, interpreter fees, witness fees and other necessary and reasonable expenses. Expenses will not include the payment of fines or civil damages, directly or indirectly.

(b) Whenever possible a written contract between the selected counsel and the officer responsible under § 47.08 or his designee acting on behalf of the United States of America, shall be entered into. The contract shall cover counsel fees, and, when appropriate other costs, arising in defense of the entire case in the court of the first instance. In the event the case is appealed to higher tribunals, supplemental agreements shall be executed for each appeal. A copy of the contractual agreement shall serve as the obligating document. This contract shall be written so as not to establish an employer-employee relationship between the selected counsel and the Government of the United States.

(c) If, because of local conditions or customs, it is not practicable to enter into a formal contractual arrangement, a letter of understanding shall be executed between the officer responsible under § 47.08 or his designee and the selected counsel. There should be a mutual understanding that the counsel fees and other expenses arising in defense of the case, which will be paid by the U.S. Coast Guard, shall conform to amounts paid by nationals of the foreign country under similar circumstances.

(d) The provision of counsel and payment of expenses under these regulations in this part is not subject to the provisions of the Comptroller Manual, U.S. Coast Guard. However, the contract clauses set forth in Part 5, section VII, Armed Services Procurement Regulations may be used as a guide in contracting.

(e) In consideration of the desirability of timely procedural action, a legal officer on the staff of the officer responsible under § 47.08 may be designated contracting officer with contracting authority limited to agreements described in this section. The effect of this designation would be to combine within one office the duties of contracting officer and legal officer.

§ 47.17 Payment of counsel fees and other expenses.

Payment of bills submitted by the selected counsel and other costs shall be made upon acceptance of services procured under the regulations in this part when approved by the officer responsible under § 47.08 or his designee. Payments of bail may be made when authorized by such officers.

§ 47.20 Reimbursement.

No reimbursement shall ordinarily be required from defendants with respect to payments made in their behalf under the regulations in this part. However, all payments made in behalf of a defendant who willfully causes forfeiture of bail provided on his behalf under these regulations shall constitute a debt owed to the United States. Prior to the posting of bail on the behalf of a defendant, a signed agreement will be secured from the defendant wherein he agrees to remit the amount of such bail or permit the application of so much of his pay as may be necessary to reimburse the government in the event he willfully causes forfeiture of bail. Such agreement should be made with the understanding that it does not prejudice his right of appeal to the Comptroller General and the courts of adjudication after such payment or deduction has been made if he considers the amount thereof to be erroneous.

Dated: June 17, 1960.

[SEAL] A. GILMORE FLUES,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

PART 151—CUSTOMS

Importing Regulations

The regulations of the Post Office Department in Part 151—Customs—as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of February 9, 1960, at pages 1095–1126, as Federal Register document 60–1246, are amended as follows:

§ 151.5 [Amendment]

I. In § 151.5 Treatment at delivery office, make the following changes as a result of new instructions covering (1) the preparation of Forms 2932, Register of Customs Collections; and (2) the processing of inquiries and adjustments on mail entries, Customs Forms 3419, Entry of Merchandise Imported Through the Mails.

A. In paragraph (e) make the following changes:

1. Amend subparagraph (1) by deleting the word "daily" which precedes "record" in the first sentence therein; and by inserting "(See subparagraph (5) of this paragraph)" immediately following the next to last sentence which applies to the scheduled reporting periods of post offices with annual receipts of $1 million and more.

NOTE: The corresponding Postal Manual section is 261.551.

2. In subparagraph (2) make the following changes:

a. In the introductory sentence, which precedes subdivision (i), strike out "quadruplicate" and insert in lieu thereof "triplicate."

b. In clause (a) of subdivision (ii), delete the last sentence which reads: "Record collections daily."

NOTE: The corresponding Postal Manual sections are 261.552 and 261.552b(1).

3. Amend subparagraphs (3) and (4) and insert a new subparagraph (5) to read as follows:

(3) Distribute Forms 2932 copies as follows: Original (white) to regional controller; second (pink) to applicable collector of Customs. Retain copy in preparing office for reference purposes. File the original copies of Customs Forms 3419.

(4) Mail Forms 2932 promptly to regional Controller separately from State-

(5) Postmasters at offices with annual receipts of $1 million and more (except New York City) will not post Customs Forms 3419 to Form 2932 daily. These offices will balance the total amount collected on Customs Forms 3419 daily with the amount reported for Customs collections on Form 1412, Daily Cash Report, and file the Customs Forms 3419 separately by customs port of entry until the end of the weekly reporting period. Then assemble the forms in ascending serial number order for each customs port of entry and enter them promptly on Forms 2932 for appropriate ports of entry in that order. All other offices will record collections on Forms 2932 daily.

NOTE: The corresponding Postal Manual sections are 261.553, 261.554, and 261.555.

B. In paragraph (f) the second sentence of subparagraph (2) is amended by striking out "postmaster" where it appears immediately following the first reference to "Form 3423," and inserting in lieu thereof: "the main office window unit."

NOTE: The corresponding Postal Manual section is 261.562.

(R.S. 161, as amended, 396, as amended, 398, as amended; 5 U.S.C. 22, 369, 372)

II. Add a new § 151.6 Unidentified items and discrepancies to provide for the use of Customs Forms 3427, Notice to Postmaster of Unidentified Mail Entries, for inquiries from collectors of customs on unidentified items, and Customs Forms 3429, for adjustment of differences between amounts assessed by collectors of customs and amounts collected by postmasters. As so added, § 151.6 reads as follows:

§ 151.6 Unidentified items and discrepancies.

(a) Unidentified mail entries. When a collector of customs is unable to identify a mail entry reported by a postmaster on Form 2932, Register of Customs Collections (RS–FI–35), the collector will forward the postmaster an inquiry on Customs Form 3427, Notice to Postmaster of Unidentified Mail Entries, in duplicate. Postmaster will review the original copy of Customs Forms 3419 and the file copy of the related Form 2932 and enter the correct customs district and post number and mail entry serial number on both copies of Customs Form 3427 in the spaces provided at the bottom of the form. Return the original copy of Customs Form 3427 to the port of entry from which received. File the duplicate copy with the related Form 2932.

(b) Discrepancy in amount collected. When a collector of customs finds a difference between amount reported by postmasters and the amounts shown on the related file copy of a Customs Form 3419, the collector will forward the postmaster an inquiry on Customs Form 3429 in triplicate. On receipt of Customs Form 3429, fill in correct district and port of entry number and mail entry number on face of form. Review the original copy of Customs Form 3419 and the related file copy of Form 2932 to determine the amount of adjustment. Enter the adjustment data in spaces provided on the back of Customs Form 3429 as follows:

(1) Complete blocks a through e on all three copies of Customs Form 3429 by copying the information in the same order from file copy of Form 2932. Omit block f.

(2) Enter in appropriate spaces the item number and serial number as shown on file copy of Form 2932. Enter the amount of the item as previously reported, the correct amount, and the difference, either plus or minus, in block g.

(3) At the bottom of the form enter the net amount of adjustment (same as block g), signature of preparing employee, and date of preparation.

NOTE: Amounts of adjustments on Customs Form 3429 will not be entered on Statement of Account.

(4) Mail original copy to regional controller, duplicate to collector of customs from which the form was received and file the triplicate copy with the related file copy of Form 2932.

(5) When review of Customs Form 3419 and Form 2932 shows that the item was originally reported in the correct amount, forward the original copy of Customs Form 3419 with the original and duplicate copies of Customs Form 3429 to regional controller. After review, Customs Form 3419 will be returned to the postmaster by the regional controller.

NOTE: The corresponding Postal Manual section is 261.6.

FEDERAL AVIATION AGENCY

[14 CFR Parts 600, 601]

[Airspace Docket No. 60-NY-47]

FEDERAL AIRWAYS AND CONTROL AREAS

Revocation of Segment

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 600.219, 601.219, 601.4219 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

Red Federal airway No. 19 extends in part from the intersection of the southeast course of the Front Royal, Va., radio range and the west course of the Quantico, Va. (MCAS), radio range to the Quantico (MCAS), radio range station, excluding the portion more than 1 mile north of the west course of the Quantico (MCAS), radio range.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration revocation of this airway segment. The Federal Aviation Agency IFR peak-day airway traffic survey for periods July 1, 1958, through December 31, 1958, and from January 1, 1959, through June 30, 1959, shows eleven and two aircraft movements respectively for this segment of Red 19. On the basis of the survey and the reduced width of this airway which restricts optimum use of this segment for air traffic management due to the close proximity of the Quantico Restricted Area (R-37), it appears that the retention of this airway segment and its associated control areas is unjustified as an assignment of airspace and that the revocation thereof would be in the public interest. Concurrently with this action, it is proposed to amend the caption to § 601.4219 relating to the associated reporting points on Red 19.

If these actions are taken, the segment of Red Federal airway No. 19 and its associated control areas from the intersection of the southeast course of the Front Royal, Va., radio range and the west course of the Quantico, Va. (MCAS), radio range to the Quantico (MCAS) radio range station would be revoked. The caption to § 601.4219 would be amended to conform to the modified airway.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 17, 1960.

Acting Director, Bureau of Air Traffic Management.

FEDERAL AIRWAYS AND CONTROL AREAS

Revocation of Segment

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to §§ 600.621, 601.621 and 601.4621 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

Blue Federal airway No. 21 extends in part from the intersection of the south course of the Harrisburg, Pa., radio range and the west course of the Baltimore, Md., radio range to the intersection of the north course of the Williamsport, Pa., radio range and the southwest course of the Elmira, N.Y., radio range.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration revocation of this segment of Blue 21. The Federal Aviation Agency IFR peak-day airway traffic survey for the period January 1, 1959, through December 31, 1959, showed less than ten aircraft movements for this segment of Blue 21. On the basis of the survey it appears that the retention of this airway segment and its associated control areas as an assignment of airspace is unjustified and that the revocation thereof would be in the public interest. Concurrently with this action, the Federal Aviation Agency would modify the caption to § 601.4621 which relates to the reporting points associated with Blue 21.

If this action is taken, the segment of Blue Federal airway No. 21 from the intersection of the south course of the Harrisburg, Pa., radio range and the west course of the Baltimore, Md., radio range to the intersection of the north course of the Williamsport, Pa., radio range and the southwest course of the Elmira, N.Y., radio range, and its associated control areas would be revoked. The caption to § 601.4621 relating to Blue 21 reporting points would be amended to conform to the modified airway.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROL AREAS AND REPORTING POINTS

Revocation of Segment

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to §§ 600.245, 601.245 and 601.4245 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

Red Federal airway No. 45 extends in part from Riverdale, Md., to the intersection of the north course of the Baltimore radio range and the southwest course of the Allentown, Pa., radio range. The Federal Aviation Agency IFR peak-day airway traffic survey for the period July 1, 1958, through June 30, 1959, showed less than eight aircraft movements for this segment of Red 45. On the basis of this survey, it appears that the retention of this airway segment and its associated control areas is unjustified as assignment of airspace and that the revocation thereof would be in the public interest. Concurrently with this action, § 601.4245 relating to the reporting points associated with Red 45 would be amended to conform to the modified airway.

If this action is taken, the segment of Red Federal airway No. 45 and its associated control areas from the Riverdale, Md., radio beacon to the intersection of the north course of the Baltimore, Md., radio range and the southwest course of the Allentown, Pa., radio range would be revoked. The caption to § 601.4245 would be amended to conform to the modified airway.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROL AREAS AND REPORTING POINTS

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to §§ 600.647, 601.647, and 601.4647 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

Blue Federal airway No. 47 extends in part from the intersection of the north course of the Blackstone, Va., radio range and the 266° True bearing of the Richmond, Va., radio range to the Philipsburg, Pa., radio range station. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration revocation of this segment of Blue 47. The Federal Aviation Agency IFR peak-day airway traffic survey for the period from July 1, 1958, through June 30, 1959, shows a maximum of nine aircraft movements between any two reporting points on this segment of Blue 47. On the basis of the survey it appears that the retention of this segment of Blue 47 and its associated control areas is unjustified as an assignment of airspace and that the revocation thereof would be in the public interest. Concurrently with this action, the Flintstone, Md., intersection (intersection of the south course of the Altoona, Pa., radio range and the southeast course of the Pittsburgh, Pa., radio range) would be revoked as a designated reporting point on the segment of Blue 47 proposed for revocation and the caption to § 601.4647 relating to reporting points would be amended to conform to the modified airway.

If these actions are taken, the segment of Blue Federal airway No. 47 and associated control areas from the intersection of the north course of the Blackstone, Va., radio range and the 266° True bearing of the Richmond, Va., radio range to the Philipsburg, Pa., radio range station would be revoked. The caption to § 601.4647 relating to the associated reporting points on Blue Federal airway No. 47 would be amended to conform to the modified airway. The Flintstone, Md., intersection (intersection of the south course of the Altoona, Pa., radio range and the southeast course of the Pittsburgh, Pa., radio range) would be revoked as a reporting point on Blue 47.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

CODED JET ROUTES, FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROL ZONES AND REPORTING POINTS

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to §§ 600.16, 601.16, 601.2132, 601.4016 and 602.102 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration modification of the Biloxi, Miss., control zone. The Biloxi control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of Keesler AFB and within 2 miles either side of the northeast course of the Keesler AFB radio range, extending 5 miles northeast of the radio range station. The Department of the Air Force has advised the Federal Aviation Agency that they no longer have a requirement for a radio range at Keesler AFB, and propose to convert this facility to a non-directional radio beacon. The Department of the Air Force advised that the instrument approach procedures based on the Keesler radio range are being revised in order to eliminate the requirement for the control zone extension to the northeast. Therefore, it is proposed to revoke the extension to the northeast based on the Keesler radio range. Concurrently, it is proposed to designate an extension to the northeast within 2 miles either side of the Keesler AFB TACAN (latitude 30°24'44" N., longitude 88°55'47" W.) 047° True radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 7 miles northeast of the TACAN and an extension within 2 miles either side of the 204° True radial of the Keesler TACAN extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 7 miles southwest of the TACAN. The extensions based on the TACAN would provide protection for aircraft executing prescribed instrument approaches to the Keesler AFB utilizing the Keesler TACAN. Concurrently with this action, it is proposed to substitute the Keesler non-directional radio beacon for the Keesler radio range in the description of L/MF Coded Jet Route No. 2, and Green Federal airway No. 6 and in the designation of Colored Federal airway Reporting Points for Green 6.

If this action is taken, the Biloxi, Miss., control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of Keesler AFB, Biloxi, Miss. (latitude 30°24'25" N., longitude 88°55'30" W.), within 2 miles either side of the Keesler AFB TACAN 047° True radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 7 miles northeast of the TACAN and within 2 miles either side of the Keesler TACAN 204° True radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 7 miles southwest of the TACAN. The Keesler radio beacon would be substituted for the Keesler radio range in the description of L/MF Coded Jet Route No. 2, Green Federal airway No. 6 and as a reporting point in § 601.4016.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, P.O. Box 1689, Fort Worth 1, Tex. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 17, 1960.

FEDERAL AIRWAYS AND RESTRICTED AREAS

Designation of Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor and Modification of Federal Airway

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to §§600.6066 and 608.51 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration the designation of a Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor at Webb Air Force Base, Big Springs, Tex.

The Military Climb Corridor designated as a Restricted Area would be used by the high-speed, high rate-of-climb century series air defense aircraft while departing from the airbase on active air defense missions. The Restricted Area would provide protection for high speed air defense aircraft and other users of the airspace during the climb phase of the air defense aircraft mission. The proposed Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor would be based on the 151° True radial of the Webb AFB TACAN (latitude 32°12'31" N., longitude 101°-30'57" W.) extending from 14.5 statute miles southeast of the Webb AFB TACAN to 41.5 statute miles southeast of the TACAN, having a width of 3 statute miles at the beginning and a width of 6 statute miles at the outer extremity. The lower altitude limits would extend in graduated steps from 4,600 feet MSL to 21,600 feet MSL. The upper altitude limits would extend from 15,000 feet MSL to 27,000 feet MSL. Time of use would be continuous. The controlling agency would be Webb AFB approach control. The controlling agency would authorize aircraft to operate within the climb corridor when not in use by active air defense aircraft. Concurrently with the proposed designation of the Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor at Webb AFB, the Federal Aviation Agency is considering modification of the segment of VOR Federal airway No. 66 between Midland, Tex., and Abilene, Tex., by redesignating it via the Midland VOR 080° and the Abilene VOR 251° True radials. This realignment would provide lateral separation for aircraft on the airway from the Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor. The control areas associated with Victor 66 are so designated that they would automatically conform to the modified airway. Accordingly, no amendment relating to such control areas would be necessary.

If these actions are taken, the Big Springs, Tex. (Webb AFB) Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor (R-1) (Dallas and Austin Charts) would be designated as follows:

Description. That area centered on the 151° True radial of the Webb AFB TACAN, beginning 14.5 statute miles southeast of the TACAN and extending to 41.5 statute miles southeast of the TACAN, having a width 3 statute miles at the beginning and expanding uniformly to a width of 6 statute miles at the outer extremity.

Designated altitudes. 4,600' MSL to 15,000' MSL from 14.5 to 15.5 statute miles southeast of the Webb AFB TACAN.

4,600' MSL to 24,000' MSL from 15.5 to 16.5 statute miles southeast of the TACAN.

4,600' MSL to 27,000' MSL from 16.5 to 19.5 statute miles southeast of the TACAN.

8,600' MSL to 27,000' MSL from 19.5 to 24.5 statute miles southeast of the TACAN.

12,600' MSL to 27,000' MSL from 24.5 to 29.5 statute miles southeast of the TACAN.

17,600' MSL to 27,000' MSL from 29.5 to 34.5 statute miles southeast of the TACAN.

21,600' MSL to 27,000' MSL from 34.5 to 41.5 statute miles southeast of the TACAN.

Time of use. Continuous.

Controlling agency. Webb AFB, Tex., approach control.

The segment of VOR Federal airway No. 66 from Midland, Tex., to Abilene, Tex., would be redesignated via the Midland VOR 080° and the Abilene VOR 251° True radials.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, P.O. Box 1689, Fort Worth 1, Tex. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 17, 1960.

CONTROL AREAS

Modification and Revocation of Extensions

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to Part 601 and § 601.1041 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Boise, Idaho control area extension is designated within 5 miles either side of the southwest course of the Boise radio range extending from the radio range station to a point 20 miles southwest including the area in the south quadrant of the Boise radio range bounded on the northeast and southeast by the Mountain Home, Idaho, control area extension and on the southwest by a line drawn 135° True from a point at latitude 43°20'20" N., longitude 116°29'15" W., extending to the Mountain Home control area extension and that area northeast of Boise lying within a 25-mile radius of the Boise radio range station bounded on the southwest by Green Federal airway No. 10 and the airspace northwest of Boise within 5 miles either side of the Boise VOR 291° True radial extending from the VOR to a point 67 miles northwest.

The Ontario, Oreg., control area extension is designated within an 8½ mile radius of the Ontario Airport including the airspace southeast of Ontario bounded on the northeast by Green Federal airway No. 10, on the south by the Boise, Idaho, control area extension, on the southwest by a line 12 miles southwest of and parallel to Green Federal airway No. 10.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration the revocation of the Ontario control area extension and redesignation of the Boise control area extension to include the area within a 25-mile radius of the Boise, Idaho, VORTAC extending clockwise from the 320° True radial to the 129° True radial of the Boise VORTAC, within a 40-mile radius of the Boise VORTAC extending clockwise from the 129° True radial to the 320° True radial of the Boise VORTAC, within 5 miles either side of the 291° True radial of the Boise VORTAC, extending from the VORTAC to 67 miles northwest, and within a 10-mile radius of the Ontario, Oreg., Airport (latitude 44°01'15" N., longitude 117°-00'43" W.), excluding the portion which would coincide with the Mountain Home, Idaho, control area extension. This would provide protection to aircraft executing high and low altitude holding procedures, jet aircraft recovery procedures and prescribed instrument approach procedures at Boise Air Terminal. The Ontario control area extension would be included within the Boise control area extension for simplification of description.

If these actions are taken, the Ontario, Oreg., control area extension (§ 601.1167) would be revoked. The Boise, Idaho, control area extension would be designated within a 25-mile radius of the Boise, Idaho, VORTAC extending clockwise from the 320° True radial to the 129° True radial of the Boise VORTAC, within a 40-mile radius of the Boise VORTAC extending clockwise from the 129° True radial to the 320° True radial of the Boise VORTAC, within 5 miles either side of the 291° True radial of the Boise VORTAC, extending from the VORTAC to 67 miles northwest, and within a 10-mile radius of the Ontario, Oreg., Airport (latitude 44°01'15" N., longitude 117°00'43" W.), excluding the portion which would coincide with the Mountain Home, Idaho, control area extension.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, 5651 West Manchester Avenue, P.O. Box 90007, Airport Station, Los Angeles 45, Calif. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

CONTROL AREAS

Modification of Extension

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.1432 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Billings, Mont., control area extension is designated within a 25-mile radius of the Billings VOR extending from the northern boundary of VOR Federal airway No. 2 west of Billings, clockwise to the northeastern boundary of VOR Federal airway No. 19 southeast of Billings. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration modification of this control area extension by the addition of an extension northwest of Billings, within a 35-mile radius of the VOR extending clockwise from Victor 2 to Victor 19–W and the addition of an extension southeast of Billings within a 30-mile radius of the VOR extending clockwise from Victor 19 to VOR Federal airway No. 187. This would protect aircraft executing high altitude holding procedures and jet penetrations at Billings Airport.

If this action is taken, the Billings, Mont., control area extension would be designated within a 35-mile radius of the Billings VOR extending clockwise from VOR Federal airway No. 2, west of Billings, to VOR Federal airway No. 19–W, north of Billings, within a 25-mile radius of the Billings VOR extending clockwise from Victor 19, north of Billings to Victor 19, southeast of Billings and within a 30-mile radius of the Billings VOR, extending clockwise from Victor 19, southeast of Billings to VOR Federal airway No. 187, south of Billings.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, 5651 West Manchester Avenue, P.O. Box 90007, Airport Station, Los Angeles 45, Calif. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

CONTROL ZONES

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2033 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Little Rock, Ark., control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of Adams Field and extending 2 miles either side of the southeast course of the Little Rock radio range to the Keo fan marker. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration modification of the Little Rock control zone by redesignating the southeast extension and providing an additional extension to the southwest. The southeast extension would be based on the Little Rock VOR and would be designated within 2 miles either side of the Little Rock VOR 141° True radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles southeast of the VOR. This would provide protection for aircraft conducting prescribed ADF and VOR instrument approach procedures to Adams Field, Little Rock, Ark. It is also proposed to designate a control zone extension based on the Little Rock ILS localizer southwest course extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the ILS outer marker to provide protection for aircraft conducting ILS approach procedures based on the ILS localizer southwest course.

If this action is taken, the Little Rock, Ark., control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of Adams Field, Little Rock, Ark. (latitude 34°43'45" N., longitude 92°13'45" W.), within 2 miles either side of the Little Rock VOR 141° True radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles southeast of the VOR and within 2 miles either side of the Little Rock ILS localizer southwest course extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the ILS outer marker.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, P.O. Box 1689, Fort Worth 1, Tex. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

CONTROL ZONES

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2038 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Shreveport, La., control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of Shreveport Downtown Airport, within 5 miles either side of the northwest course of the Shreveport radio range extending from the radio range station to a point 10 miles northwest, within a 7-mile radius of Barksdale Air Force Base and within 5 miles either side of the southeast course of the Barksdale AFB radio range extending from the Air Force Base to the Elm Grove radiobeacon. The Federal Aviation Agency is considering modifying the Shreveport control zone, by reducing the Barksdale AFB 7-mile radius zone; reducing the width of the control zone extensions to the northwest and southeast; redesignating the southeast control zone extension by basing it on the Barksdale terminal VOR and designating an additional control zone extension based on the Shreveport VOR.

A review of the requirements for aircraft operations at Barksdale AFB indicates that a 7-mile radius zone is in excess of that required for the protection of aircraft operations at Barksdale AFB, and it is proposed to reduce this to a 5-mile radius zone. A review of the instrument approach procedures for Shreveport Downtown Airport and Barksdale AFB indicates that the presently designated northwest and southeast control zone extensions exceed the control zone requirements for aircraft conducting radio range approaches to Shreveport Downtown Airport from the northwest and ADF and terminal VOR approaches to Barksdale AFB from the southeast. The Barksdale AFB radio range is now used as a nondirectional radiobeacon only. Therefore, it is proposed to redesignate the southeast extension, which is presently based on the Barksdale radio range, by basing it on the Barksdale terminal VOR and to reduce the southeast control zone extension to include the airspace within 2 miles either side of the 332° True radial of the Barksdale terminal VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the terminal VOR. It is also proposed to reduce the size of the northwest extension by redesignating it to include the airspace within 2 miles either side of the northwest course of the Shreveport radio range extending from the Shreveport Downtown Airport 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles northwest of the radio range station. In addition, it is proposed to designate a control zone extension within 2 miles either side of the Shreveport VOR 155° True radial extending from the Barksdale proposed 5-mile radius zone to the VOR. This would provide protection for aircraft executing the jet approach procedure based on the Shreveport VOR. This modification would also eliminate the overlap of the Shreveport Downtown Airport and the Barksdale AFB control zone with the Greater Shreveport Airport, La., 5-mile radius control zone.

If these actions are taken, the Shreveport, La., control zone would be redesignated within a 5-mile radius of the Shreveport Downtown Airport (latitude 32°32'25" N., longitude 93°44'40" W.), excluding the portion which coincides with the Greater Shreveport control zone (§ 601.2377), within 2 miles either side of the northwest course of the Shreveport radio range extending from the Downtown Airport 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles northwest of the radio range, within a 5-mile radius of the Barksdale, La., AFB (latitude 32°30'05" N., longitude 93°39'45" W.), and within 2 miles either side of the Shreveport VOR 155° True radial extending from the Barksdale 5-mile radius zone to the VOR and within 2 miles either side of the 332° True radial of the Barksdale terminal VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the terminal VOR.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, P.O. Box 1689, Fort Worth 1, Tex. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

CONTROL ZONES

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2082 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Akron, Ohio, control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of the Akron Municipal Airport extending 2 miles either side of the southwest course of the Akron, Ohio, radio range to a point 10 miles southwest of the radio range station, including a 5-mile radius of the Akron-Canton County Airport extending 2 miles either side of the Akron-Canton ILS localizer to a point 10 miles south of the outer marker and within 2 miles either side of the west course of the Akron radio range extending from the radio range station to a point 10 miles west. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration modification of this control zone by revoking the control zone extensions. The instrument approach procedures based on the Akron radio range have been cancelled. The ADF standard instrument approach procedure based on the Akron-Canton County Airport ILS outer marker compass locator has been modified to require aircraft to cross the outer marker on final approach at an altitude of 2,300 feet MSL. Therefore, the presently designated extensions would no longer be required for the protection of aircraft executing instrument approaches.

If this action is taken, the Akron, Ohio, control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of the Akron Municipal Airport (latitude 41°02'15" N., longitude 81°28'05" W.) and within a 5-mile radius of the Akron-Canton County Airport (latitude 40°54'59" N., longitude 81°26'32" W.).

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 17, 1960.

CONTROL ZONES

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2084 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Battle Creek, Mich., control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of Kellogg Field; within 2 miles either side of the south course of the Battle Creek radio range extending 10 miles south of the radio range; and within 2 miles either side of the 018°, 051°, 115°, 157°, 215°, 258° and 317° True radials of the Battle Creek VOR extending to points 12 nautical miles from the VOR. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration the following modifications of the Battle Creek control zone:

1. Revoke the present control zone extensions based on the Battle Creek VOR. The prescribed instrument approach procedures based on the VOR are being revised which will eliminate the requirement for the present control zone extensions.

2. Designate a new control zone extension within two miles either side of the Battle Creek VOR 050° True radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles northeast of the VOR to provide protection for aircraft executing instrument approaches based on the 050° True radial of the VOR.

3. Lengthen the control zone extension based on the south course of the Battle Creek radio range to 12 miles south of the radio range to provide protection for aircraft executing instrument approaches based on the south course of the radio range.

If these actions are taken, the Battle Creek, Mich., control zone would be redesignated within a 5-mile radius of Kellogg Field, Battle Creek (latitude 42°18'31" N., longitude 85°14'57" W.), within 2 miles either side of the south course of the Battle Creek radio range extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles south of the radio range, and within 2 miles either side of the Battle Creek VOR 050° True radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles northeast of the VOR.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, 4825 Troost Avenue, Kansas City 10, Mo. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

CONTROL ZONES

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2145 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Greenville, S.C., control zone presently extends within a 5-mile radius of the Greenville Airport and within 2 miles either side of the south course of the Greenville radio range, extending 10 miles south of the radio range station. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration the modification of the Greenville, S.C., control zone by designating a 5-mile radius zone at the Donaldson, S.C., Air Force Base; revoking the present control zone extension to the south and designating a control zone extension to the southwest. The designation of a 5-mile radius zone at Donaldson AFB and the designation of a control zone extension within 2 miles either side of the 219° True bearing from the Greenville ILS outer marker extending from the Donaldson AFB 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles southwest of the Greenville ILS outer marker would provide protection for aircraft conducting ADF approaches to Donaldson AFB. The ADF instrument approach procedure to Greenville Airport based on the Greenville ILS outer marker is being revised by raising the final approach altitude over the outer marker to 2,000 feet MSL, thereby eliminating the requirement for the present Greenville control zone extension to the south.

If this action is taken, the Greenville, S.C., control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of Greenville, S.C., Airport (latitude 34°50'50" N., longitude 82°21'05" W.), within a 5-mile radius of Donaldson Air Force Base, Greenville, S.C. (latitude 34°45'00" N., longitude 82°22'00" W.), and within 2 miles either side of the 219° True bearing from the Greenville ILS outer marker extending from the Donaldson AFB 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles southwest of the Greenville outer marker.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, P.O. Box 1689, Fort Worth 1, Tex. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

CONTROL ZONES

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2178 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Long Beach, Calif., control zone is designated as the airspace within a 5-mile radius of Long Beach Municipal Airport, including the airspace within a 5-mile radius of NAS Los Alamitos, Calif., and the airspace within 2 miles either side of the southeast course of the Long Beach radio range extending from the radio range to a point 14 miles southeast, excluding the portion in conflict with El Toro MCAF control zone. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration modification of this control zone by revocation of the extension predicated on the southeast course of the Long Beach radio range.

All published instrument and jet approach procedures to both the Long Beach Municipal Airport and NAS Los Alamitos are afforded adequate protection by the 5-mile radius zones. Therefore, the control zone extension is no longer required and it appears that revocation thereof would be in the public interest. The Long Beach High Density Air Traffic Zone is so designated that no amendment relating to high density air traffic zones would be necessary.

If this action is taken, the Long Beach, Calif., control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of the Long Beach, Calif., Municipal Airport (latitude 33°49'07" N., longitude 118°09'04" W.) and within a 5-mile radius of the NAS Los Alamitos, Calif. (latitude 33° 47'25" N., longitude 118°03'00" W.).

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, 5651 West Manchester Avenue, P.O. Box 90007, Airport Station, Los Angeles 45, Calif. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

CONTROL ZONES

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2179 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Los Angeles, Calif., control zone is designated within the circumference of a 5-mile radius circle centered on the Los Angeles International Airport excluding the portion subtended by a chord drawn between points of intersection of this circumference with the circumference of the Santa Monica, Calif., control zone (§ 601.2420); within 2 miles either side of the Los Angeles ILS localizer east course extending from the localizer to a point 6 miles east of the airport, and within 2 miles either side of a line bearing 338° True from the Los Angeles nondirectional radio beacon extending to the Burbank, Calif., control zone. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration modification of this control zone by revocation of the extension between the Los Angeles and Burbank control zones and by termination of the eastern extension at the ILS outer marker. The extension between the Los Angeles and Burbank control zones is no longer used for air traffic management and may be revoked. Aircraft executing instrument approaches to the Los Angeles International Airport from the east, do not descend below 1,000 feet above the surface until after passing the ILS outer marker. Therefore, the eastern extension to the control zone may be terminated at the outer marker.

The portion of the Los Angeles High Density Air Traffic Zone which is associated with the Los Angeles control zone would automatically conform to the modified control zone. Accordingly, no amendment relating to the High Density Air Traffic Zone would be necessary.

If this action is taken, the Los Angeles, Calif., control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of the Los Angeles International Airport (latitude 33°56'-18" N., longitude 118°24'25" W.), excluding the portion north of a line between the points of intersection of the circumference of this control zone and the circumference of the Santa Monica, Calif., control zone (§ 601.2420); within 2 miles either side of the Los Angeles ILS localizer east course extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the ILS outer marker.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, 5651 West Manchester Avenue, P.O. Box 90007, Airport Station, Los Angeles 45, Calif. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

CONTROL ZONES

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2293 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Chicago, Ill., control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of the Chicago O'Hare International Airport extending 2 miles either side of the O'Hare ILS localizer course to a point 10 miles northwest of the O'Hare outer marker and within 2 miles either side of the 332° radial of the Chicago-O'Hare VOR extending from the VOR to a point 12 miles northwest. The Federal Aviation Agency is considering modifying the Chicago control zone by increasing the radius to six miles, revoking the present control zone extension, based on the Chicago-O'Hare ILS localizer course, realigning and reducing the present control zone extension based on the Chicago-O'Hare VOR 332° True radial, and designating a control zone extension to be based on the Chicago-O'Hare runway 14-R ILS localizer course.

The Chicago (O'Hare) control zone would be increased to a 6-mile radius zone to provide protection, during the departure climb-phase for heavy, high-speed type aircraft. This addition would also provide protection for aircraft executing VOR and back course ILS instrument approaches to Chicago-O'Hare runway 32-R.

Revision of the prescribed instrument approach procedures, based on the Chicago-O'Hare VOR for approaches from the northwest, indicate that the portion of the control zone extension northwest of the Arlington, Ill., intersection (intersection of the Northbrook, Ill., VOR 195° and the Chicago-O'Hare VOR 331° True radials) is no longer required for the protection of aircraft executing this approach. In addition, the revised instrument approach procedure indicates that a one degree change in the alignment of the extension would be necessary. Accordingly, this control zone extension would be redesignated within two miles either side of the Chicago-O'Hare VOR 331° True radial extending from the proposed 6-mile radius zone to the Arlington intersection.

There are presently two ILS systems in operation at the Chicago-O'Hare International Airport. The present description of the control zone, containing an extension based on a single Chicago-O'Hare ILS localizer course, no longer accurately describes the specific extent of the airspace required for the protection of aircraft executing ILS instrument approaches. Accordingly, this control zone extension would be revoked, and an extension would be designated within two miles either side of the Chicago-O'Hare runway 14-R ILS localizer course extending from the proposed 6-mile radius zone to the runway 14-R outer marker. Protection for aircraft executing runway 14-L ILS approaches would be provided by the combination of the control zone extension based on the runway 14-R ILS localizer course, and the extension based on the Chicago-O'Hare VOR 331° True radial. Therefore, an additional control zone extension for the approach to runway 14-L would not be necessary.

In addition, the caption of § 601.2293 would be changed to, Chicago (O'Hare) control zone, to more accurately identify the location of the control zone.

If these actions are taken, the Chicago O'Hare, Ill., control zone would be redesignated within a 6-mile radius of the Chicago-O'Hare International Airport (latitude 41°59'10" N., longitude 87°54'28" W.), within two miles either side of the Chicago-O'Hare VOR 331° True radial extending from the 6-mile radius zone to the Arlington, Ill., intersection (intersection of the Northbrook, Ill., VOR 195° and the Chicago-O'Hare VOR 331° True radials), and within two miles either side of the Chicago-O'Hare runway 14-R ILS localizer course extending from the 6-mile radius zone to the runway 14-R outer marker.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, 4825 Troost Avenue, Kansas City 10, Mo. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

CONTROL ZONES

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2371 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Plattsburgh, N.Y., control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of Plattsburgh Air Force Base, within 2 miles either side of a line bearing 335° True extending from the Air Force Base to a point 14 miles northwest, and within 2 miles either side of the 195° and 015° True radials of the Plattsburgh VOR extending from the Plattsburgh AFB to a point 5 miles northeast of the VOR. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration modification of this control zone by revoking the present extensions to the northwest and northeast; and including in the designation a 5-mile radius of the Plattsburgh Municipal Airport and extensions within 2 miles either side of the 338° True radial of the Plattsburgh AFB TACAN (latitude 44°36'30" N., longitude 73°26'35" W.) from the Plattsburgh Municipal Airport 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles northwest of the TACAN and within 2 miles either side of the 213° True radial of the Plattsburgh VOR from the Plattsburgh Municipal Airport 5-mile radius zone to the VOR. The presently designated extensions to the northwest and northeast are no longer required for the protection of IFR aircraft operations. The designation of the 5-mile radius zone around the Plattsburgh Municipal Airport and the extensions based on the 338° True radial of the Plattsburgh TACAN and the 213° True radial of the Plattsburgh VOR would provide protection for aircraft executing standard instrument approach procedures to the Air Force Base and Municipal Airport.

If this action is taken, the Plattsburgh, N.Y., control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of the Plattsburgh AFB (latitude 44°39'05" N., longitude 73°28'10" W.), within a 5-mile radius of the Plattsburgh Municipal Airport (latitude 44°41'10" N., longitude 73°31'10" W.), within 2 miles either side of the 338° True radial of the Plattsburgh AFB TACAN extending from the Plattsburgh Municipal Airport 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles north of the TACAN, and within 2 miles either side of the 213° True radial of the Plattsburgh VOR extending from the Plattsburgh Municipal Airport 5-mile radius zone to the VOR.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

CONTROL ZONES

Modification of Proposal

In a notice of proposed rule making published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 2, 1960 as Airspace Docket No. 59-WA-102, it was stated that the Federal Aviation Agency proposes to designate a control zone within a 5-mile radius of the Marquette County Airport, Marquette, Mich. In view of the fact that no public standard instrument approach to the Marquette County Airport will be available until the Marquette VORTAC is installed approximately December 14, 1960, at latitude 46°32'10" N., longitude 87°33'38" W., the designation of the Marquette control zone would be deferred until that time. It is also necessary to modify the proposal to include the area within 2 miles either side of the Marquette VORTAC 083° True radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 9 miles east of the VORTAC, and within two miles either side of the 249° True radial of the Marquette VORTAC extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles southwest of the VORTAC, in order to provide protection for aircraft executing VOR standard instrument approaches.

If this action is taken, the Marquette, Mich., control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of the Marquette County Airport (latitude 46°32'03.3" N., longitude 87°33'34.6" W.); within two miles either side of the 083° True radial of the Marquette VORTAC extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 9 miles east of the VORTAC; and within two miles either side of the 249° True radial of the Marquette VORTAC, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles southwest of the VORTAC. The Marquette control zone would be designated concurrently with the commissioning of the Marquette VORTAC.

In order to provide interested persons time to adequately evaluate this proposal, as modified herein, and an opportunity to submit additional written data, views or arguments, the closing date for filing such material will be extended to July 12, 1960.

In consideration of the foregoing and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), I hereby give notice that the time within which comments will be received for consideration on Airspace Docket No. 59-WA-102 is extended to July 12, 1960. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, 4825 Troost Avenue, Kansas City 10, Missouri.

CONTROL AREAS

Withdrawal of Proposal To Designate an Extension

In a notice of proposed rule making published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (24 F.R. 9241) as Airspace Docket No. 59-WA-282 on November 13, 1959, it was stated that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to designate a control area extension at Stevens Point, Wis., within a 15-mile radius of the Stevens Point VOR. Subsequent to the Notice, it was determined that weather reporting and ground/air communications services would not be available at Stevens Point Airport for some time. Instrument departure and arrival procedures for the Stevens Point Airport will not be established until these services are available. Therefore, the control area extension is not required at this time.

In consideration of the foregoing, the notice of proposed rule making contained in Airspace Docket No. 59-WA-282 is hereby withdrawn.

CONTROL AREAS

Withdrawal of Proposal To Designate an Extension

In a notice of proposed rule making published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (24 F.R. 9241) as Airspace Docket No. 59-WA-290 on November 13, 1959, it was stated that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to designate a control area extension at Rhinelander, Wis., within a 15-mile radius of the Rhinelander VOR. Subsequent to the Notice, it was determined that weather reporting and ground/air communications services would not be available at Oneida Airport, Rhinelander, Wis., for some time. Instrument approach for the Oneida Airport will not be prescribed until these services are available. Therefore, the control area extension is not required at this time.

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission has under consideration a proposed form for annual reports filed with the Commission by small business investment companies licensed under the Small Business Investment Act of 1958 (Form N-5R, § 274.5R).

Small business investment companies registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 are required by section 30(a) of that Act to file annual reports with the Commission. LOVE ME LITTLE CO.

Order Vacating Order of Suspension

JUNE 22, 1960.

In the matter of Alexander H. Cohen as: "Love Me Little Company", File No. 24NY-4554.

Alexander H. Cohen, 40 West 55th Street, New York, N.Y. as "Love Me Little Company", 40 West 55th Street, New York, N.Y., filed with the Commission on August 15, 1957 a notification on Form 1-A and an offering circular relating to a proposed offering of preformation limited partnership interests in the aggregate amount of $180,000 for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3(b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder.

The Commission on May 13, 1960 ordered, pursuant to Rule 261(a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A sought for the offering be temporarily suspended on the grounds that the terms and conditions of Regulation A had not been complied with in that the issuer had failed to file a definitive offering circular as required by Rule 256(f); had failed to file an accurate report of sales on Form 2-A as required by Rule 260; had failed to cooperate with the Commission in making an investigation in connection with the offering; and had made sales in jurisdictions which were not disclosed in the notification.

Subsequent to the Commission's action temporarily suspending the exemption, copies of definitive offering circulars were filed with the Commission and an accurate report of sales on Form 2-A was filed with the Commission. No further offering is being made.

It appearing to the Commission that a hearing is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest for the protection of investors,

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 261(b) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that said temporary order of suspension be, and hereby is, vacated.

By the Commission.

SATELLITE TIME CORP.

Order Temporarily Suspending Exemption, Statement of Reasons Therefor, and Notice of Opportunity for Hearing

JUNE 22, 1960.

I. Satellite Time Corporation (issuer), a New York corporation, filed with the Commission on August 1, 1958 a notification on Form 1-A and an offering circular relating to a proposed public offering of 4,950,000 shares of its 1 cent par value common stock at 1 cent per share, 50,000 warrants to purchase 100 shares of common stock at 1 cent per warrant and 5,000,000 shares of common stock to be issued at 1 cent per share upon the exercise of the warrants for an aggregate offering of $100,000 for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3(b) and Regulation A promulgated thereunder.

II. The Commission has reasonable cause to believe that:

A. The exemption under Regulation A is unavailable in that an undisclosed affiliate and promoter is subject to an injunction from a court of competent jurisdiction enjoining such person from further violations of the registration and anti-fraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

B. The terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with in that:

1. The notification fails to set forth the full name and complete address of each affiliate of the issuer as required by Item 2(b) thereof;

2. The notification fails to set forth the full name and complete address of each promoter as required by Item 3(c) thereof.

C. The offering circular contains untrue statements of material facts and omits to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, particularly with respect to:

1. The failure to disclose the name and address of a promoter and controlling stockholder of the issuer;

2. The failure to disclose the direct and indirect interests of each officer, director, affiliate and promoter of the issuer and material transactions between such persons and the issuer.

D. The offering was made in violation of section 17 of the Securities Act of 1933.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 261 of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under regulation be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for hearing within thirty days herefrom; that within twenty days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and that notice of the time and place for said hearing will be promptly given by the Commission.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. CP60–79]

ARKANSAS LOUISIANA GAS CO.

Notice of Application and Date of Hearing

JUNE 21, 1960.

Take notice that on April 7, 1960, as supplemented on May 9, 13, 18 and 25, 1960, Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company (Applicant) filed in Docket No. CP60–79 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing Applicant to acquire by merger and to operate all of the facilities of Consolidated Gas Utilities Corporation (Consolidated), to perform all acts and services now being performed by Consolidated, and to make all sales now being made by Consolidated, to the extent that such facilities, acts, services and sales are subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully set forth in the application and supplements which are on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant now owns and operates a natural gas system including the purchasing, gathering, transmission, distribution and sale of natural gas in northern Louisiana, eastern Texas and southern and central Arkansas, and is actively engaged in the exploration for and production of natural gas and oil.

Consolidated owns and operates a natural gas pipeline system extending from the Texas Panhandle Field in Gray County, Texas, northeasterly through the States of Oklahoma and Kansas, and is principally engaged in the transportation, distribution and sale of natural gas to retail and wholesale customers in the States of Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas. As of October 31, 1959, Consolidated's facilities included approximately 1,181 miles of transmission lines, 1,150 miles of distribution lines, 61 miles of gathering lines, 10 compressor stations, 3 dehydration plants, distribution systems in 57 communities and two storage reservoirs, as well as certain oil and gas producing properties in Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

As of January 31, 1960, the total depreciated plants of Applicant and Consolidated, excluding subsidiaries, were $96,371,815, and $22,334,655, respectively.

It is stated that pursuant to the agreement of merger dated March 15, 1960, Applicant will issue 970,586 shares of its Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock to Consolidated in exchange for the same number of shares of Consolidated's common stock. Consolidated will then be merged into Applicant and all the assets, liabilities and obligations of Consolidated will become those of Applicant. Stockholders of both Applicant and Consolidated approved and adopted the proposed merger at their respective meetings on May 10, 1960.

Approval of the proposed merger by the appropriate regulatory agencies of Kansas, of Arkansas and of Oklahoma has been secured, and it is stated that application for the requisite approval of the Texas Railroad Commission will be made seasonably.

Applicant as the surviving corporation will continue all services presently being rendered by Consolidated at the effective rates in Consolidated's filed FPC gas tariffs which Applicant has formally engaged to adopt effective as of the date of issuance of certificate authorization pursuant to this application, thus there will be no interruption to or abandonment of service now being rendered by Consolidated.

The docket numbers of the certificate, exemption and abandonment authorizations heretofore granted to Consolidated by this Commission, in which Applicant's name is proposed to be substituted for that of Consolidated, are listed in the filed application.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on July 21, 1960, at 9:30 a.m., e.d.s.t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30(c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before July 11, 1960. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

In support of its periodic increase, Gulf states that its contract was negotiated at arm's length. Gulf also incorporates by reference certain exhibits presented by Gulf in the section 5(a) proceedings in Docket No. G–9520, et al., which purport to show a cost of service of 28.92 cents per Mcf for Gulf's jurisdictional sales in 1957, higher exploration and development costs, and a declining production on a "per foot drilled" basis.

In support of its increased rate, Socony Mobil states that its contract was negotiated at arm's length; the gas is sold on an installment basis; gas is a commodity, the price of which should be based on the law of supply and demand; and the cost of doing business has been increasing.

In support, Skinner states that its proposed rates are below other rates approved by the Commission in Texas; the natural gas production business has been faced with increased labor, material and other costs; and the increases are necessary to maintain exploration and drilling activities. Sohio states that its contract was negotiated at arm's length and the proposed rate is not in excess of the current commodity value of gas.

The proposed rate changes may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed changes, and that the above-designated supplements be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), public hearings shall be held upon dates to be fixed by notices from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed changes in rates and charges contained in the above-designated supplements.

(B) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, each of the above-designated supplements is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until the date indicated in the above "Date Suspended Until" column, and thereafter until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until these proceedings have been disposed of, or until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

[1] This order does not provide for the consolidation for hearing or disposition of the several matters covered herein, nor should it be so construed.

(D) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)) on or before August 5, 1960.

W. A. RICHARDSON OIL CO. ET AL.

Order Accepting Rate Tender for Filing, Providing for Hearing and Suspending Proposed Change in Rate and Terminating Proceeding, in Part

JUNE 22, 1960.

W. A. Richardson Oil Company, et al., Docket No. RI60-97; McCarrick, Gouger & Mitchell, et al., Docket No. RI60-426.

On January 7, 1960, W. A. Richardson Oil Company, et al. (Richardson) tendered a Notice of Change to its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1 which proposed to increase the level of rate from 12.12268 cents to 15.0952 cents per Mcf for natural gas produced in Seeligson Field, Jim Wells County, Texas, and sold to Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (TGT). By order issued February 3, 1960, in the proceeding in Docket No. RI60-97, said Notice was designated as Supplement No. 5 to Richardson's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1 and was suspended until July 7, 1960, and thereafter until made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act. Said rate schedule covered natural gas produced from several interests, including that of McCarrick, Gouger & Mitchell, et al. (McCarrick).

McCarrick, now desiring to maintain his own rate schedule, on May 23, 1960, submitted a contract dated March 1, 1958, providing for a rate level of 12.12268 cents per Mcf. McCarrick concurrently submitted a Notice of Change dated May 1, 1960, increasing the level of rate by 5.12079 cents to 17.24347 cents per Mcf. As hereinafter ordered, said contract shall be designated as McCarrick, Gouger & Mitchell, et al. FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2 and said Notice of Change, as Supplement No. 1 to that rate schedule. This tender is intended to supersede W. A. Richardson Oil Company's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1 so far but only insofar as said Rate Schedule No. 1 pertains to the interest of McCarrick.

Mr. McCarrick requests that Supplement No. 1 be permitted to become effective as of June 1, 1960. Good cause therefor not having been shown, said supplement may not be effective prior to June 23, 1960, the first day following statutory notice. In support of the proposed increased rate, McCarrick states that the contract was negotiated at arm's length, that the proposed price does not exceed the going price in the area, and that initial rates in excess of that proposed have been certificated in the general area.

The proposed rates may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds:

(1) Good cause exists for accepting the contract dated March 1, 1958 for filing, designating said contract as McCarrick, Gouger & Mitchell, et al. FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2 and permitting said rate schedule to be effective as of March 1, 1958.

(2) It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the rates and charges contained in Supplement No. 1 to the aforementioned Rate Schedule No. 2, and that said supplement be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter provided.

(3) Good cause exists for terminating the proceeding in Docket No. RI60-97, so far but only insofar as such pertains to the interests now covered by McCarrick's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2.

The Commission orders:

(A) The aforementioned contract dated March 1, 1958, hereby is accepted for filing, designated as McCarrick, Gouger & Mitchell, et al. FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2, and is declared effective as of March 1, 1958.

(B) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly Sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR, Chapter I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed rate contained in Supplement No. 1 to McCarrick, Gouger & Mitchell, et al. FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2.

(C) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said Supplement No. 2 is hereby suspended and its use deferred until November 23, 1960, and thereafter until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(D) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until the proceeding in Docket No. RI60-426 has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(E) The proceeding in Docket No. RI60-97 is hereby terminated so far but only insofar as that proceeding relates to the interest now covered by McCarrick's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2.

(F) The order issued February 3, 1960, in the proceeding in Docket No. RI60-97, as such pertains to all interests other than that of aforementioned McCarrick, shall remain in full force and effect.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

IDENTIFICATION OF CARCASSES OF CERTAIN HUMANELY SLAUGHTERED LIVESTOCK

Pursuant to section 4 of the Act of August 27, 1958 (7 U.S.C. 1904) and the statement of policy thereunder in 9 CFR 181.1, the following table lists the establishments operated under Federal inspection under the Meat Inspection Act (21 U.S.C. 71 et seq.) which were officially reported on June 1, 1960, as humanely slaughtering and handling the species of livestock respectively designated for such establishments in the table. The establishment number given with the name of the establishment is branded on each carcass of livestock inspected at that establishment. The table should not be understood to indicate that all species of livestock slaughtered at a listed establishment are slaughtered and handled by humane methods unless all species are listed for that establishment in the table. Nor should the table be understood to indicate that the affiliates of any listed establishment use only humane methods:

[Rev. S.O. 562, Taylor's I.C.C. Order 120]

RAILROADS SERVING NEBRASKA

Diversion or Rerouting of Traffic

In the opinion of Charles W. Taylor, Agent, railroads serving the State of Nebraska are unable to transport traffic routed over their lines, because of floods and high water.

It is ordered, That:

(a) Rerouting traffic: Railroads serving the State of Nebraska, unable to transport traffic in accordance with shippers' routing because of floods and high water, are hereby authorized to divert such traffic over any available route to expedite the movement, regardless of the routing shown on the waybill. The billing covering all such cars rerouted shall carry a reference to this order as authority for the rerouting.

(b) Concurrence of receiving roads to be obtained: The railroad desiring to divert or reroute traffic under this order shall confer with the proper transportation officer of the railroad or railroads to which such traffic is to be diverted or rerouted, and shall receive the concurrence of such other railroads before the rerouting or diversion is ordered.

(c) Notification to shippers: The carrier rerouting cars in accordance with this order shall notify each shipper at the time each car is rerouted or diverted and shall furnish to such shipper the new routing provided under this order.

(d) Inasmuch as the diversion or rerouting of traffic by said Agent is deemed to be due to carriers' disability, the rates applicable to traffic diverted or rerouted by said Agent shall be the rates which were applicable at the time of shipments on the shipments as originally routed.

(e) In executing the directions of the Commission and of such Agent provided for in this order, the common carriers involved shall proceed even though no contracts, agreements, or arrangements now exist between them with reference to the divisions of the rates of transportation applicable to said traffic; divisions shall be, during the time this order remains in force, those voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers; or upon failure of the carriers to so agree, said divisions shall be those hereafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with the pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act.

(f) Effective date. This order shall become effective at 11:00 a.m., June 22, 1960.

(g) Expiration date. This order shall expire at 11:59 p.m., June 30, 1960, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled.

It is further ordered, That this order shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of all railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement and by filing it with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

Issued at Washington, D.C., June 22, 1960.

CHARLES W. TAYLOR, Agent.

3. In order to include an additional change in § 245.161, a new amendatory paragraph 2a is inserted, immediately following paragraph 2.

4. Section 245.231 is changed to read as set forth below.

Because this Treasury decision is a part of an integrated recodification program under chapter 51, I.R.C., and in order that the entire program may be effective on July 1, 1960, it is found that it is contrary to the public interest to issue this Treasury decision subject to the effective date limitation of section 4(c) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003). Accordingly, this Treasury decision shall become effective on July 1, 1960.

The brewer shall continue to so prepay during the time that he is in default and thereafter until the assistant regional commissioner finds the revenue will not be jeopardized by deferred payment of tax as provided in § 245.117a. Any remittance made while the brewer is required to prepay under this section shall be in cash or shall be in the form of a certified, cashier's, or treasurer's check drawn on any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the United States, or under the laws of any State or possession of the United States, or a money order, as provided in § 301.6311–1 of this chapter.

§ 245.117c Prepayment of tax.

Where a brewer is required to prepay tax under § 245.117b, or where the penal sum of the bond (or bonds), Form 1566, is insufficient for deferral of payment of tax on beer to be removed for consumption or sale, or where a brewer is not, because of the provisions of § 245.46a, entitled to defer the tax, the brewer shall prepay the tax before any beer is removed for consumption or sale, or taken out of the brewery for removal for consumption or sale. Prepayment shall be made by forwarding or delivering to the district director a tax return, Form 2034, with remittance, covering the tax on beer. The word "Prepayment" shall be prefixed to the title of such form. For the purpose of complying with this section the term "forwarding" shall mean depositing in the United States mail, properly addressed to the district director.

(a) Alternate methods or procedures. The permittee, on specific approval by the Director as provided in this paragraph, may use an alternate method or procedure in lieu of a method or procedure specifically prescribed in this part. The Director may approve an alternate method or procedure, subject to stated conditions, when he finds that—

(1) Good cause has been shown for the use of the alternate method or procedure;

(2) The alternate method or procedure is within the purpose of, and consistent with the effect intended by, the specifically prescribed methbd or procedure, and affords equivalent security to the revenue; and

(3) The alternate method or procedure will not be contrary to any provision of law, and will not result in an increase in cost to the Government or hinder the effective administration of this part.

No alternate method or procedure relating to applications for permits or amendment or renewal of permits, or to the giving of any bond shall be authorized under this paragraph. Where the permittee desires to employ an alternate method or procedure, he shall submit a written application so to do, in triplicate, to the assistant regional commissioner, for transmittal to the Director. Authority for any variation may be withdrawn whenever in the judgment of the Director the revenue is jeopardized or the effective administration of this part is hindered by the continuation of such variation. Where the permittee desires to employ such variation, he shall submit a written application so to do, in triplicate, to the assistant regional commissioner for transmittal to the Director. DISPOSITION OF SPECIALLY DENATURED SPIRITS

§ 211.146 General.

A bonded dealer may, pursuant to withdrawal permit on Form 1485 or Form 1477, as the case may be, dispose of specially denatured spirits to manufacturers using such spirits and to other bonded dealers. Samples of specially denatured spirits may be dispensed to persons as provided in § 211.281. Specially denatured spirits shall not be shipped to a manufacturer or a bonded dealer until the shipping bonded dealer receives the withdrawal permit, Form 1485 or Form 1477, issued to the consignee. Bonded dealers shall not ship specially denatured spirits in excess of the quantities set forth in such withdrawal permit.

§ 211.147 Bulk shipments.

(a) Use. Bonded dealers may ship specially denatured spirits in bulk conveyances. Such bulk conveyances shall be sealed at the time of filling by the bonded dealer with railroad or other appropriate seals dissimilar in marking from cap seals used by the Internal Revenue Service. Specially denatured alcohol or specially denatured rum from only one consignor may be placed in any one compartment of a bulk conveyance. Not less than the entire contents of any one compartment may be delivered to any one consignee at any one premises.

(b) Construction of bulk conveyances. Bulk conveyances shall conform to the following:

(1) All openings (including valves) shall be so constructed that they may be sealed to prevent unauthorized access to the contents of the conveyances, except that outlet valves or other openings to or from tank cars may be constructed in such a manner that they may be closed and securely fastened on the inside.

(2) If the conveyance has two or more compartments, the outlets of each shall be so equipped that delivery of any compartment will not afford access to the contents of any other compartment.

(3) Each compartment shall be so arranged that it can be completely drained.

(4) Each tank car or tank truck shall have permanently and legibly marked thereon its number, capacity in gallons, and the name or symbol of its owner. If the tank car or truck consists of two or more compartments, each compartment shall be identified and the capacity of each shall be marked thereon.

(5) Permanent facilities shall be provided on tank trucks to permit ready examination of manholes or other openings.

(6) A route board, or other suitable device, for carrying the required labels shall be provided on each bulk conveyance.

(7) Calibrated charts, prepared or certified by recognized authorities or engineers, showing the capacity of each compartment in gallons for each inch of depth, shall accompany each tank truck, tank ship, or barge.

(c) Marks on bulk conveyances. The bonded dealer shall securely attach to the route board or other suitable device a label (coated with transparent shellac or otherwise adequately protected) to further identify each car, truck, or compartment, showing the name, permit number, and location (city or town and State) of both the consignor and the consignee, the date of shipment, the words "Specially Denatured Alcohol" or "Specially Denatured Rum," as the case may be, the quantity in gallons, and the formula number of the specially denatured alcohol or specially denatured rum contained in each compartment.

(d) Bonded dealer's responsibility. Before filling any bulk conveyance, the bonded dealer shall examine it to ascertain that it meets the requirements of this section, and he shall refrain from, or discontinue, using any such conveyance found to be unsuitable.

§ 211.148 Form 1473.

On shipment of specially denatured spirits the bonded dealer shall prepare a notice of shipment, Form 1473, in quadruplicate for intraregional shipments and in quintuplicate for interregional shipments. If the shipment is for the account of another bonded dealer, an extra copy will be made. Where the proof of the spirits used in producing specially denatured spirits is other than 190 degrees, it shall be shown on Form 1473. Where shipments are made in tank cars, tank trucks, or consist of barrels or drums in carload lots, the name of the carrier and the number of the car or tank truck shall be entered on the form. If shipments are made for the account of another bonded dealer, as provided in § 211.137, a statement to that effect, followed by the name and address of the bonded dealer for whose account the shipment is made, shall also be shown on the form and the extra copy of the form shall be forwarded to him for his records. On shipment of the specially denatured spirits the bonded dealer shall send a copy of Form 1473 to the assistant regional commissioner of his region (two copies in the case of interregional shipments) and the original and one copy to the consignee, except in case of shipments by trucks. In the case of shipments by trucks he shall enclose the original and copy in a sealed envelope addressed to the consignee and give the same to the driver of the truck for delivery to the consignee. He shall file the remaining copy of Form 1473.

§ 211.149 Records and reports.

In addition to the records and reports required by this subpart, bonded dealers shall keep records and render reports as required in Subpart O of this part.

Subpart J—Operations by Users of Specially Denatured Spirits

PROCUREMENT OF SPECIALLY DENATURED SPIRITS

§ 211.161 Application for withdrawal permit.

Where a user desires to procure specially denatured alcohol or specially denatured rum, or both, he shall file an application on Form 1485 with the assistant regional commissioner for a withdrawal permit. The application shall show the total quantity of each formula of specially denatured alcohol or rum to be withdrawn during the term of the permit, and the total quantity of each such formula it is desired to withdraw during any one calendar month. The total quantity to be withdrawn shall not be more than is sufficient to meet the bona fide business needs of the applicant. Where the applicant desires to withdraw more than one-sixth of his annual requirements during any month, he should state his needs and furnish sufficient information for the assistant regional commissioner to determine whether such withdrawals should be authorized: Provided, That where one-sixth of the applicant's annual requirements is less than one drum (55 gallons), he may show as his monthly allowance a quantity not to exceed one drum without stating his needs for the additional quantity, if his bond is in a sufficient penal sum, computed in accordance with § 211.72. A user may, if he so desires, file applications for more than one withdrawal permit and have his total annual withdrawals divided among such permits.

§ 211.162 Issuance and duration of withdrawal permit.

If the application submitted in accordance with § 211.161 is approved, the assistant regional commissioner shall issue withdrawal permit on Form 1485 and shall forward the original to the permittee. Withdrawal permits on Form 1485 shall terminate on October 31 of each year: Provided, That a permit issued on or after May 1 of any year shall remain in effect through October 31 of the following year.

(72 Stat. 1370; 26 U.S.C. 5271)

§ 211.163 Application for and renewal of withdrawal permit.

Application on Form 1485 for renewal of a withdrawal permit expiring October 31 of a year shall be submitted by the permittee to the assistant regional commissioner on or before July 10 of such year in order that the renewal permit may be issued and become available for withdrawals by November 1. The user's report on Form 1482 which is required to be submitted on or before July 10 shall be submitted with the renewal application. The provisions of §§ 211.161 and 211.162 with respect to application for and issuance of withdrawal permits, respectively, are applicable to the renewal of such permits.

§ 211.164 Denial, correction, suspension or revocation, changes after original qualification, and automatic termination of withdrawal permit.

All of the provisions of Subpart D of this part with respect to the denial, correction, suspension or revocation, and changes after original qualification, the rules of practice in permit proceedings, and the automatic termination of industrial use permits are applicable to withdrawal permits.

(72 Stat. 1370; 26 U.S.C. 5271)

§ 211.165 Cancellation of withdrawal permit.

Should an industrial use permit on Form 1481 be terminated or surrendered, or should the withdrawal permit on Form 1485 issued to the user be revoked, the withdrawal permit shall be returned immediately to the assistant regional commissioner for cancellation.

(72 Stat. 1370; 26 U.S.C. 5271)

§ 211.166 Withdrawals under permit.

When the user desires to procure specially denatured alcohol or specially denatured rum, he shall forward the withdrawal permit to the denaturer or bonded dealer from whom he will procure the specially denatured alcohol or specially denatured rum. Shipments shall not be made by the consignor until he is in possession of a valid withdrawal permit, nor shall shipments exceed the quantity authorized by such permit. On shipment, the denaturer or bonded dealer shall enter the transaction on the permit and return it to the user, unless he has been authorized to retain it for the purpose of making future shipments.

§ 211.167 Regulation of withdrawals.

Withdrawals by a user shall not exceed the quantity authorized by his permit on Form 1485 and shall be so regulated by him that he will not have on hand, in transit, and unaccounted for at any one time more than the quantity of specially denatured spirits, including the quantity of recovered or restored denatured alcohol or specially denatured rum, and recovered or restored articles (which are in the form of denatured spirits) shown in his application on Form 1479 for an industrial use permit. For this purpose, specially denatured spirits, recovered or restored denatured alcohol or specially denatured rum, and recovered or restored articles (which are in the form of denatured spirits) shall be deemed to be unaccounted for if lost under circumstances where a claim for allowance is required by this part and has not been allowed or if used or disposed of otherwise than as provided in this part.

§ 211.168 Receipt of specially denatured spirits.

Specially denatured spirits received on the premises of a user in portable containers shall not be transferred to other portable containers for storage, except that the contents of damaged packages may be transferred to new containers to avoid loss or waste, or the contents of certain containers may be transferred to "safety" containers to comply with city or State fire code regulations or, on notice to the assistant regional commissioner, to comply with safety practices of the permittee. The new packages shall be labeled or otherwise marked to show the information marked on the original packages and be identified as repackaged. Specially denatured spirits received in portable containers such as drums or barrels shall, unless immediately used, be transferred to storage tanks or deposited in a storeroom as provided in accordance with § 211.91. The formula number of specially denatured spirits deposited in tanks shall be shown on each tank or, in the case of underground tanks, at a convenient and suitable location. Specially denatured spirits received in bulk conveyances or by pipeline shall be deposited in storage tanks or transferred to drums, unless immediately used in the permittee's authorized process or processes: Provided, That in the case of receipts by tank car or tank truck, such conveyance may be used for the storage of specially denatured spirits where the premises of the user will afford protection satisfactory to the assistant regional commissioner and, if such spirits are to be stored in tank cars, adequate siding facilities are provided on the premises. Where it is desired to so store specially denatured spirits in a tank car or tank truck, the user shall first submit written application, in duplicate, to the assistant regional commissioner for authority to do so. When specially denatured spirits received in bulk conveyances are transferred to drums, the drums shall be plainly marked or labeled to show the name and permit number of the person from whom shipment was made, the words "Specially Denatured Alcohol" or "Specially Denatured Rum," the formula number, and the date of receipt. On receipt of specially denatured spirits by the user, he shall ascertain and account for any losses in transit in accordance with Subpart M of this part, receipt for the shipment on the original and copy of Form 1473 received from the consignor, noting thereon any loss or deficiency in the shipment, forward the original to the assistant regional commissioner of his region, and file the copy in chronological order, by months.

USE OF SPECIALLY DENATURED SPIRITS

§ 211.169 General.

Uses of specially denatured spirits shall be as authorized under Part 212 of this chapter. Specially denatured spirits shall not be used until Form 1479–A showing the intended use, process, formula, or article has been approved, as required by Subpart G of this part. Specially denatured spirits shall not be used in the manufacture of medicinal preparations or flavoring extracts for internal human use where any of the spirits remain in the finished product. Liquid products containing specially denatured spirits shall be unfit for beverage or internal human use. The essential oils and chemicals used in their manufacture shall make the finished products conform to the samples and formulas for such products submitted by the applicant with Form 1479–A and approved by the Director or, in the case of rubbing alcohol compounds, by the assistant regional commissioner. Whenever the assistant regional commissioner has reason to believe that the spirits in any articles are being reclaimed or diverted to beverage or internal human use, the permittee shall be directed to appear on a day named and show cause why the authorized formula and article should not be so changed and modified as to prevent such reclamation or diversion. In the event the permittee should fail to appear, or appearing, should fail to prove to the satisfaction of the assistant regional commissioner that the spirits in the authorized article are not reclaimable and are not being diverted to beverage or internal human use, he shall, at the direction of the assistant regional commissioner, discontinue the use of the formula until it has been modified and again approved.

When any series reaches "1,000,000" the series may be recommenced and the recommenced series shall be given an alphabetical prefix or suffix. Where an agent of a producer fills packages in the name of the producer, the agent may either use serial numbers from a block of numbers assigned to him by the producer or use a separate series of serial numbers (differentiated from that of the producer by a suitable prefix) to identify the packages filled by him.

§ 211.179 Labeling of containers of 5 gallons or less.

Containers of 5 gallons or less of proprietary solvents shall be labeled to show the producer's name and address: Provided, That where the product is packaged for or by an agent of the producer or for or by another person, the name and address of the agent or other person, as the case may be, may be shown in lieu of the name and address of the producer. Rubbing alcohol compounds shall be made only as prescribed in § 211.187 and no other product shall be labeled to imply that it is a rubbing alcohol compound. Any product manufactured with specially denatured alcohol and labeled and sold as a rubbing alcohol compound shall be packaged in containers not exceeding 1 pint in capacity by the manufacturer thereof. Rubbing alcohol compound shall not be repackaged or relabeled by others after it has been removed from the premises of the manufacturer.

§ 211.188 Brand label.

Each bottle of rubbing alcohol compound shall bear a brand label, placed thereon by the manufacturer, containing the following information:

(a) The brand or trade name of the product, if any;

(b) The legend "Rubbing Alcohol Compound" which shall be in letters of the same color and size;

(c) The name and address of the manufacturer: Provided, That where rubbing alcohol compound is bottled for a certain wholesale or retail druggist and it is desired to show the name and address of such druggist on the label in lieu of the name and address of the manufacturer, such may be done if the industrial use permit number of the manufacturer is printed on the label;

(d) The legend "Contains 70 percent alcohol by volume," "Contains 70 percent ethyl alcohol by volume," or "Contains 70 percent absolute alcohol by volume;" and

(e) The legend "For external use only. If taken internally, serious gastric disturbances will result."

The manufacturer may incorporate in the brand label, or in a separate label appearing in conjunction with the brand label, any other desired statement, but such statement shall not obscure or contradict the required labeling. No misleading statement, which would give the impression that the product is pure alcohol or is susceptible of beverage use, shall be permitted on labels. No label shall be used on any bottle of rubbing alcohol compound unless the same has been approved by the assistant regional commissioner in accordance with § 211.102.

§ 211.189 Manufactured with isopropanol, etc.

A preparation labeled "Rubbing Alcohol Compound" without a definite modification is held to connote that such preparation was manufactured with specially denatured alcohol. Accordingly, if a preparation intended for use as rubbing alcohol compound is produced from any other material, such as isopropyl alcohol, it shall not be labeled "Rubbing Alcohol Compound" without appropriate modification, clearly indicating that it was not made with specially denatured alcohol.

§ 211.190 To whom may be sold.

Subpart K—Recovery of Denatured Alcohol, Specially Denatured Rum, and Articles

§ 211.211 General.

Manufacturers using denatured alcohol, specially denatured rum, or articles in an approved process may recover such alcohol, rum, or articles upon receiving approval therefor pursuant to the filing of appropriate qualifying documents in accordance with the applicable provisions of Subparts D, E, and G of this part: Provided, That a person who recovers completely denatured alcohol with all its original ingredients, an article made with specially denatured spirits with all its ingredients, or an article made with completely denatured alcohol with all the denaturants of the completely denatured alcohol shall not be required to obtain approval. Restoration and redenaturation may be accomplished by a permittee or by the proprietor of a distilled spirits plant.

All denatured alcohol, specially denatured rum, or articles recovered shall be accumulated, after recovery or restoration is completed, in a receiving tank equipped for locking. Where such product is to be shipped pursuant to § 211.217, it may be accumulated in appropriately marked packages. All denatured alcohol or specially denatured rum recovered shall be measured and recorded before being redenatured or reused. Recovered denatured alcohol or specially denatured rum and new denatured alcohol or specially denatured rum shall be kept in separate storage containers properly marked for identification.

§ 211.213 Reuse of recovered spirits.

If the denatured alcohol or specially denatured rum is recovered in its original denatured state, or practically so, or contains substantial quantities of the original denaturants and other ingredients which render it unfit for beverage or other internal human medicinal use, it may be reused in any approved process without further redenaturation. In such cases, the assistant regional commissioner shall cause samples of the recovered product to be taken from time to time for the purpose of determining whether the product requires redenaturation. Where the denatured alcohol or specially denatured rum is not recovered in such state, it shall be redenatured under the supervision of an internal revenue officer at the premises of the manufacturer or a denaturer before being used.

After ascertaining the quantity and proof of the spirits, the officer shall see that the proper quantity of denaturants are added to meet the requirements of the formula and thoroughly mixed with the spirits. On redenaturation of the recovered spirits, the internal revenue officer shall execute his report thereof on the original and copy of Form 1483 and deliver one copy of the form to the manufacturer.

§ 211.217 Shipment for restoration or redenaturation.

Recovered denatured alcohol, recovered specially denatured rum, or recovered articles requiring restoration or redenaturation, or both, unless the same is to be done on the manufacturer's premises, shall be shipped to a distilled spirits plant. Form 1486 shall be executed in duplicate, signed by the head of the department or independent bureau or agency to which such specially denatured spirits are to be shipped, or by some person duly authorized by such head of a department or independent bureau or agency and forwarded to the Director. Evidence of authority to sign for the head of a department or independent bureau or agency shall be furnished the Director. When specially denatured spirits are to be furnished to a contractor by an agency of the United States, the specially denatured spirits shall be purchased by the agency and the quantity of specially denatured spirits so furnished shall be limited to the minimum actually required by the contractor to meet Governmental requirements under the specific contract. The permit may be left with the denaturer or bonded dealer during the term of its use or retained by the agency and furnished to the supplier with each order for spirits. Every appropriate precaution shall be taken by the agency to insure that the specially denatured spirits so procured will be used only for Governmental purposes.

A purchase order shall be submitted by the Governmental agency for any specially denatured spirits shipped under the permit. At the time of shipment, the vendor shall record the shipment on the permit and return it to the Governmental agency unless he has been authorized by such agency to retain the permit for the purpose of making future shipments.

On receipt of permit, Form 1486, and shipment of the specially denatured spirits, by a bonded dealer, he shall prepare Form 1473 in quadruplicate, or in quintuplicate when shipping for the account of another bonded dealer. The bonded dealer shall mail the original and one copy of Form 1473 to the consignee, except that in the case of truck shipments, he will enclose them in a sealed envelope addressed to the representative of the Governmental agency to whom the specially denatured spirits are consigned and give them to the driver of the truck for delivery to such representative. He will forward one copy of the form to the assistant regional commissioner, a copy to the other bonded dealer when shipment is made for the account of such dealer, and file the remaining copy.

§ 211.235 Receipt of shipment.

On receipt of a shipment of specially denatured spirits, the representative of the Governmental agency receiving the same shall execute the certificate of receipt on the original and copy of Form 1473 received from the denaturer or bonded dealer, after noting thereon any loss or deficiency in the shipment, and shall forward the original to the assistant regional commissioner of the region in which the consignor is located and retain the copy for his files.

Except as provided in § 211.241, where the quantity lost from wooden packages contained in a shipment exceeds 3 percent of their original aggregate contents or the loss from any other containers in a shipment exceeds 1 percent of their original aggregate contents, and the quantity lost is more than 5 gallons, claim for allowance of the entire quantity lost shall be filed by the consignee. Where losses in transit do not exceed the quantities specified in this section and there are no circumstances indicating that any part of the quantity lost was unlawfully used or removed, no claim for allowance will be required.

§ 211.243 Losses at premises of bonded dealer or user.

Losses of specially denatured spirits from storage tanks shall be determined by physical inventory of such tanks at the close of each month. Losses, if any, from packages shall be determined at the time the packages are removed for shipment or dumped for repackaging or use. If the quantity lost during any one month exceeds 1 percent of the quantity of specially denatured spirits to be accounted for during the month, and is more than 5 gallons, claim for allowance of the entire quantity lost shall be made by the bonded dealer or user. Where losses on the premises do not exceed the quantities specified in this section and there are no circumstances indicating that any part of the loss was unlawfully used or removed, claim for allowance will not be required, except in the case of losses under § 211.241.

§ 211.244 Claims.

Where the reconsignment is to another permittee a new Form 1473 shall be prepared and have placed thereon the word "Reconsignment." The entry on the withdrawal permit covering the original shipment shall be voided and appropriate entries shall be made on the withdrawal permit of the permittee to whom the specially denatured spirits were reconsigned.

Persons who use specially denatured spirits or recover specially denatured spirits or articles shall prepare monthly reports on Form 1482: Provided, That in any instance where—

(a) The user is authorized to withdraw not over 660 gallons per annum, or

(b) The assistant regional commissioner, pursuant to application by the user who is authorized to withdraw more than 660 gallons per annum, finds that the permittee has an accounting system which will afford an adequate measure of control, and that the filing of an annual report will not interfere with the effective administration of the regulations in this part, such permittees may submit an annual report on Form 1482, on a fiscal year basis, in lieu of monthly reports for such period. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the assistant regional commissioner may at any time require the submission of monthly reports on Form 1482 by any permittee. Where both specially denatured alcohol and specially denatured rum are used, a separate report shall be prepared for each. The user shall submit the original of the Form 1482 to the assistant regional commissioner not later than the 10th day of the month succeeding the period for which the report is submitted and retain the duplicate for his files.

§ 211.272 Time for making of entries.

Each transaction or operation required by this subpart to be shown in the records shall be entered therein on the day on which the operation or transaction occurs, except where supplemental or auxiliary records are prepared of, and concurrent with, the individual transaction or operation, from which the records are to be posted, the making of entries on the daily records may be deferred to not later than the close of the business day next succeeding the day on which such operation or transaction occurred.

(72 Stat. 1373; 26 U.S.C. 5275)

All records required by this part, all auxiliary or supplemental records of individual operations and transactions from which such records are compiled, and copies of all reports submitted to the assistant regional commissioner shall be filed and maintained for a period of not less than three years after the date of the report covering the transaction or operation, in such manner as to facilitate inspection by internal revenue officers: Provided, That the assistant regional commissioner may require such records to be kept for an additional period of not exceeding three years in any case where he deems such retention necessary or advisable. Records and reports shall be filed at the premises where the operations are conducted. The files of records and reports shall be available during regular business hours for examination and taking of abstracts therefrom by internal revenue officers.

(b) The reproduction process to be employed.

(c) The manner in which the reproductions are to be preserved.

Whenever records are reproduced under this section, the reproduced records shall be preserved in conveniently accessible files, and provisions shall be made for examining, viewing, and using the reproduced record the same as if it were the original record, and it shall be treated and considered for all purposes as though it were the original record; all provisions of law and regulations applicable to the original record shall be applicable to the reproduced record. As used in this section "original record", shall mean the record required by this part to be maintained or preserved, even though it may be an executed duplicate or other copy of the document.

PART 212—FORMULAS FOR DENATURED ALCOHOL AND RUM

Miscellaneous Amendments

On February 5, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making to amend 26 CFR Part 212, with respect to formulas for denatured alcohol and specially denatured rum, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 1037).

In accordance with the notice, interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit written data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto. No comments or objections having been received, the amendments as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER are hereby adopted, subject to the clarifying changes set forth below:

1. The definition of "Essential oil" in § 212.5 is changed to read as set forth below.

2. Amendatory paragraph 9(C) of the notice, to amend § 212.15(b), is changed to read as set forth below.

3. A new amendatory paragraph 45a is inserted immediately following paragraph 45, to amend § 212.90.

This Treasury decision shall become effective on July 1, 1960.

Because this Treasury decision is a part of an integrated recodification program under chapter 51, I.R.C., and in order that the entire program may be effective on July 1, 1960, it is found that it is contrary to the public interest to issue this Treasury decision subject to the effective date limitation of section 4(c) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003). Accordingly, this Treasury decision shall become effective on July 1, 1960.

Acidity (as acetic acid). Not more than 0.015 percent by weight.

Color. Colorless.

Odor. Characteristic odor.

Ester content. Not less than 85 percent by weight.

Specific gravity at 20°/20° C. Not less than 0.882.

Distillation range (applicable A.S.T.M. method). When 100 ml. of ethyl acetate are distilled by this method, none shall distill below 70° C.; not more than 10 ml. shall distill below 72° C., and none above 80° C.

(b) 100 percent ester.

Acidity (as acetic acid). Not more than 0.010 percent by weight.

Color. Colorless.

Odor. Characteristic odor.

Ester content. Not less than 99 percent by weight.

Specific gravity at 20°/20° C. Not less than 0.899.

Distillation range (applicable A.S.T.M. method). When 100 ml. of ethyl acetate are distilled by this method, not more than 2 ml. shall distill below 75° C., and none above 80° C. (760 mm.).

44. A new § 212.83a is added, immediately following § 212.83, to read as follows:

§ 212.83a Methyl violet.

Methyl violet (Methylrosaniline Chloride) occurs as a dark green powder or crystals having metallic luster.

Arsenic content. Not more than 15 ppm. (as As_2O_3) as determined by the applicable U.S.P. method.

Identification test. Sprinkle about 1 mg. of sample on 1 ml. of sulfuric acid; it dissolves in the acid with an orange or brownred color. When this solution is diluted cautiously with water, the color changes to brown, then to green, and finally to blue.

Insoluble matter. Not to exceed 0.25 percent when tested by the following method: Transfer 1.0 gram of sample to a 150 ml. beaker containing 50 ml. of alcohol. Stir to complete solution and filter through a weighed Whatman No. 4 filter paper. Wash residue with small amounts of alcohol totaling about 50 ml. Dry paper in oven for 30 minutes at 80° C. and weigh. Calculate insoluble material.

45. A new § 212.87a is added, immediately following § 212.87, to read as follows:

§ 212.87a Quassin.

Quassin is the bitter principle of quassia wood (occuring as a mixture of two isomeric forms). It shall be a good commercial grade of purified amorphous quassin, standardized as to bitterness.

Bitterness. An aqueous solution of quassin shall be distinctly bitter at a 1 to 250,000 dilution. To test: Dissolve 0.1 g. of quassin in 100 ml. of 95 percent alcohol, then dilute 4 ml. of the solution to 1,000 ml. with distilled water, mix well and taste.

Identification test. Dissolve about 0.5 gram quassin in 10 ml. of 95 percent alcohol and filter. To 5 ml. of the filtrate, add 5 ml. of concentrated hydrochloric acid and 1 mg. phloroglucinol and mix well. A red color develops.

Optical assay. When 1 gram of quassin (in solution in a small amount of 95 percent alcohol) is dissolved in 10,000 ml. of water, the absorbance of the solution in a 1 cm. cell at a wavelength of 258 millimicrons shall be not less than 0.400.

Solubility. When 0.5 gram of quassin is added to 25 ml. of 190 proof alcohol, it shall dissolve completely.

§ 212.90 [Amendment]

45a. Section 212.90 is amended by striking the opening sentence, immediately following the words "arsenic content.", and by inserting in lieu thereof a new sentence to read "Not more than 1.4 parts per million as determined by the Gutzeit Method."

§ 212.94 [Amendment]

46. Section 212.94 is amended by striking the parenthetical expression "(or SDA No. 30)" in the two places where it appears and by inserting in lieu thereof the parenthetical expression "(or SDA No. 3–A or No. 30)".

46a. Section 212.95 is amended to read:

§ 212.95 Vinegar.

(a) Vinegar, 90-grain.

Acidity (as acetic acid). 9.0 percent by weight, minimum.

(b) Vinegar, 60-grain.

Acidity (as acetic acid). 6.0 percent by weight, minimum.

§ 212.96 [Amendment]

47. Section 212.96 is amended by striking the word "acetone" from the second sentence, which begins "It may be a blend of", and from the first sentence under the heading "Pyroligneous bodies", and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "ketone".

48. Subpart F is amended to read as follows:

PART 213—DISTRIBUTION AND USE OF TAX-FREE ALCOHOL

On February 5, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making proposing new regulations in 26 CFR Part 213, with respect to the distribution and use of tax-free alcohol, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 1043).

After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the rules proposed, and in order to make certain clarifying, liberalizing, and editorial changes, the regulations as so published are hereby adopted subject to the changes set forth below:

1. The first sentence of amendatory paragraph 3 of the Preamble is changed to read: "The regulations in this part shall become effective on July 1, 1960."

2. Section 213.11 is changed by redefining "Executed under penalties of perjury".

3. Section 213.22 is changed to read as set forth below.

4. Sections 213.29 to 213.31, inclusive, are renumbered as §§ 213.30 to 213.32, respectively, and a new § 213.29 is inserted immediately following § 213.28.

5. Newly designated § 213.30 is changed as follows:

(A) By striking from the first sentence the word "entirely"; and

(B) By changing the last sentence to read "When containers of tax-free alcohol have been emptied, the marks and brands shall be effaced or obliterated."

6. Newly designated § 213.31 is changed.

7. The proviso of § 213.43 is changed to read "Provided, That such waiver shall not include information required under paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (e), and, insofar as it relates to recovery, paragraph (f), of § 213.42."

8. Paragraph (a) of § 213.55 is changed by inserting, immediately after the words "such a permit," the words "or of the operations authorized thereby,".

9. Section 213.71 is changed by striking, in the first sentence, the words "covered by an industrial use permit on Form 1447", and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "authorized to be withdrawn".

10. Section 213.101 is changed to read as set forth below.

11. Section 213.109 is changed as follows:

(A) By striking from the second sentence the words "a period of one year," and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "the term of the permit,";

(B) By striking, from the third sentence, the words "during a year"; and

(C) By changing the period at the end of the fourth sentence, which begins "Where the applicant desires", to a colon and adding the words "Provided, That where one-sixth of the applicant's annual requirements is less than the equivalent of one drum (55 wine gallons), he may show as his monthly allowance a quantity not to exceed the equivalent of one drum without stating his needs for the additional quantity, if his bond is in a sufficient penal sum, computed in accordance with § 213.71."

12. Section 213.110 is changed by striking therefrom all of the last sentence, which begins "Withdrawal permits shall be".

13. The last sentence of § 213.116 is changed to read "On receipt of tax-free alcohol by the permittee, he shall ascertain and account for any losses in transit in accordance with Subpart J of this part, receipt for the shipment on the original and copy of Form 1473 received from the consignor, noting thereon any loss or deficiency in the shipment, forward the original to the assistant regional commissioner of his region, and file the copy in chronological order, by months."

14. Section 213.134 is changed by striking the words "two copies" immediately following the words "on the day of shipment, forward" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "the original and one copy".

15. Section 213.144 is changed to read as set forth below.

(D) By striking all of paragraph (f) and the first sentence following paragraph (f).

18. Section 213.165 is changed by striking the words "two copies" immediately following "on the day of shipment, forward" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "the original and one copy".

19. Section 213.178 is changed.

Because these regulations are a part of an integrated recodification program under chapter 51, I.R.C., and in order that the entire program may be effective on July 1, 1960, it is found that it is contrary to the public interest to issue these regulations subject to the effective date limitation of section 4(c) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003). Accordingly, these regulations shall become effective on July 1, 1960.

[SEAL] DANA LATHAM,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: June 23, 1960.

FRED C. SCRIBNER, Jr.,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

In order to provide separate regulations covering the distribution and use of tax-free alcohol, to further implement certain provisions of Title II of Public Law 85–859 (72 Stat. 1313), and to liberalize certain requirements with respect of the distribution and use of tax-free alcohol, the following regulations are hereby prescribed as Part 213 of Title 26 of the Code of Federal Regulations:

Preamble. 1. The regulations in this part shall supersede regulations in Part 183 of this chapter to the extent that such part relates to the distribution and use of tax-free alcohol, and shall supersede in their entirety regulations in Subpart N of Part 170 of this chapter.

2. These regulations shall not affect any act done (except as provided in paragraph 3) or any liability or right accruing or accrued, or any suit or proceeding had or commenced before the effective date of these regulations.

3. The regulations in this part shall become effective on July 1, 1960. Any act done prior to such date to qualify a permittee under this part, or otherwise provide for orderly administration of this part, shall be subject to these regulations and shall have the same effect as if done on July 1, 1960.

Failure to comply in good faith with such procedures, conditions, and limitations shall automatically terminate the authority for such variations and the permittee thereupon shall fully comply with the prescribed requirements of regulations from which the variations were authorized. Where the permittee desires to employ such variation, he shall submit a written application so to do, in tripli-

(3) Will not be contrary to any provision of law.

In case of a change in officers or directors, the notice shall be supported by a certified list, in duplicate, of such changes. Such notice is not required where there is a change in respect of information waived by the assistant regional commissioner in the original application for an industrial use permit in accordance with the provisions of § 213.43, unless, in the case of a permittee other than a State, political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, the quantity of tax-free alcohol to be obtained will exceed 120 proof gallons per year. Where the change affects the terms of an industrial use permit, the permittee shall file an application on Form 2600 for an amended industrial use permit. Items which remain unchanged may be marked "No change since Form 2600 Serial No. _____."

§ 213.55 Automatic termination of permits.

(a) Permits not transferable. Industrial use permits shall not be transferred. In the event of the lease, sale, or other transfer of such a permit, or of the operations authorized thereby, the permit shall thereupon automatically terminate.

(b) Corporations. In the case of a corporation holding an industrial use permit, if actual or legal control of the permittee corporation changes, directly or indirectly, whether by reason of change in stock ownership or control (in the permittee corporation or in any other corporation), by operation of law, or in any other manner, the permittee shall, within 10 days of such change, give written notice thereof, executed under the penalties of perjury, to the assistant regional commissioner; such permit may remain in effect with respect to the operation covered thereby until the expiration of 30 days after such change, whereupon such permit shall automatically terminate: Provided, That if within such 30-day period an application for a new permit covering such operation is made, then the outstanding permit may remain in effect with respect to the continuation of the operation covered thereby until final action is taken on such application. When such final action is taken, such outstanding permit shall thereupon automatically terminate.

§ 213.56 Adoption of documents by a fiduciary.

If the business is to be operated by a fiduciary, such fiduciary may, in lieu of qualifying as a new proprietor, file an application on Form 2600 to amend his predecessor's industrial use permit and furnish a consent of surety on Form 1533 extending the terms of the predecessor's bond, if any. The effective date of the qualifying documents filed by a fiduciary shall coincide with the effective date of the court order or the date specified therein for him to assume control. If the fiduciary was not appointed by the court, the date of his assuming control shall coincide with the effective date of the qualifying documents filed by him.

§ 213.57 Continuing partnerships.

Where, under the laws of the particular State, the partnership is not terminated on death or insolvency of a partner, but continues until the winding up of the partnership affairs is completed, and the surviving partner has the exclusive right to the control and possession of the partnership assets for the purpose of liquidation and settlement, such surviving partner may continue to withdraw and use tax-free alcohol under the prior qualification of the partnership: Provided, That a consent of surety, wherein the surety and the surviving partner agree to remain liable on any bond given on Form 1448, is filed. If such surviving partner acquires the business on completion of the settlement of the partnership, he shall qualify in his own name from the date of acquisition, as provided in § 213.58. The rule set forth in this section shall also apply where there is more than one surviving partner.

§ 213.58 Change in proprietorship.

An industrial use permit shall not be transferred. In the event of a change in proprietorship of the business of a permittee (as for instance, by reason of incorporation, the withdrawal or the taking in of one or more partners, or succession by any person who is not a fiduciary) the successor shall qualify in the same manner as the proprietor of a new business.

§ 213.59 Change in name of permittee.

Where there is to be a change in the individual, firm, or corporate name, the permittee shall file application on Form 2600 to amend his industrial use permit. Operations may not be conducted under the new name prior to issuance of the amended permit.

Where there is to be a change in, or addition of, a trade name, the permittee shall file application on Form 2600 to amend his industrial use permit. A new bond or consent of surety will not be required. Operations may not be conducted under the trade name prior to issuance of the amended permit.

§ 213.61 Change in location.

When a permittee intends to move to a new location within the same region, he shall file application on Form 2600 for an amended industrial use permit and, if a bond on Form 1448 had been given, furnish a consent of surety, Form 1533, or a new bond to cover the new location. Such notice shall be accompanied by the industrial use permit, any withdrawal permits issued to the permittee, and by a report on Form 1451 covering the discontinuance and marked "Final Report." The notice shall contain (a) a request that such permits be canceled, (b) a statement of the disposition made, as provided in § 213.164, of all tax-free alcohol, including recovered alcohol, if any, and (c) the date of discontinuance. The penal sum of the bond on Form 1448 shall be computed on each proof gallon of tax-free alcohol, including recovered and restored tax-free alcohol, authorized to be on hand, in transit to the permittee, and unaccounted for at any one time, at the rate prescribed by law as the internal revenue tax on distilled spirits: Provided, That the penal sum of any bond (or the total of the penal sums where original and strengthening bonds are filed) shall not exceed $100,000 nor be less than $500.

Strengthening bonds shall not be approved where any notation is made thereon which is intended or which may be construed to be a release of any former bond or as limiting the amount of any bond to less than its full penal sum. Strengthening bonds shall show the date of execution and the effective date, and be marked "Strengthening Bond".

Such date shall be not less than 90 days after the date the notice is received by the assistant regional commissioner. This notice may not be given by an agent of the surety unless it is accompanied by a power of attorney, duly executed by the surety, authorizing him to give such notice, or by a statement, executed under the penalties of perjury, that such power of attorney is on file with the Commissioner of Accounts, Surety Bonds Branch, Treasury Department. The surety shall also file with the assistant regional commissioner an acknowledgment or other proof of service of such notice on the principal.

Similarly, tax-free alcohol withdrawn by a hospital or sanitarium may be used in a pathological or other laboratory operated in connection with such hospital or sanitarium, on the hospital or sanitarium premises, to the same extent as it may otherwise be used by the hospital or sanitarium. Such independent pathological laboratories may not obtain tax-free alcohol if tests or analyses are made for doctors, dentists, or for any other purpose than as provided in this section. Except as provided in § 213.108, the use of tax-free alcohol and of products resulting from such use shall be confined strictly to the premises of the pathological laboratory.

(72 Stat. 1362; 26 U.S.C. 5214)

Persons holding permit on Form 1447 may not remove tax-free alcohol or products resulting from the use of such alcohol from premises under their control unless such removals are specifically authorized by the terms of their permit, or permission is obtained from the assistant regional commissioner: Provided, That (1) products made through the use of such alcohol which contain no alcohol may be removed to other premises for the sole purpose of further research, and (2) bona fide medicines compounded by a clinic operated for charity and not for profit may be used outside of such clinic for treatment of its patients if the medicine is distributed without charge to the extent authorized in §§ 213.104 and 213.105. Hospitals may not furnish tax-free alcohol for use of physicians in their private practice. Where the applicant desires to withdraw more than one-sixth of his annual requirements during any month, he should state his needs and furnish sufficient information for the assistant regional commissioner to determine whether such withdrawals should be authorized: Provided, That where one-sixth of the applicant's annual requirements is less than the equivalent of one drum (55 wine gallons), he may show as his monthly allowance a quantity not to exceed the equivalent of one drum without stating his needs for the additional quantity, if his bond is in a sufficient penal sum, computed in accordance with § 213.71. A permittee may, if he so desires, file applications for more than one withdrawal permit and have his total annual withdrawals divided among such permits.

(72 Stat. 1370; 26 U.S.C. 5271)

§ 213.110 Issuance and duration of withdrawal permit.

If the application submitted in accordance with § 213.109 is approved, the assistant regional commissioner shall issue withdrawal permit on Form 1450 and shall forward the original to the permittee. (72 Stat. 1370; 26 U.S.C. 5271)

§ 213.114 Withdrawals under permit.

When the permittee desires to procure tax-free alcohol, he shall forward the original of the withdrawal permit to the proprietor of the distilled spirits plant from whom he will procure such alcohol. Shipments shall not be made by the proprietor of a distilled spirits plant until he is in possession of a valid withdrawal permit, nor shall shipments exceed the quantity authorized by such permit. Withdrawals by a permittee shall not exceed the quantity authorized by his permit on Form 1450 and shall be so regulated by him that he will not have on hand, in transit, and unaccounted for at any one time more than the quantity of tax-free alcohol shown in his application on Form 2600 for an industrial use permit. Recovered alcohol and alcohol received under § 213.117 shall be taken into account in determining the quantity of alcohol on hand. For this purpose, tax-free alcohol and recovered alcohol shall be deemed to be unaccounted for if lost under circumstances where a claim for allowance is required by this part and has not been allowed or if used or disposed of otherwise than as provided in this part.

§ 213.116 Receipt of tax-free alcohol.

As soon as received, tax-free alcohol shall be placed in the storage facilities prescribed by § 213.91 and kept there under lock until withdrawn for use. Unless required by city or State fire code regulations or authorized by the assistant regional commissioner or the terms of the permit, the permittee may not remove tax-free alcohol from the original packages or containers in which received until such alcohol is withdrawn for use. If the tax-free alcohol is transferred to "safety" containers in accordance with such fire code regulations, the container to which they are transferred shall be appropriately marked to show the serial number of the package from which transferred, the quantity transferred, the date of transfer, and the name and address of the vendor. On receipt of tax-free alcohol by the permittee, he shall ascertain and account for any losses in transit in accordance with Subpart J of this part, receipt for the shipment on the original and copy of Form 1473 received from the consignor, noting thereon any loss or deficiency in the shipment, forward the original to the assistant regional commissioner of his region, and file the copy in chronological order, by months.

Any eleemosynary institution holding an industrial use permit, Form 1447, and receiving alcohol from General Services Administration under the provisions of section 5688(a)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code shall include any quantity of alcohol so received in computing the quantity of tax-free alcohol that may be procured under its withdrawal permit, Form 1450, during the calendar month. Such alcohol shall, on receipt, be placed in the storage facilities prescribed in § 213.91 and kept there under lock until withdrawn for use.

§ 213.118 Records and reports.

Tax-free alcohol users shall keep records and render reports as required under Subpart L of this part.

Subpart H—Recovery of Tax-Free Alcohol

Persons desiring to recover tax-free alcohol for reuse shall first receive approval therefor pursuant to the filing of appropriate qualifying documents, in accordance with the applicable provisions of Subparts D and E of this part. Restoration may be accomplished by the permittee or by the proprietor of a distilled spirits plant.

§ 213.132 Deposit in tanks.

All recovered tax-free alcohol shall be accumulated in tanks equipped for locking and properly marked for identification. Where the recovered alcohol is to be shipped to a distilled spirits plant for redistillation, it may be transferred to appropriately marked packages. All tax-free alcohol recovered shall be measured before being redistilled or reused and shall be kept separate from new tax-free alcohol.

§ 213.133 Shipment for redistillation.

Recovered alcohol requiring redistillation, unless the same is to be done on the permittee's premises, shall be shipped to a distilled spirits plant for restoration. Packages shall be numbered in serial order, beginning with "1" and continuing in regular sequence, and have marked or stenciled thereon the name, address, and permit number of the permittee, the quantity, in gallons, of alcohol contained therein, and the words "Recovered tax-free alcohol."

§ 213.134 Notice of shipment.

When recovered tax-free alcohol is shipped as provided for in § 213.133, the consignor shall prepare Form 1473, in quadruplicate (quintuplicate if consignee is located in another region) and, on the day of shipment, forward the original and one copy to the proprietor of the distilled spirits plant to which shipment is made, one copy (two copies if shipment is made to a consignee in another region) to the assistant regional commissioner of his region, and retain the remaining copy for his files.

Subpart I—Use of Tax-Free Spirits by the United States or Governmental Agency

§ 213.141 General.

Tax-free spirits may be withdrawn under this part from a distilled spirits plant for use of the United States or any Governmental agency thereof for nonbeverage purposes, as authorized by section 5214(a)(2), I.R.C. No industrial use permit or bond is required. However, a permit to procure spirits, free of tax, for nonbeverage purposes must be obtained in accordance with this subpart before tax-free spirits may be withdrawn for such use. The withdrawal, free of tax, of imported spirits from customs custody for the use of the United States shall be in accordance with the applicable provisions of Part 251 of this chapter.

(72 Stat. 1362; 26 U.S.C. 5214)

Application, Form 1444, by the United States or a Governmental agency thereof for a permit to procure tax-free spirits from a distilled spirits plant for nonbeverage purposes shall be executed in duplicate and shall be signed by the head of the department or independent bureau or agency to which such tax-free spirits are to be shipped, or by some person duly authorized by such head of a department or independent bureau or agency. Evidence of authority to sign for the head of a department or independent bureau or agency shall be furnished the Director. The permit may be left with the supplier during the term of its use or retained by the agency and furnished to the supplier with each order for spirits. Every appropriate precaution shall be taken by the agency to insure that the tax-free spirits so procured will be used only for Governmental purposes.

(72 Stat. 1370; 26 U.S.C. 5271)

§ 213.143 Procurement of tax-free spirits.

When tax-free spirits are to be procured by the United States or a Governmental agency thereof, the permit, Form 1444, shall be forwarded to the vendor. A purchase order shall be submitted by the Governmental agency for any tax-free spirits shipped under the permit. At the time of shipment, the vendor shall record the shipment on the permit and return it to the Governmental agency unless he has been authorized by such agency to retain the permit for the purpose of making future shipments.

§ 213.144 Receipt of shipment.

On receipt of a shipment of tax-free spirits, the representative of the Governmental agency receiving the same shall execute the certificate of receipt on the original and copy of Form 1473 received from the proprietor of the distilled spirits plant, after noting thereon any loss or deficiency in the shipment, and shall forward the original to the assistant regional commissioner of the region in which the consignor is located and retain the copy for his files.

§ 213.145 Discontinuance of use.

When no more tax-free spirits will be procured under a permit the Governmental agency shall return the permit to the Director for cancellation.

§ 213.146 Disposition of excess spirits.

Any excess spirits in the possession of a Governmental agency shall be disposed of to another agency of the United States holding a permit, returned to a distilled spirits plant on approval of the assistant regional commissioner of the region in which the plant is located, or disposed of otherwise as may be authorized by the Director. In no case may such spirits be disposed of to the general public.

Subpart J—Losses

§ 213.151 Losses by theft.

The quantity of tax-free alcohol lost by theft shall be determined at the time the loss is discovered. Such losses on the premises of users shall be recorded in the records required by § 213.171 and reported on Form 1451. Those occurring in transit shall be reported on the Form 1473. The permittee shall immediately report such loss to the assistant regional commissioner, explaining the circumstances under which the loss occurred. Claim for allowance for all such losses, regardless of the percentage of loss, shall be made by the permittee.

§ 213.152 Losses in transit.

The quantity of tax-free alcohol lost while in transit to the premises of a permittee shall be determined at the time shipment or report of loss is received and shall be reported on Form 1473. Except as provided in § 213.151, where the quantity lost from wooden packages contained in a shipment exceeds 3 percent of their original aggregate contents or the loss from any other containers in a shipment exceeds 1 percent of their original aggregate contents, and the quantity lost is more than 5 proof gallons, claim for allowance of the entire quantity lost shall be filed by the permittee. Where losses in transit do not exceed the quantities specified in this section and there are no circumstances indicating that any part of the quantity lost was unlawfully used or removed, no claim for allowance will be required.

§ 213.153 Losses at user's premises.

The quantity of tax-free alcohol lost on the premises of a permittee shall, except as provided in § 213.151 and in the case of casualty and unusual losses, be determined and recorded at the end of each month when the inventory of tax-free alcohol required under § 213.172 is taken. Casualty or other unusual losses shall be determined and recorded in the records required by § 213.171 at the time of discovery. All losses on the premises of the permittee shall be reported on Form 1451. If the quantity lost during any one month exceeds 1 percent of the quantity of tax-free alcohol to be accounted for during the month, and is more than 5 proof gallons, claim for allowance of the entire quantity lost shall be made by the permittee. Where losses on the premises do not exceed the quantities specified in this section and there are no circumstances indicating that any part of the loss was unlawfully used or removed, claim for loss will not be required, except in the case of losses under § 213.151.

§ 213.154 Claims.

Claims for allowance of losses of tax-free alcohol shall be filed, on Form 2635, with the assistant regional commissioner within 30 days from the date the loss is ascertained, and shall set forth the following:

(a) Name, address, and permit number of the claimant;

(b) Identification and location of the container or containers from which the tax-free alcohol was lost;

(c) Quantity of tax-free alcohol lost from each container, the total quantity of such alcohol covered by the claim, and the aggregate quantity involved;

(d) Date of the loss (or, if not known, date of discovery), the cause or nature thereof, and all the facts relative thereto, including facts establishing whether the loss occurred as a result of any negligence, connivance, collusion, or fraud on the part of any person participating in, or responsible in any manner for, the transaction, or any employee or agent of such person; and

(e) Name of carrier where a loss in transit is involved.

The assistant regional commissioner may require the submission of additional evidence.

Subpart K—Destruction, Return, or Reconsignment of Tax-Free Alcohol and Disposition of Recovered Alcohol

§ 213.161 Destruction.

Tax-free alcohol in the possession of a permittee may be destroyed by him on approval of the assistant regional commissioner. The permittee shall file application to do so with the assistant regional commissioner, in duplicate, stating fully the reasons therefor. On approval of the application, the assistant regional commissioner shall instruct the permittee whether or not the destruction shall be witnessed by an internal revenue officer. If an internal revenue officer is assigned, he shall certify to the destruction on the original and copy of the approved application, specifying the date and manner of destruction. If no internal revenue officer is assigned, such certification shall be made by the permittee. The copy of the approved application shall be filed by the permittee and the original returned to the assistant regional commissioner.

§ 213.162 Return.

For any legitimate reason, a permittee may return tax-free alcohol to a distilled spirits plant (whether or not such plant was the original shipper), if the distilled spirits plant proprietor consents to the return and permission for the transfer is in each instance first obtained from the assistant regional commissioner. Application for such permission shall be filed in triplicate (quadruplicate if the distilled spirits plant is in another region). If the application is approved the assistant regional commissioner shall forward a copy to the permittee, a copy to the proprietor of the distilled spirits plant and the additional copy, if any, to the consignee's assistant regional commissioner.

§ 213.163 Reconsignment in transit.

Where, prior to or on arrival at the premises of a consignee, tax-free alcohol is found to be unsuitable for the purpose for which intended, was shipped in error, or, for any other bona fide reason, is not accepted by such consignee, or is not accepted by a carrier, it may be reconsigned to another permittee by the proprietor of the distilled spirits plant making shipment, or returned to the shipping plant, on notification by the consignor to the assistant regional commissioner of the consignor's region of such action. In such case, the bond of the permittee to whom the tax-free alcohol was reconsigned or the bond of the proprietor to whom the alcohol was returned shall cover such spirits while in transit after reconsignment. Notice of cancellation of the Form 1473 covering the shipment to the original consignee shall be made by the consignor to each person receiving a copy of Form 1473. Where reconsignment is to another permittee the consignor shall also prepare a new Form 1473 and place thereon the word "Reconsignment." The entry on the withdrawal permit covering the original shipment shall be voided, and appropriate entries shall be made by the consignor on the withdrawal permit of the permittee to whom the tax-free alcohol was reconsigned.

§ 213.164 Disposition on permanent discontinuance of use.

When a permittee permanently discontinues the use of tax-free alcohol, any tax-free alcohol remaining on hand at the time of such discontinuance may be returned to a distilled spirits plant in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 213.162, destroyed in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 213.161, or, on approval of an application therefor by the assistant regional commissioner, disposed of to another permittee, if consent of surety is filed on the consignee's bond extending the terms thereof to cover the transportation of the alcohol to his premises. The application for disposition to another permittee shall be prepared and disposed of in the manner prescribed in § 213.162.

§ 213.165 Notice of shipment.

When tax-free alcohol is shipped in accordance with § 213.162 or § 213.164, the consignor shall prepare Form 1473, in quadruplicate (quintuplicate if the consignee is located in another region) and, on the day of shipment, forward the original and one copy to the consignee, one copy (two if the consignee is located in another region) to the assistant regional commissioner of his region, and retain the remaining copy for his files.

§ 213.166 Disposition after revocation of permit.

When any industrial use permit, Form 1447, is revoked, all tax-free alcohol in transit to and in the possession of the former permittee, and all recovered alcohol, may continue to be lawfully possessed by him for a period of 60 days after such revocation, but only for the purpose of making lawful disposition thereof, pursuant to proper permit therefor, which the permittee shall do within said period. Unless such stocks are disposed of within the period of 60 days they are subject to seizure and forfeiture.

§ 213.167 Disposition of recovered tax-free alcohol on permanent discontinuance of use.

Recovered tax-free alcohol in possession of a permittee at the time of permanent discontinuance of the use of tax-free alcohol shall be disposed of only as authorized by the assistant regional commissioner after full advice respecting its condition and the disposition it is desired to make of such recovered alcohol has been submitted to him.

Subpart L—Records and Reports

§ 213.171 Records.

Persons holding permit on Form 1447 to use tax-free alcohol, shall keep records in sufficient detail (a) to enable any internal revenue officer to verify all transactions in tax-free alcohol and to ascertain whether there has been compliance with law and regulations, and (b) to enable the permittee to prepare Form 1451. Such records shall identify the tax-free alcohol by proof, shall show the date of each transaction and the actual quantities of alcohol involved, and shall include tax-free alcohol received from General Services Administration and the recovery of alcohol and disposition thereof. Records of receipt and authorized removals of tax-free alcohol shall show the name, address, and registry or permit number (if any) of each consignee or consignor, and the type, number, and serial numbers of containers involved. Records must be kept current at all times.

(72 Stat. 1373; 26 U.S.C. 5275)

§ 213.172 Monthly inventories.

At the end of every calendar month, each permittee shall take and record an actual inventory of all tax-free alcohol in his possession. Recovered tax-free alcohol and alcohol received from General Services Administration, if any, shall be listed separately.

§ 213.173 Reports.

Every person holding industrial use permit, Form 1447, shall prepare an annual report on Form 1451. Spirits received from General Services Administration under § 213.117, if any, and spirits recovered pursuant to Subpart H of this part, if any, shall be reported separately. In the case of a State, municipal subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, holding a permit covering the use of tax-free alcohol in a number of institutions under its control, Form 1451, submitted by such permittee shall include alcohol used by its dependent agencies, institutions, or departments. The permittee shall submit the original to the assistant regional commissioner not later than the 10th day of January of each year, together with his renewal application, Form 1450, if any, and retain the duplicate copy for his files.

(72 Stat. 1373; 26 U.S.C. 5275)

§ 213.174 Time for making of entries.

Each transaction required by this subpart to be shown in the records shall be entered therein on the day on which the operations occur, except where supplemental or auxiliary records are prepared of, and concurrent with, the individual transaction or operation from which the records can be posted, the making of entries on the records may be deferred to not later than the close of the business day next succeeding the day on which the operation or transaction occurred.

(72 Stat. 1373; 26 U.S.C. 5275)

§ 213.175 Filing and retention of records and copies of reports.

All records required by this part and copies of all reports submitted to the assistant regional commissioner shall be filed and maintained for a period of not less than three years after the date of the report covering the transaction, in such manner as to facilitate inspection by internal revenue officers: Provided, That the assistant regional commissioner may require such records to be kept for an additional period of not exceeding three years in any case where he deems such retention necessary or advisable. Records and reports shall be filed at the premises where such operations are conducted, except that such records may be kept by a State, municipal subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia qualified to procure tax-free alcohol for the use of dependent agencies, institutions, or departments. The files of records and reports shall be available during regular business hours for examination and taking of abstracts therefrom by internal revenue officers.

§ 213.176 Photographic copies of records.

Persons who desire to record, copy, or reproduce records required to be preserved under § 213.175 by any photographic, photostatic, microfilm, microcard, miniature photographic, or other process which accurately reproduces or forms a durable medium for so reproducing the original of such records, shall make application to the assistant regional commissioner, in triplicate, to do so, describing:

(a) The records to be reproduced.

(b) The reproduction process to be employed.

(c) The manner in which the reproductions are to be preserved.

(d) The provisions to be made for examining, viewing, and using such reproductions.

The assistant regional commissioner shall not approve any application unless (1) the Director has approved that type of record for reproduction and the reproduction process to be employed, and (2) the manner of preservation of the reproductions and the provisions for examining, viewing, and using such reproductions are, in the assistant regional commissioner's opinion, satisfactory. Whenever records are reproduced under this section, the reproduced records shall be preserved in conveniently accessible files, and provisions shall be made for examining, viewing, and using the reproduced record the same as if it were the original record, and it shall be treated and considered for all purposes as though it were the original record; all provisions of law and regulations applicable to the original record shall be applicable to the reproduced record. As used in this section "original record" shall mean the record required by this part to be maintained or preserved, even though it may be an executed duplicate or other copy of the document.

Basis and purpose. The provisions of §§ 722.101 to 722.152 are issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (52 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1281 et seq.). These provisions govern the identification and measurement of farms; the amount, adjustment, and review of the farm marketing quota and farm marketing excess; the issuance of marketing cards and marketing certificates; the identification of extra long staple cotton (hereinafter referred to as "ELS cotton") which is marketed as being subject to or not subject to the penalty and lien for the penalty; the rate of the penalty and the manner in which penalties shall be paid by producers and buyers; the refunding of penalty overpayments; the records and reports required to be made by ELS cotton producers, ginners, buyers, warehousemen, and others; and other miscellaneous matters regarding the production and marketing of ELS cotton.

Notice of proposed formulation of marketing quota regulations for ELS cotton of the 1960 and succeeding crops when marketing quotas are in effect for such cotton was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 22, 1960 (25 F.R. 3529) in accordance with section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003) and the data and recommendations received in response to such notice have been duly considered.

In order that the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State and county committees may perform their functions in an orderly manner and be in position to determine and give notice of penalties on overplanted farms prior to marketing of the ELS cotton, it is essential that §§ 722.101 to 722.152 be made effective as soon as possible. Accordingly, it is hereby determined and found that compliance with the 30-day effective date provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and contrary to the public interest and §§ 722.101 to 722.152 shall be effective upon filing this document with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

The provisions of §§ 722.101 to 722.152 apply to ELS cotton produced in 1960 and succeeding years when marketing quotas are in effect and to carryover ELS cotton which is marketed by producers in the 1960–61 and succeeding marketing years. The regulations pertaining to marketing quotas for ELS cotton of the 1958 and succeeding crops (23 F.R. 3241), as amended, apply to the 1958 and 1959 crops of ELS cotton.

§ 722.102 Definitions.

As used in §§ 722.101 to 722.152 and in all forms and documents in connection therewith, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires, the following terms shall have the following meanings and the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter genders and the singular shall include the plural number:

In Puerto Rico, the Caribbean ASC Area Committee shall, insofar as applicable, perform the functions of the State committee and the county committee and the Director, Caribbean ASC Area Office shall, insofar as applicable, perform the functions of the State administrative officer.

(3) "Director" means the Director, or Acting Director, Cotton Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

(4) "Review committee" means the group of persons appointed by the Secretary as a review committee pursuant to section 363 of the act.

(11) "Crop year" means the calendar year in which the ELS cotton is planted.

(12) "County" means county or parish of a State. The Northern Area (ELS cotton producing areas in northern Puerto Rico) and the Southern Area (ELS cotton producing areas in southern Puerto Rico) are considered as separate counties.

If for any year of such five-year period actual yield data are not available or there was no actual yield, the yield for such year shall be appraised by taking into consideration the yields in years for which data are available, abnormal weather conditions, and the yields for such year in nearby counties in which the type of soil, topography, and farming practices are similar. If because of drought, flood, insect pests, plant disease, or other uncontrollable natural cause, the yield in any year of such five-year period is less than 75 percent of the average (computed without regard to such year), such year shall be eliminated in calculating the normal yield per acre for the county. The normal yield determined for a county shall be kept readily available to the public in the county office and the normal yield determined for each county in a State shall be kept readily available to the public in the State office.

(4) "Normal yield" for any year means the average yield per harvested acre of ELS lint cotton for the farm, adjusted for abnormal weather conditions, during the five calendar years immediately preceding the year in which such normal yield is determined. If for any such year, actual yield data are not available or there was no actual yield, the normal yield for the farm shall be appraised by the county committee taking into consideration abnormal weather conditions, the normal yield for the county, and the yield in years for which data are available. In the case of new ELS cotton farms, the county committee may also take into consideration the normal yields of other farms in the locality which are similar with respect to soil and other physical factors affecting the production of ELS cotton. The determination made by the county committee under this subparagraph shall be subject to the approval of a representative of the State committee.

(5) "Normal production" of any number of acres for a crop year means the normal yield of ELS lint cotton per acre for the farm for such year multiplied by such number of acres.

(6) "Actual production" of ELS cotton on the farm means the total number of pounds of ELS lint cotton determined to have been produced on the farm in the crop year. ELS cotton will be considered to have been produced in the crop year in which the acreage from which it was produced was planted.

(ii) The terms "barter" and "exchange" mean transfer of title to ELS cotton by a producer to another in exchange for ELS cotton or any other commodity, service, or property in cases where the value of the ELS cotton or such other commodity, service, or property is not considered in terms of money, or the transfer of title to ELS cotton by a producer to another in payment of a fixed rental or other charge for land.

(iii) The term "gift inter vivos" means any transfer of title, accompanied by delivery, to ELS cotton by a producer to another which takes effect immediately and irrevocably and is made without any consideration or compensation therefor.

§ 722.103 Issuance of forms and instructions.

Forms and instructions with respect to internal management necessary for carrying out §§ 722.101 to 722.152 shall be prepared under the direction of the director and shall be issued by the deputy administrator. Copies of such forms and instructions shall be furnished free to persons needing them upon request made to the office of the State or county committee or to the director.

§ 722.104 Extent of calculations and rule of fractions.

In making any computation in connection with §§ 722.101 to 722.152, the amount of ELS lint cotton shall be rounded to the nearest whole pound and the amount of penalties or refunds shall be rounded to the nearest whole cent. Fractions of exactly five-tenths of a pound or cent shall be dropped.

IDENTIFICATION AND MEASUREMENT OF FARMS

§ 722.105 Identification of farms.

Each farm as operated for a crop year shall be identified by a farm serial number and all records pertaining to marketing quotas for such crop year and farm shall be identified by the farm serial number.

§ 722.106 Measurement of farms.

The county committee shall provide for measurement each crop year of the acreage planted to ELS cotton on farms in accordance with Part 718 of this chapter (24 F.R. 4223), as amended.

§ 722.107 Reports and records of farm measurements.

The county committee shall keep a record for each crop year of the measurements made on all farms. It shall file with the State office a written report for each crop year on Form MQ-94—Cotton (ELS) setting forth for each farm with a farm marketing excess the following: (a) Farm serial number, (b) name of operator, (c) farm allotment, (d) acreage planted to ELS cotton, and (e) total cropland.

FARM MARKETING QUOTA AND FARM MARKETING EXCESS

§ 722.108 ELS cotton subject to marketing quota provisions.

Marketing quotas for each crop of ELS cotton shall be applicable to any ELS cotton of that crop notwithstanding that such cotton may be available for marketing prior to or subsequent to the marketing year which begins in the year when the ELS cotton is planted. Carryover ELS cotton marketed during any marketing year shall be subject to §§ 722.101 to 722.152 to the extent applicable.

§ 722.109 Farm marketing quotas.

The farm marketing quota for each crop year for any farm shall be that number of pounds of ELS lint cotton produced on the farm less the amount of the farm marketing excess for such crop year. In addition, ELS lint cotton which producers have on hand from any previous crop (except ELS cotton on which a penalty was incurred and has not been paid) may also, when properly identified, be marketed penalty free.

§ 722.110 Amount of farm marketing excess.

The farm marketing excess for each crop year shall be the normal production of the acreage planted to ELS cotton on the farm in excess of the farm allotment for such crop year. For a farm having a zero allotment or no allotment, the entire acreage planted to ELS cotton shall be used in determining the farm marketing excess for such crop year. Where it is established to the satisfaction of the county committee, by any producer on the farm in connection with an application filed by him or by any other producer on the farm, in accordance with § 722.112 that the actual production of ELS cotton on the farm in a crop year is less than the normal production of the acreage planted to ELS cotton on the farm in such crop year, the farm marketing excess shall be adjusted downward to the amount by which such actual production exceeds the normal production of the farm allotment.

§ 722.111 Notice of farm marketing quota and farm marketing excess.

Written notice of the farm marketing quota and, where applicable, the farm marketing excess, established for a farm for any crop year shall be mailed to the operator of such farm. Notice so given shall constitute notice to each producer having an interest in the ELS cotton produced or to be produced on the farm in such crop year. Each notice shall contain a brief statement of the procedure whereby application for a review of the farm marketing quota or farm marketing excess, or any determination made in connection therewith, may be had in accordance with section 363 of the act. A record of the date of mailing the notice to the operator of the farm shall be kept among the records of the county office and upon request a copy of the notice shall be furnished without charge to any producer on the farm for which the notice is given. Such notice shall contain the information necessary in each case to inform the producer as to the basis for the determinations set forth in the notice and the effect thereof.

§ 722.112 Farm marketing excess adjustment.

(a) Application for adjustment in the farm marketing excess. Any producer having an interest in the ELS cotton produced in any crop year on a farm with a farm marketing excess may apply in writing to the county committee for a downward adjustment in the amount of the farm marketing excess on the basis of the amount of ELS cotton produced in such crop year on the farm. Any such application shall be filed with the county committee not later than the earlier of (1) 60 days after harvest of such ELS cotton crop is completed on the farm or by such later date as is approved by the State committee on the basis of a recommendation by the county committee and a showing that the producer's failure to apply for such adjustment within the 60-day period was due to circumstances beyond his control or (2) March 15 (June 15 for the Southern Area of Puerto Rico) of the year following the year in which the ELS cotton was planted. If the harvesting of ELS cotton on the farm has not been completed by March 15 (June 15 for the Southern Area of Puerto Rico) of the year following the year in which the ELS cotton was planted but an application has been timely filed under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the producer may request the county committee to provide for an estimate to be made of the amount of unharvested ELS cotton on the farm in order that a final determination of the actual production on the farm for such crop year may be made. The county committee shall keep a record of each application so made and the date thereof. The county committee shall establish a time and place at which each application will be considered and shall notify the applicant of the time and place of the hearing. Insofar as practicable, applications shall be considered and acted upon in the order in which applications are made. Unless application for an adjustment in the farm marketing excess is made within the period of time provided for in this paragraph, the farm marketing excess as determined pursuant to § 722.110 shall be final as to the producers on the farm. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, whenever the county committee determines that no ELS cotton has been or will be produced on a farm with a farm marketing excess for the year for which such farm marketing excess is determined, the county committee may adjust the farm marketing excess and notify the operator of such adjustment, as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Procedure in connection with an application for an adjustment in the farm marketing excess. The county committee shall consider each application on the basis of facts known by or made available to it and on the basis of such evidence as may be presented to it by the applicant. Official measurement of the ELS cotton acreage on the farm for the crop year in question must have been made before the county committee approves a determination of the actual production of ELS cotton on the farm. The actual production of ELS cotton in such crop year on any farm shall be determined in view of the relevant facts, including the measured acreage planted to ELS cotton in such crop year on the farm, the past production on the farm, the actual yields per acre in such crop year for other farms in the community which are similar with regard to farming practices followed, type of soil and productivity; the harvesting, ginning, and sales of the ELS cotton produced on the farm in such crop year; and weather conditions and other factors in such crop year affecting the production of ELS cotton on the farm and in the locality in which the farm is situated. In the consideration of any application for adjustment in the farm marketing excess the producer shall have the burden of proof. The evidence presented by the applicant may be in the form of written statements or other documentary evidence or of oral testimony in a hearing before the county committee during its consideration of the application. In order to expedite the consideration of applications, the county committee shall receive, in advance of the time fixed for consideration of the application, any written statement or documentary evidence offered by or on behalf of the applicant, and the application may be disposed of upon the basis of such statement or evidence, together with any other information bearing on or establishing the facts, which is available to the county committee, unless the applicant appears before the county committee at the time fixed for consideration of the application and requests a hearing for the purpose of offering additional documentary evidence or oral testimony in support of the application. Every such hearing shall be open to the public. The county committee shall make its determination in connection with each application not later than five calendar days next succeeding the day on which the consideration of the application was concluded. The determination of the county committee shall be in writing and shall contain (1) a concise statement of the grounds upon which the applicant sought an adjustment in the amount of the farm marketing excess, (2) a concise statement of the findings of the county committee upon the question of fact, and (3) the determination of the county committee as to the farm marketing quota, the actual production of ELS cotton on the farm, the farm marketing excess, and the penalty due on the farm marketing excess. The determination made by the county committee under this paragraph shall be subject to approval by a representative of the State committee. A notice showing the result of the determination made as aforesaid, shall be mailed to the operator of the farm and also to the applicant if he is not such operator.

(c) Application for adjustment in the farm marketing excess in cases where the initial notice of farm marketing excess mailed after thirty days prior to expiration of filing period established under paragraph (a) of this section. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, in any case where the initial notice of farm marketing excess is mailed to the farm operator any time after a date which is thirty days prior to the expiration date for filing application for the crop year under paragraph (a) of this section, any producer having an interest in the ELS cotton produced on the farm in such crop year may apply in writing to the county committee for a downward adjustment in the amount of the farm marketing excess on the basis of the amount of ELS cotton produced in such crop year on the farm. Any such application shall be filed with the county committee not later than thirty days after the date of mailing of such notice of farm marketing excess to the farm operator. The county committee shall keep a record of each application so made and the date thereof. The county committee shall establish a time and place at which each application will be considered and shall notify the applicant of the time and place of the hearing. Insofar as practicable, applications shall be considered and acted upon in the order in which applications are made. Unless application for an adjustment in the farm marketing excess in cases arising under this paragraph is made within the period of time provided for in this paragraph, the farm marketing excess as determined pursuant to § 722.110 shall be final as to the producers on the farm. The procedures provided in paragraph (b) of this section shall be followed to the extent practicable in cases arising under this paragraph.

§ 722.113 Publication of the farm allotment, normal yield, marketing quota, and marketing excess.

A record of the farm allotment, normal yield, farm marketing quota, and farm marketing excess established for farms in the county shall be kept readily available in the office of the county committee for public inspection for a period of not less than 30 calendar days. At the end of such period, the records shall be filed in the office of the county committee and remain readily available for further public inspection. Copies of notices, or other compilations upon which the pertinent data are shown may be used for this purpose.

§ 722.114 Marketing quotas not transferable.

A farm marketing quota established for a farm may not be assigned or otherwise transferred in whole or in part to any other farm except as specifically provided in the applicable acreage allotment regulations for release and reapportionment pursuant to section 344 of the act and transfer of allotments pursuant to section 378 of the act. Under sections 345 and 347 of the act, farm marketing quotas are established for each crop year for both upland and extra long staple cotton. The farm marketing quota established under the provisions of §§ 722.108 to 722.116 for a crop of ELS cotton may not be used in whole or in part in connection with the marketing of upland cotton.

§ 722.115 Successors-in-interest.

Any person who succeeds to the interest of a producer in a farm, or in an ELS cotton crop produced on a farm, for which a farm marketing quota and a farm marketing excess were established, including a farm on which ELS cotton was planted in a crop year but for which a farm ELS cotton allotment was not established for such crop year, shall, to the same extent as his predecessor, be entitled to all the rights and privileges incident to such marketing quota and marketing excess and be subject to the penalty on the farm marketing excess and to the lien on the entire crop of ELS cotton and to the restrictions on the marketing of such cotton.

§ 722.116 Review of quotas.

(a) Review committee. Any producer who is dissatisfied with the farm marketing quota and farm marketing excess determined for his farm may, by making application in writing within 15 days after the mailing to him of the notice provided for in § 722.111 or § 722.112, have such farm marketing quota and farm marketing excess reviewed by a review committee pursuant to section 363 of the act. Unless such application is made within such 15 days, the determination of the county committee shall be final. All applications for review shall be made in accordance with the Marketing Quota Review Regulations set forth in Part 711 of this chapter, a copy of which may be obtained from the county committee. If a determination of the county committee for the crop year, as for example, the farm allotment, has previously been reviewed by a review committee, and such determination as approved by the review committee has become final under the Marketing Quota Review Regulations, it may not be reconsidered in a subsequent review proceeding concerning the farm marketing quota and farm marketing excess. In all cases, the review committee shall consider only such matters as, under the applicable provisions of the act and the applicable regulations in this part, are required or permitted to be considered by the county committee in determining the farm marketing quota or farm marketing excess.

(b) Court review. If the producer is dissatisfied with the determination of the review committee, he may, within 15 days after notice of such determination is mailed to him, institute proceedings against the review committee to have the determination of the review committee reviewed by a court in accordance with section 365 of the act.

MARKETING CARDS, MARKETING CERTIFICATES AND LOAN DOCUMENTS

§ 722.117 Eligibility for and issuance of marketing cards.

(a) Producers eligible to receive marketing cards. Except as otherwise provided in this section the operator and any producer on a farm, or an official of a publicly owned agricultural experiment station, shall be eligible to receive a marketing card for each crop of ELS cotton if for such crop (1) no farm marketing excess is determined for the farm or (2) an amount equal to the penalty on the farm marketing excess has been received by the treasurer for the county in which the farm is located, except that a marketing card shall not be issued under subparagraphs (1) or (2) of this paragraph if any producer on the farm has on hand any ELS cotton produced in previous crop years on which the penalty was incurred and has not been paid. For the 1960 crop year an eligible producer interested in the ELS cotton production on a farm shall be eligible to receive a marketing card, identified as Form MQ–76 ELS Cotton, for such farm: Provided, however, That an eligible producer interested in the ELS cotton production on any farm who is not eligible for price support or who is eligible for price support only upon approval of the price support documents by the county committee shall be eligible to receive only a marketing card identified as Form MQ–76–R ELS Cotton.

(b) Multiple farm producers eligible to receive marketing cards. Any person who is an ELS cotton producer on more than one farm in a county in a crop year shall not be eligible to receive a marketing card for any such farm in the county for such crop year until, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, he is eligible to receive a marketing card for each of such farms. Any other producers on a farm who are eligible to receive marketing cards pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall receive marketing cards with respect to the farm notwithstanding the ineligibility of the multiple farm producer, if the county office manager determines that such issuance will serve a useful purpose. Any producer may be denied a marketing card if the county committee determines that, in order to enforce the provisions of the act, such producers should not receive marketing cards for such farm with no farm marketing excess. Where a producer is engaged in the production of ELS cotton in more than one county in the same year (in the same State or two or more States), the procedure outlined in this section for issuing marketing cards for multiple farms in a county may be followed in such year with respect to all such farms, wherever situated, to the extent deemed necessary by the respective county committees to enforce the provisions of the act. The State committee may require any multiple farm producer to file with it a list of all farms on which he is engaged in the production of ELS cotton, together with any other information deemed necessary to enforce the provisions of the act.

(c) Producers to whom marketing cards will not be issued to enforce the provisions of the act. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the county committee shall deny any producer a marketing card for a crop year if it determines that such action is necessary to enforce the provisions of the act in such crop year.

(d) Preparation and issuance of marketing cards to producers. A marketing card shall be issued to the operator of the farm for any year if he is eligible to receive it under the foregoing provisions of this section unless the operator is not a producer, in such case the card will be issued only on the request of the operator, and if the county committee or the county office manager determines that it will serve a useful purpose, marketing cards for such year shall also be issued to other eligible producers on the farm. Each serially numbered marketing card when completed shall show: (1) The State and county code and farm serial number; (2) the name and address of the farm operator or other eligible producer; (3) the name and address of the county office; and (4) either (i) the actual or facsimile signature of the county office manager or a member of the county committee, or (ii) the name of the county office manager as written by an employee of the county office. A facsimile signature may be affixed by the person whose name is being affixed or by an employee of the county office. Where the name of the issuing officer is affixed by an employee of the county office, a record shall be kept in the county office of the name of the person who so affixed the signature.

(e) Designation of agent to use marketing card. If a producer designates a person who is not a producer on the farm as agent to use his marketing card, he shall submit and file with the county committee a Power of Attorney covering such designation. It shall be the duty of the buyer to ascertain that such a Power of Attorney is on file before acquiring ELS cotton from any purported agent of the producer.

(f) Preparation and issuance of marketing cards to experiment station officials. The county office manager shall, upon the written application of a responsible official of any publicly owned agricultural experiment station having ELS cotton exempt from the penalty as provided in the applicable acreage allotment regulations, issue a marketing card for such experiment station.

§ 722.118 Marketing certificates and loan documents.

(a) Use of marketing certificates. A marketing certificate (Form MQ–91—Cotton (ELS)) shall be issued to a producer upon his request to permit the marketing of ELS cotton (1) by any such producer (i) who has an unexpired marketing card for use in identifying the ELS cotton to be marketed or is eligible to receive such a marketing card and who desires to market such cotton by telegraph, telephone, mail, or by any other means or method other than directly to and in the presence of the buyer or transferee; (ii) who desires to market ELS cotton which he has on hand from any prior crop, except ELS cotton from a previous crop on which the penalty was incurred and has not been paid; (iii) who desires to market ELS cotton produced by him on a farm with no farm marketing excess but he is not eligible to receive a marketing card under § 722.117(b) because he or another producer on such farm is also an ELS cotton producer on a farm with a farm marketing excess and the penalty has not been paid; or (iv) who desires to market his share of the ELS cotton produced on a farm with no farm marketing excess or on a farm on which the penalty on the farm marketing excess has been paid but he was denied a marketing card by the county committee because it deemed such action necessary to enforce the provisions of the act, and (2) any other producer who has ELS cotton not subject to the penalty or on which the penalty has been paid and such producer is not eligible to receive a marketing card or does not have a loan document as prescribed in § 722.124. In instances where the acreage planted to ELS cotton on the farm has not been determined through no fault of the operator, and he, in applying for marketing certificates, certifies that he has ELS cotton produced in that crop year available for marketing and that to the best of his knowledge and belief the acreage planted to ELS cotton on the farm does not exceed the farm allotment, the county committee or the county office manager may issue marketing certificates for his farm in a total amount not exceeding the product of the farm allotment for that crop year multiplied by the smaller of the county normal yield per acre for that crop year or the estimated actual yield per acre for such crop year on the farm. Also, certificates shall be issued in any case where a person has loose ELS cotton such as field scrap ELS cotton, sample trimmings, floor sweepings, and ELS cotton picked up from the roadside provided that such person establishes to the satisfaction of the county committee that such cotton was acquired through normal off-farm handling or trade customs, was field scrap ELS cotton, was waste ELS cotton picked up on the roadside or similar location, or was acquired in some other similar manner.

(b) Preparation and delivery of marketing certificates. Each marketing certificate shall show (1) the name and address of the producer to whom issued, (2) the county and State and the farm serial number, (3) the serial number of the marketing card issued for the farm, where applicable, and the crop year in which the ELS cotton was produced, (4) the description and amount of the ELS cotton to be marketed, (5) the signature of the producer and the date thereof, and (6) either (i) the actual or facsimile signature of the county office manager or a member of the county committee, or (ii) the name of the county office manager as written by an employee of the county office. A facsimile signature may be affixed by the person whose name is being affixed or by an employee of the county office. Where the name of the issuing officer is affixed by an employee of the county office, a record shall be kept in the county office of the name of the person who so affixed the signature. The county committee shall, for each crop year, estimate or otherwise determine the actual production on each farm for which a marketing card has not been issued and for which marketing certificates are to be issued, and certificates shall not be issued in an amount in excess of such production as estimated or otherwise determined by the county committee. The "buyer's copy", "producer's copy", and "county office copy" of the marketing certificate shall be delivered to the producer to whom issued, and such producer, upon marketing the ELS cotton described in the marketing certificate shall deliver all such copies to the buyer.

(c) Use of loan documents in lieu of marketing certificates to identify carryover CCC loan ELS cotton. Any producer who desires to sell his equity in carryover ELS cotton which is pledged as collateral security for a Commodity Credit Corporation loan or to sell carryover ELS cotton on which such a loan has been repaid may, as provided in § 722.124, identify such cotton as being penalty-free by presenting to the buyer or transferee thereof a loan document covering such cotton, and the buyer or transferee shall accept such document as evidence to him that the ELS cotton described therein is not subject to the penalty or the lien for the penalty.

§ 722.119 Lost, destroyed, or stolen marketing cards or marketing certificates.

(a) Report of loss, destruction, or theft. In case a marketing card or marketing certificate delivered to a producer is lost, destroyed, or stolen, any person having knowledge thereof shall, insofar as he is able, immediately notify the county committee of the following: (1) The name of the producer to whom the marketing card or certificate was issued; (2) the serial number of the marketing card or certificate; and (3) whether in his knowledge or judgment it was lost, destroyed, or stolen and by whom.

(b) Investigation and findings by county office manager and county committee. If the county office manager finds that an unexpired marketing card or certificate issued to a producer has been lost, destroyed, or stolen, he shall investigate to determine whether there has been any collusion or connivance on the part of the producer to or for whom the marketing card or certificate was issued to fraudulently obtain a second marketing card or certificate. If investigation discloses no evidence of collusion or connivance, a replacement marketing card or certificate may be issued to the producer by the county office manager and a notice in writing canceling the lost, destroyed, or stolen marketing card or certificate shall be signed by the county office manager and mailed to the last known address of such producer. Where circumstances appear to warrant investigation by the county committee before a replacement marketing card or certificate is issued, the case should be referred to the county committee for a determination as to the action to be taken. Each marketing card or certificate issued under this section shall bear across its face in bold letters the word "Duplicate". In case the lost, destroyed, or stolen marketing card or certificate is not recovered promptly, the county office manager shall notify the ginner-buyers, buyers, and Commodity Credit Corporation loan clerks in the county or in the immediate market area that the marketing card or certificate has been canceled and that a duplicate has been issued. A report of the findings and action of the county office manager and of any action by the county committee shall be kept among the county office records. Any person coming into possession or control of a marketing card or certificate which has been canceled shall immediately return it to the county office which issued it.

§ 722.120 Cancellation of marketing cards and marketing certificates.

(a) Cancellation of marketing cards and marketing certificates issued in error. In the event any marketing card or marketing certificate was erroneously issued, the producer to whom it was issued shall be requested to return it to the county office and upon its being returned it shall be canceled by the county office manager by endorsing thereon in bold letters the word "Canceled". Without awaiting its return, the county office manager shall notify the producer in writing at his last known address that it is void and of no effect. The county office manager shall notify the ginner-buyers, buyers, and Commodity Credit Corporation loan clerks in the county, or in the immediate market area that the marketing card or certificate has been canceled. A copy of the notice, containing a notation thereon of the date of mailing, shall be kept among the records of the county office.

(b) Cancellation of marketing cards which may be misused. In the event the county committee determines that a marketing card has been, or will be, misused such marketing card shall be canceled and the producer to whom it was issued shall be so notified and requested to return it to the county office. Without awaiting its return, the county office manager shall notify the ginner-buyers, buyers, and Commodity Credit Corporation loan clerks in the county, or in the immediate market area that the marketing card has been canceled. A copy of the notice of cancellation, containing a notation thereon of the date of mailing, shall be kept among the records of the county office. Any producer whose marketing card is canceled under this provision shall, upon his request, be issued marketing certificates in accordance with § 722.118(a).

Identification of ELS Cotton

§ 722.121 Time and manner of identification.

Each producer of ELS cotton may, at the time he markets any such cotton, identify the ELS cotton to the buyer or transferee, in the manner hereinafter provided, as not subject to the penalty provided in § 722.126 and the lien for the penalty as provided in § 722.127 and any such cotton not so identified shall be taken as being subject to the penalty and the lien for the penalty as provided in § 722.125.

§ 722.122 Identification by marketing card.

A marketing card (Form MQ–76–ELS Cotton or Form MQ–76–R ELS Cotton) shall, when presented to the buyer or transferee by the producer to whom issued, or any other eligible producer on the farm, be evidence to the buyer or transferee that the ELS cotton produced on the farm in the crop year for which the marketing card was issued may be puchased by him without collection, deduction, or payment of the penalty, and that such cotton is not subject to the lien for the penalty.

§ 722.123 Identification by marketing certificate.

A marketing certificate (Form MQ–91—Cotton (ELS)) shall, when presented to the buyer or transferee by the producer to whom it was issued, be evidence to the buyer or transferee that the ELS cotton described on such certificate may be purchased by him without the collection, deduction, or payment of the penalty, and that such cotton is not subject to the lien for the penalty.

§ 722.124 Identification by loan document.

A loan document (the original or the producer's copy) shall, when presented to the buyer or transferee by the producer in whose favor it is drawn, be evidence to the buyer or transferee that the carryover ELS cotton described in such loan document may be purchased by him without the collection, deduction, or payment of the penalty, and that such cotton is not subject to the lien for the penalty. Any one of the following forms shall constitute a "loan document" for purposes of the foregoing provisions of this paragraph: Cotton Producer's Note and Loan Agreement (CCC Cotton Form A); Producer's Loan Statement—A; or Producer's Warranty and Agreement (CCC Cotton Form G–2).

§ 722.125 ELS cotton not identified by a marketing card, marketing certificate or loan document.

All ELS cotton marketed by a producer which is not identified by a marketing card, marketing certificate, or loan document, as provided in § 722.122, § 722.123, or § 722.124 shall be presumed to be subject to penalty and lien for the penalty and shall be taken by the buyer or transferee thereof as subject to penalty at the rate prescribed in § 722.126 and to the lien for the penalty. All ELS cotton purchased or acquired by a person which is not identified by a marketing card, marketing certificate, or loan document shall be presumed to have been marketed by a producer unless it is established that such cotton was purchased or acquired from a person other than the producer thereof. The buyer or transferee shall report the purchase of all such unidentified cotton on Form MQ–82—Cotton (ELS) and shall remit to the county committee treasurer the penalty collected or deducted from the purchase price of such cotton.

Penalty

§ 722.126 Rate of penalty.

The rate of penalty for ELS lint cotton is the higher of 50 percent of the parity price for ELS cotton as of June 15 of the year in which the ELS cotton is planted, or 50 percent of the support price for such crop of ELS cotton as provided in sections 346(a) and 347(c) of the act. Section 722.152 will be amended annually to set forth the exact rate of the penalty for each crop year.

§ 722.127 Lien for the penalty.

Until the penalty on the farm marketing excess for any crop year is paid, all ELS cotton produced on the farm in such crop year and marketed shall be subject to the penalty at the rate prescribed in § 722.126 and a lien on such entire crop of ELS cotton produced on the farm shall be in effect in favor of the United States.

§ 722.128 Interest on unremitted penalty.

The person liable for the payment or collection of the penalty shall be liable also for interest on the amount of penalty which is not remitted in accordance with § 722.129 (b), (d), or § 722.130(c), as the case may be, at the rate of 6 percent per annum from the final date for remitting the penalty until the date such penalty is remitted. The computation of interest on any penalty due shall be made beginning with the day following the final date for remitting the penalty.

§ 722.129 Payment of penalty by producers.

(a) Producer liable for payment of penalty. Each producer having an interest in the crop of ELS cotton on any farm produced in a crop year for which a farm marketing excess has been determined shall be liable for the entire amount of the penalty on the farm marketing excess. The amount of the penalty which any producer shall pay shall nevertheless be reduced by the amount of the penalty which is paid by another producer or a buyer of ELS cotton produced on the farm.

(b) Time when penalty becomes due and payable. The farm marketing excess for a farm shall be regarded as available for marketing and the penalty thereon shall become due at the time any ELS cotton produced on the farm is harvested or is available for harvest. The amount of the penalty on the farm marketing excess for any farm shall be remitted on the date it becomes due or not later than March 15 (June 15 for the Southern Area of Puerto Rico) of the year following the year in which the ELS cotton was planted, even though the ELS cotton is not harvested: Provided, however, That the penalty on any bale or lot of ELS cotton marketed (1) from a farm for which the penalty on the farm marketing excess has not been paid or (2) without being properly identified by a marketing card, marketing certificate, or loan document as provided in § 722.122, § 722.123 or § 722.124, shall be due on the date of such marketing and shall be remitted not later than seven calendar days next succeeding the end of the calendar week in which the ELS cotton was marketed.

(c) Apportionment of the penalty. The county committee may, upon application of any producer made prior to the expiration of the time allowed for remitting the penalty on the farm marketing excess, determine his proportionate share of the penalty on the farm marketing excess if, pursuant to the application, the producer establishes that he is unable to arrange with other producers on the farm for the payment of the penalty on the entire farm marketing excess, that his share of the ELS cotton crop produced on the farm is marketed by him separately, and that he exercises no control over the marketing of the shares of the other producers in the ELS cotton crop. The producer's proportionate share of the penalty on the farm marketing excess shall be that proportion of the entire penalty on the farm marketing excess which his share in the ELS cotton produced on the farm in the crop year bears to the total amount of ELS cotton produced on the farm in such crop year. When the producer pays his proportionate share of the penalty, he shall be entitled to received marketing certificates issued in accordance with § 722.118 for his share of the ELS cotton crop produced on the farm in such crop year: Provided, however, That the producer shall remain liable for the remainder of the penalty on the farm marketing excess, notwithstanding any apportionment under this paragraph.

(d) Time when penalty becomes due in cases where the initial notice of farm marketing quota and farm marketing excess mailed after thirty days prior to time when penalty would become due under paragraph (b) of this section. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section, in any case where the initial notice of farm marketing quota and farm marketing excess is mailed to the farm operator any time after a date which is thirty days prior to the time when penalty would become due under paragraph (b) of this section, the penalty on the farm marketing excess shall become due thirty days after mailing of such notice of farm marketing quota and farm marketing excess to the farm operator.

§ 722.130 Payment of penalty by buyers and transferees.

(a) Buyers and transferees liable for payment of penalty. Each person within the United States (including Puerto Rico) who buys or acquires from the producer any ELS cotton subject to the lien for the penalty shall be liable for and shall pay the penalty thereon. ELS cotton shall be presumed to be subject to the lien for the penalty unless the producer presents to the buyer or transferee a marketing card (Form MQ–76–ELS Cotton or Form MQ–76–R ELS Cotton), a marketing certificate (Form MQ–91—Cotton (ELS)), or a loan document as provided in §§ 722.122, 722.123, and 722.124.

(b) Payment of penalty on account of lien for the penalty. Each person within the United States (including Puerto Rico) who buys or acquires ELS cotton from the producer which is subject to the lien for the penalty shall pay the amount of the penalty on each pound thereof in satisfaction of the lien thereon.

(c) Time when penalty becomes due. The penalty to be paid by any buyer or transferee pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall become due at the time the ELS cotton is marketed and shall be remitted not later than seven calendar days next succeeding the end of the calendar week in which such cotton was marketed. ELS cotton shall be deemed to be sold when either title to or actual or constructive possession of the ELS cotton is delivered by or on behalf of the producer or any part of the purchase price is paid. ELS cotton shall be deemed to have been marketed by barter or exchange when it is delivered to the transferee by actual or constructive delivery or the transferor has received any part of the property, goods, or services for which the ELS cotton is being bartered or exchanged. ELS cotton shall be deemed to have been marketed by gift inter vivos when there is actual or constructive delivery of the ELS cotton to the transferee during the lifetime of the producer. ELS cotton shall be deemed to have been marketed in processed form when the producer, or some person on his behalf, converts ELS cotton into an article of trade and thereby causes the ELS cotton to lose its identity as ELS lint cotton. An article of trade within the meaning of this provision is any article made in whole or in part from ELS cotton for the purpose of marketing such article.

(d) Manner of deducting penalty and issuance of receipts. The buyer may deduct from the price paid for any ELS cotton an amount equivalent to the amount of the penalty to be paid by the buyer pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section. Any buyer who deducts an amount equivalent to the penalty shall issue to the person from whom the ELS cotton was purchased a receipt for the amount so deducted which shall be on Form MQ–82—Cotton (ELS).

§ 722.131 Remittance of penalty to the county committee treasurer.

The county committee treasurer for and on behalf of the Secretary, shall receive the penalty and any interest due thereon and issue a receipt therefor to the person remitting the penalty as required by established fiscal procedure. The penalty and interest shall be remitted only in legal tender, or by check, draft, or money order drawn payable to the order of Commodity Stabilization Service, U.S.D.A. All checks, drafts, or money orders tendered in payment of the penalty and interest shall be received by the county committee treasurer subject to collection and payment at par.

§ 722.132 Deposit of funds.

All funds received by the county committee treasurer in connection with penalties for ELS cotton shall be scheduled and transmitted by him on the day received or not later than the morning of the next succeeding business day, to the State committee, which, in accordance with applicable instructions, shall cause such funds to be deposited to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States. In the event the funds so received are in the form of cash, the county committee treasurer shall deposit such cash in the county committee bank account and issue a check in the amount thereof payable to Commodity Stabilization Service, U.S.D.A., and transmit such check to the State committee. The county committee treasurer shall make and keep a record of each amount received by him, showing the name of the person who remitted the funds, the identification of the farm or farms for which the funds were remitted, and the names of the persons who marketed the ELS cotton in connection with which the funds were remitted.

§ 722.133 Refunds of money in excess of the penalty.

(a) Determination of refunds. The county committee and the county committee treasurer, upon their own motion or upon the request of any interested person, shall review the amount of money received in connection with the penalty for any farm to determine for each producer the amount thereof, if any, which is in excess of the penalty incurred. The excess amount shall be refunded. Any refund shall be made only to persons who bore the burden of the payment and who have not been reimbursed therefor. The excess sum shall be first applied, insofar as the sum will permit, so as to make refunds to eligible persons other than producers and the remainder, if any, shall be applied so as to make refunds to the eligible producers. The amount to be refunded to each producer shall be either (1) the amount agreed upon in writing by each and every ELS cotton producer on the farm or (2) in the event that such producers cannot agree to the division of such refund or if all of the producers on the farm are not available to apply for such refund, the amount determined by apportioning the excess among all of the producers on the farm on the basis of the amount of the penalty borne by each producer, as determined by the county committee. No refund shall be made to any buyer or transferee of any amount which he collected from the producer, deducted from the price or other consideration for the ELS cotton or for which he was liable.

(b) Certification of refunds. A member of the county committee, or the county committee treasurer shall notify the State committee of the amount which the county committee determines may be refunded to each person with respect to the farm, and the State committee shall cause to be certified to the appropriate Disbursing Officer of the Treasury Department for payment such amounts as are approved by it. No refund of money shall be certified under this section unless the money has been collected and transmitted to the State committee but has not been covered into the general fund of the Treasury of the United States.

§ 722.134 Refund of penalty erroneously, illegally, or wrongfully collected.

Whenever a claim for refund of any sum of money erroneously, illegally, or wrongfully collected as a penalty with respect to ELS cotton is duly filed in accordance with section 376 of the act and the regulations pertaining to Refunds of Penalties Erroneously, Illegally, or Wrongfully Collected with Respect to Marketing in Excess of Marketing Quotas (§§ 714.21 to 714.28 of this chapter; 13 F.R. 6210, Oct. 22, 1948; 19 F.R. 395, Jan. 22, 1954), as amended, and a determination is duly made that a part or all of the penalty was erroneously, illegally, or wrongfully collected, a refund of such penalty or part thereof shall be made as provided in the regulations pertaining to refunds of penalties (§§ 714.21 to 714.28 of this chapter).

§ 722.135 Report of violations and court proceedings to collect penalty.

The county office manager shall report in writing to the State administrative officer each case of failure or refusal to pay the penalty or to remit the same as provided in §§ 722.101 to 722.152 to the county committee treasurer when collected. The State administrative officer shall report each such case in writing to the Office of the General Counsel of the United States Department of Agriculture, in accordance with instructions issued by the deputy administrator, with a view to the institution of proceedings by the United States attorney for the appropriate district, under the direction of the Attorney General of the United States, to collect the penalties as provided in section 376 of the act.

RECORDS AND REPORTS

§ 722.136 Records to be kept and reports to be made by ginners.

(a) Necessity for records and reports. Each ginner shall, in conformity with section 373(a) of the act, keep the records and make the reports prescribed by this section which the Secretary hereby finds to be necessary to enable him to carry out, with respect to ELS cotton, the provisions of the act.

(b) Ginner's record of ELS cotton ginned. Each ginner shall keep, for each crop year, as a part of or in addition to the records maintained by him in the conduct of his business, a record showing with respect to each bale, and each lot of ELS cotton less than a bale, ginned by him the following information: (1) The date of ginning; (2) the name of the operator of the farm on which the ELS cotton was produced; (3) the name of the producer of the ELS cotton; (4) the name and address of the person who delivered the ELS cotton to the gin in those cases where the ginner has doubt as to the accuracy of the name of the farm operator or producer of the ELS cotton as furnished; (5) the county and State in which the farm on which the ELS cotton was produced is located; (6) the gin bale number or mark or other identification; (7) the serial number of the gin ticket or receipt prepared or issued by the ginner; and (8) the gross weight of each bale of ELS cotton and the net weight of each lot of ELS lint cotton less than a bale ginned by the ginner.

(c) Requests for reports. Each ginner, upon written request of the State committee, State administrative officer, or county committee, shall make a report showing the information provided for in this section, or any part thereof as specified in the request, with respect to ELS cotton ginned for the person or persons specified in the request or for the period of time specified in the request. This report shall be filed not later than the date designated by the State committee, State administrative officer, or county committee in the written request for such report.

(d) Manner of submitting reports. The county committee treasurer designated in the request for such report, or his successor in office, is hereby authorized and empowered to receive each such report on behalf of the Secretary. Each report shall be mailed or delivered directly to the said treasurer.

§ 722.137 Records to be kept and reports to be made by buyers.

(a) Necessity for records and reports. Each person who buys or acquires ELS seed cotton or ELS lint cotton from the producer thereof in conformity with section 373(a) of the act, shall keep the records and make the reports prescribed by this section which the Secretary hereby finds to be necessary to enable him to carry out, with respect to ELS cotton, the provisions of the act.

(b) Nature of records. Each buyer shall keep for each crop year, as a part of or in addition to the records maintained by him in the conduct of his business, a record which shall show with respect to each bale of ELS cotton, and each lot of ELS cotton less than a bale, which is purchased by him from the producer thereof the following information: (1) The name and address of the producer from whom the ELS cotton was purchased; (2) the date on which the ELS cotton was purchased; (3) the original gin bale number or if there is no gin bale number, the gin bale mark or other information showing the origin or source of the ELS cotton and in the case of ELS seed cotton purchased, the number of pounds of ELS seed cotton and the known or estimated amount of lint in such seed cotton; (4) the number of pounds of ELS lint cotton in each bale, and each lot of ELS lint cotton less than a bale, purchased from the producer; (5) the amount of any penalty required to be collected under §§ 722.101 to 722.152 and the amount of penalty collected in connection with the ELS cotton purchased from the producer; and (6) the serial number of the marketing card or marketing certificate or a brief description of the loan document by which the ELS cotton was identified when marketed (if a loan number appears on the loan document, the buyer shall keep a record of such number and the crop year; otherwise, the buyer shall keep a record of the form number of the CCC loan document and the date of the loan). It shall be presumed that the ELS cotton was not identified in the manner provided in §§ 722.101 to 722.152 if the serial number of the marketing card or marketing certificate or a brief description of the loan document does not appear on the records as required by this paragraph. The county committee shall, upon the request of any buyer, furnish to him without cost blank copies of Form MQ–100—Cotton (ELS) which may be used by him for the purpose of keeping the records required pursuant to this paragraph.

(c) Reports in connection with marketing of ELS cotton not identified by marketing cards, marketing certificates, or loan documents. The buyer of ELS cotton which is not identified by a marketing card, marketing certificate or loan document, as provided in §§ 722.122, 722.123 and 722.124 when marketed by a producer shall, with respect to each such purchase, make a written report on Form MQ–82—Cotton (ELS) of the following information: (1) The name and address of the producer from whom the ELS cotton was purchased; (2) the date on which the ELS cotton was purchased; (3) the original gin bale number or, if there is no gin bale number, the gin bale mark or other information showing the origin or source of the ELS cotton; (4) the net weight of each bale of ELS cotton, and of each lot of ELS lint cotton less than a bale; and (5) the amount of the penalty collected in connection with the ELS cotton purchased. The report shall be prepared and executed in triplicate; the "Producer's Copy" shall be delivered to the producer, the "Buyer's Copy" shall be retained by the buyer and the buyer shall mail or deliver the "County Office Copy" to the county committee treasurer for the county in which such cotton was produced.

(d) Reports in connection with ELS cotton identified by marketing certificates. The buyer of ELS cotton which is identified, when marketed, by a marketing certificate, Form MQ–91—Cotton (ELS), as provided in § 722.123, shall make a report in connection with the transaction by executing the certificate in triplicate and by mailing or delivering the "County Office Copy" to the county committee treasurer for the county in which such certificate was issued. The "Buyer's Copy" shall be retained by the buyer and the "Producer's Copy" shall be delivered to the producer to whom such certificate was issued. The manner in which the marketing certificate shall be executed and distributed, in case the marketing is to a buyer not within the United States (including Puerto Rico), is provided for in § 722.142(b).

(e) Receipts to producers for penalties. Where the ELS cotton is not identified by a marketing card, marketing certificate, or loan document at the time of marketing, the "Producer's Copy" of the executed Form MQ–82—Cotton (ELS) shall be the receipt from the buyer to the producer for the penalty collected. The buyer shall report the giving of each such receipt to the producer by forwarding the "County Office Copy" of Form MQ–82—Cotton (ELS) to the county committee treasurer for the county in which such cotton was produced, as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(f) Time for making reports. Each report required by the foregoing provisions of this section shall be made not later than seven calendar days next succeeding the end of the calendar week in which the ELS cotton covered thereby was marketed.

(g) Buyer's record and report. In the event the county committee, the State committee, or State administrative officer has reason to believe that any buyer failed or refused to collect or to remit the penalty required to be collected by him for any ELS cotton which he purchased, or otherwise in any manner failed or refused to comply with §§ 722.101 to 722.152, the buyer shall, within fifteen days after a written request therefor by either the county committee, State committee, or State administrative officer is sent to him by certified mail at his last known address, make a report verified as true and correct on Form MQ–100—Cotton (ELS) to the designated county committee treasurer with respect to ELS cotton purchased or acquired by him from the person or persons specified in the request or purchased or acquired by him during the period of time specified in the request. Such report shall include the following information for each bale of ELS cotton, and each lot of ELS cotton less than a bale, purchased by such buyer: (1) The name and address of the producer from whom the ELS cotton was purchased; (2) the date on which the ELS cotton was purchased; (3) the original gin bale number, or if there is no gin bale number, the gin bale mark or other information showing the origin or source of the ELS cotton and, in the case of ELS cotton purchased in the seed, the number of pounds of ELS seed cotton and the known or estimated amount of lint in such seed cotton; (4) the net weight of each bale of ELS cotton, and of each lot of ELS lint cotton less than a bale, purchased from the producer; (5) the amount of penalty required to be collected under §§ 722.101 to 722.152 and the amount of any penalty collected in connection with the ELS cotton purchased from the producer; and (6) the serial number of the marketing card or marketing certificate or a brief description of the loan document by which the ELS cotton was identified when marketed (if the ELS cotton was identified by a loan document when marketed, enter the loan number and the crop year or the form number of the CCC loan document and the date of the loan).

(h) Manner of submitting reports. The county committee treasurer for the county in which the ELS cotton covered by the report was produced is hereby authorized and empowered to receive, for and on behalf of the Secretary, each report required pursuant to this section. Each report shall be mailed or delivered directly to the said treasurer. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this paragraph, each report on Form MQ–82—Cotton (ELS) in connection with the purchase of ELS cotton marketed without the use of the means of identification provided by §§ 722.101 to 722.152 may be mailed or delivered directly to the county committee treasurer from whom the blank copy of the form was obtained.

§ 722.138 Records to be kept and reports to be made by transferees.

Each transferee who acquires ELS seed cotton or ELS lint cotton from the producer thereof shall keep the same records and make the same reports which are required to be kept and made by buyers pursuant to § 722.137. Also, transferees shall execute applicable certificates which are necessary to enable the producer to keep the records and make the reports required of him.

§ 722.139 Records to be kept by warehousemen, processors and others.

Each warehouseman, processor (including compressman), common carrier, or other person, as defined in section 373(a) of the act, who stores, processes (including compressing), transports as a common carrier or otherwise deals with ELS cotton from, for, or on behalf of the producer thereof shall for each crop year keep the records relating to such cotton which are normally kept by persons engaged in the same or similar business. The Secretary hereby finds such records to be necessary to enable him to carry out, with respect to ELS cotton, the provisions of the act.

§ 722.140 Availability of records kept by ginners, buyers, transferees, warehousemen, and others.

Each ginner, buyer, transferee, warehouseman, processor (including compressman), common carrier, or other person as defined in section 373(a) of the act, who gins, buys, stores, processes (including compressing), transports as a common carrier, or otherwise deals with ELS cotton from, for, or on behalf of the producer thereof, shall make available for examination and inspection by the Secretary or by any authorized representative of the Secretary, the records kept in his business concerning such cotton for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made or record kept pursuant to §§ 722.101 to 722.152 or of obtaining the information required to be furnished in any report pursuant to §§ 722.101 to 722.152 but not so furnished. The records to be kept pursuant to the provisions of §§ 722.136, 722.137, 722.138, and 722.139 shall be kept available for examination and inspection by the Secretary, or by any authorized representative of the Secretary, until December 31 of the second year following the year in which the ELS cotton is planted, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made or record kept pursuant to §§ 722.101 to 722.152 or of obtaining the information required to be furnished in any report pursuant to §§ 722.101 to 722.152 but not so furnished. Such records shall be kept for such longer period of time as may be requested in writing by the State administrative officer or by the director.

§ 722.141 Penalty for failure or refusal to keep records or make reports.

Any ginner, buyer, transferee, warehouseman, processor (including compressman), common carrier, or other person, as defined in section 373(a) of the act who gins, buys, acquires, stores, processes (including compressing), transports as a common carrier, or otherwise deals with ELS cotton from, for, or on behalf of the producer thereof who fails to keep the records, make the reports as required by § 722.136, § 722.137, § 722.138, or § 722.139 or who makes any false report or false record shall, as provided for in section 373(a) of the act, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500 for each such offense.

§ 722.142 Records to be kept and reports to be made by producers.

(a) Necessity for records and reports. Each person who produces or who has produced in any crop year, ELS cotton which is subject to the provisions of §§ 722.101 to 722.152 shall, in conformity with section 373(b) of the act, keep the records and make the reports prescribed by this section, which records and reports the Secretary hereby finds to be necessary to enable him to carry out, with respect to ELS cotton, the provisions of the act. The records required to be kept pursuant to this section shall be kept until December 31 of the second year following the year in which the cotton is planted, or for such longer period of time as may be requested in writing by the State administrative officer or by the director.

(b) ELS cotton marketed to persons not within the United States. In each case where ELS cotton for which a marketing certificate has been issued pursuant to § 722.118 is marketed to any person not within the United States (including Puerto Rico) the producer shall enter the name and address of the buyer or transferee and indicate in the space provided for the signature of the buyer or transferee on each copy of the marketing certificate that such person is not within the United States (including Puerto Rico). The producer shall retain the "Producer's Copy" of the certificate. Not later than 15 calendar days next succeeding the day on which the ELS cotton was marketed the "County Office Copy" and the "Buyer's Copy" shall be mailed or delivered by such producer to the county committee treasurer for the county in which the certificate was issued.

(c) Farm operator's report. The operator of the farm shall file with the county committee treasurer for the county in which the farm is located a farm operator's report on Form MQ–98—Cotton (ELS) in the following cases: (1) where the producer is making an application for a downward adjustment in the farm marketing excess pursuant to § 722.112 except that the county committee may waive this requirement in case it determines that the evidence otherwise submitted by the producer is satisfactory evidence of the actual production of ELS cotton on the farm; (2) where a farm marketing excess is determined for the farm but an application for downward adjustment in the farm marketing excess has not been filed and the county committee or the State committee requests the report in writing; and (3) where a farm marketing excess is not established by the State committee or the county committee determines that a farm operator's report is necessary for proper administration of §§ 722.101 to 722.152 and requests such report in writing. Upon written requests by the county committee or by the State committee for a farm operator's report on Form MQ–98—Cotton (ELS), the operator of the farm shall make the report in the manner specified in this paragraph not later that the date designated by such committee in its request. Form MQ–98—Cotton (ELS) shall show for the farm the following information or any part thereof as specified in such request for a specified crop year: (i) The date harvesting of the crop of ELS cotton was completed on the farm, the date of the last ginning of ELS cotton produced on the farm, and the acreage planted to ELS cotton on the farm; (ii) the total number of pounds of ELS lint cotton ginned from the crop of ELS cotton; (iii) the name and address of each ginner who ginned such cotton and the number of and net weight of bales or lots less than a bale ginned by him; (iv) the total amount of ELS seed cotton of the crop marketed; (v) the total amount of ELS lint cotton of the crop marketed; (vi) the amount of unmarketed ELS cotton of the crop on hand; (vii) the total number of pounds of ELS lint cotton produced from such crop; (viii) the name and address of each buyer or transferee of such crop ELS lint or seed cotton and the amount thereof marketed to him; and (ix) the amount of penalty paid by the producer or collected by the buyer or transferee.

(d) Manner of submitting reports. The county committee treasurer for the county in which the ELS cotton covered by the report was produced is hereby authorized and empowered to receive, for and on behalf of the Secretary, each report required pursuant to this section. Each report shall be mailed or delivered directly to such treasurer.

§ 722.143 Data to be kept confidential.

Except as provided in § 722.148 all data reported to or acquired by the Secretary pursuant to and in the manner provided in §§ 722.136 to 722.140, inclusive, and § 722.142 shall be kept confidential by all officers and employees of the United States Department of Agriculture, members of county committees and State committees, county agents, and the employees of such committees and county agents' offices, and shall not be disclosed to anyone not having an interest in or responsibility for any ELS cotton, farm, or transaction covered by the particular data, record, information, report, or form; and only such data so reported or acquired as the Secretary deems relevant shall be disclosed by them to anyone not having such an interest or not being employed in the administration of the act and then only in a suit or administrative hearing under the provisions of the act.

§ 722.144 Enforcement.

The county office manager shall report in writing in quadruplicate to the State administrative officer each case of failure or refusal to make any report or keep any record as required by §§ 722.101 to 722.152 and so to report each case of making any false report or record. The State administrative officer shall report each such case in writing, in triplicate, to the Office of the General Counsel of the United States Department of Agriculture, in accordance with instructions issued by the deputy administrator, with a view to the institution of proceedings by the United States Attorney for the appropriate district, under the direction of the Attorney General of the United States, to enforce the provisions of the act.

Special Provisions and Exceptions

§ 722.145 ELS cotton produced by publicly owned agricultural experiment stations.

The conditions under which ELS cotton produced by publicly owned agricultural experiment stations shall be exempted from penalty shall be determined pursuant to applicable acreage allotment regulations.

§ 722.146 Revision of county committee determinations and erroneous notices.

(a) Revision of determinations. In any case where a determination of the county committee under §§ 722.101 to 722.152 is found to be in error, the county committee on its own motion or upon request of a representative of the State office, shall revise such determinations.

(b) Erroneous notice of ELS cotton allotment. In any case where through error the producer is officially notified in writing of a farm allotment larger than the final approved farm allotment and it is found by the county committee that such producer, acting solely on the information contained in the erroneous notice, planted an acreage to ELS cotton in excess of the final approved farm allotment, the producer will not be considered to have exceeded the farm allotment unless he planted an acreage in excess of the allotment shown on the erroneous notice. Before a producer can be said to have relied upon the erroneous notice the circumstances must have been such that the producer had no cause to believe that the allotment notice was in error. To determine this fact, the date of any corrected notice in relation to the time of planting; the size of the farm; the amount of ELS cotton customarily planted; and all other pertinent facts should be taken into consideration. The determination by the county committee under this section shall be subject to the approval of the State committee or the State administrative officer. The acreage planted to ELS cotton on the farm in excess of the final approved allotment shall be considered as excess acreage for purposes of § 722.147.

(c) Erroneous notice of planted acreage. In any case where it is discovered after all the ELS cotton acreage on the farm has been picked one or more times that the farm operator was officially notified in writing through error of an acreage planted to ELS cotton which is less than the acreage actually planted but the acreage actually planted is in excess of the farm allotment, the county committee shall determine whether or not the following conditions are met:

(1) The lack of compliance was caused by reliance in good faith by the farm operator on an erroneous official notice of measured acreage.

(2) Neither the farm operator nor any producer on the farm had actual knowledge of the error in time to adjust the excess acreage in accordance with applicable regulations.

(3) The incorrect notice was the result of an error made by an employee of the county or State office in reporting, computing, or recording the ELS cotton acreage for ELS cotton for the farm.

(4) Neither the farm operator nor any producer on the farm was in any way responsible for the error.

(5) The extent of the error in the erroneous notice was such that the farm operator would not reasonably be expected to question the acreage of which he was erroneously notified.

If the county committee determines that all five of the conditions are met, and the State administrative officer concurs upon review of the county committee determination, the acreage planted to ELS cotton on the farm will be considered as an acreage equal to the farm allotment.

§ 722.147 No credit for overplanting the farm allotment.

Any acreage planted to ELS cotton in any crop year in excess of the farm allotment for such crop of ELS cotton shall not be taken into account in establishing State, county, and farm allotments for subsequent crops of ELS cotton.

§ 722.148 Availability of records.

The State and county committees shall make available for inspection by owners or operators of farms receiving ELS cotton allotments all records pertaining to ELS cotton allotments and marketing quotas.

§ 722.149 Designation of representatives of the Secretary to examine records.

(a) Designation of representatives. In order to carry out the provisions of §§ 722.136 to 722.140, relating to the examination of records, the deputy administrator is hereby authorized and directed to designate in writing with the countersignature of the State administrative officer, an appropriate number of persons from the officers or employees of the Department of Agriculture to act as the authorized representatives of the Secretary for the purposes of said provisions. In addition, investigators and accountants (special agents), Compliance and Investigation Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture, are hereby designated as authorized representatives of the Secretary for the purposes of said provisions.

(b) Proof of designation. Each person designated pursuant to this section shall be furnished with a copy of his designation.

(c) Authorization to administer oaths. Each person designated pursuant to this section to act as the authorized representative of the Secretary is hereby authorized and empowered, pursuant to the act of Congress approved January 31, 1925 (sec. 1, 43 Stat. 803; 5 U.S.C. 521), to administer to or take from any person an oath, affirmation, or affidavit whenever such oath, affirmation, or affidavit is for use in any prosecution or proceeding under or in the enforcement of the cotton marketing quota provisions of the act or §§ 722.101 to 722.152.

§ 722.150 Delivery of notices in Puerto Rico.

Notwithstanding the provisions of §§ 722.101 to 722.152 where it is impractical or impossible to use the United States mail to serve the producer in Puerto Rico with the notice provided for therein, use shall be made of such other method of service as is available; however, when such other method is used the county committee shall make provision for keeping an accurate record of the date and method of delivery to the producer of any such notice.

§ 722.151 County normal yields for each crop year.

This section will be amended annually to establish county normal yields for each crop year pursuant to § 722.102(a)(16).

§ 722.152 Penalty rate for each crop year.

This section will be amended annually to establish the penalty rate for each crop year pursuant to § 722.126.

(a) Penalty rate for 1960 crop. The parity price for ELS cotton effective as of June 15, 1960, is 82.5 cents per pound. Section 101(f) of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, provides that the support price for 1960 crop ELS cotton shall not exceed the same per centum of the parity price as for the 1956 crop. Such per centum was 75 percent. No increased price support levels for 1960 crop ELS cotton have been established pursuant to section 402 of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended. Accordingly, if the support price for 1960 crop ELS cotton were determined on the basis of the June 15, 1960, parity price, the support price thus determined could not exceed 75 per centum of the parity price for ELS cotton as of June 15, 1960. Thus, the parity price, being higher than the possible support price, is used in accordance with the provisions of § 722.126 hereof in calculating the rate of penalty for 1960 crop ELS cotton. Such rate of penalty shall be 41.2 cents per pound of ELS lint cotton.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting requirements of these regulations have been approved by and subsequent reporting requirements will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Done at Washington, D.C., this 23d day of June 1960.

PART 722—COTTON

Subpart—Regulations Pertaining to Marketing Quotas for Upland Cotton of the 1960 and Succeeding Crops

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Basis and purpose. Section 346(a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, provides that whenever farm marketing quotas are in effect with respect to any crop of cotton, the producer shall be subject to a penalty on the farm marketing excess at a rate per pound equal to 50 percent of the parity price per pound for cotton as of June 15 of the calendar year in which such crop is produced. The purpose of this amendment is to establish and include in the regulations the exact rate of penalty per pound of upland cotton for the 1960 crop of such cotton. Section 365 of the act, as amended by Public Law 86-507 (June 11, 1960) provides that review committee determinations may be served on the farmer by registered mail or certified mail. The type of mailing service to be used is governed by the regulations in Part 711 of this chapter and reference to such types of mailing service is being deleted from § 722.16(b).

The provisions of §§ 722.1 to 722.51 were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of June 9, 1960 (25 F.R. 5134) without waiver of the 30-day effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003). Since upland cotton of the 1960 crop is presently being harvested in the southernmost areas of the United States, it is necessary that §§ 722.1 to 722.51 be made effective as soon as possible and the "Basis and purpose" paragraph is amended to waive such 30-day effective date requirements.

It is necessary that this amendment be made effective at the earliest possible date in order that the exact rate of penalty may be made known to producers who desire to market cotton and to buyers who are charged in the regulations with the duty of collecting penalty on the cotton marketed subject to the penalty and the lien for the penalty. Accordingly, it is hereby determined and found that compliance with the notice and public procedure requirements and compliance with the 30-day effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest and this amendment shall be effective upon filing of this document with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

The Regulations Pertaining to Marketing Quotas for Upland Cotton of the 1960 and Succeeding Crops (25 F.R. 5134) are hereby amended as follows:

1. The "Basis and purpose" paragraph of the regulations contained in F.R. Document No. 60-5249, published on Thursday, June 9, 1960 (25 F.R. 5134) is amended by addition of a paragraph at the end thereof to read as follows:

Since upland cotton of the 1960 crop is presently being harvested in the southernmost areas of the United States, it is essential that §§ 722.1 to 722.51 be made effective as soon as possible. Accordingly, it is hereby determined and found that compliance with the 30-day effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest and §§ 722.1 to 722.51 shall be effective upon filing of Amendment 1 to the regulations with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

2. Section 722.16(b) is amended by deleting the phrase "by registered mail".

3. Section 722.51 is amended by addition of a new paragraph (a) at the end thereof to read as follows:

(a) Penalty rate for 1960 crop. The parity price for cotton effective as of June 15, 1960, is 38.89 cents per pound. The rate of penalty for cotton produced in 1960 as calculated on the basis of such parity price and in accordance with the provisions of § 722.26 shall be 19.4 cents per pound of lint cotton.

(Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1375. Interpret or apply secs. 301, 346, 365; 52 Stat. 38, 63, as amended; 63 Stat. 674; 7 U.S.C. 1301, 1346, 1365)

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter I—Federal Aviation Agency

[Reg. Docket No. 375; Civil Air Regs. Amdt. 60-18]

PART 60—AIR TRAFFIC RULES

Rescission of Amendments 60-14 and 60-14A

Draft Release No. 60-8, published as a notice of proposed rule making in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 7, 1960 (25 F.R. 4083) gave notice that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to adopt a new amendment to Part 60 for the establishment of the base of controlled airspace and, in a separate action, to rescind Amendments 60-14 and 60-14A.

The reasons for the rescission of the amendments and the adoption of a new amendment were set forth in detail in the draft release. The Agency proposed to rescind Amendments 60-14 and 60-14A and, in their place, to adopt a new amendment which would more fully recognize the airspace requirements of the VFR pilot.

As stated in Draft Release No. 60-8, the Federal Aviation Agency conducted an analysis to determine the effect upon flight safety and upon the air traffic control system which would result from the implementation of Amendment 60-14. The results of that analysis indicated that modification of the existing airspace structure beyond that envisioned by Amendment 60-14 is required in order that the Agency may more fully recognize its responsibility to the VFR pilot. Since Amendment 60-14 was based on a height above the ground, it did not necessarily provide an operating area for the VFR pilot above man-made obstructions. Accordingly, a rule was developed that would provide uncontrolled airspace to permit the conduct of VFR flight above these obstructions and to permit flight in accordance with the minimum altitude requirements of § 60.17(b) of Part 60. Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to comment and consideration is being given to all matter presented. It has been determined from a preliminary review of the comments that a final rule cannot be adopted prior to the effective date of Amendments 60-14 and 60-14A.

The majority of the comments received in response to Draft Release No. 60-8 either endorsed the proposed rescission of 60-14 and 60-14A or posed no objection to such action. Therefore, it has been determined that, in the public interest, pending the adoption of a new amendment, retention or further extension of those amendments would serve no useful purpose. It has also been determined that a public hearing will be held on or about August 10, 1960, to give all interested persons an opportunity to present fully their views and alternate suggestions, if any, with respect to the new proposal. Formal notice will be given in the FEDERAL REGISTER as to the exact date and location of the public hearing; however, this will serve as a preliminary notice of the public hearing and will provide those who desire to participate the maximum period of time for preparation of their presentation.

In order to prevent any misunderstanding concerning the effectiveness of Amendment 60-14, a Notice to Airmen is being disseminated to provide the user public more complete notice of the fact that Amendment 60-14 is rescinded.

In consideration of the foregoing, Civil Air Regulations Amendments 60-14 and 60-14A (24 F.R. 6, 11078) are hereby rescinded effective June 30, 1960.

PART 171—STANDARDS FOR NUMBERING

Virginia System of Numbering Approved

Acting under the authority delegated by Treasury Department Order 167-32, dated September 23, 1958 (23 F.R. 7605), the Commandant, United States Coast Guard, on June 6, 1960, approved the Virginia system for the numbering of motorboats, which was established pursuant to the Federal Boating Act of 1958.

As provided in this approval, the Virginia system shall be operative on and after July 1, 1960. On that date the authority to number motorboats principally used in the State of Virginia will pass to that State. Those motorboats presently numbered should continue to display the Coast Guard number until renumbered by Virginia. On and after July 1, 1960, all reports of "boating accidents" which involve motorboats numbered in Virginia will be required to be reported to the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries, Richmond, Virginia, pursuant to Chapter 500, Acts of the Assembly, 1960, approved March 31, 1960, and the "Boating Safety Act Regulations" (Regulations No. 135) approved and adopted by the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries.

Because the amendments to §§ 171.01-6(b), and 171.10-1(b), as set forth in this document, are informative rules about official actions performed by the Commandant, it is hereby found that compliance with the Administrative Procedure Act (respecting notice of proposed rule making, public rule making procedures thereon, and effective date requirements thereof) is unnecessary.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by Treasury Department Orders 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F.R. 6521), and 167-17, dated June 29, 1955 (20 F.R. 4976), to promulgate rules in accordance with the statutes cited with the informative rules below, the following amendments are prescribed with an effective date of July 1, 1960:

As provided in this approval, the Massachusetts system shall be operative on and after June 15, 1960. On that date the authority to number motorboats principally used in the State of Massachusetts passed to that State. Those motorboats presently numbered should continue to display the Coast Guard number until renumbered by Massachusetts. On and after June 15, 1960, all reports of "boating accidents" which involve motorboats numbered in Massachusetts will be required to be reported to the Division of Motorboats, The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, 100 Nashua Street, Boston, Massachusetts, pursuant to Chapter 275, Massachusetts Acts of 1960, approved April 1, 1960, and the "Rules and Regulations for the Numbering of Undocumented Vessels, and the Reporting of Boating Accidents" of the Massachusetts Division of Motorboats.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by Treasury Department Orders 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F.R. 6521), and 167-17, dated June 29, 1955 (20 F.R. 4976), to promulgate rules in accordance with the statutes cited with the informative rules below, the following amendments are prescribed with an effective date of June 15, 1960:

PART 171—STANDARDS FOR NUMBERING

Maryland System of Numbering Approved

Acting under the authority delegated by Treasury Department Order 167-32, dated September 23, 1958 (23 F.R. 7605), the Commandant, United States Coast Guard, on June 14, 1960, approvide the Maryland system for the numbering of motorboats, which was established pursuant to the Federal Boating Act of 1958.

As provided in this approval, the Maryland system shall be operative on and after July 3, 1960. On that date the authority to number motorboats principally used in the State of Maryland will pass to that State. Those motorboats presently numbered should continue to display the Coast Guard number until renumbered by Maryland. On and after July 3, 1960, all reports of "boating accidents" which involve motorboats numbered in Maryland will be required to be reported to the Tidewater Fisheries Commission, State Office Building, Annapolis, Maryland, pursuant to the Maryland "State Boat Act" (HB 107) approved by the Governor on March 23, 1960, and the Maryland Boat Regulations of the Game and Inland Fish Commission and the Tidewater Fisheries Commission.

Because the amendments to §§ 171.01-6(b), and 171.10-1(b), as set forth in this document, are informative rules about official actions performed by the Commandant, it is hereby found that compliance with the Administrative Procedure Act (respecting notice of proposed rule making, public rule making procedures thereon, and effective date requirements thereof) is unnecessary.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by Treasury Department Orders 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F.R. 6521), and 167-17, dated June 29, 1955 (20 F.R. 4976), to promulgate rules in accordance with the statutes cited with the informative rules below, the following amendments are prescribed with an effective date of July 3, 1960:

Subpart 171.01—General

1. Paragraph (b) of § 171.01-6 Temporary exemptions until July 1, 1960, is amended by deleting "Maryland" from the list of States.

(Sec. 3, 60 Stat. 238, and sec. 633, 63 Stat. 545; 5 U.S.C. 1002, 14 U.S.C. 633)

Subpart 171.10—Application for Number

2. Paragraph (b) of § 171.10-1 To whom made, is amended by inserting in the list of States having approved numbering systems the State of "Maryland."

(Sec. 3, 60 Stat. 238, and sec. 633, 63 Stat. 545; 5 U.S.C. 1002, 14 U.S.C. 633)

Dated: June 23, 1960.

[SEAL] J. A. HIRSHFIELD,
Vice Admiral, U.S. Coast Guard, Acting Commandant.

Definition of Repeater Station

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D.C., on the 23d day of June 1960;

The Commission having under consideration § 10.2 of Part 10 of its rules with reference to the definition of a Repeater Station set forth therein; and

It appearing that certain changes in the wording of this definition are necessary to reflect more accurately the type of communications which may be automatically retransmitted through a Repeater Station; and

It further appearing that authority for this change is contained in sections 4 and 303 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended; and

It further appearing that the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedures Act are not applicable to this Order interpreting a regulation of the Commission;

It is ordered, That the definition "Repeater Station" in § 10.2(b) of the Commission's rules is amended, effective August 1, 1960, to read as follows:

§ 10.2 Definitions.

• • • • • •

(b) Definitions of stations:

PART 31—UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR CLASS A AND CLASS B TELEPHONE COMPANIES

PART 33—UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR CLASS C TELEPHONE COMPANIES

Retirement Units for Aerial Cable and Aerial Wire

1. On February 10, 1960, the Commission adopted a notice of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter, which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 17, 1960 (25 F.R. 1414) in accordance with section 4(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act. This notice presented for comment, on or before March 14, 1960 (with allowance for reply comments within 20 days thereafter) a proposal of American Telephone and Telegraph Company (AT&T), made on behalf of itself and its associated operating telephone companies, that Part 31 (Uniform System of Accounts for Class A and Class B Telephone Companies) of the Commission's rules be amended to increase the lengths of aerial cable and aerial wire which are defined as retirement units in § 31.8, "List of retirement units," from "A span of cable, • • •" to "Two continuous spans or more of cable, • • •" and from "Two continuous spans or more of one wire, • • •" to "Five continuous spans or more of one wire, • • •" An accompanying editorial change in § 31.8 was proposed to make the expression "a span" appearing in quotation marks in the sentence enclosed in parentheses in the first paragraph under the cable accounts read simply "span." The Commission also proposed to amend the retirement units for aerial cable and aerial wire in Part 33 (Uniform System of Accounts for Class C Telephone Companies) of the Commission's rules in exactly the same manner as was proposed for Part 31. Comments were also solicited directed to the question as to whether there are circumstances peculiar to the operations of smaller telephone companies which would make it less advisable to make the proposed amendments applicable to Class B and Class C telephone companies than for large companies. While no changes were proposed for Parts 34 (Uniform System of Accounts for Radiotelegraph Carriers) and 35 (Uniform System of Accounts for Wire-Telegraph and Ocean-Cable Carriers) of the Commission's rules, the notice stated that any comments would be considered with respect to whether similar changes should be made in the retirement units prescribed in these systems.

2. Timely comments were received from General Telephone Service Corporation (General), the Rural Electrification Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture (REA), and United States Independent Telephone Association (USITA). Reply comments to REA's comments were received from AT&T. No comments were received as to whether it would be less advisable than for Class A telephone companies to make the proposed amendments applicable to Class B and Class C companies or with respect to similar amendments to Parts 34 and 35 of our rules. No one requested a public hearing or oral argument.

3. General requests, on behalf of itself and its associated operating telephone companies, that the proposed amendments to Part 31 be adopted. USITA states that its Accounting Committee is in complete agreement with the proposed changes in Parts 31 and 33.

4. REA questions the advisability of adopting the proposed retirement units. It suggests that retirement units expressed in terms of spans are no longer applicable. It states that, in the case of REA-financed telephone systems, span lengths vary from about 200 feet to 1,000 feet or more for long-span insulated wire construction. Thus, if retirement units are expressed in terms of spans, there is no clear line of demarcation between replacements that involve retirement accounting and those which are charged to maintenance based on the quantities or costs. REA believes that good continuing property records should state in concrete terms the units which comprise each plant account. In lieu of the present and proposed retirement units, REA recommends that the property units be established in terms of 1,000 feet for aerial wire and 200 feet for cable. These, REA states, could provide measurable units and uniform standards for credits and charges to the plant accounts where retirements and replacements are involved. With respect to cable, particularly the larger sizes, REA does not believe a larger retirement unit should be prescribed. REA also believes that, in the case of aerial wire, the use of the proposed retirement unit might create a considerable problem of varying maintenance costs and also that, unless "span" is defined in terms of average measurements, it is possible that replacement of several thousand feet of aerial wire, but less than five spans, might be treated as maintenance, while replacement of an equivalent or lesser amount representing more than five spans, might be treated as retirement and new construction. REA presumes the same complications, although to a lesser degree, might result with respect to cable.

5. AT&T, in reply to REA's comments, states that it understands REA feels that the proposed increases in minimum lengths of retirement units for aerial cable and aerial wire would be likely to cause relatively large and troublesome variations in maintenance expenses of certain telephone companies. Accordingly, AT&T believes that it might be well to permit the optional use of smaller retirement units than those specified in Part 31 and suggests that this be done by revising the first paragraph of § 31.8. AT&T further suggests that the Commission may wish to consider providing for notification from those companies that avail themselves of the option of using retirement units smaller than those specified and to consider incorporating into Part 33 the same provisions relating to the option of using smaller units.

6. As to REA's suggestion that the retirement units in question should be expressed in terms of feet rather than spans, AT&T definitely prefers to continue using retirement units for aerial cable and aerial wire that are expressed in terms of spans. AT&T has found it advantageous to have retirement units which are simple and readily identifiable, without requiring measurements. It states that the number of spans involved in a replacement of aerial cable or aerial wire is an obvious fact, most of such replacements being performed in whole span multiples, and that this in no way conflicts with maintaining continuing property records for aerial cable in terms of feet of cable and, for aerial wire, in terms of feet or miles of wire. AT&T also states there is a factor which prevents the variation in span lengths from causing a proportionate variation in the maximum cost of a replacement job accountable as maintenance. This factor is the tendency for the cross sectional cost per foot of all the cables or all the wires in an abnormally long span to be lower than in a span of average length because of the likelihood of fewer conductors in the long span. AT&T believes that cases of replacement jobs accountable as maintenance costing more than certain replacement jobs accountable as construction and removals could be entirely eliminated only by using retirement units expressed in dollars of total cost and that such a rule would be impracticable because of the burdensome record keeping or cost estimating which would be involved. AT&T believes that the Commission's proposal will have substantially the same over-all effect in the accounts as if the retirement units were established in terms of dollars of total cost.

7. The Commission is of the opinion that retirement units for aerial cable and aerial wire expressed in terms of feet would not be as practicable as units expressed in terms of spans. While spans of wire and cable vary in length, the cost per foot in a longer span, as pointed out by AT&T, is usually lower because of fewer conductors in a longer span, and therefore, the variation in span length does not cause a proportionate variation in the costs of spans of various lengths. Regarding the continuing property record units in terms of which the continuing property record is maintained, the property record units are not necessarily the same as the retirement units and may be expressed in terms of feet for aerial cable and feet or miles for aerial wire. Since retirement units expressed in terms of spans for aerial cable and aerial wire are easily identified and do not require measurement in order to determine whether maintenance or retirement accounting is to be performed, the Commission believes such units to be preferable. Accordingly, Parts 31 and 33 are being amended as proposed with respect to the units prescribed. However, a provision is being added permitting the optional use of smaller retirement units upon notification to the Commission. This option will apply to all retirement units and not be limited to aerial cable and aerial wire. Thus, if any carrier feels that any prescribed retirement unit will produce undue distortion in its maintenance expenses or for some other reason believes it not advisable for its operations, it may, after so notifying the Commission, use a smaller unit. The amendment adopted further provides that if smaller retirement units are adopted, they must be consistently used and may not be further modified except after notifying the Commission.

8. It is of interest to note for the record that uniform systems of accounts for gas and electric utilities prescribed by the Federal Power Commission and by other regulatory bodies have long provided that the prescribed lists of retirement units may be expanded by the utilities but may not be condensed. In other words, the units prescribed are of maximum size and while subdivision thereof, or the addition of other units, is permitted, the combination or the increase in size of such units is enjoined. We do not intend by the amendments made herein to authorize the addition of retirement units unless they are subdivisions of prescribed units.

9. Since no comments were received on the question of whether any changes should be made in the retirement units for radiotelegraph carriers and wire-telegraph and ocean-cable carriers, no amendments of Parts 34 and 35 of our rules are being made in this proceeding.

It appearing that the proposed rule making proceeding in this matter has indicated the desirability of amendment of Parts 31 and 33 of the Commission's rules in the manner presented in the notice of proposed rule making with the exception noted in the next appearing clause; and

It further appearing that provision should be made for the optional use of smaller retirement units than those prescribed, not only with respect to aerial wire and aerial cable, but with respect to all retirement units;

It is ordered, That under authority contained in sections 4(i) and 220(a) of the Communications Act, as amended, Parts 31 (Uniform System of Accounts for Class A and Class B Telephone Companies) and 33 (Uniform System of Accounts for Class C Telephone Companies) of the Commission's rules and regulations are amended as follows, effective January 1, 1961.

1. Section 31.2-25(b)(1) of Part 31 is amended to read as follows:

§ 31.2-25 Telephone plant retired.

• • • • • •

(b) • • •

(1) Retirement units: This group includes major items of property, a list of which is shown in § 31.8. These items may be subdivided at the option of the company as provided in § 31.8. The original cost of any such item retired shall be credited to the plant account and charged to account 171, "Depreciation reserve," whether or not replaced. (Note also paragraph (b) of account 171.) The original cost of property installed in place of the property retired shall be charged to the appropriate telephone plant account.

§ 31.8 [Amendment]

2. Section 31.8 of Part 31 is amended as follows:

a. The introductory text of § 31.8 List of retirement units is revised to read:

The following list of retirement units shall be used in connection with the accounting provided in §§ 31.2-24 and 31.2-25, except that any company may use smaller units which are subdivisions of the units listed provided its practice in this respect is consistent. However, the list shall not be considered as determining the classification of the telephone plant involved. Any company electing to exercise its option of using smaller units shall notify the Commission 30 days before commencing such use or any change therein. The Commission shall also be notified 30 days before any discontinuance of the use of units smaller than those listed.

• • • • • •

b. In the subsection applicable to cable accounts 242:1, 242:2, 242:3 and 242:4, delete the first retirement unit, together with the parenthetical sentence associated with it, and substitute the following:

Two continuous spans or more of cable, with or without associated suspension strand, clamps, rings, etc. (The term "span" shall include a length of cable from a Y splice not located at a pole to a pole or building.)

c. In the subsection applicable to aerial wire account 243, delete the first retirement unit and substitute the following:

Five continuous spans or more of one wire, with or without associated insulators, transposition brackets, etc.

3. Section 33.35(a)(1) of Part 33 is amended to read as follows:

§ 33.35 Telephone plant retired.

(a) Depreciable telephone plant. • • •

(1) Units of property. This group includes major items of property, a list of which is shown in § 33.81. These items may be subdivided at the option of the company as provided in § 33.81. The book cost of any such item retired shall be credited to the appropriate plant account and charged to account 2600, "Depreciation reserve," whether or not it is replaced. Account 2600 shall also be charged with the cost of removing such plant (except station apparatus and station wiring) and shall be credited with the amount received for any materials recovered and sold, or the cost (estimated if not known) of the materials if returned to stores. The cost of property installed in place of the property retired shall be charged to the appropriate telephone plant account.

• • • • • •

§ 33.81 [Amendment]

4. Section 33.81 of Part 33 is amended as follows:

a. The introductory text of § 33.81 Units of property is revised to read:

The following list of units of property shall be used in connection with the accounting provided in § 33.35, except that any company may use smaller units which are subdivisions of the units listed provided its practice in this respect is consistent. Any company electing to exercise its option of using smaller units shall notify the Commission 30 days before commencing such use or any change therein. The Commission shall also be notified 30 days before any discontinuance of the use of units smaller than those listed. Additions to or revisions of this list will be issued, when necessary, by the Commission, to which any applications for such additions or revisions shall be presented by the company.

b. In the subsection applicable to "Poles, conduit, cable, and wire (Account 1045)", immediately following the subcaption "Cable:" delete the first unit of property, together with the parenthetical sentence thereafter, and substitute the following:

Two continuous spans or more of cable, with or without associated suspension strand, clamps, rings, etc. (The term "span" shall include a length of cable from a Y splice not located at a pole to a pole or building.)

c. In the subsection applicable to "Poles, conduit, cable, and wire (Account 1045)", immediately following the subcaption "Aerial wire:" delete the first unit of property and substitute the following:

Five continuous spans or more of one wire, with or without associated insulators, transposition brackets, etc.

[47 CFR Parts 2, 11]

[Docket No. 13616; FCC 60-740]

RESTORATION OF CERTAIN BANDS TO PUBLIC SAFETY AND INDUSTRIAL RADIO SERVICES

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. Following a proposal made by the United States at the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) Special North Atlantic Fixed Services Meeting, Montreal, January 1957, a civil requirement was established internationally for both voice and teletypewriter channels linking Canada, southern Greenland, Iceland, and possibly the European coast using the technique of forward propagation by ionospheric scatter (FPIS). Although such facilities would not have been on U.S. territory (not licensed by the FCC), an exclusive allocation for scatter operations was considered necessary to avoid mutual interference to and from U.S. mobile operations. Such an allocation was considered further warranted by the fact that most U.S. civil aircraft flying the North Atlantic route to Europe would have benefited through use of the scatter facilities. The U.S. proposal was intended to satisfy the above-stated requirement with FPIS, at least as far east as Iceland, in support of the U.S. position in ICAO. The allocation proposal was also supported by RCA Communications, Inc., which operates a number of stations in the International Fixed Public Radio Service.

3. Pursuant to the establishment of these and other, apparent needs for a non-Government ionospheric scatter allocation and after public notification of proposed rule making in the matter, the Commission, by its First Report and Order in Docket No. 12169, adopted December 18, 1957, reallocated the bands 46.51–46.60 Mc and 49.51–49.60 Mc to the Aeronautical Fixed and International Fixed Public Services.

4. Events which have transpired since the above-mentioned Order was adopted have not justified the Commission's original belief that a non-Government ionospheric scatter allocation is needed at this time. Oral testimony developed during the Commission's recent inquiry into frequency allocations between 25 and 890 Mc, Docket No. 11997, indicates that ICAO is now committed to use proposed new submarine cables for all communications associated with the movement of air traffic over the North Atlantic in lieu of originally proposed ionospheric scatter circuits, thereby negating one of the basic purposes of the subject allocation. The Commission has received no applications for authority to use these frequencies for scatter operations. No provision was made at the recent Administrative Radio Conference, Geneva, 1959, for international use of the scatter technique on these frequencies.

5. Subsequent to the inquiry in Docket 11997 the Commission received the following petitions for rule making in the above-entitled matter:

a. Special Industrial Radio Service Association (SIRSA), filed August 24, 1959, requests reallocation of the 49.51–49.60 Mc band to the Special Industrial Radio Service.

b. T. L. James & Company, R. B. Tyler Company et al., filed September 28, 1959, also requests reallocation of the 49.51–49.60 Mc band to the Special Industrial Radio Service.

c. Forest Industries Radio Communications, filed March 3, 1960, requests reallocation of the 49.51–49.60 Mc band, including frequencies derived from channel splitting, to the Forest Products Radio Service on a shared basis with the Special Industrial Radio Service.

d. Forestry Conservation Communications Association, filed December 14, 1959, requests reallocation of the 46.51–46.60 Mc band to the Forestry-Conservation Radio Service for use by state agencies only.

National Sand and Gravel Association and National Ready Mixed Concrete Association filed a letter with the Commission on October 29, 1959 supporting the abovementioned SIRSA petition. These petitions cited lack of use of the subject bands for scatter operations and the petitioners' increasing need for additional frequencies in this range.

6. In view of the above, the Commission hereby proposes to reallocate the 46.51–46.60 Mc and the 49.51–49.60 Mc bands to the Public Safety and Industrial Radio Services, respectively, the same services to which these frequencies were allocated immediately prior to the First Report and Order in Docket 12169.

7. It is proposed to sub-allocate the 49.51–49.60 Mc band, with 20-kc channel spacing, to the Special Industrial Radio Service, the expansion of which has demonstrated its immediate need for additional frequency space in this portion of the spectrum. Previous sharing privileges would be restored to the Forest Products Radio Service on 49.54 Mc and 49.58 Mc, but would not extend to newly assignable frequencies, 49.52 Mc and 49.56 Mc, to be derived from channel splitting in this band inasmuch as recent rule making proceedings provided for shared use by the Forest Products Radio Service of many 40-Mc Petroleum Radio Service frequencies.

8. It is also proposed to reallocate the band 46.51–46.60 Mc to the Public Safety Radio Services; however, sub-allocation of this band within the Public Safety Radio Services will be accomplished by a subsequent rule making proceeding inasmuch as further study of the various Public Safety service requirements is necessary.

9. The proposed rule making would grant, either in full or in part, each petition listed in paragraph 5 above except that of the Forestry, Conservation Communications Association, which is being considered in connection with the further study mentioned in paragraph 8 above.

10. The proposed amendments to the rules, as set forth below, are issued pursuant to the authority contained in sections 303 (c), (f), and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

11. All interested persons are invited to file, on or before August 26, 1960, comments supporting or opposing the proposals set out in this Notice and in the Appendices hereto, or submitting any modifications or counterproposals the parties may wish to submit. Comments in reply thereto may be submitted by September 6, 1960. The Commission will consider all comments filed hereunder prior to taking final action in this matter provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of § 1.213 of the rules, the Commission will not be limited solely to the comments filed in this proceeding.

12. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.54 of the Commission's rules and regulations, the original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments filed shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: June 23, 1960.

Released: June 24, 1960.

Operating Procedures and Station Records

In the matter of amendment of Part 8 of the Commission's rules with regard to operating procedures and station records of ship radiotelephone stations in the 1600–3500 kc band; Docket No. 13523.

The Commission having under consideration a petition filed by The American Waterways Operators, Inc. requesting a 90-day extension of time in which to file comments directed to the Commission's Notice of Proposed Rule Making in this Docket;

It appearing that petitioner, an association representing various operators of commercial freight boats on inland waterways, has an Electronics Committee which studies matters pertaining to the use of radio facilities and transmits recommendations to petitioner's membership in order to formulate an association policy; and

It further appearing that due to the time required for the call of the Committee meeting, exchange of views and necessity of allowing members to express their opinions, petitioner needs additional time in which to submit its comments; and

It further appearing that the petitioner's request for an extension of time in which to file comments in this proceeding is reasonable, and the public interest would be served by an extension until September 27, 1960;

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[17 CFR Part 240]

SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION OF EXCHANGE MEMBERS

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission has under consideration a proposed rule under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 which would provide that the failure or refusal of an issuer or certain other persons to cooperate with the Commission in proceedings under section 19(a)(2) or investigations under section 21 of the Act with respect to compliance with section 12 or 13 of the Act shall be deemed a failure to comply with the provisions of the Act or the rules and regulations thereunder for the purpose of section 19(a)(2).

Section 19(a)(2) of the Act authorizes the Commission, after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing by order to deny, to suspend the effective date of, to suspend for a period not exceeding 12 months or to withdraw, the registration of a security if the Commission finds that the issuer of such security has failed to comply with any provision of the Act or the rules and regulations thereunder. The Commission is further authorized by section 21 of the Act to make such investigations as it deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of the Act or any rule or regulation thereunder.

From time to time the Commission has encountered difficulty in proceedings under section 19(a)(2) in obtaining information or documents which would facilitate a determination whether an issuer has failed to comply with the provisions of the Act or the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to disclosure. This difficulty has stemmed from the failure or refusal of certain persons, particularly nonresident persons, to accept service of subpoenas to testify or to produce needed documents or from other efforts designed to obstruct the Commission. Similar difficulties have been encountered in connection with investigations under section 21 of the Act.

Section 23(a) authorizes the Commission to make such rules or regulations as may be necessary for the execution of the functions vested in it. Accordingly, in order that the purposes of the Act may not be thwarted in such cases the Commission is considering the proposed rule which would provide a basis for the issuance of an order under section 19(a)(2) of the Act denying, suspending or withdrawing the registration of a security in any case in which the issuer, its officers, directors, employees or controlling persons fail or refuse to cooperate with the Commission in the proceeding or investigation.

The text of the proposed § 240.19a2–1 (rule 19a2–1) is as follows:

§ 240.19a2–1 Effect of certain conduct by certain persons.

If any issuer, any officer, director or employee of such issuer, or any person controlling such issuer, shall hinder, delay or obstruct any proceeding under section 19(a)(2) of the Act, or any investigation under section 21 of the Act, with respect to compliance with section 12 or 13 of the Act by such issuer, or shall fail or refuse to cooperate with the Commission in such a proceeding or investigation, such conduct shall be deemed a failure to comply with the provisions of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder for the purposes of section 19(a)(2) of the Act.

The foregoing rule would be adopted pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly sections 19(a)(2), 21 and 23(a) thereof.

All interested persons are invited to submit their views and comments on the proposed rule, in writing, to the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C., on or before July 25, 1960. All such communications will be available for public inspection.

By the Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Office of the Secretary

CONVEYANCE OF PROPERTY TO ALASKA

Pursuant to the authority contained in section 21 of the Alaska Omnibus Act (73 Stat. 141), the Secretary of Commerce is presently preparing to transfer to the State of Alaska by conveyance, effective as of June 30, 1960, certain real property owned, held, administered or used by the Secretary of Commerce in connection with the activities of the Bureau of Public Roads in Alaska.

This conveyance is subject to the condition that if the Secretary of Commerce or the head of any other Federal agency determines and publishes notice thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER within 90 days next following June 30, 1960, that all or any part of this property or any interests therein is needed for continued retention in Federal ownership for purposes other than or in addition to road purposes, the Secretary of Commerce may enter and terminate the estate quitclaimed in the property concerning which said determinations are made, by notifying the Governor of the State of Alaska of such termination by registered letter or letters mailed by June 30, 1961. The State of Alaska will accept the conveyance without waiving any rights it may otherwise have to refer any dispute to the Claims Commission authorized by section 46 of the aforesaid Alaska Omnibus Act.

In order to give Federal agencies an opportunity to determine whether any of the real property to be conveyed is needed for continued retention in Federal ownership for purposes other than or in addition to road purposes, the following procedure will be used:

(a) Any Federal agency which determines that any of such real property is needed for continued retention in Federal ownership shall publish notice of such determination in the FEDERAL REGISTER within 60 days from the date of this publication.

(b) Such notice shall set forth a determination that there is either a firm requirement or a tentative requirement for retention of the properties concerned.

(c) If the notice sets forth a tentative requirement, the agency concerned shall determine whether a firm requirement for the property exists and, if so, shall publish notice of such determination within 30 days after publication of notice of the tentative requirement.

(d) It will be considered that none of the real property to be conveyed is needed for retention in Federal ownership for purposes other than or in addition to road purposes, unless a notice or notices with respect thereto are published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as provided in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) herein.

(e) After notice has been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER that a firm requirement exists for the retention in Federal ownership of any real property to be conveyed as above described, the Federal agency concerned shall, within 120 days after publication of such notice, submit a formal request to the Secretary of Commerce for the Secretary to enter and terminate the estate quitclaimed to the State of Alaska to the extent of the agency's request. Failure of a Federal agency to make such formal request to the Secretary of Commerce will be deemed a waiver of any right to have the property retained.

Real property retained in Federal ownership as provided herein which is not needed or required for any purpose by the Department of Commerce shall be reported as excess by the Secretary of Commerce to the General Services Administration, in accordance with applicable regulations and procedures, and General Services Administration will be advised of the determinations of the Federal agencies.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-20510]

MANUFACTURERS LIGHT AND HEAT CO.

Order Permitting Substitution of Tariff Sheets

JUNE 22, 1960.

On December 2, 1959, The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company (Manufacturers) tendered for filing, inter alia, Fourth Revised Sheets Nos. 7, 12, and 27, and Fifth Revised Sheet No. 22 to its FPC Gas Tariff, Fourth Revised Volume No. 1. By order issued herein on December 31, 1959, the Commission ordered a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, and services contained in Manufacturers' FPC Gas Tariff, as proposed to be changed by the aforesaid tender of December 2, 1959, and, pending such hearing and decision thereon, suspended and deferred the use of the proposed tariff sheets until May 7, 1960, and until such further time as they are made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act. By order issued March 1, 1960, the Commission shortened this suspension period to April 5, 1960. By order issued May 9, 1960, the proposed tariff sheets were made effective as of April 5, 1960, subject to refund.

On March 2, 1960, pursuant to Ordering Paragraph (H) of the Commission's Order Approving Proposed Settlement, Fixing Rate of Return and Prescribing Refunds issued February 25, 1960 in Docket Nos. G-12197, G-16820, G-18425, and G-19250, Manufacturers tendered for filing Third Revised Sheets Nos. 7, 12, and 27 and Fourth Revised Sheet No. 22 to its FPC Gas Tariff, Fourth Revised Volume No. 1, which were accepted by the Commission as being in compliance with its aforesaid order of February 25, 1960.

On May 27, 1960, Manufacturers tendered for filing Substitute Fourth Revised Sheets Nos. 7, 12, and 27 and Substitute Fifth Revised Sheet No. 22 to its FPC Gas Tariff, Fourth Revised Volume No. 1. The aforesaid tariff sheets tendered on May 27, 1960 are exactly the same as the sheets placed in effect subject to refund as of April 5, 1960 by order issued herein May 9, 1960, except that they supersede the aforementioned tariff sheets filed on March 2, 1960 in Docket Nos. G-12197, et al.

The Commission finds:

(1) Good cause has been shown for permitting the substitution of Manufacturers' Substitute Fourth Revised Sheets Nos. 7, 12 and 27 and Substitute Fifth Revised Sheet No. 22 in the place of Fourth Revised Sheets Nos. 7, 12 and 27 and Fifth Revised Sheet No. 22 to Manufacturers' FPC Gas Tariff, Fourth Revised Volume No. 1: Provided, however, That the aforementioned substitute tariff sheets are subject, in all respects, to this proceeding and all the orders issued herein as though originally filed in this proceeding.

(2) Good cause exists for waiving the 30-day notice requirements to permit the aforementioned substitute tariff sheets to become effective as of April 5, 1960, subject to refund.

The Commission orders:

(A) Substitute Fourth Revised Sheets Nos. 7, 12 and 27 and Substitute Fifth Revised Sheet No. 22 are hereby substituted in the place of Fourth Revised Sheets Nos. 7, 12 and 27 and Fifth Revised Sheet No. 22 to Manufacturers' FPC Gas Tariff, Fourth Revised Volume No. 1: Provided, however, That the aforementioned substitute tariff sheets are subject, in all respects, to this proceeding and all the orders issued herein as though originally filed in this proceeding.

(B) The 30-day notice requirements contained in § 154.22 of the regulations under the Natural Gas Act are hereby waived to allow the aforementioned substitute tariff sheets to become effective as of April 5, 1960, subject to refund.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

NATURAL GAS PIPELINE CO. OF AMERICA ET AL.

Order Granting Motions for Severance and Affirming in Part Decision of Presiding Examiner

JUNE 22, 1960.

Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America, Docket No. G-12399; Champlin Oil & Refining Company, Docket No. G-14830; Amerada Petroleum Corporation, Docket No. G-16029; Cities Service Gas Company, Docket No. G-16217; Phillips Petroleum Company, Docket Nos. G-16280, G-16439; Carter-Jones Drilling Company, Inc., Docket No. G-16288; Magnolia Petroleum Company (now Socony Mobil Oil Company, Inc.), Docket Nos. G-16295, G-16296, G-16293, G-16266; Johntom Oil Company, Inc., Docket No. G-16375; McCommons Oil Company, Docket No. G-16376; Anson L. Clark, Docket No. G-16382; Cornell Oil Company, Docket No. G-16383; Bond Oil Corporation, et al., Docket No. G-16392; Hudson Oil & Metals Company, Docket No. G-16436; The Pure Oil Company, Docket No. G-17493; Gulf Oil Corporation, Docket No. G-16761; Riddell Petroleum Corporation, Docket No. G-17828; Fain-Porter Drilling Corporation, Docket No. G-17831.

As set forth fully by the presiding examiner in his initial decision, Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (Natural) is seeking certificate authorization for a 185,000 Mcf per day expansion of its pipeline system. Temporary authorization for the operation of the proposed facilities was granted by the Commission on December 19, 1958. Of the 185,000 Mcf per day of additional capacity, 4,500 Mcf per day has been reserved for service to communities to be served by three interveners in this proceeding, Iowa Power and Light Company, Illinois Power Company and Iowa Southern Utilities Company. The presiding examiner made full and complete findings with regard to the various projects of these interveners, recommending approval of two projects without condition and further recommending that two of the projects be conditioned upon the obtaining by Illinois Power Company and Iowa Southern Utilities Company of contracts for service to two industrial customers.

Following the close of the hearing in this proceeding, Iowa Southern filed with the Commission a contract with the What Cheer Clay Products Company and Illinois Power Company filed a contract with the Sheffield Tile Products Company. These contracts satisfy the condition imposed by the presiding examiner. We find that they satisfactorily demonstrate the intention of these industrial customers to attach and assure that these projects will be economically feasible. We shall therefore affirm the decision of the presiding examiner in so far as it relates to the above-mentioned interveners, but will eliminate the necessity for further filings by Iowa Southern and Illinois Power with relation to the industrial customers.

On April 19, 1960, Iowa Southern Utilities Company filed a motion for severance of the noncontroversial matters in this proceeding from those at issue. On May 16, 1960, Illinois Power Company filed a similar motion. Neither motion has been opposed. Both companies indicated that unless authorization is granted to Natural to deliver gas to them at this time, it will be impossible for them to attach loads before the coming winter heating season.

In view of the necessity that construction of the respective distribution systems must soon be commenced if service is to be obtained this year, we will grant the motions of Iowa Southern and Illinois Power for severance from the proceedings of those portions of the matter concerning the interveners herein.

The Commission finds: The public convenience and necessity require that Natural be directed to establish physical connection of its facilities with facilities proposed to be built by the interveners named below and to deliver and sell natural gas to them for distribution in the named communities in amounts up to the quantities shown:

Interveners; Communities; and Quantity
Iowa Power and Light Co.; Emerson, Malvern, Pacific Junction, Iowa; 1071 Mcf/d.
Iowa Southern Utilities Co.; Sigourney, Iowa; 1148 Mcf/d. Osceola, What Cheer, Keota, Iowa; 2480 Mcf/d.
Illinois Power Co.; Ladd, Atkinson, Sheffield, Ill.; 598 Mcf/d.

The Commission orders:

(A) The motions for severance filed by Iowa Southern Utilities Company and Illinois Power Company are hereby granted.

(B) Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America shall establish physical connection of its facilities with the facilities proposed to be built by and to deliver and sell natural gas to the interveners named above in the amounts above set forth.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

[4] Or until such date as Supplement No. 4 to West Lake Natural Gasoline Co.'s (Operator), et al. FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1 becomes effective in Docket No. RI60-30, whichever is later.

H. L. Hunt (Operator), et al., Claude M. Langton, Trustee, Secure Trusts and Estate of Lyda Bunker Hunt, in support of their proposed favored nation increased rates, state that the favored-nation clause is an integral part of each initial rate schedule; such pricing provision was required to justify the long-term commitment of the sellers' gas; and this provision is in the public interest and is in and of itself just and reasonable.

Humble Oil & Refining Company, in support of its proposed favored-nation increased rate, states that the proposed rate is provided by contract and is in line with going contract prices in the area.

Union Oil Company of California (Union) and Jocelyn-Varn Oil Company (Jocelyn-Varn) in support of their proposed revenue-sharing increased rates state that their contracts were negotiated at arm's-length. Union also states that the pricing provisions of its contract constitute an integral part of the consideration upon which such contract was based, and such provisions were designed to achieve a fair average price for gas delivered during the term of the contract. Jocelyn-Varn also cites the contract provisions and states that the proposed rate is in line with the going contract prices in the area.

[1] This order does not provide for the consolidation for hearing or disposition of the several matters covered herein, nor should it be so construed.

Producing Properties, Inc. (Operator), et al. (Producing Properties) in support of its proposed three-step periodic increased rate, states that the proposed rate does not exceed the current market price for gas in the area and such rate is necessary in order to afford Producing Properties a reasonable return on its investment. Additionally, Producing Properties submitted a one-page cost of service study for the particular gas unit involved.

The changes in rates and charges so proposed may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed changes and that the above-designated supplements be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), public hearings shall be held upon dates to be fixed by notices from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed changes in rates and charges contained in the above-designated supplements.

(B) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, each of the above-designated supplements are hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until the date indicated in the above "Rate Suspended Until" column, plus footnotes thereto, and thereafter until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until these proceedings have been disposed of or until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)) on or before August 8, 1960.

[Docket No. RI60-425]

SHAMROCK OIL AND GAS CORP.

Order Providing for Hearing on and Suspension of Proposed Change in Rate and Allowing Increased Rate To Become Effective Subject to Refund Upon Filing of Undertaking To Assure Refund of Excess Charges

JUNE 23, 1960.

On May 31, 1960, the Shamrock Oil and Gas Corporation (Operator) (Shamrock) tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change, dated May 26, 1960.

Purchaser: Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company (Panhandle).

Producing area: Panhandle Field, Moore and Sherman Counties, Texas.

Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 17 to Shamrock's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 4.

Effective rate: 8.51 cents per Mcf.[1]

Proposed rate: 8.99 cents per Mcf.

Effective date: July 1, 1960. (The stated effective date is the effective date proposed by Shamrock.)

Shamrock's contract provides that Shamrock's rates will be changed in proportion to any general change in rate of its purchaser. Panhandle has proposed rate increases which were suspended in the proceeding in Docket No. RP60-8, until July 1, 1960 and until such further time as they are made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act. In support of its proposed increased rate, Shamrock cites its contract and Panhandle's proposed increases. Also, Shamrock states that increases to higher levels have been accepted by the Commission in the area, that the proposed rate is below prices for competitive fuels in the area, and that Shamrock's revenues have lagged behind increases in costs. Shamrock additionally submits cost of service studies.

The proposed change may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of Shamrock's proposed change, and that the above-designated supplement be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

(2) It is necessary and proper in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the above-designated supplement be allowed to take effect subject to refund upon the timely filing of an agreement and undertaking, as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I) a public hearing shall be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 17 to Shamrock's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 4.

(B) Pending a hearing and decision thereon, the above-designated supplement is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until July 2, 1960, or until the day after the rates suspended under Docket No. RP60-8 are made effective, whichever is later, and thereafter until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended, nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Supplement No. 17 to Shamrock's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 4 shall be effective as of July 2, 1960, or as of the day after the rates suspended under Docket No. RP60-8 are made effective, whichever is later: Provided, That within 20 days from the date of this order, Shamrock shall execute and file under Docket No. RI60-425 with the Secretary of the Commission an agreement and undertaking to comply with the refunding and reporting procedure required by the Natural Gas Act and § 154.102 of the regulations thereunder (prescribed by Order No. 215 and Order No. 215A). The agreement and undertaking shall be signed by a responsible officer of Shamrock, shall be attested, and shall be accompanied by proper authorization from the board of directors and by a certificate showing service of copies upon all purchasers under the rate schedule involved. Unless Shamrock is advised to the contrary within 15 days after the filing of such agreement and undertaking, it shall be deemed to have been accepted for filing.

(E) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.37(f)) on or before August 5, 1960.

By the Commission. Commissioner Kline dissenting.

JOSEPH H. GUTRIDE,
Secretary.

[1] Includes tax reimbursement and 0.6219 cent per Mcf for compression charged by seller. The stated rate governs original contract volumes; additional volumes are governed by another rate, provided in a contract amendment dated August 11, 1947. The rate is effective subject to refund in the proceeding in Docket No. RI60-217.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 812-1309]

INSURANCE SECURITIES INC., ET AL.

Notice of Filing of Application for Order Exempting Proposed Transactions

JUNE 23, 1960.

In the matter of Insurance Securities Incorporated, Insurance Securities Trust Fund, Continental Casualty Insurance Company; File No. 812-1309.

Notice is hereby given that Insurance Securities Incorporated ("Applicant"), a California corporation and sponsor of Insurance Securities Trust Fund ("Trust Fund"), a registered open-end diversified investment company existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California, has filed an application pursuant to section 17(b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") for an order of the Commission exempting from the provisions of section 17(a) of the Act certain proposed transactions hereinafter described.

Included in the portfolio of the Trust Fund are 309,741 shares of Continental Casualty Insurance Company ("Casualty"), comprising 5.29 percent of the outstanding voting securities of said company. Also included in the portfolio of the Trust Fund are 50,000 shares of the capital stock of National Fire Insurance Company of Hartford ("National") $10.00 par value, comprising 10 percent of the outstanding voting securities of National, acquired for the Trust Fund at an average cost of $73.62 per share, and 47,370 shares of the capital stock of Continental Assurance Company ("Assurance") $5.00 par value, comprising 2.36 percent of the outstanding voting securites of Assurance, acquired for the Trust Fund at an average cost of $96.50 per share. The Trust Fund portfolio, as of April 30, 1960, contained shares of 94 companies and had a net asset value in excess of $413,000,000.

Under date of May 23, 1960, Casualty and Applicant, acting for the Trust Fund, negotiated two transactions, subject, however, to exemptions being granted by the Commission under section 17(b) of the Act. The two transactions are as follows:

(a) The sale out of the Trust Fund portfolio to Casualty of 50,000 shares of National at a price of $141 per share, a total aggregate consideration of $7,050,000; and

(b) The sale by Casualty to the Trust Fund of 20,000 shares of Assurance at a price of $144 per share, an aggregate consideration of $2,880,000. The transactions are severable, but the purchase by the Trust Fund of the 20,000 shares of Assurance is conditional upon the completion of the purchase by Casualty of the 50,000 shares of National.

As of December 31, 1959, Casualty owned 351,001 shares of National, comprising slightly over 70 percent of a total outstanding 500,000 shares of its voting securities. In addition, Casualty owned 648,590 shares of Assurance, comprising approximately 32 percent of the 2,004,189 shares outstanding. It is represented that Casualty is continuing to purchase, from time to time such stock of National as becomes available for purchase, to the end that all or the major portion thereof may be acquired.

In support of the application, Applicant represents that the holding of a 10 percent interest in National where 70 percent of the stock is held by one owner results in a very limited market for the stock, and a sale is accordingly desirable where a fair price can be obtained; that the sale price of $141 per share was fixed in relation to bid and ask quotations of 140–143 for National as of the date of negotiation, is approximately equal to the capital and surplus of National, and is the approximate value at which Casualty carries said stock upon its books. Applicant further represents that the further acquisition of Assurance stock for the Trust Fund portfolio at current market prices is a desirable investment; that additional purchases are being made by it when the stock becomes available; and that the purchase price of $144 per share was fixed in relation to bid and ask quotations for Assurance of 145–149 as of the date of negotiation. Applicant represents that the Trust Fund will be enabled to invest quickly a portion of the proceeds of the sale of the National stock in a desirable security.

Applicant and Casualty are affiliated persons as defined in the Act; hence the proposed transactions between them would be prohibited under section 17(a) unless the Commission grants an exemption pursuant to section 17(b). Section 17(a) of the Act, with certain exceptions, prohibits an affiliated person of a registered investment company from purchasing from or selling to such registered investment company or any company controlled by such registered company any security or other property. Under section 17(b) of the Act, the Commission shall grant an exemption from section 17(a) if it finds that the terms of the proposed transaction, including the consideration to be paid, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned, and that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of the registered investment company concerned, as recited in its registration statement and reports filed under the Act, and with the general purposes of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 7, 1960 at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule O–5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the showing contained in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion.

By the Commission.

Bernard, 53 State Street, Boston, Mass. It is asserted that subsequent litigation before this Commission resulted in the correction of petitioner's "grandfather" certificates to reflect its true and authorized operation, which removed the basis upon which the said conviction was obtained. Petitioner claims that the said conviction was due to improper representations to the court by this Commission. It requests, among other things, that a declaratory order be entered ruling on "The duty of this Commission and its staff to 'correct' Federal court records where baseless criminal charges were placed before a court." Any person or persons desiring to oppose the relief sought, may, within 30 days from the date of this publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, file an appropriate pleading.

Title 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter X—Oil Import Administration, Department of the Interior

[Oil Import Reg. 1 (Revision 2) Admt. 1]

REFINERY INPUTS

Definition

Paragraph (1) of section 22 of Oil Import Regulation 1 (Revision 2) (25 F.R. 4957) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 22 Definitions.

(l) "Refinery inputs" include all crude oil, imported unfinished oils, natural gasoline mixed in crude oil, and plant and field condensates mixed in crude oil, which are further processed, other than by blending by mechanical means, but (1) do not include unfinished oils which have not been imported, and (2) for the purposes of computing allocations under section 10 or section 11 of this regulation do not include crude oil and unfinished oils imported into the United States by pipeline, rail, or other means of overland transportation from the country where they were produced, which country, in the case of unfinished oils, is also the country of production of the crude oils from which the unfinished oils were processed or manufactured.

By explicitly relating the exclusion in clause (2) to the computation of allocations under section 10 and section 11, this amendment is designed to correct an earlier effort to bring the definition of "refinery inputs" into conformity with the revisions made in paragraph (c) of section 1 of Presidential Proclamation 3279 by Proclamation 3290 (24 F.R. 3527). Through inadvertence, the exclusion in clause (2) of the present definition appears also to apply to the requirements stated in section 4 respecting eligibility for allocations. Therefore, notice of proposed rule making is deemed unnecessary and this amendment shall become effective immediately.

ELMER F. BENNETT,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

JUNE 22, 1960.

Accordingly these regulations shall become effective on July 1, 1960.

Subpart C—Taxes

Spirits

§ 201.21 Tax.

A tax is imposed by section 5001, I.R.C., on all spirits in bond or produced in or imported into the United States at the rate prescribed in such section on each proof gallon or wine gallon when below 100 degrees of proof and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof gallon or wine gallon. Wines containing more than 24 percent of alcohol by volume are taxed as spirits, and all products of distillation, by whatever name known, which contain spirits, on which the tax imposed by law has not been paid, are considered and taxed as spirits.

(72 Stat. 1314; 26 U.S.C. 5001)

§ 201.22 Attachment of tax.

Under the provisions of section 5001 (b), I.R.C., the tax attaches to spirits as soon as such substance comes into existence as such, whether it be subsequently separated as pure or impure spirits, or be immediately, or at any subsequent time, transferred into any other substance, either in the process of original production, or by any subsequent process.

(72 Stat. 1314; 26 U.S.C. 5001)

§ 201.23 Lien.

(a) General. Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, the tax on the spirits becomes under the law (section 5004, I.R.C.) a first lien on the spirits distilled, on the distillery used for producing the spirits, and stills, vessels, and fixtures therein, the lot or tract of land on which such distillery is situated, and on any building thereon, from the time the spirits come into existence as such. In the case of a plant producing spirits, the premises subject to lien comprise the bonded premises of such plant, any building containing any part of the bonded premises, and land on which such building is situated, as described in the application for registration.

(b) Exception during term of bond. No lien attaches to any lot or tract of land, distillery, building, or distilling apparatus, described in paragraph (a) of this section, by reason of distilling done during any period included within the term of an indemnity bond given as provided in § 201.200.

(c) Conditions under which extinguished. Section 5004, I.R.C., sets forth the conditions under which such first lien on the spirits and first lien on the other property described in paragraph (a) of this section shall be terminated or discharged.

(72 Stat. 1317; 26 U.S.C. 5004)

§ 201.24 Certificate of discharge of lien.

Any person claiming any interest in the property subject to lien under section 5004(b)(1), I.R.C., may apply to the assistant regional commissioner for a duly acknowledged certificate to the effect that such lien is discharged and if the assistant regional commissioner determines that such lien is extinguished, he shall issue such certificate, and any such certificate may be recorded.

(72 Stat. 1317; 26 U.S.C. 5004)

§ 201.25 Persons liable for tax.

(a) Distilling. Section 5005, I.R.C., provides that the distiller of spirits is liable for the tax thereon and that every proprietor or possessor of, and any person in any manner interested in the use of, any still, distilling apparatus, or distillery, shall be jointly and severally liable for the tax on distilled spirits produced therefrom: Provided, That a person, not an officer or director of a corporate proprietor, owning or having the right of control of not more than 10 percent of any class of stock of such proprietor, is not liable by reason of such stock ownership or control: Provided further, That (1) when spirits are transferred in bond persons so liable for the tax are relieved of such liability if (i) the proprietors of transferring and receiving premises are independent of each other and neither has a proprietary interest, directly or indirectly, in the business of the other and (ii) no person so liable for the tax on the spirits transferred retains any interest in such spirits, and (2) when spirits are withdrawn on determination of tax under withdrawal bond the persons so liable for the tax are relieved of such liability if (i) the person withdrawing such spirits and the person or persons so liable for the tax are independent of each other and neither has a proprietary interest, directly or indirectly, in the business of the other, and (ii) all persons so liable for the tax have divested themselves of all interest in the spirits so withdrawn. The relief provisions of this paragraph shall apply to spirits transferred in bond, whether such transfers occurred prior to, or on, or after July 1, 1959, but shall not apply in any case in which the tax was paid or determined prior to such date.

(b) Storage on bonded premises. Section 5005(c), I.R.C., provides that every person operating bonded premises shall be liable for the tax on all spirits while the spirits are stored on such premises, and on all spirits which are in transit to such premises (from the time of removal from the transferor's bonded premises) pursuant to application made by him. Such liability for the tax continues until the spirits are transferred or withdrawn from bonded premises as authorized by law, or until such liability for tax is relieved under the provisions of section 5008(a), I.R.C. Claims for relief from liability for spirits lost on bonded premises are provided for in § 201.43. Voluntary destruction of spirits in bond is provided for in Subpart R of this part.

(c) Withdrawals without payment of tax. Pursuant to section 5005(e), I.R.C., any person who withdraws spirits from the bonded premises of a plant without payment of tax, as provided in section 5214, I.R.C., shall be liable for the tax on such spirits from the time of such withdrawal. Such persons shall be relieved of any such liability at the time, as the case may be, the spirits are exported, deposited in a foreign-trade zone, used in production of wine, deposited in a customs manufacturing bonded warehouse, or laden as supplies upon or used in the maintenance or repair of certain vessels or aircraft, as provided by law.

(d) Withdrawals free of tax. Persons liable for tax under paragraph (a) of this section are relieved of such liability as to spirits withdrawn from bonded premises free of tax under this part at the time such spirits are so withdrawn.

(e) Withdrawals on tax determination. Pursuant to section 5005(c)(3), I.R.C., any person who gives a withdrawal bond, as provided for in section 5174, I.R.C., shall be liable for the tax on spirits withdrawn on determination of tax from bonded premises by him under such bond from the time of such withdrawal.

(72 Stat. 1318; 26 U.S.C. 5005)

§ 201.26 Time for tax determination.

The tax on spirits in bond shall be determined when the spirits are withdrawn therefrom, and in the case of spirits withdrawn from bonded premises, upon completion of the gauge for determination of tax and before withdrawal from such premises. In any case, such tax shall be determined (except as to spirits (a) of 190 degrees or more of proof, (b) denatured spirits or (c) spirits which on July 26, 1936, were 8 years of age or older and which were in bonded warehouses on that date) as to spirits entered for deposit in storage in internal revenue bond, within 20 years from the date of original entry for such deposit.

(72 Stat. 1320; 26 U.S.C. 5006)

Rums or Fruit Brandies

§ 201.27 Tax on blends of rums or fruit brandies.

In addition to the tax imposed by section 5001, I.R.C., a tax is imposed by section 5023, I.R.C., at the rate prescribed therein on each proof gallon and at a proportionate rate on fractions thereof, in the case of rums or fruit brandies mixed or blended on bonded premises pursuant to section 5234(c), I.R.C., and Subpart J of this part, and withdrawn from bonded premises, except that the tax does not apply where such spirits (a) have been aged in wood at least 2 years at the time of their first blending or mixing, or (b) are withdrawn free of tax or without payment of tax as provided in section 5214 or 7510, I.R.C.

Rectified Products

§ 201.28 Rectification tax.

A tax is imposed by section 5021, I.R.C., at the rate prescribed therein, on each proof gallon and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts thereof (in addition to the other taxes imposed by chapter 51, I.R.C.) on spirits and wines which are rectified, purified, or refined in such manner, and on all mixtures produced in such manner, that the person so rectifying, purifying, refining, or mixing the same is a rectifier (as defined in section 5082, I.R.C.): Provided, That a rectifier shall not twice be required to pay such tax because of separate acts of rectification of a lot of spirits or wines, pursuant to an approved formula, between the time the spirits or wines are received on bottling premises and the time they are removed therefrom: Provided further, That if any additional acts of rectification performed before removal from the premises, pursuant to approved formula, result in increasing the taxable quantity of the product, the rectifier is required to pay additional rectification tax on such quantity. Transfers from one proprietor to another (including transfers between alternate proprietors) are deemed to be removals from bottling premises for the purpose of this section. If products which have been subjected to taxable rectification are in process at the time of discontinuance of business or at the time of transfer between proprietors (including transfers between alternate proprietors) the tax shall be paid by the outgoing proprietor, and if such products are subjected to further taxable rectification by another proprietor the tax shall again be paid.

(72 Stat. 1328, 1338; 26 U.S.C. 5021, 5082)

However, no such proprietor shall have more than one place of sale, as to each plant, that shall be exempt from special tax under this section.

(b) Place of exemption. Unless the exemption is claimed elsewhere by the proprietor, it will be presumed that the exemption is claimed at the plant where the spirits or wines are stored. If the proprietor wishes to be exempt from payment of special tax for sales at his principal business office rather than for sales at his plant, he shall notify the assistant regional commissioner of the region in which the plant is located of his intention. Such notice shall be in writing on letter size paper and shall be submitted in triplicate. On approval, two copies of the notice will be returned to the proprietor, one to be filed at the plant and the other to be filed at the principal office, and the original will be retained by the assistant regional commissioner. Where the exemption is claimed for a place other than the plant, special tax shall be paid at the plant if sales are made thereat.

§ 201.37 Spirits not removed from bond at end of bonding period.

Where the proprietor of a bonded warehouse fails to file application for the withdrawal of spirits and withdraw the spirits within the time prescribed by § 201.26, the assigned officer will cause the tax to be determined on the spirits and forward a report to the assistant regional commissioner in order that the tax may be assessed.

(72 Stat. 1320; 26 U.S.C. 5006)

§ 201.38 Assessment in cases of spirits lost or destroyed in bond, or in cases of unauthorized removals.

Where spirits (including denatured spirits) in bond are lost or destroyed (except spirits in respect of which the tax is not collectible by reason of the provisions of section 5008 (a) or (f), I.R.C.) and the proprietor or other person liable for the tax on the spirits fails to file a claim for remission as provided in § 201.43(a) or when such claim is denied, the tax thereon shall be assessed. In any case where spirits in bond, on which the tax has not been paid or determined as provided by this part, are removed from bonded premises other than as authorized by law, the tax shall be assessed. Tax shall also be assessed in the case of losses under circumstances described in section 5006(b), I.R.C., with respect to casks or packages of spirits deposited in storage in bond or spirits filled on bonded premises into casks or packages after entry and deposit, when the tax is not paid upon the demand of the assistant regional commissioner.

A tax is imposed by section 5041, I.R.C., on wines (including imitation, substandard, or artificial wine, and compounds sold as wine) produced in or imported into the United States. Proprietors may, as provided in §§ 201.40, 201.41, and 201.42, become liable for wine taxes in connection with (a) the manufacture of wine products, (b) an increase in the volume of wine, or (c) a change in the taxable grade of wine.

(72 Stat. 1331; 26 U.S.C. 5041)

§ 201.40 Manufacture of wine products.

(a) Vermouth. Vermouth made on bottling premises is subject to the rectification tax, and the wine tax imposed by section 5041, I.R.C.

(b) Carbonated and sparkling wine. Wines carbonated on bottling premises by secondary fermentation (bulk or bottle process) or artificially carbonated on bottling premises with carbon dioxide are subject to the rectification tax and the wine tax imposed by section 5041, I.R.C., on sparkling wine or artificially carbonated wine, as the case may be.

(c) Distinct products. Where the rectifying, mixing, compounding, or blending of wine on bottling promises results in the manufacture of a distinct product, such as aperitif or effervescent wine, the rectification tax, and the wine tax at the rate imposed by section 5041, I.R.C., shall be paid.

(72 Stat. 1328, 1331; 26 U.S.C. 5021, 5041)

(72 Stat. 1328, 1331; 26 U.S.C. 5021, 5041)

§ 201.42 Increasing taxable grade of wine.

(a) Blended wines. Where the taxable grade of any wine is increased by blending with other wines, additional wine tax shall be paid, regardless of whether the blended wine is subject to the rectification tax or exempt from such tax. The additional wine tax due is the difference between the wine tax on the blended wine under its new taxable grade and the tax previously paid or determined on the wines used for such blending.

(b) Compounded wines. Except as provided in § 201.30, the product of any rectifying, mixing, or compounding of wine with distilled spirits is subject to the rectification tax imposed by section 5021, I.R.C., and where such processing results in an increase in the taxable grade of a product taxable as wine, additional wine tax shall be paid on the difference between the wine tax due on the product under its new taxable grade and the tax previously paid or determined on the wines used therein.

Subpart D—Administrative and Miscellaneous Provisions

AUTHORITIES OF THE DIRECTOR

§ 201.61 Forms prescribed.

The Director is authorized to prescribe all forms required by this part. All of the information called for in each form shall be furnished, as indicated by the headings on the form and the instructions thereon or issued in respect thereto, and as required by this part.

(72 Stat. 1361; 26 U.S.C. 5207)

§ 201.62 Alternate methods or procedures; and emergency variations from requirements.

(a) Alternate methods or procedures. The proprietor, on specific approval by the Director as provided in this paragraph, may use an alternate method or procedure in lieu of a method or procedure specifically prescribed in this part. The Director may approve an alternate method or procedure, subject to stated conditions, when he finds that—

(1) Good cause has been shown for the use of the alternate method or procedure:

(2) The alternate method or procedure is within the purpose of, and consistent with the effect intended by, the specifically prescribed method or procedure, and affords equivalent security to the revenue; and

(3) The alternate method or procedure will not be contrary to any provision of law, and will not result in an increase in cost to the Government or hinder the effective administration of this part.

No alternate method or procedure relating to the giving of any bond or to the assessment, payment, or collection of tax, shall be authorized under this paragraph. Where the proprietor desires to employ an alternate method or procedure, he shall submit a written application so to do, in triplicate, to the assistant regional commissioner, for transmittal to the Director. The application shall specifically describe the proposed alternate method or procedure, and shall set forth the reasons therefor. Alternate methods or procedures shall not be employed until the application has been approved by the Director. The proprietor shall, during the period of authorization of an alternate method or procedure, comply with the terms of the approved application. Authorization for any alternate method or procedure may be withdrawn whenever in the judgment of the Director the revenue is jeopardized or the effective administration of this part is hindered by the continuation of such authorization. As used in this paragraph, alternate methods or procedures shall include alternate construction or equipment.

(b) Emergency variations from requirements. The Director may approve construction, equipment, and methods of operation other than as specified in this part, where he finds that an emergency exists and the proposed variations from the specified requirements are necessary, and the proposed variations—

(1) Will afford the security and protection to the revenue intended by the prescribed specifications;

(2) Will not hinder the effective administration of this part; and

(3) Will not be contrary to any provisions of law.

Variations from requirements granted under this paragraph are conditioned on compliance with the procedures, conditions, and limitations with respect thereto set forth in the approval of the application. Failure to comply in good faith with such procedures, conditions, and limitations shall automatically terminate the authority for such variations and the proprietor thereupon shall fully comply with the prescribed requirements of regulations from which the variations were authorized. Authority for any variation may be withdrawn whenever in the judgment of the Director the revenue is jeopardized or the effective administration of this part is hindered by the continuation of such variation. Where the proprietor desires to employ such variation, he shall submit a written application so to do, in triplicate, to the assistant regional commissioner for transmittal to the Director. The application shall describe the proposed variations and set forth the reasons therefor. Variations shall not be employed until the application has been approved.

§ 201.63 Pilot operations.

The Director may waive any regulatory provisions of chapter 51, I.R.C., and of the regulations in this part, for temporary pilot or experimental operations for the purpose of facilitating the development and testing of improved methods of governmental supervision (necessary for the protection of the revenue) over plants. For this purpose, the Director may, with the approval of the proprietor thereof, designate any plant for such operations. The provision of law and regulations waived and the period of time during which such waiver shall continue shall be stated in writing by the Director. The provisions of this section shall not be construed as authority to waive the filing of any bond or the payment of any tax provided for in chapter 51, I.R.C.

(72 Stat. 1395; 26 U.S.C. 5554)

§ 201.64 Experimental distilled spirits plant.

The Director may authorize the establishment and operation of experimental plants for specific and limited periods of time solely for experimentation in, or development of—

(a) Sources of materials from which spirits may be produced;

(b) Processes by which spirits may be produced or refined; or

(c) Industrial uses of spirits.

The Director may waive any provision of chapter 51, I.R.C., (other than section 5312, I.R.C.), and of this part (other than this section and § 201.65) to the extent he deems necessary to effectuate the purposes of section 5312(b), I.R.C., except that he may not waive the payment of any tax on spirits removed from such plant.

(72 Stat. 1375; 26 U.S.C. 5312)

§ 201.65 Application to establish experimental plants.

Any person desiring to establish an experimental plant shall make written application, in triplicate, to the Director, through the assistant regional commissioner, and obtain the Director's approval of the proposed establishment. The applicant shall file with such application a bond in such form and penal sum as required by the Director. Such application shall state the nature, extent, and purpose of the operations to be conducted and describe the processes and equipment, the location of the plant (including the proximity to other premises or operations subject to the provisions of chapter 51, I.R.C.) and the security measures to be provided. The Director may require the submission of such additional information as he deems necessary. The assistant regional commissioner shall not permit operations until he has found that the plant conforms to the specifications set forth in the application, as approved, and the applicant has complied with provisions of chapter 51, I.R.C., and this part not specifically waived by the Director.

(72 Stat. 1375; 26 U.S.C. 5312)

§ 201.66 Spirits produced in industrial processes.

Persons producing spirits in industrial processes (including spirits produced as a by-product in connection with chemical or other processes) are distillers and are required to qualify under the provisions of chapter 51, I.R.C., and this part. Where nonpotable chemical mixtures containing spirits are produced (a) for transfer to the bonded premises of a distilled spirits plant for completion of processing (distilling), or (b) as a by-product (which would require expensive and complex equipment for the recovery of spirits therefrom) (1) which is destroyed on the premises where produced, or (2) which contains the minimum quantity of spirits practicable with the process employed and will not be further processed for the purification or removal of the spirits and which the Director finds is as nonpotable as completely denatured alcohol and the recovery of spirits therefrom would be at least as difficult as the recovery of spirits from completely denatured alcohol, the Director may waive any provision of chapter 51, I.R.C., or this part, with respect to the production of such mixture, including any provision relating to qualification. Where the producer of such nonpotable mixtures desires to secure a waiver of any of such provisions he shall file an application therefor with the Director through the assistant regional commissioner. The application shall set out the name and address of the producer, the chemical composition and source of the nonpotable mixture, and the approximate percentages of the chemicals and of the spirits in the mixture, the method of operation proposed, and, if applicable, the bonded premises whereat the mixture will be processed, and such other information as the Director may require. If the Director finds that the waiver of the requirements, or any of them, will not jeopardize the revenue and will not unduly hinder supervision of the operations, he may approve the application under such terms and conditions as he deems advisable, and subject to the furnishing of any bond which he deems necessary.

(72 Stat. 1356; 26 U.S.C. 5201)

§ 201.67 Other businesses.

The Director may authorize the carrying on of such other businesses (not specifically prohibited by section 5601(a)(6), I.R.C.) on premises of plants (except in the rooms or buildings on bonded premises authorized for use for the storage of spirits in casks, packages, cases, or similar portable containers) as he finds will not jeopardize the revenue, hinder effective administration of this part, or be contrary to law. Such authorization shall designate the premises (i.e., bonded, bottling, or general) on which such other business is authorized to be conducted.

(72 Stat. 1353; 26 U.S.C. 5178)

§ 201.68 Recovery and reuse of denatured spirits in manufacturing processes.

The following persons are not, by reasons of the activities listed below, subject to the provisions of this part but they shall comply with the provisions of Part 211 of this chapter relating to the use and recovery of spirits or denatured spirits:

(a) Manufacturers who use denatured spirits, or articles or substances containing denatured spirits in a process wherein any part or all of the spirits, including denatured spirits, are recovered.

(b) Manufacturers who use denatured spirits in the production of chemicals which do not contain spirits but which are used on the permit premises in the manufacture of other chemicals resulting in spirits as a by-product.

(c) Manufacturers who use chemicals or substances which do not contain spirits or denatured spirits (but which were manufactured with specially denatured spirits) in a process resulting in spirits as a by-product.

(72 Stat. 1372; 26 U.S.C. 5373)

§ 201.69 Disaster exemptions.

The Director may, whenever he finds that it is necessary or desirable, by reason of disaster, temporarily exempt the proprietor of any plant from any provision of the internal revenue laws and this part relating to spirits, except those requiring the payment of tax on spirits, to the extent he may deem necessary or desirable.

(72 Stat. 1397; 26 U.S.C. 5562)

§ 201.70 Exemptions to meet the requirements of National defense.

The Director may temporarily exempt proprietors from any provision of the internal revenue laws or this part relating to spirits except those requiring payment of tax thereon whenever in his judgment it is expedient to do so to meet the requirements of the National defense.

(72 Stat. 1397; 26 U.S.C. 5561)

§ 201.71 Discontinuance of storage facilities by the Director.

When the Director finds that any facilities for the storage of spirits on bonded premises are unsafe or unfit for use, or the spirits contained therein are subject to great loss or wastage, he may require the discontinuance of the use of such facilities and require the spirits contained therein to be transferred to such other storage facilities as he may designate. Such transfer shall be made at such time and under such supervision as the Director may require and the expense of the transfer shall be paid by the owner or the warehouseman of the spirits. Whenever the owner of such spirits or the warehouseman fails to make such transfer within the time prescribed or to pay the just and proper expense of such transfer, as ascertained and determined by the Director, such spirits may be seized and sold in the same manner as goods sold on distraint for taxes, and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied to the payment of the taxes due thereon and the cost and expense of such sale and removal, and the balance shall be paid over to the owner of such spirits.

(72 Stat. 1369; 26 U.S.C. 5236)

§ 201.72 Experimental or research operations by scientific institutions and colleges of learning.

(a) General. The Director may authorize any scientific university, college of learning, or institution of scientific research to produce, receive, blend, treat, test, and store spirits, without payment of tax, for experimental or research use but not for consumption (other than organoleptic tests) or sale, in such quantities as may be reasonably necessary for such purposes. The Director may waive any provision of chapter 51, I.R.C., (other than section 5312, I.R.C.), or this part (other than this section) to the extent he deems necessary to effectuate the purposes of section 5312(a), I.R.C., except he may not waive the payment of any tax on distilled spirits removed from any such university, college, or institution.

(b) Qualification. Any university, college, or institution desiring to conduct any of the experimental or research operations listed in the preceding paragraph shall make written application, in triplicate, to the Director, through the assistant regional commissioner, and obtain the Director's approval of the proposed operations. The applicant shall file with such application a bond in such form and penal sum as required by the Director. The application shall state the nature, extent, and purpose of the operations to be conducted and describe the processes and equipment, the location at which operations will be conducted (including identification of the building or buildings, or the portions thereof to be used), and the security measures to be provided. The Director may require such additional information as he deems necessary. Operations shall not be commenced until authorized by the Director.

(c) Records. Reports concerning the operations need not be submitted unless required by the Director, but records of the quantities of spirits produced, received, and used each day shall be made and retained for inspection by internal revenue officers.

(d) Discontinuance of operations. When operations authorized by the Director are discontinued, all remaining spirits shall be disposed of by destruction. Notice of the proposed destruction shall be given to the assistant regional commissioner at least 5 days in advance of the destruction. When these spirits have been destroyed notice of the discontinuance of operations shall be given to the assistant regional commissioner.

(72 Stat. 1375; 26 U.S.C. 5312)

AUTHORITIES OF THE ASSISTANT REGIONAL COMMISSIONER

§ 201.73 Other businesses.

Application to conduct at a plant (except in the rooms or buildings on bonded premises authorized for use for the storage of spirits in casks, packages, cases, or similar portable containers) a type of business other than that of a distiller, bonded warehouseman, rectifier, or bottler may be approved by the assistant regional commissioner if the Director has, as provided in § 201.67, authorized the carrying on of a business of the type proposed, unless the assistant regional commissioner finds that there are particular conditions in respect of the applicant's plant that would cause the carrying on of such business to be a danger to the revenue or a hindrance to the effective administration of this part.

(72 Stat. 1353; 26 U.S.C. 5178)

§ 201.74 Removal of distilling material.

The assistant regional commissioner may, on receipt of an application therefor, authorize the removal from bonded premises of mash, wort, or wash—

(a) To plant premises, other than bonded premises, for use in such businesses as may be authorized under § 201.73;

(b) To other premises for use in processes of manufacture not involving the production of (1) vinegar by the vaporising process, (2) spirits, or (3) alcoholic beverages; or

(c) For destruction;

if he deems that such removal and use, or method of destruction, will not constitute a jeopardy to the revenue. The proprietor shall record the quantity and alcoholic content of the mash, wort, or wash removed or destroyed. The person receiving any such mash, wort, or wash shall record the quantities (and alcoholic content) received and used or disposed of, and maintain such records on the premises where such material is used; reports of such operations need not be submitted unless required by the assistant regional commissioner. The proof of such spirits to be withdrawn after tax determination shall be determined to the nearest tenth, which shall be used in determining the taxable gallons. The proof of spirits to be transferred in bond or withdrawn from bond in bulk conveyances or by pipeline free of tax or without payment of tax for an authorized purpose shall be determined to the nearest tenth and if not adjusted to a whole degree shall be rounded to a whole degree in accordance with the provisions of Part 186 of this chapter, and such whole degree shall be the proof of transfer or withdrawal and shall be used in determining the proof gallons. The withdrawal or transfer form shall be noted to show the actual proof of the spirits. Spirits in tanks shall be thoroughly agitated before the proof is determined.

(c) Bottling in bond. The proof of spirits to be bottled in bond shall be reduced to 100 degrees for domestic bottling. Spirits may be bottled in bond for export at 80 degrees of proof or more.

(d) Bottling after tax determination. The proof of spirits to be bottled or packaged after tax determination shall be adjusted to a whole degree prior to determination of the rectification tax, if any, and the filling of packages or bottles: Provided, That when such spirits are to be bottled and labeled in tenths of a degree of proof, the proof shall be adjusted to such tenths of a degree, and the fractional degree of proof shall be used in determining the rectification tax.

§ 201.96 Commercial gauging.

The assistant regional commissioner may, pursuant to application by the proprietor, permit the weighing and proofing of specific packages of spirits on bonded premises for purposes such as obtaining data on storage conditions or the results of special production procedures. § 201.112 Bonded warehouses not on production premises.

A bonded warehouse, other than one established on bonded premises of a plant qualified for production of spirits, or one contiguous to a distillery operated by the bonded warehouseman, may be established only if the need therefor is clearly shown and the prospective needs of the warehouseman will be for the bonded storage of not less than 250,000 wine gallons of spirits: Provided, That where commercial bonded warehouse facilities are not available in an area and it is impractical to have a warehouse of such capacity, the Director may approve the establishment of a warehouse without regard to the minimum storage requirements. The application for registration to establish a warehouse under the provisions of this section shall be accompanied by a separate written application, in triplicate, setting forth the necessity for the establishment of the warehouse, showing the approximate quantity of spirits that will be received, stored, and withdrawn annually, the probable number of depositors of spirits, and the approximate number of persons to be served from the warehouse, together with any other data or documents indicating the prospective volume of business or need for establishment. The application for registration shall not be approved if the proposed location of the warehouse would constitute a jeopardy to the revenue, satisfactory evidence of the need for establishment of the warehouse has not been submitted, or the prospective volume of business would be insufficient to warrant the expense of supervision by internal revenue officers. The Director may limit the type of operation, such as, for bulk storage only, for package storage only, or for bulk storage and denaturing only, which may be conducted at a bonded warehouse which is to be established without regard to the minimum storage requirements. The proprietor of a bonded warehouse established for a limited type of operation shall not, in any manner, expand or change his operation to include any other type of operations until, pursuant to written application to make such change, he has obtained the approval of the Director.

§ 201.118 Location of bonded and bottling premises.

Bottling premises shall not be located on the bonded premises of a plant. Where bonded premises and bottling premises are located in the same building, doors and other openings affording intercommunication between such premises shall be permitted only where the assistant regional commissioner finds that the revenue will not be jeopardized thereby. Such general premises may not be used for any of the operations required to be conducted on bonded or bottling premises. Business offices and service facilities may be included as a part of such general premises and such premises may be utilized for the conduct of such other business as may be authorized for such premises under the provisions of section 5178(b), I.R.C.

(a) Bear a distinctive title;

(b) Be numbered in consecutive order, the first sheet being designated number 1; and

(c) Have a clear margin of not less than 1 inch on each side and have outside measurements of 15 by 20 inches: Provided, That the assistant regional commissioner may authorize the use of larger sheets if they can be satisfactorily filed.

Plats and plans shall be submitted on tracing cloth, sensitized linen, or blueprint paper, and may be original drawings, or, if clear and distinct, reproductions made by lithoprint, ditto, or ozalid processes. The director may approve other materials and methods which he finds are equally acceptable.

The delineation of these premises shall agree with the description given in the application for registration. The plat shall show (a) all buildings on the plant premises, (b) all basic equipment (including tanks and stills) not located in buildings, and (c) all driveways, public thoroughfares, and railroad rights-of-way contiguous to, connecting, or separating the plant premises. Each building, enclosed area, and outside tank shall be identified. Each pipeline for the conveyance of spirits to and from the premises of the plant, and between bonded and bottling premises, shall be shown on the plat in blue, and each pipeline for the conveyance of denatured spirits to and from the premises of the plant shall be shown on the plat in green: Provided, That in lieu of such colors, the pipelines may be identified by symbols which permit ready identification of their uses. The purpose for which such pipelines are used and the points of origin and termination shall be indicated on the plat. Where premises on which spirits, wines, or beer are manufactured, stored, or sold are contiguous to a plant, the plat shall show the relative location of the plant and such contiguous premises, and all pipelines and other connections between them (public utility pipelines and similar connections excepted). The outline of such contiguous premises and of the plant shall be shown in contrasting colors. Where a plant consists of less than an entire building, the plat shall show the building, and the land on which such building is situated. Where a plant consists of, or includes, one or more floors or rooms of a building that is not wholly included in the plant, the floors or rooms so used shall be shown on a floor plan. Each floor plan shall show the location and dimensions of the floors or rooms, the means of ingress and egress, and, insofar as required on plats by this section, pipelines and contiguous premises. Where construction of floors or rooms is identical, a typical plan of such floors or rooms will be acceptable. Where the floor plan shows the entire plant and includes all the information required by a plat, such plan may be accepted in lieu of a plat.

If such surviving partner acquires the business on completion of the settlement of the partnership, he shall qualify in his own name from the date of acquisition, as provided in § 201.164(a). OPERATIONS BY ALTERNATING PROPRIETORS

§ 201.174 Procedure for alternating proprietors.

(a) General. A plant, or any part thereof which is suitable for qualification as a separate plant, may be operated alternately by proprietors who have filed and received approval of the necessary bonds and applications for registration, and have otherwise qualified under the provisions of this subpart. Where operations by alternating proprietors are limited to parts of the plant, the notice of registration shall describe the areas or facilities, or combination thereof, which will be alternated, and shall be accompanied by special plats designating the parts of the plant which are to be alternated. A special plat shall be submitted for each arrangement, other than that reflected by the basic plat, under which the premises will be operated. Once such qualifying documents have been approved, and initial operations have been conducted thereunder, the plant, or parts thereof, may be alternated pursuant to approval by the assigned officer of the proprietors' applications on Form 2610. Any transfer of spirits from the outgoing proprietor to the incoming proprietor shall be indicated on Form 2610 filed by each proprietor. Operation of production facilities on bonded premises by an alternating proprietor shall be for one or more calendar days.

(b) Production facilities. Distilling materials and unfinished spirits in any production facilities to be alternated shall be processed to completion by the outgoing proprietor unless transferred to the incoming proprietor. All finished spirits shall be marked and removed by the outgoing proprietor in the name in which produced, before production gauge is made of any spirits by the incoming proprietor. Denatured spirits shall be removed from production facilities by the outgoing proprietor unless transferred to the incoming proprietor or retained in tanks under Government lock. Where denatured spirits are to be retained in tanks, the outgoing proprietor shall execute a consent of surety on Form 1533 to continue liability on the qualification bond for the tax on such spirits retained in the facilities, notwithstanding the change in proprietorship.

(c) Bonded warehousing facilities. Spirits contained in any bonded warehousing facility to be alternated shall be transferred to the incoming proprietor on Form 236 (accompanying forms not required). The outgoing proprietor shall execute a consent of surety on Form 1533 to continue in effect the qualification bond whenever operation of the facility is to be resumed by him following suspension of operations by an alternate proprietor.

(d) Bottling premises. Operations on bottling premises shall be completely finished and all spirits and wines removed from such premises prior to the change in proprietorship: Provided, That (1) spirits and wines on hand, including those in the process of rectification, may be transferred to the incoming proprietor, or (2) the spirits and wines may be retained, under lock, but in such case the outgoing proprietor shall (unless qualification bond is not required for the plant) execute a consent of surety on Form 1533 to continue the liability on the qualification bond for the tax on such spirits and wines retained on the premises notwithstanding the change in proprietorship. Products subject to tax under the provisions of sections 5021 and 5022, I.R.C., (including partially rectified products) which are being transferred to a successor shall be taxpaid by the outgoing proprietor.

(e) Records. Each proprietor shall maintain separate records and submit separate reports. In the case of spirits in bonded warehousing facilities, the deposit records for the outgoing proprietor shall be used for the incoming proprietor. All transfers of distilling materials, spirits, and wines shall be reflected in the records of each proprietor.

ALTERNATE OPERATIONS

§ 201.175 Alternating bottling facilities between bonded and bottling premises.

Bottling facilities may be used either for the bottling in bond of spirits or for the rectification and bottling, or bottling, of taxpaid spirits where the proprietor has filed, and the assistant regional commissioner has approved, (a) an application for registration, Form 2607, to cover such operation, and (b) a special plat to designate the premises which are to be alternated. When areas of the bottling facilities are to be alternated, the proprietor shall file a drawing or diagram, in triplicate, clearly depicting all rooms, tanks, and spirits lines which are susceptible to alternation, in their relative operating sequence; all such rooms and equipment shall be individually identified by number or letter. Once such qualifying documents have been approved, the bottling facilities or parts thereof (identified by the numbers or letters shown on the drawing or diagram) may be alternated pursuant to approval by the assigned officer of the proprietor's application on Form 2610, after all in-bond spirits, or taxpaid spirits and other ingredients used in rectifying processes (if any), as the case may be, are removed from the premises or part thereof to be alternated in opposite status.

(72 Stat. 1349; 26 U.S.C. 5172)

PERMANENT DISCONTINUANCE OF BUSINESS

§ 201.176 Notice of permanent discontinuance.

Where the proprietor permanently discontinues any or all of the businesses listed in his notice of registration, he shall, after completion of the operations, file a Form 2607 to cover such discontinuance. Form 2607 shall be accompanied (a) by all permits issued to the proprietor under this subpart covering the discontinued operations, and by his request that such permits be canceled; (b) by the proprietor's written statement disclosing, as applicable, whether (1) all spirits (including denatured spirits), indicia bottles, strip stamps, and other pertinent items have been lawfully disposed of, (2) any spirits (including denatured spirits), indicia bottles, or strip stamps are in transit to the premises, (3) all approved applications for transfer of spirits (including denatured spirits) to the premises have been secured and returned to the assistant regional commissioner for cancellation; and (c) by pertinent monthly reports covering the discontinued operations (each such report shall be marked "Final Report").

Such bond shall be conditioned that he shall faithfully comply with all provisions of law and regulations relating to the duties and business of a distiller, bonded warehouseman, or rectifier, as the case may be (including the payment of taxes imposed by chapter 51, I.R.C.), and shall pay all penalties incurred or fines imposed on him for violation of any such provisions. The assistant regional commissioner may require, in connection with any bond on Form 2601, a statement, executed under the penalties of perjury, as to whether the principal or any person owning, controlling, or actively participating in the management of the business of the principal has been convicted of or has compromised any offense set forth in § 201.198(a) or has been convicted of any offense set forth in § 201.198(b). In the event the above statement contains an affirmative answer, the applicant shall submit a statement describing in detail the circumstances surrounding such conviction or compromise. Once every four years, and as provided in § 201.213, a new bond, Form 2601, shall be executed and filed in accordance with the provisions of this subpart. No person shall commence or continue the business of a distiller, bonded warehouseman, or rectifier, unless he has a valid bond, Form 2601 (and consent of surety, if necessary), as required in respect of such business by this part.

§ 201.192 Additional condition of distiller's bond.

In addition to the requirements of § 201.191, the distiller's bond shall be conditioned that he shall not suffer the property, or any part thereof, subject to lien under section 5004(b)(1), I.R.C., to be encumbered by any lien during the time in which he shall carry on such business, except that this condition shall not apply during the term of an indemnity bond given under the provisions of § 201.200.

§ 201.197 Authority to approve bonds and consents of surety.

Assistant regional commissioners are authorized to approve all bonds and consents of surety required by this part.

§ 201.198 Disapproval of bonds or consents of surety.

The assistant regional commissioner may disapprove any bond or consent of surety submitted in respect to the business of a distiller, bonded warehouseman, or rectifier, if the principal or any person owning, controlling, or actively participating in the management of the business of the principal shall have been previously convicted, in a court of competent jurisdiction of—

(b) Any felony under a law of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or the United States, prohibiting the manufacture, sale, importation, or transportation of spirits, wine, beer, or other intoxicating liquor.

Further, no bond of a distiller shall be approved unless the assistant regional commissioner is satisfied that the situation of the land and building which will constitute his bonded premises (as described in his application for registration, Form 2607) is not such as would enable the distiller to defraud the United States, and unless: (1) The distiller is the owner in fee, unencumbered by any mortgage, judgment, or other lien, of the lot or tract of land subject to lien under section 5004(b)(1), I.R.C.; or (2) the distiller files a consent, Form 1602, of the owner of the fee, and of any mortgagee, judgment creditor, or other person having a lien thereon, in accordance with the provisions of §§ 201.151 and 201.152; or (3) the distiller files an indemnity bond, Form 3A, in accordance with the provisions of § 201.200.

§ 201.200 Indemnity bond, Form 3A.

A proprietor of a plant qualified for the production of spirits may furnish bond on Form 3A to stand in lieu of future liens imposed under section 5004(b)(1), I.R.C., and no lien shall attach to any lot or tract of land, distillery, building, or distilling apparatus by reason of distilling done during any period included within the term of any such bond. Where an indemnity bond has been furnished on Form 3A in respect of a plant, the requirements of this part relating to the filing of consents on Forms 1602 and bonds on Forms 1617 are not applicable in respect to such plant.

(72 Stat. 1317, 1349; 26 U.S.C. 5004, 5173)

Where a lien is imposed on the distiller's property under section 5004(b)(1), I.R.C., or where any similar lien has been imposed under prior provisions of internal revenue law, the distiller may, pursuant to application to, and approval by, the assistant regional commissioner, file consent, Form 2602, to further condition the bond, Form 3A, furnished under the provisions of § 201.200, to stand in lieu of such lien or liens and to indemnify the United States for the payment of all taxes and penalties which otherwise could be asserted against such property by reason of such lien or liens. When a consent on Form 2602 has been accepted and approved by the assistant regional commissioner, such lien or liens shall be held to be extinguished. The assistant regional commissioner will not accept or approve such consent, Form 2602, if there is any pending litigation or outstanding assessment with respect to such taxes or penalties, or if he has knowledge of any circumstances indicating that such consent is tendered with intent to evade payment or defeat collection of any tax or penalty.

§ 201.203 Indemnity bond for changes in buildings and equipment.

Where buildings on the bonded premises of a plant, or on premises which have been eliminated from the bonded premises, are to be demolished or altered in such a manner as to decrease the value of the property, and a lien for taxes exists on such property under section 5004(b)(1), I.R.C., or where distilling equipment or apparatus on which a lien exists under section 5004(b)(1), I.R.C., is to be removed permanently, without adding property that will become a fixture in law of an equal or greater value than the property to be demolished, altered, or removed, the proprietor shall file with the assistant regional commissioner an indemnity bond on Form 1617. Such bond shall be in a penal sum equal to the appraised value of the property to be demolished, altered, or removed, or equal to the excess in value of the property to be demolished, altered, or removed over the value of the property to be substituted therefor: Provided, That no indemnity bond Form 1617 will be required if such appraised value or difference in value, as the case may be, is less than $5,000: And provided further, That no indemnity bond on Form 1617 will be required to cover the removal of equipment from the bonded premises of one plant to the bonded premises of another plant, if the two premises are controlled by the same interests.
